In Memoriam

Kenneth W. Rice, Esquire
late of the Crawford
County Bar
Entered February 23, 1962

Pro Clayton $10.00

To The Honorable Herbert A. Mook, Judge of Said Court:

Your Committee, appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a Memorial on the death of the late Kenneth W. Rice, respectfully submits the following:

At about 4:20 P.M. Monday, January 22, 1962, at the Port Erie Airport, in a private airplane owned by his client, The Niagara Manufacturing and Distributing Company, while coming in for a landing from a business trip to Buffalo New York, death came suddenly and tragically to our friend and fellow member of the Crawford County Bar, Kenneth W. Rice. He died just five days before he would have been forty-nine years of age.

Kenneth Wallace Rice was born at Cambridge, Pennsylvania on January 27, 1913, a son of Oliver C. and Pearl E. Miller Rice. He was graduated from Meadville High School in the class of 1930, from Allegheny College in the class of 1933 and from the University of Pittsburgh Law School in the class of 1936. Believed to be the youngest attorney ever admitted to practice before the Crawford County Bar he was only twenty-three years of age when admitted to practice on October 12, 1936. He subsequently was admitted to the Pennsylvania Appellate Courts and to the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania. He spent his professional life engaged in the private practice of law in Meadville. He also held responsible posts in public life. In 1940 he was appointed Assistant District attorney by the Honorable Herbert A. Mook, then District attorney of Crawford County. Three years later he was elected District attorney on the Republican ticket and served ably and well for four years. He was also Crawford County Solicitor for ten years and Solicitor for West Mead Township since 1958. Active in Republican Party politics he held several offices in the party and at the time of his tragic death was serving as Ex-officio Chairman of the County Committee.

Mr Rice's activities were broad and varied. He was a member of Stone Methodist Church, Meadville Grange, the Meadville Kiwanis Club and many social clubs and organizations. During the past several years he had been particularly active and interested in the Meadville Country Club plans for expansion.

On the 7th day of September 1934, Mr Rice was married to the former Mary Witte of Cambridge Springs by whom he had two daughters, Cynthia and Barbara, both college students.

On January 20, 1950, he married the former Mary Thelma Montgomery. His widow and two daughters survive him.

Tribute To The Memory Of William Darwin Campbell.

In Open Court on Monday April 9, 1962 at 9:30 o'clock A.M. by the Honorable Herbert A. Mosk.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This is the first session of court we have had with a jury since our court crier, Bill Campbell died. He was our court crier for a period of twenty-five years. I have asked Mr. Collier to relinquish Bill's chair, the seat of the court crier, in order that as we look at the empty chair we will become more fully aware of the great loss we have suffered in his passing.

Bill laid down the gavel for the last time on February 23, 1962 at the conclusion of a Memorial Service for the late Kenneth W. Rice, a member of the bar of Crawford County, who had been tragically killed in an airplane accident on January 22nd. Pursuant to the custom of the Bar Association we had held a special memorial service on that day, and Bill's last official act, then, was to close that session in memory of Ken Rice. He had expected to be present in court the following Monday morning, February 26th, to participate in the sentence court that was to be held that day but unfortunately and tragically, he was stricken with a fatal stroke on Sunday morning, February the 25th and he died on the 15th day of March 1962.

Mr. Campbell had been appointed a tipstaff of this court on January 15, 1936 by Judge Kent, to succeed Mr. W. O. Johnson who at that time was appointed court crier by reason of the death of Mr. Smith Leonard, who had served in that capacity for a long time. On March 20th, 1937 Mr. Campbell was appointed court crier to fill the vacancy which was created by the death of Mr. W. O. Johnson, which appointment was to become effective on the first Monday of April, 1937. So if Bill had lived until last Monday, or the first Monday of April of this year, he would have fulfilled a full twenty-five years of service as court crier of this court.

Interestingly enough, I began to work for the county on the first Monday of January, 1936, or the first Monday of February, 1936 two I at that time began my first term as District Attorney of Crawford County, succeeding Mr. Culbertson, who had served in that capacity for eight years. So Bill and I started to work together. And then a year later, of course as I have already mentioned, he became the court crier, and many of you remember the old court-room and the court crier sat over at the right side of the courtroom near the seat of the District attorney. So we worked together there for eight years and of course I became very well acquainted with him, and a very good friend.

If for no other reason, we start out with a committal to her by the divorce court in Ohio, and we have the presumption that a child of tender years should be committed to his mother.

2. The father shall have reasonable right of visitation at the home of the mother at any time that it is possible for him to be in Cleveland, and these shall not ever be denied by the mother. Such right always to be subject to the best interests of the child, so that normal sleeping hours and school hours and the like shall not be interfered with. And the right of the mother to have the child in her possession on alternate week-ends shall not be infringed, and subject to reasonable advance notice of the proposed visit being given to the mother. In particular, the father shall have the right to take the child on alternate Saturday mornings and keep him until the following evening, returning him to the residence of the mother by at least nine o'clock, normally a little earlier. This will make it possible for the father to go to Cleveland and take the boy to his father's home, or to any place that he wishes, for two full days every other week. Or if he wishes to take the boy from the mother's home and bring him back to Crawford County to his home when the weather is suitable, and return him the following evening.

3. The father shall have the right of custody for two continuous months every summer and may take him to his farm or home and keep him there for that entire period. the father and the daughter shall be welcome visitors so that they can both share the joy of being with the little boy Christmas Eve and the Christmas season, if they wish.

On Christmas, 1963, that situation shall be reversed, and the father shall have the right to have Billie at his home until the day after Christmas, and the mother shall be a welcome visitor in the home at that time. And for the vacation period after the day after Christmas, Billie shall be returned to his mother for the balance of the vacation. Thereafter, the parties shall have Billie for Christmas on alternate years.

Both parents shall fully cooperate to see that this plan of custody and visitation is carried out in good faith. If either shall seriously refuse to cooperate with the other, or shall obstruct the plan of visitations herein laid down, we suggest that the other shall bring another writ of habeas corpus at which the question of custody may be reviewed anew and the refusal to cooperate should be one of the determining factors in the custody of the child at that time.

William Darwin Campbell

Of No 109 May Term 1962.

It was only natural then, when Judge Kent retired and I took his place here that Bill should stay on as my court crier, which he did for more than fourteen years. So over the years we have worked together and had a very close association and needless to say it was a very great shock to me and a very great loss to know that he will no longer be here. And I know my feelings about this are reflected in the minds and hearts of all of our County employees, most of whom are here in this courtroom this morning to join in this brief tribute to Bill Campbell.

Bill was a faithful, able public servant. He lent a great deal to our court. He took the position of court crier and made it a position of dignity. He insisted and demanded on dignity and decorum in the courtroom and he had it, and it added I think, a great deal to the stature of our court. Moreover he was a very personable sort of an individual. It did'nt matter how bad the morning was, it could be just like this morning or many of them even worse and Bill would come in and he would say "Nice morning, Judge, nice morning!" I'd say "Bill, how are you feeling?" "Tip-top, tip-top," that was always the expression. Never complained, never growled about anything always willing to do whatever we asked him to do, never, bucked about a thing. And always here. Over the years, twenty-five years that I have known him, I don't remember but two or two times that he missed being here and then when he was so ill he was unable to be here because of a cold or grippe or something else, and many times he came when he shouldn't have been here when his health demanded that he be home.

He always insisted on doing his full measure of duty, his full job. Sometimes we have two sessions of court here and the Judges always worry and are concerned about what is going on in the other courtroom. Are the attorneys there and the typistes there to take care of matters, is the court reporter on duty, is everything in order; is it hot enough or cold enough, or whatever it may be in the court room, and I would ask Bill "Now, you see to this" and he'd always say, "now don't worry about that Judge, don't worry anything about it, I'll take care of it, I'll see that everything's all right", and he always did. I never had to be concerned about the operation of the court about the things being ready that the court would operate in the way it ought to, because he was always ready and willing to take care of it.

As I mentioned, he was always here and this I want to say in respect to the fact that Mr Campbell was on a salary, he got paid a certain amount per month, but a great deal of course, because the position never was a high-salaried position, but it didn't matter if he was in here a day, he still got paid, but he always came anyway. And lots of times we would have a little brief session of court, maybe just half an hour in the morning, and maybe a session of Juvenile Court, with a couple of cases and I would'nt think it would be necessary for him to be here, but he didn't like it if I didn't call him he wanted to be here - he wanted to be on duty to do his duty. But in spite of the fact that he had to drive some eight or nine miles from his home every day to get here. It didn't matter what the weather was, whether there was three or four feet of snow, whether it was ice or what it was he was here. He was the kind of a public servant, then, that wanted to do his full measure of duty and beyond, and public servants like that are just a little bit rare and hard to find these days. Too often in our public life and in our industrial life and other activities we find that in business, industry, and other things are besieged with absenteeism, but not with this court, Bill Campbell was always here, always on duty and always did his full measure of duty.

And so on this occasion when we pause a brief moment in tribute to a man like this, I felt it was appropriate that we have this brief ceremony in court this morning. We are glad that the family have found it possible to be here, his fellow employees of the courthouse who had worked with him throughout the years. I know they all join me in saying in the years to come as long as we hold court it will never seem the same without Bill Campbell. I am now going to ask the audience to rise and stand in silent tribute to Bill Campbell for one minute. (the audience rose and stood in silent tribute to the memory of Bill Campbell.)

Mrs. Burgess, we order that the transcript of these proceedings be placed upon the minutes of the courts of this County

In Memoriam

Kenneth W. Rice
late of the Crawford
County Bar.

of No. 14 May Term 1962

He is also survived by his father, Oliver C. Rice, of Meadville, a brother, Dr. Dale A. Rice of Sharpsville, and by his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Eva Miller of Meadville.

The tragic and untimely death of Kenneth W. Rice came as a great shock to the Meadville and Crawford County communities where he had not only been an active and successful member of the Bar, but had been affiliated with many community activities and enterprises.

As the editorial in the Meadville Tribune put it "Few men short of fifty years of age achieve the prominence and leadership enjoyed by Kenneth W. Rice". He had an unusually large number of friends and acquaintances and people relied upon his help, advice and counsel. He was courteous and pleasant to do business with and reasonable in his approach and attitude in the settlement of disputes. Mr. Rice took an active interest in the affairs of the Bar Association and was one of the most faithful in attendance at our meetings.

The death of Kenneth W. Rice comes as a tragic loss to our Bar and to the community at large, and the Committee wishes to express its deep sorrow and to extend its sincere sympathy to his widow and children. His career, while comparatively short in point of years, nevertheless bespeaks great credit to him and is a greater memorial than anything this Committee could record.

We respectfully request that this report be filed with the records of the Court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to his family and to the press.
