I, LEROY CHANEY, CONSTABLE, do hereby verify that I did on the 3rd day of July, 1986 at 9:50 P.M. a certified true and correct copy of a Temporary Protection Order Under Protection From Abuse Act and accompanying Order and Temporary Order filed at the above captioned number and term, by personal service.

LeRoy Chaney, Constable

July 11, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, July 8, 1986, after informal hearing and input from the parties and their counsel, the defendant agrees to an Order in which he is directed and prohibited from harassing, annoying, assaulting or threatening the plaintiff wife in any manner. He further agrees he will not go to the home and destroy any property in the home.

The parties mutually agree that the fifteen-year-old son resides at the residence of the mother, but works part-time for the father and that the father is entitled to reasonable visitations with the child. ACCORDINGLY,, the parties agree that the father may make arrangements to come to the home for the purpose of picking up the child for reasonalbe personal visits with the child and returning the child to the residence of the mother. During said pickup and return, the defendant will not harass, annoy or castigate his wife in any fashion/

This Order shall remain in effect for a period of six (6) months.

The Court declines as part of this Order to enter any type of support action for the fifteen-year-old child, believing that since both parents are employed and the child is at least employed during the summer months, that a more equitable solution to the problem will arise by the filing of a support complaint with the Domestic Relations Section.

Sept. 8, 1987, Monthly Budget, Pay slips, letter of defendant, filed.

Sept 8, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Sept. 4, 1987, at the time fixed for hearing on Plaintiff's request for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs, it appears that this action was filed on July 8, 1986, including a request for temporary alimony and permanent alimony and both parties are in flagrant disregard of the rules for failing to file income and expense statements timely, and it further appearing that the defendant is presently residing in Charlotte, North Carolina, and has had notice of this proceeding and appeared by counsel only, at which time counsel presented certain information regarding his income, which is inadmissible as hearsay but is not factually substantially disputed inso far as it reflects his take-home pay, although there is dispute as to the amount he is reimbursed for expenses, including travel, and there may be a dispute as to the amount of income tax return that he has obtained, which would vary his ultimate take-home pay.

It also appears that the parties agree that the defendant has been making voluntary payments to the plaintiff since the separation in May of 1986, although there is a dispute as to the amount. Plaintiff contends that the amount was $900.00 each two weeks, until recently when the defendatn reduced it to $750.00 each two weeks. The defendant, on the other hand, contends that he was paying $950.00 each tow weeks but unilaterally reduced to to $700.00 each two weeks.

In order to attempt to reach some resolution of the problems, each party is ordered to file an appropriate Income and expense statement within fifteen (15) days of this date and before any further hearing will be held in regard to the matters presently before the court.

The Defendant is ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $800.00 each two weeks as alimony pendente lite and the further sum of $300.00 towards counsel fees, $150.00 during the month of September and $150.00 during the month of October, through his counsel to plaintiff's counsel.

If either party is dissatisfied with this temporary order, since there has been no record made that oculd support complete review, a further evidentiary hearing will be held on motion of either party but will not be sc heduled until after income and expense statements are filed.

July 7, 1997 IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER filed. Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 9/24/1991 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before August 5, 1997, we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON CONTEMPT CITATION

This matteris referred to the Court by Wayne E. Hanson, District Justice, requesting this Court to hold the above three Defendants in contempt of court for willful and deliberate refusal to disclose the whereabouts of a three wheel recreational vehicle which they jointly or severally owned and which was allegedly being secreted to avoid a levy thereon to satisfy a judgment in the Plaintiff's favor.

The Court is advised by the District Justice that the defendants were specifically questioned regarding this three wheel vehicle and cautioned as to the consequences of refusal to answer questions or giving false testimony in regard thereto. It is contended by the District Justice that they did not provide adequate responses to the District Justice questions, and he therefore is requesting that the defendants be held in contempt of court.

Accordingly, a hearing to hold the defendants in contempt is hereby set for July 28, 1986 at 1:30 P.M., in Courtroom No. 1. All defendants and the District Justice are directed to appear at that time.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

5. The parties agree that the part of this order regarding Protection From Abuse shall last one year, but that part of the Order concerning custody, possession of the marital residence and any and all other stipulations, except the Order for protection from abuse, shall remain in effect for an indefinite period of time, but not more thatn one year and will be terminated either by the reconciliation of the parties, or by the filing of a Complaint in Divorce, by either party, at which time the Respondent will have the right to immediately return to the marital residence.

6. The Respondent agrees to continue therapy and counseling with Dr. Kay Anderson, for as long as Dr. Anderson feels is necessary. Petitioner agrees to consult with Dr. Anderson, and both parties agree to attend marriage counseling.

7. Jurisdiction of the aforementioned matter shall remain in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pa.

8. Both parties agree the Court may enter an Order binding the undersigned in the form attached hereto.

June 1, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 28, 1987, at the time scheduled for this hearing, the defendant not having appeared, but it further appearing that the plaintiff apparently indicated to him that the hearing was to be postponed because she believed she had to be hospitalized and therefore undoubtedly is some reasonable explanation for his absence, this hearing is CONTINUED to June 12, 1987, at 2:00 o'clock p.m., and defendant's counsel being present shall notify his client of the necessity of his appearing at that time. Pending a further hearing, the Order of July 31, 1986 is continued in full force and effect, with the exception of the Paragraph 6 thereof, which required counseling with Dr. Kay Anderson, which paragraph is suspended until further hearing and the defendant is especially cautioned that he shall not in any way physically abuse or threaten to physically abuse the plaintiff or the minor child of the parties nor have nay serious verbal confrontations with the plaintiff, either at the home or elsewhere and the Court will take into consideration very seriously the manner in which he has conducted himself between this date and the time of the continued hearing at the time of that hearing.

Aug. 11, 1986, copy of order to W. Walker,Esq.

Oct. 9, 1986 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Oct. 7, 1986, this case is heard largely on argument of counsel and the contention of the defendant is that even though he had no insurance at the time of an arrest for a violation of the Vehicle Code, that the Department lacked the authority to suspend his operating privileges for a period of three (3) months. The defendant argues that since he had no proof of financial responsibility, he forwarded his automobile registration which he was driving at the time to the Department, and accordingly, argues that this fulfills the proof of financial responsibility of Section 1783 because he no longer had a vehicle to insure.

The defendant thus contends that since Sections 1783 and 1784 contain no specific periods of suspension as a penalty and since Section 6103 delineates the powers granted to the Department that there can be no suspension without specific statutory authority.

The attorney for the Commonwealth argues that Section 6103(s) grants the Department to set forth specific rules and regulations governing the statute and contrary to the argument of counsel for the defendant, postulates that there are specific rules and regulations prescribing the mandatory periods of suspension or revocation for violation of various Sections of the Code. Counsel for the Commonwealth will forward to the Court within ten (10) days of this date the reference source of these rules and regulations. Following the receipt of the same, the Court will resolve this case.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 9, 1986 Copies of order to Thomas O'Shea and David Tyree, Esqs.

Sept. 9, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, September 5, 1986, the matter is before the Court for alimony pendente lite, court costs and counsel fees. After discussion of the relatively limited income of the parties, the Court shows the Defendant nets approximatley $1,250.00 from his employment, and that the mother currently is receiving Welfare Assistance and Food Stamp allotments until she can secure employment

Under the facts elicted by the Court, Court DIRECTS that alimony pendente lite in the amount of $35.00 per week to be paid for the wife, plus an additional $50.00 per week for the support of the two (2) minor children, with said payments to commence with the week of August 31, 1986, with said payments to be paid through the Domestic relations Section of Crawford County.

In regard to filing fees, it appears the Plaintiff has advances by securing a loan filing fees in the amount of $100.00 and the Defendant is DIRECTED to reimburse her for these costs by October 1, 1986.

Insofar as counsel fees are concerned, the Court is presented with a bill of $200.00 for counsel fees to date, and DIRECTS said fees be paid as follows: $100.00 by October 15, 1986 direct to counsel for the Plaintiff and an additional $100.00 on November 1, 1986. Commencing with the month of November, 1986, the Defendant will pay direct to Plaintiff's counsel the sum of $50.00 per month to apply on future counsel fees.

This Order for costs and counsel fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Master or the Court to allocate said items, plys any future counsel fee sand costs between the parties in the final divorce decree as deemed equitable.

Court notes it has signed a consent order agreed to bythe aprties resolving the issues of custody and visitation of the two minor children.

Nov. 10, 1986, Order filed. AND NOW, November 7, 1986 after hearing on plaintiff's petition to modify the support order and for an adjudication of contempt for failure to comply with the existing support order and it appearing that the defendant has paid nothing under the order of September 5, 1986, although he has been regularly employed at Saegertown Manufacturing Company, earning approximately $300.00 per week take-home pay and it further appearing that the defendant wrecked his car and had no collision insurance thereon which has placed some additional burden upon him, which may or may not be of hi own doing, and it appearing that the defendant has paid nothing towards counsel fees or costs directed by the order of September 5, 1986, and it further appearing that he occupies theformer marital domicile and the Order of September 5, 1986 contemplated that he was paying and would continue to pay mortgage payments and payments on a home equity loan, but apparently to the extent he has been paying those items he has been paying interest only, although a very substantial portion of the scheduled payment is interest and only a very small portion whould in any event apply on principal, and the loan holders are apparently at least currently satisfied with the payments being made. The request to modify the support order is refused at this time, reserving to the court the right to make further adjustments if at any time it becomes apparent that the defendants failure to make payments is jeopardizing any equity the parties may have in the home or to make further adjustments at the time of the equitable distribution of the assets of the parties, or otherwise.

The defendant is adjudicated in willful contempt for failure to make the payments required under the September 5, 1986 order, and his is remanded to the Crawford County Jail until he purges himself of contempt, which he may do by complying with all of the following:

a. He shall pay $250.00 forthwith, of which $100.00 will apply to the alimony pendente lite and $150.00 to child support.

b. He shall pay on each Monday beginning Monday, November 17, 1986 through the Domestic Relation s Office the sum of $50.00 per week for the support of his monor children and the additional sum of $15.00 per week to apply on' arrearages and the sum of $35.00 per week to apply on alimony pendente lite and an additional $10.00 per week to apply on arrearages until the arrearages arepaid in full.

c. He shall pay to plaintiffs counsel the sum of $200.00 as counsel fees on or before December 1, 1986, and the sum of $100.00 as reimbursement for the costs advanced on or before September 15, 1986.

The court reserves the right to make further orders regarding the payment of alimony pendente lite or counsel fees and will entertain a request for hearing if needed after December 31, 1986.

May 8, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, May 4, 1987, the matter is back before the Court on a Petition for contempt and a motion for modification of alimony and child support. It appears the alimony pendente lite and child support problem has resolved itself as said account is relatively current.

It further appears the Defendant has brought the mortgage payments due Pennbank up to date and the same are current. Likewise, an equity loan in the amount of $137.00 per month due HFC, while somewhat in arrears, will be brought up to date on or before May 11, 1987.

It shall be a specific condition of the payment of alimony pendente lite and child support that the Defendant will continue to make all the required payments on the mortgage on the jointly held realt estate and the equity loan due Household Finance Corporation thereon.

ERvin vs. Ervin A.D. 1986 - 710 Divorce

The Court notes the Defendant was previously held in contempt for failing to advance filing fees and minimal attorney fees to counsel for the Plantiff. Accordingly, we again find him in contempt and in the event said fees are not paid in full, namely $200.00 in counsel fees and $100.00 reimbursement for filing fees on or before June 5, 1987, the Defendant will be sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of thirty (30) days.

It appears that both parties are anxious this divorce action proceed to a completion, but that the Defendant has not filed a requisite response to the Plaintiff's Inventory and appraisement; accordingly, the Defendant wil file a response to P laintiff's INventory and appraisement on or beofre May 18, 1987. After that date, the Court will entertain a motion to appoint a Master if the parties cannot amicably resolve the limited assets remaining in this marriage.

Aug. 5, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, August 4, 1987, after further informal hearing in this matter, it appearing that the defendant is in arrears on payments on a home equity loan due HFC, but that he has made arrangements to make the payment that was due July 1 on or before August 7, 1987, and the payment that was due August 1, 1987, on or before August 21, 1987, the Court declines at this time to adjudicate him in contempt and reserves decision thereon; and in the event he fails to make the payments as above set forth, the Court will schedule a further hearing on this matter without the necessity of filing a new petition for contempt.

Each of the parties has agreed to list the marital residence for sale with a real estate agency and the wife shall at or before 4:00 o'clock p.m. this date advise the husband as to the agency she wishes to list it with, and each party shall execute a listing contract with that agency, or if the agency refuses to accept the listing, then with another agency on or before august 7, 1987, with the listing price not to exceed $28,000.00.

Oct. 30, 1987 Petition To Adjudicate Defendant In Contempt of Court and Order filed. AND NOW, October 30, 1987, the Court enters a rule to show cause why the Defendant, Daniel P. Nov. 6, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, November 5, 1987, at the time set for hearing on this matter, counsel for the Defendant advises they have been unable to locate their client in that a call to his employer disclosed he had quit his employment and a call to his residence indicated the phone has been disconnected.

There appears to be no dispute that the dEfendant has not paid alimony pendente lite, has not paid the required share of Master's fees as previously ordered, and has defaulted in payment of the loans on the house and foreclosure has not been commenced. Likewise, the Defendant is not maintaining insurance as required by prior Court Orders. The Court notes the Defendant has been repeatedly before the Court for contempt.

Accordingly, the Court finds the Defendant in contempt of Court and directs the Sheriff of Crawford County or his deputy to immediately apprehend the Defendant and confine himin the Crawford County Jail and notify the Court after which a further hearing will be scheduled. A copy of this Order will be sufficient arrest authority for the sheriff to apprehend the Defendant and lodge him in the Crawford County Jail.

Nov. 10, 1987 Sheriff's REturn filed. Defendant, Daniel P.Ervin, apprehended as ordered on Friday, November 6, 1987. Lodged in Crawford County Jail.
So answers,

Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Nov 18, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, November 13, 1987, after hearing, it appears the Defendant has now lost his employment through inefficiency on his part, and that he has secured new employment which will nt him approximately $175.00 to $190.00 a week at two (2) jobs.
It is the contention of th wife that the Defendant intends to flee the jurisdiction and that there is no equity left in the home jointly owned by the parties because of the failure of the Defendant in spite of Court Orders to pay the monthly payments due the bank and the House-hold Finance Company.

The Defendant admits that he has been reluctant to follow Court Orders and that the frustration of the separation and divorce have controlled his motivations. Accordingly, the Court adjudges him in comtempt of Court, but withholds any specific punishment at this time on the following conditions:

1. The Defendant will produce to the Court within ten (10) days a statement from his former employer, Saegertown Manufacturing Company giving the gross and net earnings for the first nine (9) months of 1987.

2. The Defendant may not leave the jurisdiction of the Court except for his employment and he may not be out of the jurisdiction of Crawford County for longer than forty-eight (48) hours on said employment without consent of the court .

3. The Defendant will continue to pay the alimony pendente lite and child support Orders hereto fore entered, but the additional payment of $10.00 to apply on arrears is postponed until January 1, 1987 when said $10.00 payment or arrearages will commence anew.

4. The Defendant was previously ordered on previous occasion to pay $400.00 on Master's fees in the divorce, and apparently this sum has not been paid. The Court finds him in wilful and deliberate contempt for failure to pay this amount and directs that the same be paid on or before December 15, 1987.

Upon receipt of wage report, the Court reserves the right to impose a jail sentence on the Defendant for being in wilful and deliberate contempt of Court.

The Court further notes as this time that the house is for sale, the Defendant has offered to convey any interest he has to the wife, and the Court does not intend to participate in these negotiations involving ownership of the property.

ERVIN VS. ERVIN A.D. 1986 - 710 DIVORCE

Apr. 13, 1992 PETITION FOR CONTEMPT AND ORDER filed. ORDER: legal proceedings have been brought against you alleging you have wilfully disobeyed an order of court for custody/visitation.

If you wish to defend against the claim set forth in the following pages, you may but are not required to file in writing with the court your defenses or objections.

Whether or not you file in writing with the court, your defenses or objections, you must appear in person in court on the 28th day of May, 1992, in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 or the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pa. 16335, at 9:00 a.m.

Date: April 9, 1992

April 24, 1992 MOTION to reschedule and order filed. And Now, April 24, 1992, this Hearing rescheduled for June 10, 1992 at 9 A.M. Ct. Room 1 or 2.

ORDER OF COURT
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

April 24, 1992 copy of Order to Joan D. Mason, ESq.

June 12, 1992 PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF CUSTODY: REQUEST FOR COUNSELING: ANSWER, field.

June 12, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 10, 1992, this matter is before the Court on defendant's request that the Plaintiff be held in contempt with regard to this custody action.

This same day, the plaintiff files a request that a Custody Mediator be appointed and that the children and father go to counseling prior to said mediation.

The attorney for the defendant indicates that he is agreeable to this matter being referred to mediation and continuing the contempt proceeding generally, but he objects to any payment toward mediation costs by his client at this point.

The Court appoints John Fuller as a Mediator in this matter and he is directed to hold a hearing at his earliest convenience.

The Court declines to order counseling at this time and will leave that determination up to the Mediator.

The Court, pending the mediation conference, suspends the requirements of the previous Custody Order in light of the fact that there has not been any contact between father and children for a significant period of time and it would appear that there will have to be some period of time that the children and father re-establish a relationship and the Mediator may determine that requires counseling.

Prior to the mediation conference, the parties shall each deposit $75.00 toward the mediation costs.

The contempt hearing scheduled this day is continued generally and may be rescheduled upon motion of either party in the future.

July 20, 1990 Order filed. Order: AND NOW, July 17, 1990, the matter is before the Court on a Petition for Bifurcation. It appears that counsel Joan Mason has received correspondence and has discussed the matter with counsel for the plaintiff, but has not entered an appearance nor made a decision as to whether she will represent the defendant in this case.

It is postulated by Attorney Mason that the only material equitable asset existing in this case is a pension benefits program by the plaintiff and that in the event of bifurcation, said bifurcated divorce dectee by the Court would terminate any spousal interest that the wife had in the plaintiff's pension plan. Counsel Mason advises she is in receipt of a plan from the husband's employer or counsel for the company.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court declines at this time to act on the bifurcation petition . The Court directs that if Attorney Mason is to represent the defendant in this action, she must enter her appearance by 4:30 P.M., July 25, 1990. In the event counsel Mason enters an appearance, she will file an answer to the Petition for Bifurcation delineating with specificity the various sections or rules of the plan that would eliminate any interest of the defendant/wife in such plan were a bifurcated divorce granted.

Either party may petition for further hearing or bifurcation after August 15, 1990.

P. Richard Thomas. P.J.

Aug. 19, 1994 Petition For Review Of Custody Order By Mediator filed.

Aug. 24, 1994 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 23, 1994, the Court having reviewed a petition for review of custody order by mediator dated Aug. 16, 1994 and filed on behalf of the Plaintiff, we decline to refer this back to mediation at this time due to the fact that when a temporary order was entered in Oct. 1986 the parties were to divide mediator fees of $100.88 plus court costs of $9 but neither party has paid their share.

Accordingly, we will not order this matter to be returned to mediation until that amount has been paid. We do note that the deposit required for the mediator to be appointed in the amount of $150 at this time has been made.

This matter is returned to the Prothonotary and may be returned to the Court once the $109.88 indicated in this order has been paid by the parties.

Sept. 21, 1994 Memorandum and Order filed. AND NOW, September 20, 1994, for the reasons set forth in the foreoing memorandum we find that Pennsylvania is an inconvenient forum to make custody determiantions under the facts of this case and that the appropriate court in the State of New York is a more appropriate forum. Accordingly it is ordered as follows: 1. We will treat the defendant's motion to dismiss as a petition to decline jurisdiction under 23 Pa.C.S.A 5348. 2. These custody proceedings are stayed on the condition that one of the parties files an approrpiate petition or complaint for custody, partial custody, vistiation rights or the like in the appropriate court of the State of New York within thrity (30) days from this date. 3. When that is accomplished counsel for the party presenting the petition or complaint shall notify this Court and shall adavise this Court as to the name and address of the New Your court that will be hearing this matter. At that point we will submit a true and correct copy of this Memorandum and Order to the New YOrk court for its use and benefit. 23 Pa.C.S.A 5348(h). 4. One a New York court accepts juridiction and communicates that fact to this court, jurisdiction by this Court shall be relinquished.

Oct. 9, 1986 ORDER filed.AND NOW, Oct. 9, 1986, at the time set for hearing on this suspension of 55 days, counsel for the petitioner argues that because Exhibit #1, which is a record of the Departmental suspensions and point assessments is fatally defective because the record does not show that the notice letter of point assessment were mailed to the defendant's last known address but only shows that a point letter was mailed and the date thereof. Additionally, counsel argues that the Exhibit is fatally defective because it does not contain copies of said letters of notice. It is further argued that simply because the defendant's name and present address appear on the certification statement, that it does not negate the idea that the defendant may have had other addresses to which the notices were mailed.

After legal argument and perusal of the case law submitted by the defendant, the Court declines to accept said posture, admits the Exhibit into evidence and denies the defendant's appeal from his 55-day suspension.

Pursuant to agreement of counsel and in accordance with Section 1541 of the Vehicle Code, the effective date of the defendant's suspension will commence December 1, 1986.

Oct 9, 1986 Temporary Order of Court filed: AND NOW, this 8th day of October, 1986, after mediation and settlement by telephone conference with the Child Custody Mediator, and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is hereby ordered and decreed that:

1.) The natural parents of Allen McKinney, age four, and Benu McKinney, age three, the parties to this action, shall share custody of the minors. Said Joint legal custody being shared shall entitled both of the parents to equal access to any records relating to the children held by a third party, including, but not limited to, school and medical records, and shall also entitled both parents to equal input with regard to the educational and religious upbringing of the children.

2) Primary physical custody of the children shall remain with the mother, Darla Lou McKinney, subject to the father's right to temporary custody and the nature of visitation as follows:

a) Because the father lives in excess of two hundred miles from the location of the primary custodial parent, that being the mother, he shall, upon twenty-four hours' notice, by telephone or other wise, to the mother, have the right to take the children into his temporary custody for a period of up to twenty-four hours at anytime unless the child or children are physically ill and under the treatment of a physician at the time.

b) Beginning with the summer months of June, July and August, 1986, the father shall have the further right to take the children into his physical custody for two on-week, non-consecutive periods, which, unless the parents are able to agree otherwise, shall be the second week of July and second week of August.

c) Holiday visitation shall be as agreed by the parties; but, in the event that the father notifies the mother of a desire to see the children on holidays, he shall be allowed to see the children not less than four hours on each holiday. For this purpose, the recognized holidays shall be New Year's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, 4th of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas of each year.

d) The father shall pick up and return the children at the mother's residence, and the mother shall keep the father advised of her residence from time to time.

3) The parents shall notify each other when the childis away from the custodial home for a period of more than twelve hours, and shall indicate the reason and duration of the absence and the places expected to be visited.

4) The parent having custody of the children at anytime shall notify the other parent as soon as possible in the event of injury or illness requiring medical treatment.

5) Neither of the parents shall take the children into any environment which might be commonly thought of as detrimental to their development and to the development of their character, or which would commonly be thought as dangerous to their physical persons.

6) The parents are encouraged to discuss arrangements for physical custody of the children, and, if the parties mutually agree to an alternative arrangement to accommodate themselves or the children's schedule, they may adjust the physical custody arrangement accordingly, and are encouraged to do so by mutual consent and agreement.

7| Each parent will teach the children to given the other parent that love and respect due a parent from his or her children, and neither parent will do anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the children. Neither parent shall expose the children to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare, or well being of the children, nor shall they do anything to or with the children which would do the same.

8) This Order shall not prejudice the right of either party to request a mediation conference if there are changed circumstances in the lives of the parties or the children, and, for the purposes of this paragraph, thje relocation of either party and the children to a proximity of fifty miles from each other or less, shall constitute a changed circumstance and allow the father to an additional mediation conference under the Pennsylvania "changed circumstances doctrine."

9) The Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, shall retain jurisdiction of this matter so long as either parent or the children reside in the court's jurisdiction and for at least six months from the date of this temporary Order.

Gerald Sullivan,
Attorney for Plaintiff

Feb. 5, 1991 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Feb. 1, 1991, after hearing, this Court is satisfied that the minor child involved in this case, namely nine (9) year old Ryan, was telling the truth when he relates that in the past he has seen his father consuming marijuana and growing marijuana in the house. Additionally, the Court accepts as a fact that he and the baby sitter discovered some unacceptable explicit pornographic video tapes and played the same, but the Court cannot find that this was done with the father's knowledge or consent. Accordingly, the Court decliens to change custody but amends the previously entered Order to provide that the father shall not possess or have in the household or grow in any form illegal drugs or substances of any kind. The father postulates he quit using marijuana and alcoholic beverages some three (3) months ago. Accordingly, the Court DIRECTS he shall not consume alcoholic beverages while in the presence of his son or during the custodial periods when he has the son in his possession.

It appears that the parteis have mutually agreed that the Wednesday visit with the father in Paragraph 2 (a) of the 1986 Order have been modified during the time the child is in school and that the father if work schedules allow picks the child up after school.

There has been some contention that the father has not precisely kept with the hours set forth in the 1986 Order for return of the child, and the Court DIRECTS that the hours be explicitly complied with unless both parents agree to an extension.

Feb 10, 1988 Pre-trial Conference Order: AND NOW, February 3, 1988, the matter is reviewed before the Court at a pre-trial conference, and non-jury trial is now set for March 2, 1988, at 9:00 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom No. 2.

It appears that plaintiff Timothy Huff is deceased and it shall be the responsibility of counsel for the plaintiffs to for ward to the Court a timely motion to appropriately amend the caption either naming his successors at law or the executor of his estate as a party plaintiff.

It further appears that in giving notice of the setting of the trial date and any further notices, that Flanigan Brothers are representing all viable defendants and there need not be individual notices sent to numerous defendants listed in the original Complaint.

Counsel for the parties advise the Court that to date, they have found no analogous controlling cases for citation to the Court, but if any are discovered before trial, they will be brought to the timely attention of Judge's Law Clerk.

Counsel anticipate one day of trial will resolve the issue.

FOR THE COURT,
Imogene Yetman, Ct. Adm.

Apr. 25, 1989 copies mialed to E. Brew, Jr. and Jerome A. Lemire, & Shafer's box.

June 2, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, May 31, 1989, at the time set for argument on the issue of the right of Flanigan Brothers to the ownership of the well casing and appurtenances thereto, some question arises as to when the well was actually drilled and whether Flanigan Brothers drilled the same or has a vested ownership interest therin at the time of drilling and at time subsequent thereto.

This factual determination may have some bearing on the Court's ruling on the issue of ownership of casing and appurtenances. Accordingly, rather than schedule a further hearing, counsel agree that counsel for Flanigan Brothers will present in affidavit form a statment from one or more owners of Flanigan Brothers or such other persons as they deem appropriate establishing the time the well was drilled, who drilled the well, and whether Flanigan Brothers at the time the well was originated had a vested ownership interest therein and whether said interest continued over the intervening period to the present time. The affidavit will attempt to establish the investment Flanigan Brothers made in the original well and any subsequent investments made therein over the ensuing years.

Said affidavit will be forwarded to counsel for Hlopicks on or before July 7, 1989, and on or before August 1, 1989, counsel for Plaintiffs will advise the Court as to whether they accept the facts specified in such affidavit as being generally true and correct or whether they wish a hearing for the purpose of cross examining the persons preparing or participating in the affidavit.

If the Court receives no response from Attorney Brew requesting a further hearing on this issue, the Court will decide the case after August 7, 1989, on the present existing file, the affidavits, the briefs, and arguments of counsel without further hearing or argument.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Oct. 14, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, October 9, 1986, at the time set for hearing, the Defendant does not deny the allegations in the petition. Accordingly, the Court directs that the Defendant abstain from annoying, assaulting, or harassing the Plaintiff in any manner whatsoever or procuring others to do so on his behalf. He may not go to her place of residence or her employment without her express permission and invitation.

Insofar as visitation with the chidlren is concerned, the parties appear to be able to work out an arrangement whereby the children will get off the school bus on fridays and visit the Defendant at the home of his mother and another relative will return the children to the home of ther mother after the weekend visit. It is contemplated that perhaps every other weekend visits would be appropriate and the Court directes the parties to attempt to work out an amicable arrangement on visitation after the Defendant gets out of jail. The Court notes the defendant is scheduled for sentencing on October 24, 1986, on a charge of resisting arrest and other related offenses.

The County is directed to pay the costs in this case.

This order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one year.

In the event any police officer has reasonalbe grounds to believe the terms and conditions of this order have been violated, he may forthwith apprehend the Defendant, lodge him in the crawford County Jail, and request an immediate hearing of the Court.

P. Richard Thomas, J

Jan. 8, 1987 Copies of order to Robert Felton, Joseph Barnhart

Feb 3, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, February 2, 1987, the matter is before the Court of a request for a hearing de novo filed by the mother/defendant. The parties agree through their counsel to proceed informally, and it appears the narrow focus of this hearing is directed toward the fact that the mother would like a modification of the weekend visits with the father, which now extends through Monday at 8:00 P.M., for the reason that the oldest child is now in a pre-school program at the Y.W.C.A., known as a Fun Factory, on Monday, and continuation in said program has been recommended by a psychologist who examined the child. Accordingly, in view of the fact that the father says he will assume the responsibility through his mother of seeing that the oldest child attends the program at the Y.W.C.A. on each Monday between the hours of 9:30 A.M. and 11:30 A.M., the Court can find no legitimate reason to change the weekend visitation schedule established in Paragraph 2a of the temporary order.

Accordingly, said Order stands as previously entered December 11, 1986, but is modified as to require that while the child is in the custody of the father or grandmother on Mondays through the visitation weekends, the father, his grandmother or a responsible family member will see to it that the oldest child, Sarah, attends the Y. W.C.A. Program every Monday during the aforesaid hours, and shall be responsible for transporting the child to and from said program.

There is some minor issue about the responsibility of the father to pick up and return the children for weekend visits, and the Court modifies the previous Order to the extent that the children may be picked up and returned not only by the father, but by any other responsible member of the family.

The father expresses some concern about his employer's dissatisfaction with him receiving calls from the mother at his place of business, but admits that the frequency of said calls has diminished recently. Accordingly, a condition is added to the effect that the mother will not call the father at his place of employment, except as it may concern an emergency affecting either or both of the children.

LeRoy Chaney

Feb. 8, 1991, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Feb. 6, 1991, the matter is before the court on a contempt citation because of the plaintiff's failure to apy the $600.00 deposit on the Master's fee ordered by this court on Aug. 14, 1990/

The plaintiff contends he has assumed all of the marital debts, paid child support in the amount of $450.00 per month, has an Int. Rev. Ser. attachment against his wages for $340.00 per month and indicates that in Dec., he and his wife were seriously discussing amicable resolution of the equitable division of property without the necessity of a Master's hearing.

In addition to the above complexities, the plaintiff, through his cuunsel, advises the court that there is a Gen. Motors corporation deficiency judgment recently entered against the plaintiff in the amount of $5,700.00 arising from repossession of an automobile, and further, that the estimated value ofthe marital property trailer is $3,000.00, with a $3,500.00 lien against the same to Beneficial Finance Co.

The parties, speaking through their counsel, agree that this matter be postponed for a period of sixty (60) days, and that the matter be instructed not to schedule a hearing. At the end of Sixty (60) days, if the plaintiff has not paid the $600.00 deposit within sixty (60) days of this date, the court will entertain a further motion to hold the plaintiff in contempt or take such other appropriate sanctions as it believes appropriate in order that the divorce may be expedited.

PETITION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

ORDER:

AND NOW, Oct.30, 1986, this matter is before the Court on a Petition filed by Children & Youth Services of alleged abuse of minor child Amber, age sic (6) months. It is admitted that the fractured skull cannot be attributed to any parental conduct or parental neglect, and accordingly, Children & Youth Services will have to report this allegation of abuse on behalf of one or both of the parents as unfounded. The Court agrees with this conclusion under the facts it has heard.

The focas of Children and Youth Services have been diverted from establishing an abuse to seeking theCourts assistance in the proper upbringing of these two (2) minor children in the chaotic marital situation, which now has degenerated into a separation ofthe parties.

The Court is aware that the original Petition filed and the focas of the case involves minor child Amber but indirectly also affects minor child Justin, age twenty-one (21) months. Accordingly, the Court in the exercise of its Juvenile Court power, places juvenile Justin Pruskowski under jurisdiction of the juvenile court as well as placing child Amber under jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

The Court finds at this time that the best interest of the child Justin will be to return the child to the care and custody of the mother, but that Children & Youth Services must make periodic and frequent visits to ascertain that the child is being properly cared for in the home of the mother. They shall see that if the mother continues her employment, that satisfactory custodial arrangements are made for the child, and that while it is contended that the mother has a drinking problem, and is more interested in an active social life thatn in caring for the children, theCourt cannot find as a fact at this time that she is an unfit parent.

Children & Youth services shall try to set down guidelines for the mother to ascertain that the child is not constantly left in the custody of relatives or babysitters to accommodate a more active social life on behalf of the mother.

The mother and father will be required, if requested by Children & Youth Services to participate in any counseling or parenting courses Children & Youth Services believes maight help them in the raising of the children.

With the chaotic recent situation, due to the break-up of the marriage, the fact that the mother is far behind in the rent, the separation of the parties, and the fragile condition of minor child Amber, the Court refuses at this time to return said child to either parent, and DIRECTS Children & Youth Services to continue the child Amber in foster placement for an indeterminate period of time.

In this regard, the Court leaves to the good discretion of the caseworker periodic visits of child Amber in the home of the mother, and also in the father's home, so long as he continues to reside with his parents.

Likewise, the court urges the parties to attempt to reach an amicable agreement regarding periodic visitations of minor child Justin with his father, and if the parties cannot amicably resolve the same, Children & Youth Services will establish a visitation schedule with the Court opining that at the start, minor child Justin should spend about four(4) days a month in the exclusive care of the father for a period of a month or six (6) weeks, after which, consideration whould be given to weekend visits with the father, approximately every other weekend, and appropriate sharing of custody on major holidays.

The Court notes that on this date, it is presented with a Complaint for Custody filed on behalf of the father, and a Protection From Abuse Petition filed on behalf of the mother in this case.

In view of the Court's Order this date entered, we decline to act on the Complaint for Custody, believing our order in Juvenile Court resolves this issue for the present.

This order is entered without prejudice to the right of the father to re-file a Complaint after three (3) months, if he believes the situation demands

In regard to the Petition for Protection From ABuse, the Court grants the same, ORDERS the same filed, without payment of costs, and hereby DIRECTS that pursuant to the spirit of the Juvenile Court Order this day entered, and specifically in regard to a Petition for Protection, the husband, Walter L. Pruskowski, is hereby ORDERED TO refrain from assaulting, annoying, harassing or bothering his wife in any fashion.

He may not go to her residence for any purpose, except for picking up and returning the child, Justin, in accord with the Juvenile Court Order and he may not procure others to annoy, assault, threaten or harass his wife in any manner.

The parties mutually agree that certain furniture in the household belongs to Lillian Pruskowski, and this date Lillian Pruskowski believes it's in the best interest of the children and the attempt of the mother to establish a home for Justin, that the furniture remain there.

The father agrees with this, and will make no attempt to remove the furniture.

He may go to the home on Fri. Oct. 31, 1986 at 11:00 A.M. at which time he may pick up his personal belongings from the home and remove them.

On instances when the father picks up or returns the child, Justin, for a visit, he may not stay at the home or enter the premises, and the mother will arrange to have the child ready so he may meet them on the porch of the premises and return him to the porch of the mpremises.

This Order shall be in force and effect for a period of one year (1) from this date, and in the event there is an alleged violation of this Order

Petrucelli vs. Petrucelli A.D. 1986 - 962 Abuse

Jan. 7, 1987 Petition For Contempt and ORder filed. And now, Jan. 7, 1987 hearing set for Jan. 9, 1987 at 10:00 a.m. in Cr. 1. Robert L. Walker
Jan. 7, 1987 Copies of order to Dennis Kuftic and Joan Mason

Jan. 16, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, January 9, 1987, the matter is before the Court asking that the Defendant be held in contempt of Court for wilful and deliberate failure to comply with a previous ORder regarding making of certain support, insurance, furniture and automobile payments. After informal hearing, counsel for both parties and the parties advise the Court the matter has been amicably resolved as follows:

1. The Court finds the Defendnat in contempt of Court for his wilful and deliberate failure to comply with his prior agreement, reduces to Court ORder, by ORder of Judge Robert L. Walker, dated November 21, 1986.

However, punishment for contempt will be postponed by the Court, providing the Defendant faithfully complies with the following agreement:

2. He will forthwith pay to Marine Bank two (2) car payments that are presently due, plys any late charges thereon. In this regard, the Court notes the Defendant contends he will receive money in the mail today, and his attorney will arrange with the bank for forestall picking up the car, which is scheduled for 12:00 o'clock Noon this day, by Marine bank.

3. INsofar as car insurance is concerned, it appears the Defnedna thad not paid any of the premiums due, and the present policy on the automobile is possesison of the wife ahs expired. The defendant agrees that by 12:00 Noon, January 16, 1987 he will arrange for insurance coverage for the automobile in possession of the wife, and will provide proof of coverage in the form of a binder or receipt for premium or other acceptalbe doceument providing coverage for the automobile, so the wife may dirve the same. additionally, he will continue to make any required payments, which will afford continuous insurance coverage on the car until fifteen (15) days following the final decree in the divorce case.

4. In this regard, counsel for the parties advise the Court that at this time, they belive a bifurcated divorce would be appropriate, and the Plaintiff may take steps to amend her divorce Complaint, and counsel will explore the possibility of bifurcating the divorce and resolving the equitable distribuiton by a subsequent decree.

5. the parties mutually agree that the Defendant owes one (1) week of support under Paragraph 6 of the ORder of NOvember 21, 1986 as it relates tothe Abuse Petition, and he will pay the sum of $40.00 forthwith, today, on said arrears payment and the balance by Janaury 23, 1987.

In this regard, the Court is advised that on January 8, 1987, a hearing officer entered a support decree ina non=support action that covers support for wife and three (3) children.

6. It appears further that FNB Finance Company is threatening to foreclose on the household furniture, because there are arrearages on said payments. The Defendant agrees that on or before Janaury 23, 1987, he will make sufficient payment to bring the account current, and the parties estimate that the current delinquency is $42.00 more or less. In addition, he will continue to make said payments until said account is paid in full, and the aprties mutually agree that approximately three (3) more payments remain until the loan is apid in full. ONce the loan is paid in full, the parties both recognize the furniture is marital asset, and willhave to be distributed in accordance with further agreement or in the divorce decree. Jan. 21, 1987, RE: MOTION TO QUASH APPEAL AND HEARING ON THE MERITS -

The Board suspended the above Defendant's liquor license for ten days for serving to visibly intoxicated persons. An appeal was taken by present counsel either five or seven days late and a Motion to Quash the Appeal was filed. Argument was scheduled and counsel given an additional time to file a written brief. The written brief raises factual issues not part of the court record and this court is reluctant to decide the Motion to Quash for lateness without according the defendant the opportunity to establish the facts alleged in his brief.

Accordingly, we hereby set hearing for Feb 5, 1987,at 3:00 P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 where we will first proceed to allow the dft to establish a factual basis justifying the allowance of a delay beyond the statutory 30 day period for filing his appeal. Following hearing on that issue, we will hear evidence of the factual background the Board relied upon in imposing the ten day suspension.

Counsel shall be ready to proceed on said date on both the above situations.

Mar 19, 1987 Upon Praecipe of Plaintiff's attorney for Review Under 201(c) of the Divorce Code, this case is moved to Court.

Mar. 27, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, March 27, 1987, this divorce having been referred to the Court for review and it appearing that the parties wish to have a marriage settlement agreement incorporated inthe order as a part of this decree in this case, but it further appearing that the complaint in divorce only requests a dissolution of the marriage, and under Section 401 of the Divorce Code, 23 P.S. 401, orders relating to collateral matters can only be entered where those matters are raised in the complaint, answer or supplemental petition. Therefore, the decree in this case is denied without prejudice tothe right of the parties to either amend the p leadings to support any matter s which they wish to have included in the decree, or to resubmit the case for a simple decree dissolving the marriage without inclusion of nay collateral matters. Counsel for the plaintiff is also advised that this Court will not incorporate the agreement by reference, but if the pleadings are amended and they wish to have any collateral matters included in the decree, the plaintiff's counsel should prepare and submit with his praecipe a prosed decree which covers all matter sto be included without incorporating any agreement by reference.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM ORDER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SUSPENDING DRIVER'S LICENSE

ORDER:

AND NOW, Nov. 26, 1986, upon consideration of the within Petition for Appeal, it is hereby ordered and decreed that a hearing on this appeal shall be held on Feb. 5, 1987, at 1:30 P.M. at the Crawford County Courthouse, or as soon thereafter as the attention of the court may be had, and that notice be given to the Pa. PER CURIAM,
P. Richard Thomas, J.
Nov. 26, 1986, copy of order to Atty. Shaddinger

Nov. 26, 1986, Certificate of Service filed. I hereby certify that a true and correct copy of the foregoing Pet. for Appeal from Order of the Pa. Dept of Trans. Suspending Driver's License and order was served by first class mail, postage prepaid, on the following:

Dept. of Transportation, Bur. of Driver Licensing, Citation Processing Div. Rm. 302, Trans. and Saftey Bldg., Harrisburg, Pa. 17120.

Alan R. Shaddinger, Esq.

Feb. 5, 1987, Exhibit filed. (cover of folder of case)

Feb 10, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, February 5, 1987, after testimony revealing the facts surrounding the driving record in this case and after listening to legal argument of counsel for both sides, the Court finds that the driving offenses were all of a speeding nature on interstate or turnpike highways and involved no accidents and do not indicate an ongoing continuing pattern of speeding or reckless driving. The Court notes that after the third hearing mandated by the Statute for the third speeding offense, the Department of Transportation took no action regarding the defendant's operating privileges and that some nineteen months later when the defendant incurred a speeding offense, the Department in its discretion imposed the maximum possible penalty under Section 1538(c) or thirty (30) days.

Under all the circumstances of this case, the Court finds the Department decision to be an abuse of discretion, but that some suspension of the defendant's operating privileges should be imposed as a deterrent to future speeding incidents.

ACCORDINGLY, the thirty-day suspension imposed by the Department by notice dated October 29, 1986, is set aside and in the Court's discretion, we impose a fifteen-day suspension in substitution.

Without objection from counsel for the Commonwealth, the Court requests that in view of the peculiar and complex circumstances involving this defendant, the department is requested to make said suspension effective July 4, 1987.

June 30, 1987, Motion to Continue Argument and order filed. ORDER OF COURT: And Now, Juen 29, 1987, argument of Preliminary Objections in the above matter heretofore set for June 29, 1987, is hereby reset for july 21, 1987, at 1:30 P.M., before the Hon. P. Richard Thomas,
P. Richard Thomas, J.
July 2, 1987, copies of order to Attys. M. Dan Mason, Irving Murphy, and JOhn Quinn.

July 23, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, July 21, 1987, the matter is before the Court on argument of preliminary objections by Defendants generally acking for more precise pleadings and spelling out precise areas of negligence. The Court take this matter under advisement.

The Court has advised counsel for the P laintiffs of its former peripheral involvement with City Hospital before its merger in January 1986 with spencer Hospital to form Meadville Medical Center to the end that Judge P. Richard Thomas formerly served on the Board of Corporators of Meadville City Hospital which played an inactive rile in hospital administration but merely constituted a pool of citezens from the Meadville Area from which pool would periodically be designated two or three candidates for election to the Managing Board of Directors of City Hospital.

Apparently, in effectuating a merger, the remaining members of the City Hospital Baord of Corporators became general corporators of the merged Meadville Medical Center without any specific duties and without any direct responsibility for managing the hospital but apparently will remain for some period of time as a potential source of future active managing board members of Meadville Medical Center if duly nominated and elected to said position.

At this time, counsel for the Plaintiff is unable to advise the Court whether under these proviously unknown facts the Plaintiffs would ask for the disqualification or recusal of Judge P. Richard Thomas in handling this case. The Court notes in this regard that Judge Robert L. Walker is now an active member of the Managing Board of Directors of Meadville Medical Center and obviously would recuse himself form handling this case.

Accordingly, the Plaintiffs are given until September 1, 1987, to file a motion asking for the recusal of Judge P. Richard THomas in this case. If said motion is filed, the Court will act on the same. If said motion is not fi led, this Court will rule on the preliminary objections before the court this date.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT

Sept. 1, 1987 Copies of order to Joan Mason, Natalie Dwyer and J. Douglas Murphy

Sept. 1, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Aug. 27, 1987, the matter is back before the court on a written request for disqualification and recusal of Judge P. Richard Thomas and Judge Robert L. Walker, As noted previously, Judge Robert L. Walker is obviously disqualified and while it may be debatable whether P. Richard Thomas should recuse himself because of his position as a corporator, that issue is now moot in view of the fact that judge Thomas has resigned fromthe Board of Corporators.

However, due to recent back problems occurring in late July, Judge P. Richard Thomas is now a patient of defendant Mark Foster and accordingly, will recuse himself for that reason.

Preliminary Objections are long outstanding in this case and present counsel and plaintiffs contend they have not been successful in procuring new counsel. The court believes present counsel for the plaintiffs could dispose of the simple issues raised in the preliminary objections and, accordingly, the court recuses itself from hearing any further aspect of this case and hereby sets Sept. 21, 1987, at 1:30 p.m. for argument of the preliminary objections before a visiting Judge to be secured by special assignment. In the event a Judge cannot be procured on said date, the next earliest available date will be set and the preliminary objections will be argued on the date set.

In this regard, the court believes the issues in this case are so simple that the matter should be submitted tothe visiting judge on briefs alone which have already been filed, and accordingly, the matter will be disposed of on the basis of existing briefs on or before Sept. 14, 1987.

Present counsel for the plaintiffs objects to disposing of preliminary objections without oral argument supplementing the briefs. Said objection is overruled.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION

1 copy (atty)

Jan. 6, 1987 Acceptance Of Service of Complaint by Mary Ann Kirkpatrick for Defendant filed.

Jan 9, 1987 Motion to Set Hearing on Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Expenses and Order filed: AND NOW, January 9, 1987, a hearing on the Defendant's Motion for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Expenses is set for the 28th day of January, 1987, at 2:00 o'clock P.M. in Court Room No. 1 or 2, of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pennsylvania.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Jan 9, 1987, Copies of order to Atty. Agresti and Kirkpatrick.

Jan 9, 1987, Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, Reasonable Counsel Fees, Costs and Expenses filed.

Jan 9, 1987 Answer filed.

Jan. 28, 1987, Budget Information of defendant filed.

Jan. 30, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, January 28, 1987, the matter is before the Court, and counsel and the aprties agree the matter can be hadled on an informal basis regarding income and expneses of the parties and their relative assets.

The Court notes that this date the parties have mutually agreed to enter into a stipulation regarding the acceptable values for each party agreed upon this date for the marital value of a Florida condo and a Conneaut Lake residence; and, therefore, there will be no need for either party to employ appraisers to establish these values.

Insofar as afforney fees are concerned, it appears there is a money market account with Marine bank at Cochranton in an amount of approximately $45,000, which account was formerly in joint names, but has been changed into the name of the wife. By agremeent of the aprties, the wife is DIRECTED to withdraw $1,600.00 to pay her attorney for past and future services, and a similar amoun of $1,600.00 for fordwarding to the husbands attonrey for past and future services.

This ORder is entered without prejudice to the right of the divorce Master or ultimately the Court to allocate attorney fees, appraiser fees and anciliary expenses equitably between the parties.

Insofar as alimony pendente lite is concered, it appears the husband has been paying the sum of $200.00 per week or an approximate sum of $860.00 per month, to the wife, and he is DIRECTED on or before Feburary 1, 987, to pay a total of $860.00 for the month of January, 1987 as alimony pendente lite, with the Court noting husband contends he has already forwarded wife a total of $600.00 of this amount.

If the divorce is not resolved, the Court will entertain a further motion to review the alimony pendente lite situation, on request of either party after the 30th of April, 1987, when the Court willhave available to it the tax records of both parties, and the husband's corporation calender, 1987.

The husband is required to continue makin gpayments to maintain the household at Conneaut Lake and the condo in Florida, and agrees he will continue his wife under the ocmpany hopsitalization plan

The wife will not be permitted to use the gasoline credit card of the corporation to furnish gas for her car, but since the car is owned by the corporation, except for minimal repairs of $20.00 or less, the husband shall be responsible for repairs and maintenance of the car above said $20.00.

To further clarify the husband's obligation, he shall be requried to pay taxes, utilities, mortgage and insurance on the real estate at Conneaut Lake and on the Florida condo.

Further clarification of the husband's obligation to maintain health insurance on the wife, it is mutually agreed between the parties that any prescription drugs inexces of $10.00, doctor bills in excess of $15.00 and dental bills in excess of $15.00, not covered by the hospitalization policy will be paid for by the husband.

For further clarification, the parties mutually agree that the wife will not change on any charge cards in joint name to the end that the husband would be resonsible for payment of said obligations and that she will surrender any charge cards in joint name to her husband within five (5) days of this date.

The Court notes the wife now advises she has opende dcharge acocunts in her own named, and agrees any charges on these accounts will not be the responsibility of her husband.

At this time, both aprties an dcounsel feel it is mutually advantageous to file a joint tax return for the year, 1986, and unless the Court is shown circumstances that are greatly disadvantageous to either party, the court wille xpect a jointly filed return.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard thomas, P.J.

May 5, 1987, copies of order to Curtis Blystone and James Irwin.

June 17, 1987, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed. ORDER: AND NOW, June 16, 1987, the defendant's preliminary objections to the equitable partition action are dismissed and that action may continue as noted aforesaid.

Alimony pendente lite previously ordered in the amount of $40.00 per week shall be continued until Sept. 1, 1987, or until a sooner termination of this divorce action. If there are alimony arrears existing under our prior order at the time this order is filed, said arrears will be paid at the rate of $20.00 additional per week until the arrears are paid in full.

The request for interim counsel fees is partially granted and the defendant is directed to pay a portion of wife's accruing counsel fees in the amount of $400.00 with $200.00 to be paid on or before July 1, 1987, and $200.00 on or before August 1, 1987. This order is entered without prejudice to the right of the master, or ultimately the court, to allocate counsel fees of both parties in an equitable manner in a final decree.

The court denies the request to hold Defendant in contempt on the alimony payments by virtue of the fact he paid some of the same with traveler's checks previously purchased in the wife's name in anticipation of a marital vacation and issued in the name of the plaintiff. Obvously these traveler's check constitute marital property, but we deem it best that the Master make a recommendation regarding this intertwined alimony pendente lite and marital property issue and take it into consideration in making equitable distribution between the parties.

Accordingly, we take no action on the request for contempt because of payment of alimony by pre-existing marital property traveler's checks.

With regard to the special relief request that the lady friend of defendant husband be removed from the marital premises or at least be required to pay a reasonable rent to the plaintiff, said request is denied but is a matter for consideration in making an equitable division of property between the parties.

The discovery requests regarding the husband's investments in the marital home and his pension benefits have apparently now been satisfied and require no further court orders.

Upon petition or motion of either party, we will appoint a master in partition and divorce in accord with the foregoing and direct that he resolve both actions at one time by separate recommended decrees.

July 27, 1987 Motion For Discovery Order and For Order To Vacate Appointment of Master filed.

July 28, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, July 27, 1987, counsel for the Plaintiff in this divorce action contends this Court was erroneous in appointing a master on Defendant's motion stating that the request for production had been previously satisfied. The defendant is DIRECTED to comply with the requests of Paragraph 9 (1 through 6), and in relation to Paragraph 10, to produce the originals of said requested documents for examination by counsel for the Plaintiff. In this regard, the Court notes it is the contention of counsel for the Plaintiff that they received a thick packet of documents, but a meaningful percentage of said documents were illegible or were so poorly copied that they cannot be understood. Accordingly, we direct that the originals be produced for copying at the expense of the Plaintiff.

The marterials in Paragraph 10 will be produced within twenty (20) days, and amterials requested in Paragraph 9 will be produced within thirty (30).

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 29, 1987 Copies of order to Curtis Blystone and James Irwin

July 28, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, July 27, 1987, petition to vacate appointment of a master is before the Court with the thrust of this request addressing the Court's failure in appointing a master in partition to first cross the procedural requirements of Rule of Civil Procedure 1557 and 1558.

In the peculiar posture ofthis case and the related divorce case at A.D. 1986 - 757, counsel for Patricia Tucci is concerned with making certain the case follows mandated procedures in the event either party wishes to perfect an appeal from lower court ORders.

Accordingly, we partially grant the motion to vacate the appointment of a master to the end that the master is DIRECTED not to execute his duties until further Order of Court.

Further hearing on the petition aspects of these companion cases is scheduled for august 28, 1987 at 1:15 p.m.

This Order shal likewise apply to the appointment of the master in the divorce action at the above term and number.

Continuation of Tucci vs. Tucci (AD 1986 - 757)

Sept. 3, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 28, 1987, it appears an Order was originally entered on Jan. 7, 1987, by Judge Robert L. Walker, It further appears that said Order was to terminate May 1, 1987, and it further appears that this court entered an order continuing alimony pendente lite in the same amount on June 16, 1987. The Court has some confusion regarding the period between May 1 and June 16. It was the Court's intention that the order entered by Judge Walker should continue through the month of May, and the Court merely affirmed Judge Walker's Order on June 16, 1987.

Accordingly, the defendant is required to pay the weekly alimony pendente lite for the period May 1, to June 16, 1987.

Counsel for the parties are in agreement that under this court ruling, the arrears existing on this order are on the 26th of Aug. 1987, $360.00.

Some confusion in this case has logically arisen because the defendant assumed that $40.00 per week meant a total of $160.00 per month, whereas there are actually four and one-third (4 1/3) weeks per month.

The request for an increase in alimony pendente lite is DENIED.

The Court believes it advisable to change the Order to a monthly Order, and accordingly, commencing with the month of September 1987, the Order is changed from a weekly order of $40.00 to a monthly order of $172.00.

In addition, the defendant will pay an additional $86.00 per month commencing with the month of September 1987, to apply toward the arrearages existing as aforesaid.

Court believes once Plaintiff's counsel receives the pension information, this case should be speedily resolved in view of the fact both parties have filed a consent to the grant of the divorce.

Accordingly, alimony in this case will extend to Nov. 1, 1987.

The Court cautions Defendant that it expects strict compliance with this order.

BY ORDER OFTHE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 4 1987 copy to Atty. Blystone, Sept. 9, 1987, copy to James Irwin.

Sept. 3, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 28, 1987, there is dispute among counsel as to whether or not material furnished in compliance with a prior Court Order dated July 27, 1987, has been properly furnished. It appears that some of the materials have been furnished by the Defendant and other materials are not in his possession, particularly regarding health and welfare programs as they may affect spouses and details of total pension contributions, vesting interests and salaries used in calculating pension benefits.

Accordingly, counsel for the defendant says they would be willing to sign an authorization for any pension plan, welfare plan; employer or union, to furnish said information to counsel for the plaintiff upon request.

Accordingly, the Court DIRECTS counsel for the plaintiff/wife to prepare a proposed authorization within seven (7) days for signing by the defendant. In the event counsel for the plaintiff is unsuccessful in procuring the necessary information, the court AUTHORIZES him by Interrogatories or depositon to secure the necessary information from appropriate parties.

Upon presentation of the authorization request, the defendant will sign the same and return it to plaintiff's counsel within eight (8) days.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 9, 1987, Plaintiff's Motion for Post Trial RElief filed.

Nov. 6, 1987 Petition For Modified Continuance of Alimony Pendente Lite And For Interim Counsel Fees and Expenses and ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 6 day of Nov., 1987, upon presentation of Plaintiff's Petition for Modified Continuance of Alimony Pendente Lite and for Interim Counsel fees and expenses, a rule is hereby granted upon the defendant, Albert E. Tucci, to show cause why an Order should not be entered awarding plaintiff continued alimony pendente lite, interim counsel fees, and expenses.

Returnable for hearing on the 24 day of Nov., 1987 at O'Clock 9:30 A.M., prevailing local time, in Courtroom No. 1, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pa.

June 2, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, May 29, 1987, the matter is reviewed on the petition for contempt and termination of visitation rights. The Court finds insufficient evidence to find the mother in contempt of the Order, although the Court notes that her conduct with one Tony Erie leaves much to be desired, and her asociation with him has ended up with her being charged with a criminal charge of aggravated assault and recklessly endangering. The Court believes at this time that it is in the best interest of the child not to permit overnight visits with the mother.

At this time, the mother of the child is living with the grandmother on Licking STreet in Conneautville, and accordingly, prior extended visits are cancelled, and commencing with May 30, 1987, and every Saturday thereafter, the mother may have the right to have her child in her custody from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. In the event the mother moves from the residences of the child's grandmother, visits with the mother at any other location, otehr than the grandmother's house will be forbidden.

On or about October 1, 1987, the Court asks counsel to review the matter among themselves and in the event the mother's if seems stabilized, and one Tony Erie is not in the picture, counsel should discuss the possibility of more lengthy visits between mother and child.

There is some problem regarding telephone communication with the child, and the father and mother agree that every Tuesday and Thursday at approximately five o'clock, mother and grandmother may call the child and the father and the father's mother will be receptive to said calls, will convey tothe mtoehr any problems the child has or any illnesses and permit the child's mother and grandmother to visit, converse, on the telephone for a reasonable period of time.

ference to be drawn that the child is playing one parent against the other for discipline purposes, but it also is apparent that the child will reach the age of 18 in approx. four months and any order in this custody proceeding will become moot because he will have reached adulthood. We, therefore, enter the following order relating to custody:

CLARENCE ALBERT MARTIN shall be in the custody of his mother and shall have visits with his father on three weekends per month beginning Fri. at 7:00 p.m. He shall continue to reside with his mother on the first weekend of each month which shall be the weekend in which the first Friday falls. If the father wishes to have an evidentiary hearing concerning this matter, he shall arrange for his counsel to file a motion, at which time, an evidentiary hearing will be scheduled so that both parties will be represented by counsel. Except as necessarily modified herein, the existing order as previously modified shall continue in full force and effect.

June 26, 1987 Motion for Appointment of Master filed.

June 30, 1987 Re: Motion for Appointment of a Master and Order filed:
Plaintiff moves the court to appoint a Master to grant an divorce and distribute property. The claimed grounds for the divorce are Section 201(c) of the Divorce Code, and the Plaintiff alleges the action is not contested. We not in reviewing the file of this case the Plaintiff has recently filed an income and Expense Statement and an Inventory and Appraisment but neither party has filed the requisite affidavit required by Seciton 201(c) of the Code. Accordingly, we decline at this time to appoint a Master, as the matter is not ripe for granting a divorce on these grounds and the collateral distribtion of property.

Until such time as the requisite affidavit are filed or until the Plaintiff requests that a Master be appointed to grant a divorce on the contested grounds of indignities, we will decline to appoint a Master.

We note for the enlightenment of out-of-county counsel that Crawford County court practices is to require a deposit of funds to assure the payment of court reporting fees and master fees and that if the aforesaid deficiencies are corrected, we would entertain a new motion for appointment of a master and project an initial deposit of $700.00 by the Plaintiff would be required.

Oct. 1, 1987, copies of order to Attys. Agresti and M. Kirkpatrick.

Oct. 12, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, October 8, 1987, the matter is back before the Court on a petition to modify alimony pendente lite filed by the Plaintiff and a countering petition for contempt and continuation of alimony pendente lite filed by the Defendant Wife. The matter is handled informally between the parties and counsel and all parties concerned agree that they wish to expedite the ultimate dissolution of the marriage and property settelement in this case.

Accordingly, the parties agree that another conference between counsel and respective accountants will be held in Meadville, Pennsylvania on or before the 23rd day of October, 1987 in order for counsel for wife to ask pertinent questions about valuing assets in the corporate tool company. In the event counsel for wife believes she is not getting accurate information or pertinent information is being withheld, she is hereby authorized, without further petition to the Court to take the deposition of the Plaintiff/Husband within then (10) days of Ocotber 23, 1987.

Court and counsel at this time anticipate that by diligent effort they will know whether the matter can be amicably resolved by November 30, 1987. Accordingly, on motion of either party, and in the event an amciable settlement is not possible, the Court will entertain a motion to appoint a Master to schedule a hearing in this case, within said motion to be presented any time after December 1, 1987.

The parties are in mutual agreement that the roof on the residence at Conneaut Lake requires replacement at a cost of approximately $4,000.00, with said cost possibly to be increased slightly, because of sime defective roofing boards disclosed in the removal of shingles.

Both parties mutually agree that the present contractor may complete the job and that payment for the same may be withdrawn from a money market account formerly at Marine Bank, Cochranton, byt now transferred to a Merrill Lynch Cash Management Account. Copies of checks used by the wife to pay the roofing bill or receipts from the contractor will be forwarded to the husband.

In regard to the car owned by the Tool Company, but in the wife's possesison, husband and/or the Tool Company will continue to reimburse the wife for normal repairs and maintenance to said car.

Counsel for the husband advises counsel for the wife that he has a list of profit sharing plans and IRA accounts in the name of the husband, which he submits to counsel for the wife this date.

Court declines to reduce alimony pendente lite, but said obligation to pay alimony pendente lite shall terminate January 15, 1988 unless extended by further Order of Court after hearing, if requested.

Accordingly, alimony is continued generally but not to be continued bejond June 1, 1988, without further Order of Court.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

It appears that the husband is objecting strenuously to the amount of bills incurred by the wife for maintaining a 1983 Oldsmobile. The husband brings to Court several bills which he felt were excessive. It is the agreement of the parties that in the future when the carneeds repaired, the wife will consult with the husband and he will m,ake the decision as to where it is to be taken for repair and pay the bills therefore. In the event the car is out of state at the time emergency repairs are necessary, the wife need not contact the husband but may use her best judgment in getting it repaired at the most economic cost.

The wife agrees that she will not contact directly or have others to do so on her behalf any of the known present or former customers of Viking Tool Company, that she will not apply for employment at Viking Tool in any capacity ,paid or otherwise, and that she will not go on the premises of Viking Tool Company unless expressly invited by her husband.

It appears there are some personal items remaining on the premises of the Conneaut Lake household that are desired by the husband and there is some dispute as to how he is to gain possession of the same. The Court suggests he submit a list of the same to his wife, the wife see that they are packed up in the appropriate boxes, and have a mutual friend deliver the same to the husband.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR MARCH 1989

Aug. 2, 1989, ORDER filed. The above divorce aciton was previously argued before the court, and the court advised counsel that it was not satisfied with the recommendations of the master in the case. As a result, the court s cheduled a conference with counsel in attempt to aID THE COURT IN A SUBSTANTIALLY ALTERED EQUITABLE Distribution acceptable to both parties. This court was under the impression the parties acting through their counsel would amicable resolve the same by July 1, 1989.

The court not having received a notice of any settlement advised counsel it was prepared to schedule further hearings and argument on the complex financial decision mandated by the complexities of this case. Before a date for hearing and argument could be set, the court received the attached notice that amicable resolution ofthe matter is again being reconsidered by teh parties and their counsel.

Accordingly, this court will take no further action on this divorce unless counsel for either party specificallymoves for a hearing and argument, and delineates the areas requiring testimony to be taken at said hearing.

Mar 14, 1990 Motion to Remand to Master filed.

Mar 14, 1990 Order filed: Each party has filed separate petitions in this divorce action, which supposedly was amicably resolved on December 6, 1989. Defendant wife files a comtempt petition asking for a finding of contempt against the Plaintiff for his refusal to conclude the agreed upon settlement. He is alleging that the proposed agreement cannot be consummated because of an alleged change in the value of the assets from the time the same were established in the Master's report more than three years ago. There is also an allegation the income tax consequenses were not fully understood at the time of the agreement.

Argument on these two motions is set for April 6, 1990, at 2:30 p.m., before the undersigned.

Dec. 15, 1986 Motion for Hearing De Novo and Order filed: AND NOW, Dec. 15, 1986, Hearing set for Jan. 7, 1987 at 10:30 A.M.

Robert L. Walker, J

Dec. 16, 1986 Copies of order to Bruce Barrett and Brian Lindsay, Esqs.

Jan. 8, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, January 7, 1987, a hearing de novo having been set in this custody matter for this date, and the Court having heard the Plaintiff's case, but not yet having had an opportunity to hear the Defendant's case, it appearing that this matter will have to be continued for completion at some time in the future, because of the presently congested court schedule for the next few weeks, and further feeling that some modification of the temporary order is indicated by what we have thus far heard, the temporary ORder of November 14, 1986 is confirmed as a final ORder withthe following modifications:

1. Paragraph 1 is amended to provide that both the father and the mother shall have shared legal custody, meaning that both parties should be advised of all important matters in the child's welfare including medical matters, educational and religious training, and other matters affecting the upbringing of the child, but no party shall unreasonably insist upon a specific course of conduct relating to the child, so long as the child's best interests are being protected.
2. The return from the weekend visits is amended to read Sunday at 7:00 o'clock P.M. instead of 9:00 o'clock P.M. In addition to the visitation right of the mother in Paragraph 2 relating to all weekends ecept the first full weekend of the month, the mtoher shallhave the right to take the child with her for visitation on the Tuesday following the weekend that she does not have the child from 1:00 o'clock P.M. until 7:00 o'clock P.M.
3. The second sentence of Paragraph 5 requiring twenty-four (24) hours notice of intention to make a telephone call is vacated.
4. Paragraph 6 is vacated and stricken from the ORder.
5. That portion of Paragraph 8 beginning with the second line and reading, "Subject only to the continued participation of grandparents in Kristin's upbringing," is stricken.
6. It appearing that the Defnedant does not have available to her an automobile is presently residng at Gill Village and must use public transportation to and from work and downtown Meadville, and there is no reasonable public transportation to the home where the child is living, the Plaintiff and/or his parents shall furnish transportation to and form the Defendant's home, or if appropriate, place of employment for all visits.

The adoption of the temporary order as a permanent ORder as h erein amended shall not be deemed to preclude the completion of the hearing or the entry of a final permanent ORder without any allegationof a change in circumstances, and any aprty in interest, who wishes to have the hearing commenced this date completed with a final ORder to be entered by the Court, may by motion, request the completion of such hearing, an da hearing will be scheduled at the earliest possible time.

None of the parties to this proceeding shall remove the child from the geographic area of Pennsylvania, without approval of the Court or the written consent of the other party.

May 15, 1987 Motion for an Order Terminating Visitation and Order filed: And Now, May 15, 1987, Hearing scheduled June 2, 1987 at 1:30 P.M.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

May 15, 1987 Copies of order to Bruce Barrett and Brian Lindsay.

June 3, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, June 2, 1987, after the Court has refused to modify a three (3) to twelve (12) month sentence imposed upon mother, it appears themother will be confined for approximately three (3) months in the Crawford County Jail on bad check charges, and the petititon before us at this time to terminate visits with the mother is somewhat moot, at least for the next three (3) months.

TheCourt notes an Order by Judge Robert L. Walker dated January 7th,at which time on this de novo hearing, the Plaintiff's case was held, but there was inadequate time to hear the Defendant/Mother's case. However, a temporary Order was entered, and it now appears that both parties admit their animosity toward each other is such that it is impossible for either parent to pick up and return the child directly to the other parent without a fight.

Accordingly, the paternal grandparents have been picking up and delivering the child, and they are this day contending through counsel that the mother's attitude and conduct toward them is unreasonable and uncooperative, and adversely affects the child.

The Court explores the possiblity this dat e of having the fatjer a tte,½t to pick up and return the chjild on the visits and to communicate with the mother regarding the needs for the child, all of which would be in the spirit of par agraph one of Judge Walker's Order, provided that both mother and father shall parti cipate in matters affecting the child's best interest. Accordingly unless the par ents can come to some amicable arrangement to control their tempers, and conduct toward each other, it appears that shared c ustody is not a practical solution to this problem, because of lack of communication and the animosity between the parents.

Upon the Defendant/Mother's release on parole and upon her having established a residence, either party may then petitition the Court and either Judge Robert L. Walker or Judge P. Richard Thomas will hold a further hearing on this matter or hold a hearing de novo ascertaining custody of the child and what visitations and under what circumstances would be appropriate.

Feb. 5, 1988 Motion For Reinstatement Of Visitations and Order filed. And now, Feb. 5, 1987 Upon presentation and consideration of the within MOtion a hearing on this matter is set for the 25 day of Feb., 1988 at 9:00 o'clock a.m. for the purpose of taking testimony if necessary relative to the request of the Defendant to reinstate the visitations afforded to her under an Order of Court entered on January 7, 1987. P R Thomas, J

Feb. 8, 1988 Copies of order to Bruce Barret, R. Charles Thomas and William Pineo

Mar. 1, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, February 25, 1988, the matter is back before the Court with each party having their counsel and an informal review is scheduled. The Court hears input from Dr. Downing and the grandmother and it appears that the child has made dynamic progress and is relatively normal for a child of her age. It is apparent to the Court that there is still excessive bitterness between mother and father and the whole visitation problem is complicated by the fact that the mother has no transportation andthe father alleges that while he has a driver's license, hecannot drive the family car because he is not listed on the insurance policy.

The Court believes the child has made dynamic progress and should be accorded expanded visits with the mother on a regular basis. Accordingly, for the remainder of the month of February and the months of March and April, the mother shall have the right to have the child in her custody every Saturday from a period of 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The mother shall provide the transportation to pick up the child at the grandparents and the father shall provide the transportation for the return visit back to the grandparents. Commencing with the month of May 1988, the visits are expanded to the end that on the first and third weekends of every month, the mother shall be entitled to ha ve the child in her possession and exclusive custody from 7:00 p.m. Friday until 7:00 p.m. Sunday. The transportation responsibility shall be the same as before.

When the child visits the mother, the father shall see that she is accompanied by the proper clothing, a fes requested essential toys, and any medications that would have to be given to the child.

In the event the mother completes her intention to find larger quarters, whick of necessity would have to house not only herself but her seventeen-year -old sister, sister's minor child, and sister's boyfriend, she will notify the father in writing of the location of said premises and shall accord the father the right to inspect the premises at a time of his choice to satisfy him that there are adequate facilities for the care of the child on weekends.

If the aforesaid visitation schedule proves satisfactory,the Court envisions that during periods of time when the mother is either on vacation or perhaps on temporary layoff that she should be accorded more extensive continuous periods of visitation with her daughter on a one or a two week basis. It is impractical at this time to set a schedule for this and the Court urges the parties to attempt to make an amicable arrangement for such without the necessity and bitterness of returning to Court. In the event the parties cannot reach some amicable arrangement and the mother still desires and her working schedule allows continuous visits of one or two weeks, then the parties may request the Court for a further hearing if they cannot amicably resolve what is an obvious Court intention.

It shall be a condition of this Order that mother's father,James Kelly, shall not have the child at any time in his custody unless mother or another competent adult is present at all times.

In the event the mother wishes to take the child outside the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for any purpose, she shall notify the father in writing of the destination, the purpose, and the expected time of departure. Similar conditions will apply to the father and the custodial grandparents.

Aug. 10, 1988 Copy of Order to Attys. Bruce Barrett, R. Charles Thomas and Wiliam Pineo.

Sept 13, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, September 8, 1988, the matter is before the Court on on the mother's request for extended visits with daughter over and above the two weekend visits the mother is now accorded by Court Order. The bitterness between the parties continues and it is impossible for the Court to ascertain the best interests of the child at this time. Apparently, the mother now has a stable living arrangement in a three bedroom trailer, which has ben inspected by Children and Youth Services and seems to be adequate for the care of the child. Mother is working relatively full time but advises she could take extended days off to spend with the child and/or see that the child was in YMCA day care during her working hours while on an extended custody visit. The mother relates that the child verbalizes to her that her father pays little attention to her and has generally intimated that she considers her paternal grandmother in a motherly role. The father, on the other hand, relates that the child seems extremely upset and sleeps for extensive periods of time upon return from weekend visits with the mother and that the child verbalizes unhappiness while in the mother's custody.

The Court notes that Dr. Downing has referred the child to the Mental Health Center for some type of counseling or evaluation. Even if an extensive hearing is held at this time, the Court would be uncomfortable ruling on the mother's request for extended visitations without further input from the evaluation the Court assumes the Mental Health Center will make.

Accordingly, the hearing regarding the mother's request is continued indefinitely. The father is directed to see that all appointments with the Mental Health Center for the child are kept and both parties consent and agree that any evaluations, observations, or recommendations regarding the extended custody issue that the mental Health evaluators and counselors may have may be forwarded to the Court in writing with their consent with copies of the same to be furnished to counsel for both parties.

Accordingly, the case is continued generally and the Court requests the Mental Health Center to advise the Court in writing on or about October 15, 1988, of their evaluations and observations of the child and to venture a approximately one week at a time would be detrimental to the child's best interests.

Counsel for the father will see that a copy of this Order is forwarded to the Mental Health Center forthwith.

Nov. 23, 1988, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 18, 1988, the matter is before the court for review because of some confusion regarding the babysitting situation with the mother. The Court reviews the situation and finds that the mother has an adequate and mature babysitter for the first and third weekends for the minor child.

ACCORDINGLY, we deny the father's request to have the child with him on those weekends instead of in the mother's home. The visitations will remain the same with the mother; thiat is , the first and third weekends from 7:00 p.m. Friday until 7:00 p.m. Sunday.

At the request of the mother and in view of the holiday season, the ghird weekend visit in Dec., namely, Dec. 16, 1988, the mother will pick up the child at 6:00 p.m. instead of 7:00 p.m. Return time will be the same for this weekend.

In regard to Christmas, 1988, the child will be in the custody fo the mother from 9:00 a.m. Dec.,25th until 8:00 p.m. Dec. 25th. The mother will pick up the child. The father will return the child. In this regard, until further order of court, the parties will alternate Christmas Day in the future years to the end that the father will have the child on Christmas Day, 1989.

13. Either party may request a review of this Order upon a substantial change of circumstances. 3. The court takes no position with respect to the ultimate modification, for that matter may come back before this Court at some point, if not soon. The Court did interview the children on the record outside of the hearing of the parties but with counsel present, and has reviewed the report of Kathy Berkey. None of the parties shall say or do anything to threaten these two boys or to unreasonably inquire into what they may say at the custody mediation or further proceedings, or to try to influence what they may say or to encourage, influence or affect their testimony in any manner or to do anything that would inhibit them cr censor them from stating their true experiences and true beliefs. They have a fear about the repercussions of their telling the Court what they have experienced.

The defendant is cautioned and warned that neither she not her current husband shall do anything to punish or reprimand the children for having said what they said.

Oct. 23, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 23 1986, by agreement of the parties and their counsel, rather than go into an extensive hearing at this time, the Court believes that a home study and personal evaluation of each of the parties would be appropriate, and accordingly, Cindy Stone of the Odd Fellows Counseling Program is hereby appointed by the Court to interview the parties, make the requisite home studies and present a recommendation to the Court regarding appropriate custodial and visitation arrangements for this minor child, aged eight months. The parties and their relatives are directed to accommodate the caseworker in the event she wishes further interviews or wishes to make an in-home study. The court guarantees the cost of said report and reserves the right to allocate all or a portion of the costs thereof between the parties as appropriate.

The Court requests a written report, with a copy to each counsel within forty-five days (45).

The parties consent that the psychological evaluation in the Court's hands and all relevant Court dockets may be used by the caseworker in making the investigation.

In the meantime, the parties mutually agree that primary custody of the minor child Douglas shall remain with the mother Java Blair, but that each and every Saturday commencing Oct. 25, 1986, the father shall have the right to pick the child up at the home of his mother at 9:00 a.m. and have the child in his exclusive care and custody until 3:00 p.m. the same day, when he shall return the child. By agreement of the parties, the father will provide the necessary diapers and food while the child is in his care and custody. The father agrees and the court requires that another adult member of the family be present in the event the father needs any assistance in meeting the needs of the young child.

Upon receipt of the report, the court directs counsel to meet and see if the matter can be amicably resolved, but if it cannot, the Court will entertain a motion for further hearing.

✓ Nov. 7, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, November 5, 1986, the matter is before the Court for a hearing de novo on exceptions taken to the Custody Mediator's recommended Order by the mother.

Both parties appear with competent counsel and the matter is discussed at length informally without taking sworn testimony. It appears to the Court that we are dealing with two rational parents and an adequate home for each parent and that a shared custody arrangement at this time inthe child's life is warranted both as a matter of law and in the best interest of the child.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court is inclined on the fasts presented informally by both parties to find that the temporary Order recommended by the Mediator is in the best interest of the child and should be adopted by the Court as a formal final Order.

Both parties express some concern about Paragraph 4 regarding the exchange and alternation of holiday visits. The Court urges the parties through their counsel to make such modifications of Paragraph 4 as they believe adequately accommodate both parents and are in the best interest of the child. To start this renegotiation of Paragraph 4, the Court directs the plaintiff an dher counsel to reduce Paragraph 4 to their suggested amended form and forward it within five (5) days tocounsel for the defendant. If the matter cannot be amicably resolved within twenty (20) days and an amended Paragraph 4 filed, either party may file a motion with the Court to establish such holiday visits as the Court deems appropriate and the Court will do so without further input or hearing.

The parties mutually agree that Paragraph 3 of the temporary Order shall be modified so that the weekend visits set forth therein shall commence Friday at 3:00 p.m.a nd terminate Sunday at 3:00 p.m. to avoid any night diring by either parent.

In regard to Paragraph 3 defining the first full weekend of every month, the Court defines said weekend as the first weekend of every calender month where Friday, Saturday and Sunday fall within the same month.

✓ May 19, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, May 15, 1987, the matter of contempt is handled in an informal manner, and the Court receives input from each party regarding the confusion regarding the change of custody and the absense of certain visits in April. The mother's contention is that the father had told her she would be hearing from his attorney and did not anticipate that the father wished to continue with the required visits until the matter was resolved between the attorneys. Accordingly we decline to adjudge in contempt, but caution the parties that the Court expects strict compliance with the Order of the Court regarding custody and visitation heretofore entered.

To make up for weekend visits lost, the Custody Order is amended to provide that the father may also have a weekend visit on the first weekend in June in addition to the other visits in June.

By agreement of the father, when the mother has the responsibility of picking up and delivering the child, the grandparents can do the same on her behalf.

Nov. 1, 1988, Answer and New Matter in Response to Plaintiffs Motion to Suspend Visitation filed.

Nov. 1, 1988, Motion to Dismiss Proceedings and To Establish Jurisdiction in Erie County, filed.

Nov. 4, 1988 Order filed: Order: AND NOW, November 1, 1988, at the time the matter is set for hearing before this Court on the mother's petition to suspend visitations, the Court is presented with a motion to dismiss the custody proceedings in this County and to establish jurisdiction in Erie County. After listening to input and argument from both counsel, the Court finds the motion to dismiss and to establish jurisdiction in Erie County inappropriate and dismisses the same. The Court is advised by counsel for the mother that a timely appeal will be filed from this decision.

The Court then proceeded to take testimony on the motion to suspend visitation. The mother of the child was called and questions of what the child had told herabout a parent misconduct on the part of the father was objected to as being hearsay. After legal argument, the Court sustained the objection, noting that perhaps said testimony would be corroborative once there was elicited from the child testimony evidencing some inappropriate conduct on the part of the father. When the Court offered to examine the child, the Court was advised that the child was not present in the Courthouse but was in the custody of a grandmother.

In view of this Court's reluctance to accept hearsay evidence from the mother without having the opportunity to informally discuss the matter with the four-year old child to ascertain whether she is of such age that she should be interviewed by Court and counsel in substitution of direct testimony in a hostile courtroom, this Court was reluctant to proceed further in attempting to establish whether or not any of the conduct of the father was detrimental to the child's best interests.

The Court did listen to a witness produced by the father, namely, one Joyce Wiley, an intake specialist with Erie County Children and Youth Services, as to her contact with the mother and the child at her office.This witness apparently has considerable expertise in interviewing children in situations of this nature and by use of conversation and the use of anatomically correct dolls, she could find absolutely no evidence of any physical or sexual abuse and found nothing unusual aboutthe child. This interview lasted for one to one and one-half hours and when the mother requested a further reference, Miss Wiley referred her to the Erie County Rape Crisis Center. who apparently interviewed mother and child and only the results of the interview were referred to witness Wiley. Wiley advised the Court that she knew her appropriate counterpart. at the Rape Crisis Center and that they reported back to her that they were not going to report the incident to the Child Crisis Line.

Apparently the mother has scheduled an appointment with Dr. James Schirlberl, a psychologist, because of the upset condition of the child and peripherally because of her alleged statements about her father.

No further testimony was offered by the mother and her counsel again requested a continuance of this hearing. Accordingly, we reset this hearing for December 7, 1988, at 1:15 p.m. The appointment withDr. Schirlberl need not be kept and father's counsel postulates that the father may wish to refer the child to a lo cal psychologist for evaluation. We authorize but do not Order the same but if said referral is made, any written reports by the Doctor shall be forwarded to the opposing parent and her counsel.

In view of the fact the father's long-term visit established by prior Court Order was to commence November 1, 1988, at 3:00 p.m. and the parties are in court at that time, the parties mutually agree that the father will pick up the child for said visit at 7:00 p.m. this date.

Feb. 23, 1989 Order filed. And now, February 22, 1989, it is reported to this Court by the defendant (no longer represented by counsel) that the mother of the child involved in this custody case refused to allow him to pickup the child for his continuing five-month custody period. As the Court understands the situation, the mother advised the father that since the jurisdiction issue in this case is on appeal in the Superior Court, she no longer has to comploy with this Court's custody order.

Accordingly, a rule to show cause is entered as to why the plaintiff Lisa D. Hall (Witt) should not be held in contempt of Court for willful and deliberate violation of this Court's Order, and ahearing on this matter is scheduled before the undersigned March 6, 1989, at 1:30 p.m. The mother is directed to appear at that time with or without counsel and is directed to produce the child at thetime ofthe hearing.

Mar. 9, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, March 6, 1989, after hearing, on the Court's contempt citation, and after taking testimony from both the parents and one other witness, it appears there was a great deal of confusion regarding the correct interpretation of Paragraph 4 of the original August 21, 1986 temporary Orde,r which was substantially reduced to a permanent Order by this Court. The thrust of the problem lies in the fact that the noncustodial mother was accorded under Paragraph 4 a visit from December 27th to December 30th. However, the mother as noncustodial parent, also had weekend visits except for the first weekend of every month with the child, and accordingly, in 1988, with December 30th failling on a Friday, mother's posture was that there was no sence in surrendering the child, because she had a weekend visit with that child.

The father's interpretation, however, was that since the weekend of December 30, 31, January 1 was a holiday, that the holiday visits superseded the weekend visits under Paragraph 4. However, in this regard the Court notes that the holiday visit of New Year's Day under Paragraph 4 provides for a visit only on that holiday from 10:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.

Thus, the Court cannot find a wilful and deliberate disobeyance of a Court Order by the mother, and the Court has some understanding for the father's erroneous assumption that he was entitled to have the child returned to him. In this regard, the Court notes that in its Order of NOvember 5, 1986, there was some confusion at that time amoung the parties about a correct interpretation of Paragraph 4, requiring mother and her counsel to redraft Paragraph 4, according to their suggested amendments and forward the same to the father and his counsel. The Court further noted that if the parties could not amicably resolve the potential misunderstandings, under Paragraph 4, that the matter could be resubmitted to the court, and the Court would draft a more understandable Paragraph 4. The record does not disclose that this Court's directive was ever complied with, and the parties seemingly agree that the proposed redrafting for clarification was never straightened out.

The Court DIRECTS with the mother's consent that the minor child, Miranda, be surrendered to the father forthwith, for his custody under the Order, which will temporarily terminate April 1, 1989; the weekend visits accorded the mother, and other weekend provisions in the Order shall remain in full force and effect.

Court again encourages the parties on their own and through counsel to attempt to clarify and refine the visitation spelled out in original Paragraph 4, so we are not again facted with the repeat of the present situation.

In view ofthe fact the Court can find neither party at fault in this confusing situation, we direct the County to pay any costs in this case.

The parties mutally agree that the five selected holidays referred to in Paragraph 4, namely Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, child's birthday and January 1, 1990 shall be accorded as follows: Memorial day, 1989 mother's visit; July 4th, 1989, father's visit; Labor Day, 1989, mother' visit; child's birthday (October 1), father's visit; January 1, 1990, mother's visit. Each calendar year following the aforesaid schedule, the child will vist the opposite aprent on said dates.

Jul 6, 1990 Motion to Request Custody Hearing and Order filed: And Now, July 6, 1990, this Court is in receipt of a request, pro se, from the Defendant requesting a custody hearing "for the purpose of sending the minor child Miranda L. Hall to school".

Hearing is hereby set for July 20, 1990, at 2:00 p.m., in Courtroom No. 1. At least five days before said hearing, the Defendant will amplify his motion in writing by clearly and precisely delineating the issue involving the schooling of the minor child that the Court is being called upon to resolve.

The Defendant shall be responsible for serving a copy of this Order upon the Plaintiff by certified mail.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, PJ

July 9, 1990 Copies of order mailed to Atty. Chase and ~~Plaintiff~~ and Defendant and copy put in Atty Kirkpatrick's box.

July 16, 1990, Amplification of Motion (hearing set for July 20, 1990) filed.

July 25, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, July 20, 1990, this matter is before the Court on a Custody review hearing requested by the father because minor child Miranda will be entering Kindergarten in late August or September 1990. The shared custody arrangement between the parents seems to have worked with reasonably satisfaction, but the scheduling of the visits between the parents for shared custody will become impractical when the child commences kindergarten in September of 1990.

After input from both parties, the parties mutually agree to the following modified arrangements:

1. The child is in the custody of the mother pursuant to the present agreement at this time and will remain in the mother's custody, but will be surrendered to the father August 4th, 1990 for a one-month visit an dwill be surrendered to the mother on September 1, 1990 in preparation for her attendance at the Millcreek kindergarten.
2. The parties agree that for the kindergarten year only, the child will attend kindergarten for one semester at Millcreek and will attend k indergarten for the second semester at Penncrest in the father's custody.
3. To accomplish the same, the child tehn will remain in the custody of the mother for the months of September through a time in January mutually agreed to by the parents when she will complete the first semester of kndergarten at Millcreek and be transferred to the father for commencement of the second semester of kindergarten at the Penncrest School District.
4. Following return to the father in January 1991, the child shall remain in the custoyd of the father until the end of the Pnncrest school year when she will be transferred to the mother for at least the month sof June and July, 1991.
5. The Court and the parents are unable at this time to ascertain whether is it in the best interest of the child to continue the aforesaid shared custody arrangement once the child enteres the first and following grades in regular schooling. ACCORDINGLY, the parents will attempt to reach some agreement regarding the custody or shared custody of the child for the schoolyear 1991-92. If the parents are unable to agree and desire a court decision onthis matter, either may petition the Court for a review hearing on or before July 20, 1991.
6. The prior weekly visitiations with the non-custodial parent set forth in th epresent custody Order shall continue in that the first full weekend of any month, the custodial parent shall continue to have the child in their custody. The remaining weekends of the month, the non-custodial parent willhave said custody.
7. For the month of August, 1990, once the father receives the child on August the 4th, 1990, the parents mutually agree they will arrange satisfactory visits between mother and child for the remaining month of August before the father returns her to the mother September 1, 1990.
8. The parties mutually agree that the prior Order covering holiday visitations with the parents shall control.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 7, 1987 Copies to Joseph Kulwicki and Joan Mason

Feb 3, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, January 29, 1987 at the time set for hearing the Court and counsel meet together and all agree it is in the best interests of the parties and the children that the matters be amicably resolved. Accordingly, after consultation with their clients, the parties have mutually agreed as follows:

1. Primary custody of the children will continue with the father at the residence of Dolores Norr at R.D.#2, Box 616, Conneaut Lake, which is the primary residence of the father. The father may not move the children to another custodial residence with the consent of the mother of said children.

2. The children will be surrendered to the custody of the mother on the third day after their last day of school in May or June and will remain in the custody of the mother until further hearing, which is not scheduled for August 27, 1987, at 9:30 A.M.

The Court is desirous and the parties agree to modify the present visitation schedule with the mother when the children are in primary custodial care of the father. Accordingly, the mother shall have the usual visitation rights on the weekend of January 30-February 1, but commencing with the month of February and monthly thereafter until the children are surrendered to the custody of the mother after school is out in the spring, the mother shall have the right to have custody under the present arrangements on the first three weekends of every month.

3. During the Easter School vacation period, the parties and Court are uncertain about the length of the children's Easter vacation period, but the parties agree that the children will be surrendered to the custody of the mother on the last day of school commencing the Easter vacation period and will be returned by the mother to the father the night before the first day of school following the Easter vacation period.

It will be the responsibility of the mother to pick up the children for said vacation visits and the father to return the children or pick up the children at the mother's for return to his custody at the end of the vacation period.

4. During the summer vacation period, the children will have reasonable visits with the father as specified hereafter and the father shall be entitled to have the children in his custody for one continuous week of his choice but said week cannot now be specified because the father does not know when he will be taking his allowed vacation period.

Accordinly, the father shall give the mother thirty days notice of the continuous one-week period which he wishes to have the children in his custody and unless the parties agree otherwise, said week shall be construed to be from Sunday at 9:00 a.m. until the following Sunday at 5:00 p.m., provided further that the one-week custody period of the father shall not immediately follow the dismissal of school for summer vacation nor can it be the week commencing August 16 or August 23.

Other than the aforesaid one week continous period during the summer months, in addition to the aforesaid one-week period, commencing with the month of June 1987, the father shall be entitled to have the children in his custody on the first and third weekends of every month under the same conditions and during the same hours as previously specified. The pickup hours for this visit as well as the aforesaid weekend visits shall require the mother to pick up Friday at 5:00 p.m. and father return Sunday at 5:00 p.m. for the summer.

It is the agreement of the parties that regardless of when the visitation periods occur, it shall be the responsiblilty of the mother to provide Friday transportation and the father to provide Sunday transportation.

(Reciprocal Support Order included, See paper filed.)

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Feb. 4, 1987 Copies of order to Joan Mason, Joseph Kulwicki, Esqs. and William Pineo, Esq.

April 15, 1987 Supplemental Order filed: AND NOW, April 13, 1987, the parties apparently mutually agreed to change the Custody Order previously entered in this case to the end that the children will reside with the mother in Erie, Pennsylvania, with certain visitation schedules accorded to the husband. See the letter, agreement and statements of Marvin Norr attached hereto.

Accordingly, the court considers the custody issue now moot and having been amicably resolved.

Insofar as the spousal and support problem is concerned, the court does not know whether the parties have likewise amicably resolved this issue nor does the court know the present status of the support account. In this regard, the court is in receipt of a Xerox copy of a check payable to Marvin E. Norr by Conrail, apparently in full or partial payment of a Title VII payment alluded to in this court's order of January 29, 1987.

In the event the support issue has not been amicably resolved as it relates to wife and children, the court advises the parties and their counsel that if this matter of support is to be further litigated, it must first proceed before a hearing officer at the Domestic Relations Section for resolution.

4. For the months of October, November and December, 1987, the father shall commence having weekend visits with the child and unless the parties agree to different hours, weekend visits with the child shall be on the first and third weekends of said months and unless the parties agree otherwise, the weekends shall commence 7:00 p.m. Firday and terminate 7:00 p.m. Sunday.

Additionally, during said three-month period, the father shallhave the child on the second Wednesday of each month between the hours of 9:00am. and 6:00 p.m.

No visits will be accorded the fathe ronthe fourth calendar week of each one of these months.

6. Commencing with the month of January, 1988, and monthly thereafter, the father will be accorded during the first and third calendar weeks of each month a mid-week overnight visit for a continouos period of forty-eight (48) h ours at a time convenient to the father, but the father must give at least one (1) week advance notice ofthis period.

Additionally, on the second and fourth weekends, the father shallhave custody of the child from Friday at 7:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

7. Commencing with January, 1988, the mother may designate a one continouos seven (7) day period every three (3) months when the child will be in her exclusive custody, and any of the aforesaid visitation periods with the father will be superseded. The mother must give the father at least one (1) month advance notice of when this continouos one (1) week custodial period with the motehr shall be.

Likewise, commencing in January, 1988, the father may designate a similar one (1) week period every three (3) months when the child will be in his exclusive custody for a seven (7) day period, and he must give the mother at least one (1) month notice of when said period will be.

This arrangement will continue every three (3) month period through 1988.

8. The Court recognizes the tender age ofthe child at age one and one-half years (1 1/2) and sets a visitation and custody schedule only through calendar year 1988; as the situation of the parties changes and the child becomes older, the Court urges the parents to arrange future visitation schedules beyond calender year 1988 to accomplish the general goal established by the Court in this Order of according the father additional visitation rights with the child.

In the event the parents cannot mutally agree on some expanded visits for the child in 1989 and thereafter, the matter must come back to the Court for resolution.

9. Regarding the holiday visits with the child, the Court designates the follwoing as holidays: Thanksgiving, Christmas, easter, legal Memorial Day, Labor Day and child's birthday.

The parents shall alternate custody of the child on these holidays commencing with the year 1987 and for 1987, the father shall be accorded custody of the child on Thanksgiving Day.

In regard to the Christmas Holiday, the non-custodial parent shall have the child for a continouos twenty-four (24) hour period eitehr the day before or the day after Christmas.

10. The Court and parties recognize that the illness of the child, a parent or family member may make a particular visit impracitcal, and the Court DIRECTS the aprties to cooperate in re=adjusting the schedule to meet unexpected illnesses, family emergencies or other unexpected situations and change said schedules, but substitute another appropriate time for the visitation that has to be cancelled because of such situation.

11. If the aprties cannot agree as to the length of stay on the holiday period, the Court establishes suchours as a continuous ten (10) hour period, with the parent entitled to custody to fix said hours.

12. On all visits with the father, it shall be the responsibility of the father to pick up and return the child.

A.D. 1986 - 627

Feb. 19, 1991 Order filed. AND NOW, February 12, 1991 the matter is before the Court on Judge Miller's order of January 23rd, responding to a written complaint from the mother that the father was refusing to surrender minor child Travis after a weekend visit. The father has consulted counsel and on counsel's advice has returned the child to the mother.

Through modificiation of the original Court Orders forming part of the record inthis case, it appears that the parties have now agreed that basicially, daughter Maresa shall be in the custody of the mother. In accordance with the prior agreement, on the first and thrid weekends of every month, the father will return daughter Maresa to the mother for a weekend visit, and return to pick up the child up at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Likewise, on the second and fourth weekends of every month, the mother takes Travis to the home of the father at 5:00 p.m. Friday and picks him up Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

The matter comes into dispute back on a January visit, the weekend of January 18th and 19th, when the father refused to surrende mnor child Travis, basically contending it is not in the child's best interest to be in the custody of the mother. The mother admits to having previous alcohol problems and is now in counseling, and advises that she has not consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of serveral months. She was married on January 18 and her last name is now askins, and her husband runs a licensed bar in Erie County.

The Court is presented a letter from Sarah Reed Children Center where minor child Travis was referred by his school, and this letter from the intake coordinator indicates Travis has an attention deficit, is hyperactive, and in need of specialized after school programing at Sarah Reed Center. The mother advises she intends to enroll him as soon as a waiting list of two other children is cleared away. The child is doing poorly in school and the mother has had numerous consultations with school authorities regarding his attention span, his grades, and his hyperactivity.

As with many cases, father contends both children profess a desire to live with him and the mother advises that Travis tells her the opposite.

This Court believes this matter should be reviewed but because of the lack of Court time, refers this matter back to Custody Mediator John Fuller who originally entered the other in this case in January 1987. The Court requires the parents to bring both children to the conference and the Court recommends that the mediator talk privately with both children. The mediator will recommend a temporary order to the Court and each party is advised if it isn't to their satisfaction they may ask for a de novo hearing before the Court.

The mother is directed to procure fromthe school district all relevant records regarding Travis and forward them as soon as she receives them to Attorney John Fuller, Center Street, Meadville, PA 16335 with the mtoehr also to furnish a copy to the father's attorney.

If the parties are unable to reach an agreement in this area, the Court on its own will devise a visitation schedule without further hearing or further imput in this case.

The children are now in the custody of the father and the Court directs that the parties as part of the aforesaid agreement is concerned arrange an exclusive visit with the mother where the children are in the mother's exclusive custody for a period of not more than six (6) consecutive days between now and August 25, 1991. Dec. 5, 1991 ORDER, filed. ORDER: AND NOW, Nov. 26, 1991, the matter is before the Court on a request for a contempt hearing filed by Theresa Askins. It appears that on the visit scheduled for Nov. 1, 1991, the mother arrived early to pick up the children after calling the father at work requesting an earlier time to secure custody and was refused. An argument ensued when the father refused to turn the children over for the visit, and the mother left without the children.

The father's contention is that the mother is not satisfied with the hours set by the Court order of a pick-up time for 6:00 p.m., and he contends the mother of the children continues to call him at home and in this one incident at work, trying to persuade him to give her the chidren at an earlier time on their week end visits. The father is adamant that he is complying with the Court order and will not agree to turn the children over to the mother an hour or two earlier on the visitation date.

We feel both parties acted stubbornly and without justification in this one incident, and in spite of the fact the parties argued about the pick-up time, the Cort finds no excuse for the father not encouraging the children to go with the mother a minute or two before 6:00 p.m. Accordingly, we find him in willful and deliberate contempt of th is Court order. We will postpone any punishment for contempt, and we caution the father that he must surrender the children for the required visitation period. We caution the mother that she should cease and desist callinga the father at work in an attempt to get the pick-up times changed, and that she should arrive for the pick-up at the time designated in the Court order, namely 6:00 p.m.

At this time, the mother desires to calrify Paragraph 3(c) of the Oct. 22, 1991 order regarding visits for Easter and Thanksgiving, and the parties point out to the Court that since the hours are not specified and the days are not specified in said paragraph, there is the potential for further dispute. The parties mutually agree as follows:

Regarding Paragraph 3(c), Thanksgiving visits for the noncustodial parent shall commence before Thanksgiving at 4:30 p.m. and run through 6:00 p.m. the following Sunday with the mother's responsibility being to pick up the children, and the father's responsibility to return them from the mother.

Regarding the Easter weekend visits prescribed in the same paragaraph, the parties mutually agaree that the mother's Easter visits shall commence the Friday before Easter at 4:30 p.m. and continue until the night before school classes recommence at 6:00 p.m. The mother's responsibility shall be to pick up the children at the residence of the father, and the father's responsibility will be to pick up the children for return home at the residence of the mother.

Said notice was received by Marvin E. Norr on April 18, 1992, as indicated by the return receipt card which was returned to the office of the Defendant's attorney and is attached hereto.

Joan D. Mason, Attorney for Defendant

Apr. 21, 1992 Verification of Statements made in Contempt Petition, filed.

Apr. 23, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 21, 1992, after a formal hearing on the Defendant's latest petition for contempt the Court finds that the Plaintiff has wilfully violated the Oct 22, 1991 Order in one respect, that is he left the children alone for more than two (2) hours while he went shopping and to Crystal Lake Tavern on March 7, 1992. The Defendant has not carried her burden of proof insofar as the allegations surrounding the alleged leaving of the children on March 5 (in Paragraph 2 of her petition) nor has she met her burden of proof that the Plaintiff has been under the influence of alcohol (Paragraph 5 of her latest petition).

The Court finds that the Plaintiff did violate the spirit of the Order with respect to the late pickup on March 6, 1992 as well as the spirit of the Order with respect to the recorded phone conversation of March 7, 1992, but does not hold the Plaintiff in contempt for those two acts.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The Plaintiff shall pay a fine of $200.00; $100.00 for the use of Crawford County and $100.00 for the Defendant, which said fine is suspended if the Plaintiff fully and completely complies with all Court Orders in this case for six (6) months from this date. In the event that he violates any Court Orders within six (6) months from this date and after hearing is adjudicated as having violated any Court Orders, then the fine shall be paid forthwith.

If he complies with all Court Orders faithfully within the next six (6) months, said fine shall be permanently suspended.

2. The findings of this Court that the Plaintiff is in contempt for leaving the children alone on March 7th, a direct and wilful violation of the prior Court Order and the findings of this Court that the Plaintiff has violated the spirit of the Order with respect to the phone call of March 7th and the late pickup of March 6th all m ay be used by the Mediator in determing whether or not custody should be modified.

The Mediator need not hear evidence on those three (3) matters and may in fact accept this Court's findings on those three (3) matters together with any other findings and conclusions the Mediator reaches in determing whether or not there should be a modification or change in custody.

3. The Plaintiff shall pay $250.00 toward the Defendant's attorney fees int he following installments: The sum of $100.00 no later than May 15, 1992 and the final sum of $150.00 no later than June 15, 1992, which said payments shall be made to Joan D. Mason, Attorney for the Defendant directly. Said payments need not be made through the Court or through the Prothonotary.

4. Until further Order of Court either after a court hearing or after modification proceedings before a Mediator, the Plaintiff shall not leave his children and go to a tavern for any purpose unless his children are at all times left in the presence of another responsible adult.

Jan. 5, 1993 Order Filed. AND NOW, December 23, 1992, after hearing, it appears to the Court that the Defendant has wilfully violated the most recent Order of custody entered April 27, 1992 and he is, therefore, adjudicated in contempt of court. No sanctions will be imposed at this time provided that both parties strictly comply with the original Order as further delineated herein.

The last Order entered provided that the mother's first weekend would be April 17th and the Court has calculated every other weekend since that date and it appears that the weekend of December 25th would be the mother's weekend. The Court recognizes that that is Christmas Day, but since the Friday visitation does not begin until late afternoon, we do not believe it is unfair to insist upon enforcement. Therefore, the Defendant shall deliver the children in his custody to the home of the Plaintiff at 890½ Porter Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania at 5:00 o'clock p.m. on Friday, December 25th and pick them up at the same place at 3:00 o'clock p.m. onSunday, December 27th. Thereafter, the visit between the children and their respective parents shall occur on an alternate weekend basis as contained in the most recent Order.

That Order forbade the presence of one DanPhillips at the mother's home during visits and we have been assured under oath by the mother at this hearing that she no longer has any contact with Dan Phillips but in any event, that portion of the Order is continued in full force and effect.

The Court has this day insisted that both parties furnish a telephone number to the other where they can be reached. The knowledge of that telephone number shall not be used by any party at any time in order to initiate any type of verbal altercation,but shall be used solely for the purpose of determining or advising the other party of any substantial matter dealing with the welfare of the children or the arrangements for visitation. The Defendant has indicated to theCourt that his telephone is usually answered by an answering device and in the event the Plaintiff has left a message on the answering device, it shall be answered by the Defendant within a reasonable period of time.

Except as herein modified by necessary implication,the existing Order remains in full force and effect.

Dec. 19, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 19th day of December 1996, upon receipt and consideration of defendant's request for hearing de novo of the custody issues raised in the above action, hearing is hereby set for Tuesday, January 28, 1997, at 9:15 a.m., CR #3 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, PA 16335.

FOR THE COURT,
Ann A. Walker, Ct. Admin.

Dec. 19, 1996 Request for a Hearing filed.

Feb. 24, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Jan. 28, 1997, the matter is before the Court for a review on exceptions taken by the father to an amended temporary order filed Dec. 12, 1996. Neither party is represented by counsel. The Court noes that this matter also got before the Court at the same number with Michele Lee Wood listed as Plaintiff and Scott Grant Abbott, Sr. listed as Defendant.

The main thrust of the father's objection to the order entered Dec. 10, 1996 is that it accords excessive holiday visits to the mother. The Court points out to the father that while there may be an equal sharing of the major holiday visits, the custody order provides no extended visitation periods for the mother during the summer school vacation period. The Court advises the father that this is rather unusual and that in the vast majority of cases, one or two extended summer visits are according to the non-custodial parent.

With this enlightenment, the father agrees that in return for the mother not seeking extended summer visits, he is willing to comply with the existing holiday visitation schedule set forth in the order of Dec. 10, 1996. (SEE PAPERS FILED).
