Sept. 13, 1971 Sheriff's Return Filed. Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Loy Walker, Deputy Sheriff, who being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that on the 7th day of Sept. 1971, at 2:45 P.M., he served Complaint in Divorce, Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fees at No. 269 Sept. Term, 1971, Crawford County, Pa. upon defendant, Charles R. Giese, at R.D. #1, Franklin, Venango County, Pa. by making known the contents thereof to Charles R. Oct. 12, 1971 Order filed. And now, October 7, 1971, this matter is before the Court on a rule issued on a petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fees, which was returnable and for hearing this date and which was served on the defendant as shown by the Sheriff's return on September 7, 1971. The defendant has failed to appear in spite of service upon him and it appears that the defendant consulted with Attorney Stuart A. Culbertson who advised the Court that he was consulted by the defendant but does not know the reason for the defendants absence at this time.

After hearing this day held in open Court, the Court finds that the wife, Jean A. Giese is entitled to have her counsel fees and costs paid by her husband and now Orders and Directs the said Charles R. Giese to pay to the Prothonotary the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00), for the use of counsel of record and to pay the costs of said proceedings including the masters and stenographers fees all within sixty (60) days from this date.

March 9, 1972, upon Praecipe of Plaintiff's attorney the above case is submitted to the Court.

March 29, 1972 Order filed. Order: In this divorce action there is ample evidence to sustain a divorce on the grounds of desertion or adultery. However, the evidence to sustain the divorce on the grounds of indignities to the person is extremely weak. The parties lived together less than a year; there was no significant physical abuse during that period and, in fact, the plaintiff endeavored to effect a reconciliation indicating that his life and conditions were hardly intolerable.

Nevertheless, in order to give counsel for the plaintiff an opportunity to be heard on the matter, we enter the following Order And now, this twenty-ninth day of March, 1972, a Rule is granted on the plaintiff to show cause why this divorce on the ground of indignities to the person should not be refused and/or the matter referred back to the Master for amendment or other appropriate action.

Oct 8, 1971 Order filed. And Now, October 7, 1971 this matter is before the court on a rule issued on a petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fees. It appears that the petition was served upon the defendant at the same time as the complaint in divorce and that therefore the defendant had personal knowledge that the hearing was set for this date and this time but nevertheless has failed to appear.

After hearing this day held in open court, the Court finds that the wife, Kathryn O. Bens is entitled to have her counsel fees and costs paid by her husband and now Orders and Directs said husband to pay to the counsel for the plaintiff the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) for the use of counsel of record for the wife and the costs of the divorce proceedings including the master's and stenographer's fees of which amount Two Hundred Dollars

Oct. 6, 1981 Amended Answer and New Matter of the Defendant, Venango Federal Savings and Loan Association To Plaintiffs Amended Complaint II filed.

Oct. 14, 1981 Order filed. And Now, Oct. 13, 1981, just before selection of jury counsel for the defendant advises the Court that they were advised on Thurs. Oct 8, 1981, that Atty. John Pepicelli, whose firm represents the plaintiff will be called by the plaintiff as a crucial witness in the case. Defense counsel therefore moves for a Court ruling as to whether or not Mr. Pepicelli's testimony would violate Code of Professional Responsibility, 5-101, 5-102 and Ethical Code 5-9 and 5-10. After reviewing said rules and codes, the Court is of the opinion that the ethical propriety of Mr. Pepicelli testifying in this case is a close issue and would be an issue on appeal.

Accordingly, the Court has decided that in the event Mr. Pepicelli is to testify there is a likelihood that his testimony under the peculiar facts of this case would constitute a possible violation of professional responsibility in the ethics code. Mr. Pepicelli being aware of this situation consulted with his client in view of the Courts prospective ruling and has advised the Court that his client feels he is a crucial and important witness, and, accordingly, requests the case be continued so he can secure other counsel to represent him in order that the testimony of Mr. Pepicelli will not be clouded at the time of eventual trial with ethical consideration.

Accordingly, this case continued til next term of court. By Order of the Court.

has reason to believe that the Defendant's residence was last known to be 520 Causeway, Merit Island, Florida 32952, c/o Ralphs Body and Alignment Shop. Since the filing of this action your affiant, through her attorney, Joseph S. Kulwicki, Esq. has forwarded a copy of the complaint in divorce to the Defendant, by mailing via Certified mail at his last address, as aforesaid said complaint having been mailed on February 13, 1974 by certified mail # 894456. Said certified mail item was returned to your affiant through her attorney Joseph F. Kulwicki, Esq. with a notation on the envelope "address unknown". Subsequent to the return of the registered mail item sent to the Defendant, your affiant telephoned the Defendant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Oka, on March 26, 1974, and inquired whether or not they knew of the Defendant's present whereabouts. Your affeant had Contacted Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Oka, the Defendants parents on other occasions prior to the telephone call made on the date aforesaid and on each occasion was unable to ascertain the Defendant's whereabouts through his parents. However, by telephone conversation on the date aforesaid, your affiant was advised that the Defendant's residence was 1679 Pontiac Circle, North East Gallie, Florida 32935. Thereafter, on April 1, 1974, your affeant through her attorney forwarded the Complaint in Divorce to the Defendant, Mr. David Oka, by certified mail # 894467, an affidavit of mailing being attached hereto. Your affeant does not know if the Defendant is residing at the aforesaid address but knows of no other method by which to ascertain the whereabouts of the Defendant and believes that further attempts will be futile.

And Now, this 28th day of December 1971, after due consideration, a divorce is decreed as prayed for and the Prothonotary is directed to enter the appropriate decree. By Order of the Court,
F. Joseph Thomas, Judge

Decree: And now, to-wit December 28, 1971 this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said Susan Jeanne San Felice, be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between her the said Susan Jeanne San Felice, the plaintiff, and the said Gary Edward San Felice, the defendant, and that thereupon all and every the duties, rights and claims accruing to either the said plaintiff or the said defendant, at any time heretofore in pursuance of said marriage, shall cease and determine;

And the said plaintiff and defendant shall severally be at liberty to marry again in like manner as if they had never been married.

Jan. 25, 1972, Order filed. Accordingly, the defendant is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a

Held in Contempt No. 67 Sept. Term, 1971 to him on January 20, 1972 at 2:35 P.M. EST at Crawford County Jail, 360 Chestnut St. Meadville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

Jan. 21, 1972 Order filed And Now January 20, 1972, it appearing that the defendant has surrendered himself on a bench warrant issued in the above entitled case, it is ordered and directed that the defendant be released upon a bond in the sum of One Dollar ($1.00), with the Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff as surety, conditioned for his appearance on Tuesday, January 25, 1972, at 11:30 o'clock A.M., to appear minimum term of sixty (60) days and a maximum term of one hundred twenty (120) days.

In view of the fact the defendant advises the Court that he will have employment immediately available, the sentence of imprisonment is suspended for a period of ten (10) days. If the defendant is not gainfully employed at the end of ten (10) days from this date, he shall surrender himself voluntarily to the Domestic Relations Office for transportation to the County Jail to commence service of this sentence.

Once employment is secured, he shall pay thirty (30%) percent of his take-home pay to apply on the above two orders at the discretion of the Domestic Relations Office until the same are paid in full.

The Court notes that the parties in this action were divorced December 28, 1971; and, accordingly all further liability for support payments for the wife should terminate as of that date, leaving to be paid on the support order only the accrued arrearages.

The Domestic Relations Office is directed to compute the arrearages on the above support order at the rate of $17.00 per week with credit for any sums already paid.

Costs in the amount of $24.40 to be paid within thirty (30) days from this date.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 31, 1972, Election to retake maiden name, to be known as Susan Jeanne Aaron filed.

Dec. 5, 1971 Order filed. And now, Nov. 25, 1975, after further hearing the Court finds the defendant is not entitled to any further credit against arrears on this support order and divorce action, and that on the support order there are arrears due in the amount of $605.00 plus $72.51 costs. The Court finds as a fact in the divorce action at No. 67, September, 1971, that $200.00 in counsel fees have not been paid.

The Court again finds the defendant in contempt of court for his failure to comply with the support order and pay these arrears, and, accordingly, is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of two (2) months and a maximum of six (6) months; sentence of imprisonment will be suspended on the following conditions:

1. Commencing with the week of Nov. 25, 1975, he will pay the sum of $20.00 per week through the Domestic Relations Office of the Crawford Co., with the payments to be first allocated to costs in this case then to arrears on the support order, and ultimately to counsel fees in the above divorce action.

In the event the defendant fails to comply with this support order the Domestic Relations Office is directed to take proceedings for a wage attachment and at the same time cite the defendant for contempt of Court.

2. Payments under this order will be forwarded to the former wife, meal of the day before Thanksgiving and the father shall have the children on Thanksgiving Day. For Christmas, 1971, the father shall have the children on Christmas Eve from 4:00 o'clock p.m. until 9:00 o'clock p.m., and the mother shall have the children on Christmas Day. The situation shall be reversed for the year 1972 and the other holidays of Easter and July 4th shall be so alternated so that the father will one year have the children the day before a holiday and the mother will have them on the holiday, and by the succeeding years, the reverse will be true. 2. The father shall also have the right to take said children into his custody for one week during the summer months, which unless the parties otherwise agree upon, will be the week commencing August 1 at noon and ending August 8 at Noon. 3. Neither party shall engage in any conduct or expose the children to any person or situation detrimental to their health, education or welfare, and neither party shall, directly or indirectly, say or do anything which has a tendency to turn the children against the other parent. 4. In view of the testimony which tends to indicate that the marriage of the mother of the children in this case to Raymond Cole may not be legally valid, the Court requires that evidence be submitted to the Court, after notice to opposing Counsel, that the marriage is either legally valid or has been made valid so that the stability of the home so far as the legality of the marriage is assured. 5. Since it appears that the stepfather in this case is on parole and/or probation for Criminal Offenses and Confessed to be an alcoholic and that these factors may result in an Environment unsuitable for these children, it is hereby Ordered and Directed that if there is any violation of parole or probation, or if there is any resumption of drinking on the part of the stepfather, the mother shall immediately remove the children from said home to a proper and suitable home and notify the father that she has done so, or in the alternative, if the father learns of any such violation shall immediately ask the Court for a rehearing so that some other disposition may be made to protect the health, education and welfare of these children. 6. Because of the fact that conflict exists where an attempt is made to change the terms of a Court Order by oral understanding, this Order may not be changed or modified by the parties in the slightest particular unless there is an agreement in writing signed by both parties and submitted to the Court with a request that the Court amend the Order in accordance with the written agreement of the parties.

Aug. 21, 1975 Order filed. Whereas, it is reported to the Court that Kelly Ann Leonhart one of the children involved in the above entitled case is the victim of child abuse inflicted by her stepfather Raymond Cole; and

Whereas, Child Welfare Services request the Court, and the Court believes that the request should be granted, to take the said child into its care and custody pending determination of the facts surrounding said child abuse and possibly an Order of Court relating to future custody;

Now, Therefore, this 18th day of August, 1975, it is Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. The custody of Kelly Ann Leonhart is temporarily committed to the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County for appropriate placement pending determination of the facts surrounding the alleged child abuse and pending a possible further Order of Court modifying the Custody Order entered in this case on November 12, 1971.

This agreement is to continue until November 30, 1971, at which time the mother of said child is free to leave for an indefinite stay in the state of California to seek employment. In the event the mother does not leave for the trip to California, the parties are desirous of making arrangements for Christmas Day. Accordingly, the Court orders that the child be in the custody of the father in the home of his parents on Christmas Eve and the morning of Christmas Day, but satisfactory arrangements will be made for a suitable visit with the mother of the child on Christmas Day, after 12:00 o'clock noon and for a period of not less than five (5) hours.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 11, 1971 Order Filed. And Now, October 7, 1971, it appearing that the parents of said child, Karen Steinberg and Danny C. Steinberg, having reconciled, have now separated again, and the mother, Karen Steinberg, is residing with her mother, Mrs. Donald Kiser, 1038 Park Avenue, the custody of the minor child, Candace A. Steinberg, is continued with Harold E. Steinberg and Lorraine Steinberg, subject to the following visitation rights accorded to the mother:

1. The mother shall have the right to have the child in her custody on the first and third weekends of every months; provided, however, that the child must be kept overnight at the home of her mother, Mrs. Donald Kiser, until further order of Court. The weekend visit shall be from Friday Noon until Sunday at 7:00 P.M., providing, however, that should Karen Steinberg secure employment, the pickup time on Friday shall be extended to accommodate her working hours.

2. The mother, Karen Steinberg, shall have the right to have the child in her custody at a proper and suitable place on the second and fourth Sundays of every month from Friday Noon until 7:00 P.M.

3. On any of the above visits, if the mother does not make prior, satisfactory arrangements with the grandparents having custody of the child, they may consider the visit canceled if she does not appear within one (1) hour of the starting time of said visit.

4. In view of the fact that the child is in the custody of the parents of the father, Danny C. Steinberg, the Court leaves to the discretion of the grandparents appropriate visitation privileges for the father.

May 20, 1974 Copy of within Order of Court given to John Boyce, Esq and Charles J. Swich, Esq.
June 6, 1974 Order Filed. And Now May 31, 1974 after hearing, the Court finds that at this moment the mother is in all likelihood a capable and qualified person to have custody of her child, but the Court notes that she was only recently remarried on May 24, 1974, and as has been pointed out at the hearing and by the words of this Court, her husband has been in criminal difficulty and is currently on parole. Because of the newness of the marriage, the past instability of the mother, and the desire of the Court to ascertain the stability of the mother and the stability of the marriage before further considering transferring custody of the minor child, Candace, the Court awards temporary custody to the grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Harold E. Steinberg, subject, however, to the following terms and conditions:

1. The Steinbergs plan on moving permanently to the State of Florida to join their son in a business venture there, and have advised the court they hope to leave in approximately two weeks. Commencing with the week of June 2, 1974, the child will be in the custody of the mother for the week June 2nd through June 8th before the child is removed with the grandparents to the State of Florida. All necessary clothing and supplies will be sent with the child for this visit.

2. The grandparents thereafter may take the child with them to the State of Florida, but must advise the mother of the child of their address and any changes of address. When school is out in June of 1975, satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the child visit the mother for a period of one continuous month at her home. It shall be the responsibility of the mother to go to the State of Florida to receive the child, or to provide the expense of her airline transportation for this visit, and it shall be the responsibility of the father or the grandparents to pick up the child in Crawford County, or bear the expense of transporting the child from Crawford County back to Florida at the end of the visit. The grandparents shall notify the mother when school is out and they shall mutually arrange a satisfactory date for the commencement of this one month visit.

3. The Court will schedule this matter for review during the month of August, 1975, or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had for hearing on this matter, upon the request of the mother to reconsider awarding her custody of the minor child.

4. On any occasion when the mother, along with her husband, wishes to journey to the State of Florida, she may have unlimited visits with the child, and have the child in her custody for periods not in excess of ten days, on the following conditions:

a. That she advises the grandparents two weeks in advance when they will make said visits; which shall be upon agreement of the parties: and if the parties cannot agree, the Court will determine which weekends and for what period of time each of the parties shall have visitation rights. 3. In the event that the mother moves into the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, this case shall immediately be rescheduled for hearing and further disposition. 4. Neither parent will by word or action, directly or indirectly, say or do anything which will tend to turn said children against the other parent, it being the feeling of this Court that no matter what the indiscretions of the mother or the reaction of the father, the children shall not be made the victims of the conduct of either party. 5. It is directed that during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays for the year 1971 the children will be in the Cowan home, but it is suggested that the maternal grandparents have the father with the children on Thanksgiving Day and the mother with the children on Christmas Day, provided, however, that both parties shall have the right to see and visit the children during some portion of each of those holidays. 6. In the event that Mr. and Mrs. Cowan feel that either party is exercising unreasonable periods of visitation during the three-month period herein specified, they shall request the case be rescheduled for hearing, and the Court will then set definite days and definite times for each parent. 7. The payments for support made by Mr. Mushrush shall be forwarded by the Domestic Relations Officer to Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, effective with the payment for support which is next due, the Domestic Relations Officer is directed to forward said payments to Mr. and Mrs. Cowan for the support of Donna and Patti, until further order of Court. 8. The parties agree that this Court shall retain jurisdiction for future orders, custody or changes on visitation rights.

Aug. 28, 1975 Order filed. And Now, Aug. 21, 1975, after review hearing, and the Court being convinced that the mother's marriage has stabilized and that the best interest of the minor child is to return her to the custody of her mother, the minor child, Candace A. Steinberg, is hereby awarded to the custody of her mother, Karen Steinberg, now Karen Hudson.

In view of the close relationship between the child and the grandparents and to some extent the father, Danny C. Steinberg, the Court believes it desirable that the child spend a one (1) month period with the grandparents at their residence in the State of Florida where she may have visitations with both the grandparents and the father. Accordingly, arrangements will be made during the summer school vacation period for a one (1) month continuing visit at the residence of the grandparents in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and the grandparents shall notify the mother at least sixty (60) days in advance of the visit their desirable dates. So long as these dates do not conflict with any planned family vacation of Mr. & Mrs. Hudson, these dates will be controlling.

It shall be the responsibility of the father and/or the grandparents to pick up the child in Crawford County and transport the child to the State of Florida, and it shall be the responsibility of the mother, Karen Hudson, to pick up the child and return the child to Pennsylvania or provide the cost thereof.

July 20, 1976 Copies of Order given to Barco & Barco and Legal Services.

Aug. 20, 1976 Order Filed: Whereas, after hearing, the Court is of the opinion that the mother has not yet demonstrated stability either in her own conduct or in the home: and Whereas, part of the Court's opinion is based upon an incident demonstrating a lack of stability occuring in the early part of June of this year: and Whereas, the indications are that the mother was and still engaged in drinking of an uncertain nature but certainly in an amount not approved of by her own brother: and Whereas, while all of the children have stated that they would prefer to live with their mother and stated their reasons, the Court is of the opinion that basically the children feel that their grandmother is more strict and requires more conformity to rules than their mother requires: and Whereas, the mother has not exercised the week-end privileges since June 9, 1976, although claims she was ill and unable to exercise weekend privileges: Now, therefore this 16th day of August, 1976 It is Ordered and Directed as follows: 1. That in view of the foregoing, the petition of the natural mother requesting the Court to modify the Order entered October 7, 1975 by transferring custody of the children to her is denied, and an exception is noted for the petitioner. 2. All provisions of our Order of October 7, 1975 shall remain in full force and effect except as modified hereafter. 3. The order of October 7, 1975 is modified only in the following respects: a. By adding hereto the right of the mother to have the children in her custody on alternating holidays, to wit: The mother shall have the children in her custody on Thanksgiving Day and thereafter the holidays shall be alternated so that the grandmother will have the children on Christmas Day, and so on from holiday to holiday: provided, however, that when the grandmother has the children on the holiday, the mother shall have the privilege of having the children on the day preceding the holiday between the hours of 12:00 noon and 8:00 o'clock P.M., so long as the education of the children is not interfered with.
