November 12, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, November 12, 1997, the plaintaiff's motion for appointment of Master is denied as there are no issues for the Master to decide.

The only count in this divorce complaint is for divorce. There is no count for "back taxes, and bills jointly incurred" which is known to the law as a count for equitable distribution of marital property.

We note that the plaintiff is an inmate at SCI Cambridge Springs. She should seek legal advice either through the institution or the Bar Association volunteer program as to how to proceed.

Since divorce is the only count the only issue before the Court is whether or not the divorce will be granted either by consent of both parties (23 Pa.cC.S.A. 3301 (c) or after the passage of time provided for in 23 Pa.C.S.A. 3301(d).

Chris Gillingham, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Sept. 17,1 997 Order filed. AND NOW, September 16, 1997, this abuse matter is before the Court in which a mother and 18-year-old son have brought the case against the defendant father. It appears that a series of assault or harassment charges have been filed over a period of time at District Justice Hanson's Office and there is currently pending, with a hearing sscheduled to be scheduled, on a harassment charge filed in Hanson's Office.

The Court receives input in an informal fashion from both parties and it appears that the defendant husband and father property which he owns. It is claimed he drives up and down the road and annoys his wife and children, and likewise, the 18-year-old son Jason admits that he goes to the residence where the father is residing, spins the tires on the car and attempt to annoy the father at his residence.

The father presents a thick packet of papers, but contends he cannot read, but he apparently contends that the papers are a series of actions of various criminal and civil nature which have been brought by both parties before District Justice Hanson.

After informal input, the defendant Edward D. Braden agrees to the entry of a Consent Order on the following conditions:

1. The defendant Edward D. Braden shall stay away from the property which he owns and where his wife and children reside. He agrees he will not go there for any purpose or make any claim for any property remaining on the premises.

2. He agrees he will not drive any vehicles up and down the road in front of the premises or in any way attempt to harass or annoy his wife and children.

3. He further agrees he will not contact his wife in any fashion or encourage others to do so on his behalf.

4. The defendant agrees that it presents a stressful situation when this family confronts each other and he will not attempt to contact his wife and children in any fashion.

5. Apparently there has been physical contact of some nature between the father and son Jason, and father agrees he will not annoy or harass or threaten Jason in any fashion and son Jason agrees that he has on occasions attempt to harass the father in retaliation, but under no circumstances, will he do so in the future.

Costs in this case in the amount of $100.50 will be paid within 30 days by the defendant Edward D. Braden. (SEE PAPERS FILED)

Sept. 23, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, September 20, 1997, this case involving a 16-year-old juvenile and a 19-year-old defendant is called to the Court for a hearing on an abuse petition filed by the juvenile's mother on behalf of her daughter. A short time previous to the hearing, the defendant Milton H. Ball called the Judge's Chambers and advised he was in Springboro, Pennsylvania and his car had broken down and he had no means of getting to the Courthouse in Crawford County.

Brief input is received from the juvenile plaintiff and it appears this is a broken romance, with the defendant allegedly dominating the plaintiff and continuing to harass and abuse her.

In view of the fact the defendant is not present, this hearing is continued until October 1, 1997, at 9 a.m. in Courtroom 1, 2 or 3 for hearing.

In the meantime, the defendant is not permitted to contact the plaintiff in any fashion or any other member of her family and he may not go within 500 yards of her home for any purpose or go to the school where she is attending, and likewise, will not go to her place of employment.

An additional condition of the continuance is that the defendant will not procure others in contact, assault or molest the plaintiff in any fashion.

Sept. 26, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, September 22, 1997, the parties appeared in court. The Court explained the proceedings to the Defendant and he understood it. The Defendant agrees to the entry of a protection from abuse order, but in doing so he does not admit that he engaged in, the conduct that is alleged in the petition. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

PETITION FOR WARD OF OWNERSHIP OF ABANDONED VEHICLE

Sept. 10, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, September 8, 1997 the Court has received and reviewed the attached petition for award of ownership of an abandoned vehicle and does not believe it has the ability to grant the prayer of the petition. It does not appear that the vehicle is an abandoned vehicle. Furthermore, it appears that the testimony of Carl F. Harvey may be critical.
Accordingly a hearing is hereby scheduled for the 6th day of November, 1997 at 9:00 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse to hear counsel, together with any evidence petitioners intend to present, in support of the petitioners' belief that the Court has the authority to grant relief in this case.

BY THE COURT,

Nov. 6, 1997 Exhibits filed.

Dec. 2, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, November 25, 1997, the Court believes that the testimony of Carl F. Harvey is critical and therefore will not make a decision until the testimony of Carl F. Harvey is secured.
The hearing is rescheduled for the 28th day of January, 1998 at 11:30 o'clock, a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse for the purpose of receiving the testimony of Carl F. Harvey.
This is a case of abandoned personal property and whether or not ownership, and the right to title, has been involuntarily transferred. Therefore the circumstances under which the vehicle was found and retrieved become important.

April 1, 1998 ORDER FILED AND NOW,March 30, 1998, the condemnor's motion to dismiss the preliminary objections of the condemnees came before the Court for argument. The condemnees personally or through counsel, did not appear.
We find that the motion to dismiss has merit. A corporation may only appear in Court through an Attorney at Law admitted to practiace before the Court. Furthermore the preliminary objections are substantively flawed because they fail to specifically state the grounds relied upon.
Accordingly, the preliminary objections of the condemnees are hereby dismissed.

May 14, 1998 ENTRY OF APPEARANCE FILED. Appearance of Brian J. Lindsay Esq. Attroney for the above named Defendant, LeRoy F. Walz filed.

May 15, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 13, 1998 this rather unusual divorce is before theCourt this day on a Petition for Sepcial Relief filed by plaintiff wife asking for exclusive right to reside in the marital residence located in the Canadohta Lake Area. It seems that earlier in the marriage, the parties occupied a residence at Canadohta Lake, but that in 1985 the old residence was torn down and a new A-Frame type of residence was constructed in its place. The land upon which the original home was located and where the A frame now stands is in the husband's name alone. At present, the wife is occupying the marital home and the husband resides in a trailer jointly occupied with former wife in Beaver, PA.
Both parties are now represented by counsel and the Court directs that each party file an income and expense statement within 20 days of this date. Both parties have this date filed an affidavit of consent for the divorce.
The position of the husband is that this residence is exclusively in his name and is exclusively his asset. The position of the wife is that she has an equitable interest int he home and wishes to continue occupancy of the home pending the outcome of the divorce action.
Counsel for the plaintiff advises Court and counsel for the defendant that he intends to secure the services of Larry Price to make an appraisal of the real estate and the Court directs that if said appraisal is made, copies of the appraisal will be distributed to each of the parties and the cost of the appraisalwill be equally divided between the parties. This provision is made without prejudice to the right of the defendant to secure another re-appraisal and valuation of the proeprty at his won expense if he so desires within 30 days fo the time of he receives the Price Appraisal.
The wife may continue to have exclusive occupancy of the Canadohts Lake home but she shall accomodate the wishes of the husband to occupy the home. He may ahve such guests aand grandchildren with him during said visits, but he shall not have any live-in female companions during his weekly occupation of the former marital home. The defendant husband may have two one-week periods one in July and one in August, running from Saturday Noon until Saturdsy Noon and he shall give his wife at least 30 days notice of the weeks he has selected for such exclusive occupancy of the marital residence.
Both parties agree to file inventories and appraisals within 20 days of this date.
The Court is hopeful that the matter can be amicably resolvedwithout the expense and delay of referral to a divorce master. If the matter has not been resolved by referral to a divorce master or by amicable settlement by Sept. 1, 1998, the Court will entertain such further appropriate motions either party may file.
The defendant husband agrees that he will not destroy any property of the plaintiff or jointly owned property while occupying the premises and he will not take any marital property with him as he leaves the premises after these visits.
The defendant husband advises he has some collectible items that he wishes to store in one of the bedrooms or in the attic at the marital home The Court directs that upon at least 10 days notice to the wife, he may deliver reasonably sized boxes to the marital residence and store the same either in the attic along with other itmes he has stored there or if there is no space in the attic, store the same in a bedroom designated by the wife.
The parties mutually agree that the husband has a tool box stored at the residence and upon 10 days notice he may recover the same without objection from the wife.

The certified mail was returned "unclaimed" but the regular mail has not been returned. Pursuant to Pa. Mar 18, 1998 ORDER: This divorce matter has been referred to the Courat for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because.

The Defendant was not served with process within 30 days after the date of the filing of the complaint or reinstated complaint. Pa.R.C.P. 401(a); Lauterback v. Lautervack, 202 Pa. Super. 260, 195A.2d 159(1963); Fox v. Thompson, 327 Pa.Super. 39, 546 A.2d 1146 (1988).

The Plaintiff filed an Affidavit of Service indicating that service was made by Certified Mail - Return Receipt requested and by U.S. first class regular mail postage prepaid and that the first class mail was not returned within fifteen (15) days and the certified mail was returned as "unclaimed."

The affidavit indicates that under those facts, service was considered to be complete pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.4(c)(1).

This would be correct if the certified mail had been returned "refused" [(Rule 1930.4(c)(1), but when the certifed mail is returned "unclaimed" service must be made by another means pursuant to the Rules of Court [Rule 1930.4(c)(2).]

So answers, Shawn E. Ashbaugh, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Oct 14, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, Oct 8, 1997, this complex matter is before the Court on an Abuse Petition, and coming into focus is a Temporary Custody Order at No. 1995-893, which seemingly accords the father one visit per week with his son, but precludes visits with the daughter Lisa until the parents have had the opportunity to participate in counseling.

While the facts in this case are disputed by the partiws, both parties seem to agree that precluding the plaintiff's former husband from going tot he residence of the plaintiff or going to carry out activities with other people in the immediate neighborhood presents problems.

The matter is further complicated by the fact that the father advises the Court that in the middle of November 1997, he will be permanently moving to the State of Washington to reside with his father in the City of Lansing.

The parties mutually agree, and the Court directs, that on NOv 15, 1997, the mother will have the children in the lobby of the Downtown Meadville Mall and the defendant may appear, visit the childre, take them to stores within the Mall and return them to the custody of the mother within a one-hour period.

In view of the employment status of the defendant and the plaintiff, the Court directs the County to pay the costs in this case. P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

✓ October 6, 1999 Pre-Trial Order Filed. And Now, October 5, 1999 after a pre-trial conference with all counsel present the Court enters the following order:
1. All discovery is completed except for a request for the production of documents which the plaintiff served on the defendant and the defendant voluntarily will comply with prior to trial. Otherwise the parties are ready for trail. The trial shall take place during eh second and third week of October 1999 with the exact date of teh trial unknown at this point. The partis shall appear in Courtroom 2 on Monday October 11, 1999 at 9 am for a seocnd call of the trial list. It is anticipated that this case shall take 3 to 3 1/2 days to try.
2. Description of teh case. This is a personal injury case that arises out of a fall the plaintiff took when an areial lift suddenly tilted forward causing the plaintiff to be thrown to the ground.
The plaintiff was employed y Burkhardt Sheet Metal Company inc. and was performing work to install a hood pipe for a furnace at the defendant's industrial plant. Two Burkhardt employees one of whom was th plaintiff, brought to the work site an aerial lift. However in order for the lift to operate properly it had to be attached to an industrial forklift. The defendant permitted the Burkhardt employees to use a Clark industrial truck with a rated lift capacity of 2000 lbs to raise the aerial lift into the air. The forklift was operated by another employee of Burkhardt Sheet metal, Robert Kircher. It turns oth that the forklift did not have the weight or capacity to lift the aerial lift. When the erial lift was extended to a certain point it caused the forklift to tip forward.
The pliaintiff claims that the defendant permitted the Burkhardt employees to use the wrong forklift and should have known that the forklift did not have the capactiy to safely lift the aerial lift.
The defendant takes the position that it did not know the purpose for the use of its lift. It alleges that there was a placard on the forklit indicating that its rated capacity was 2000 lbs. It also alleges that there was a placard on the aerial lift that indicated that it was 4000 lbs.
3. Factual/Legal Issues. a. Causal negligence of the defendant.

2/12/98 FAXED LILNDAY & KUHAR

Mar 6, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, March 3, 1998, it appears to the Court, from the evidence in this case, that on June 20, 1996 a letter was sent by the Department of Transportation to the appellant stating that his operating privileges would be suspended for thirty (30) days by reason of accumulation of points. That letter also tells him that he does not receive credit on the (30) day suspension until the license is sent in or a sworn affidavit stating that he is aware of the sanction is sent in. It is true that no credit is received until one of those events occures (75 Pa.C.S.A. 1541).

The appellant did not send his license in or send in an affidavit and accordingly, the suspension extneds for much more than thirty (30) days. He attempted to claim that he did not receive that letter. That may have been a viable defense to a driving under suspension criminal proceeding. Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Apparently, the only issue before the Court is a request that the Court enter permanent alimony which may or may not be the same as alimony pendente lite. Also before the Court is a request for counsel fees for defendant wife.
This matter cannot be resolved without a comparison of income of teh parties and the Court declines to enter an Order for counsel fees without some type of agreement of hearing.

He claims that the mother is taking the children to Kathy Berkey for psychological counseling and that he has not been consulted. The mother claims that she did consult with him and that he disagrees with the use of Kathy Berkey and it is impossible for the Court to decide who is telling the truth. The Berkey matter was not addressed in the Consent Order of June 5, 1998 making this Court believe that the fahter should have raised it then.

Economic and other issues or counts have been raised in the pledading or by petition which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation.

Dec. 19, 1997 ORDER FILED. Dec. 19,1997 This matter has come before the Court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief under the Protection From Abuse Act. After formal hearing in this matter with both parties represented by counsel, we find that there has been abuse within the meaning of the Act. Specifically, we find that the defendant did attempt to cause or recklessly cause bodily injury and knowingly engage in a course of conduct and placed his family in reasonable fear of bodily injury. Specifically, we find as a fact that earlier this year when the family was still together, the defendant physically assaulted the plaintiff and more recently in Nov. of 1997, he struck the oldest child apparently not only on her buttocks but on her back causing her pain and drove erratically with all four children in the vehicle. Additionally, through his temper outbursts, coupled with all of his other behavior, he certainly has placed both the mother and children in reasonable fear of bodily injury.

ACCORDINGLY, we will enter the following order:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass or threaten the plaintiff or the minor children.
2. The Defendant shall not contact the plaintiff or the children in any way by telephone or in person, nor shall he speak to them in public places nor go to the home of the plaintiff, except as may be allowed in an Order entered this day in a companion custody case.
3. This Order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe that it has been violated. The defendant is reminded that this is an Order of Court and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine or not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.

Nov. 20, 1997 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED Stacy Kay Blystone personally on November 19, 1997 at 3:40 PM by handing a copy of the Protection from Abuse to her at the residence, Route 86, Cambridge Springs, Crawford County, PA.

So answers,

Shawn E. Ashbaugh, Deputy

Nov. 20, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 20, 1997, it has come to the Court's attention that in a companion Protection from Abuse action brought by Stacy Blystone against Alan Kent at No. 1997-1143 on Nov. 14, 1997, custody of the children was granted to Stacy Blystone.

It appears that an Order entered Nov. 19, 1997 in the above entitled case brought by Alan Dale Kent against Stacy Kay Blystone, the children were awarded to Alan Dale Kent.

Obviously, said Orders contradict each other.

It is the position of this Court that the first Order entered shall prevail. Therefore, the temporary Protection From Abuse Order entered Nov. 19, 1997 in the case of Alan Dale Kent vs. Stacy Kay Blystone is hereby AMENDED to read that the custody of the minor children shall remain with the Defendant until further Order of Court.

In all other respects, the temporary Protection from Abuse Order of Nov. 19, 1997 entered in this case shall remain in full force and effect.

A true and correct copy of this Order shall be delivered to:

1. Plaintiff at PO Box 50, Guys Mills, PA 16327
2. Defendant at RD 1, Cambridge Springs, PA 16403

Dec. 29, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 16, 1997, this matter is before the Court on an Abuse Petition with both parties appearing. This case involves largely a child born out of wedlock which child is now in the custody of the mother. The Defendant now 19 years old admits he is the father of the child and postulates to the Court that he may seek a custody action as he contends the mother lacks the ability to adequately care for the child. He is advised of the right to file a custody action in this record. The parties were never marries and both seemingly admit they had a clash of personalities and frequent arguments. We believe it is in the best interest of both parties in this action that we prevent the Defendant from voluntarily going to the residence of the Mother or confronting her in any fashion except as may be necessary to assure the father of periodic visits with the child.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Defendant is directed not to threaten, annoy, or harass the mother in any fashion.
2. He may not go to her residence for any purpose without her expressed written consent.
3. The mother is employed at Wesbury and the father at this time is unemployed and projects the possibilty of going to Florida for employment. The Defendant is directed that he may not go to the Plaintiff's place of employment for any purpose.
4. The parties mutually agree that the father may have visits with the minor child at the residence of the Defendant's sister which is Kristie Stafford at 125 Fifth St., Erie, PA and there he may visit the child for a period not in access of two hours every Monday and every Thursday. The mother agrees she will deliver the child to his sister and shall leave the premises during said visit. The visit with sister is arranged with the understanding that Kristie Stafford will remain during the entire visit of the father with the child.

PETITION FOR RECOUNTING VOTES CAST IN THE CITY OF TITUSVILLE'S CITY COUNCIL ELECTION

Nov. 26, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, Nov. 26, 1997, upon receipt of a petition for the opening of the machines and the absentee ballots for the recount of votes cast in the City of Titusville City Council Election for Nov. 4, 1997 it is ordered as follows:

1. Recanvasing of voting machines shall take place as set forth in the Election Code, 25 P.S.3262.

2. The Crawford County Board of Elections is ordered and directed to make visible the registering counters of the voting machine or machines used in the election for persons of City Council and the City of Titusville, Crawford county, PA at the Municipal Election held Nov. 4, 1997 and, without unlocking the machine against voting, shall recanvas the vote cast therein. Furthermore, the absentee ballots received for such election shall be recounted.

3. Said recanvasing and recount shall take place on the 3rd day of December, 1997 at 41386 Walnut St., Titusville, Pennsylvania.

4. The Prothonotary shall send a true and correct copy of this order to Wayne Gray at 620 W. Walnut St., Titusville, PA 16354 and to Robert Mayer at 339 Bank St., Titusville, PA 16354. Said mailing shall be sent to said persons by registered mail, return receipt requested. Each such candidate may be present at such recanvasing either in person or by his attorney, or by his duly authorized representative duly authorized in writing.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Dec. 10, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 8, 1997 upon receipt of a petition for recanvas and recount of votes cast for a two year term for Titusville City Council under 25 P.S. 3261 and 3562 the Court appointed the Crawford County Election Board to recount absentee ballots and recanvas the voting machines in the City of Titusville. Said recount occurred on Dec. 3, 1997 and the Board of Elections filed a report which is attached to this Order.

Our duty in a recount proceeding is to determine whether or not there was fraud or error in the computation or canvasing of the returns and to correct, compute and certify the votes of the election justly. IN RE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTION, 405 Pa. 169, 174 A.2d 23 (1961).

It appears that the recanvasing of the voting machines resulted in no change, fraud or substantial error. It appears, however, that the Titusville Fourth Ward absentee ballots (six in number) were not located and could not be physically recounted. The original return or canvas of those ballots indicated that each of the two contestants to-wit: D. Wayne Gray and Robert W. Mayer each received three votes from those absentee ballots.

In order to make a final determination within the scope of our duties and responsibilities, we hereby schedule a hearing on said petition for the 18th day of Dec. 1997 at 1:15 o'clock P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford Co. Courthouse.

The purposes of said hearing will be generally to make a determination as to whether or not there was fraud or substantial error or otherwise in connection with said absentee ballots and to correct, compute and certify the votes of the election justly. More specifically, we shall receive evidence and hear arguments on the following:

1. The recount and recanvas by the Election Board which will require the testimony of a member of the Board, the Chief Clerk/Director of Voter Services or the Clerk of Elections.

2. The manner and process by which the absentee ballots in the Fourth Ward of the City of Titusville were received, held, opened, counted, reported, retained for safe keeping or delivered to the Board of Elections. The Board of Elections shall make certain by consent or subpoena that persons having knowledge of, or involvement in, any of these actions with respect to said absentee ballots shall be present and prepared to testify.

This recount proceeding is not a contest proceeding and is not designed to permit a general investigation of all matters. The purposes are outlined above in order to secure a proper computation of the votes cast.

Furthermore, the voting machines and the absentee ballots for the General Municipal Election on Nov. 4, 1997 in the City of Titusville shall be held under the custody and control of the Crawford County Election Board for safe keeping and shall remain sealed and shall not be entered or otherwise dealt with without a further order of court.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

December 18, 1997 EXHIBITS FILED.

Dec. 23, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 18, 1997, pursuant to 25 P.S. 3261 and 3262 and after a full formal hearing pursuant to our Order of Dec. 8, 1997, we find and order as follows:

1. There was no fraud or error in the computation or canvassing of the returns for the two-year counsel position in the fourth ward of the City of Titusville said election having taken place on Nov. 4, 1997.

2. We find that the computation and canvasing was accurate in said election for the two-year counsel position in the fourth ward of the City of Titusville.

3. We find and declare that D. Wayne Gray received the highest number of votes cast and the Crawford Co Board of Election is hereby ordered and directed to certify Mr. Gray as the successful candidate.

4. In view of our findings above, the absentee ballots as reported by the Judge of Elections even though the actual ballots themselves cannot be located was an accurate count and those ballots shall count in this election. We have accepted Mrs. Zahners count of the absentee ballots for this position to be properly accredited secondary evidence and has been accepted by us as we have indicated above.

The court is presented with a letter from the father and the matter is discussed informally with wife and counsel. It appears that the concern of the mother is that when the father is emotionally upset, he should not have visitations with the children. Accordingly, we direct that the defendant not go to the residence of the plaintiff for any purpose including visitation unless he has been invited to do so by the oldest child, Jason. In the event Jason wishes visits with the father or the child he may contact the father in this regard and make arrangements for the defendant to either come and pick up the children and take them to another place for visitation or visit with them in the home for a reasonable period of time. During the visit the father defendant in this action shall not make any threats of any kind toward the mother or the children and at such time as either the oldest child or the mother wishes him to leave the residence he will do so at their request.

The defendant is cautioned that in making arrangements for visits with his children they must be during a reasonale period of time when the children will be present in the home and the father may not go to the home for unscheduled visits with the children.

Defendant is directed to pay costs in this case in the amount of $79.50 for the same to be paid within 30 days of this date. The defendant's address is P.O. Box 413, Meadville, PA 16335. The defendant is cautioned that violation of this order can result in punishment for contempt.

This Order to be effective Dec. 5, 1997, and for a 1 year period thereafter.

PETITION FOR RECOUNT OF VOTES CAST IN SUMMIT TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR'S ELECTION

Dec. 9, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 8, 1997, the Court having received a petition for recount or recanvasing pursuant to 25 P.S. 3161 and/or 3162 ordered a recount or recanvasing by the Crawford County Board of Elections. The Board of Elections apparently recanvased the voting machines on Dec. 3, 1997 and filed a report with the court which said report is attached to this order.

It appears to the Court that there was no fraud or substantial error in connection with the machines canvased and the absentee ballots counted. Therefore the Court certifies that fraud or substantial error or otherwise in connection with said machines and ballots were not discovered. Furthermore Leroy Bell should be certified as the winner in said election, having received more votes than any opther candidates for position of supervisor in Summit Township at the Nov. 4, 1997 General Municipal Election.

Apparently, the Plaintiff is in possession of the parties two minor children age tow and six months and the Defendant advises he does not know the present whereabouts of the Plaintiff the Court noting that the Plaintiff was advised Dec. 11, 1997 of the date and time of the hearing on this case and fails to appear. Accordingly, this Petition for Abuse is dismissed. The Plaintiff is directed to pay costs in this case in the amount of $93.50 within 30 days of this date to the Prothonontary's Office.

In the event the Plaintiff wishes to file a future abuse action against this Defendant, costs in this case must be paid and before accepting a new abuse petition, the interviewing judge must first ascertain whether there is a reasonable basis for the new petition and receive a satisfactory explanation form the Plaintiff as to why she failed to appear in pursuit of her abuse petition at the scheduled hearing Dec. 18, 1997.

The Court is not satisfied that she has proven that the current placement is detrimental to the health, safety, morals and welfare of teh child or is not in the child's best interest and we are not satisfied that she has proven, because of the fact that her life is unstable, that it would be in the best intrest of the child to go with her. We think we can make a decision now based upon the Plaintiff's presentation; however, the plaintiff desires to have a full hearing where the Defendants will have to proceed with their case in chief, if they desire to do so. We do not have any more Court Time today for this case and accordingly it is ordered as follows:

October 28, 1998 Memorandum and Order filed. And now, this 27th day of October 1998 this Court is prepared to make a decision but before doing so believes it is necessary and appropriate to determine the standing question. Furthermore we believe that there is not sufficient evidence of record to decide the standing question. Accordingly it is ordered as follows:
1. A hearing and/or argument before the Court is hereby set for the 1st day of December 1998 at 9:15 am in Courtroom no. 1 of the Crawford county courthouse to hear testimony, receive evidence and consider arguments on the issue of whether or not the appellants or any one of them has standing.
2. Any party desiring to file a brief or memorandum of law must do so at the time of the hearing. Among the issues the Court desires to consider are:
a. Do any of the appellants have standing?
b. In order to have standing is a party obligated to appear at the Superviosrs' Hearing on Nov. 11, 1997?
c. Must standing be raised at the Supervisors' hearing or can it be raised for the first time on appeal to common Pleas Court?
d. There may be other issues the parties desire to pursue. This order is not intended to limit the issues except that we limit the hearing to the broad issue of standing.

NOvember 25, 1998 Motion for Continuance and Order filed. And Now, this 25day of November 1998, upon consideration of the Appellants' Motion to Continue, said Motion is denied - This Motion is too late and it may appear that the Stines left PA after they were subpoenaed. The Court may hear the Stines on Wednesday Dec. 2, 1998 at 1:30. We reserve on that until December 1st.

December 7, 1998 Order filed. And now, December 2, 1998 the briefing schedule on the standing issue is established a s follows:
1. Both the appellants' and the intervenor's briefs shall be filed by 4:30 pm on thursday Dec. 17, 1998.
2. At that point this matter shall be ripe for determination by this Court.

By the Court
Gordon R. Miller, J.
12/7/98 Dist. Miller, Rowden & Thomas

December 7, 1998 Order filed. And now, December 2, 1998 the Court is faced with a Motion to Quash a Subpoena that was issued on Elizabeth Stine and an oral motion or request by the Intervenors Reicharts to sanction Mrs. Stine for failing to adhere to a subpoena that required her attendance yesterday, December 1, 1998. After an informal hearing and hearing oral arguments on these two matters, it is ordered as follows:
1. The Motion to Quash the Subpoena is denied.
2. The request for Sanctions is denied.
In order to impose sanctions on Mrs. Stine we have to conclude that her failure to comply with the subpoena was for the purpose of delay or in bad faith and we cannot come to that conclusion. We think a mistake was made, but we do not think that she ignored the subpoena for the purpose of delay or was acting in bad faith. In order to hold her in contempt we must find that she willfully violated a Corut Order or the subpoena and we cannot comp to that conclusion. She apparently made plans to go to Fla. in October of 1998 before we entered our Order setting this hearing. She apparently received notice of our Order setting this hearingone day before she left for Fla.
The second reason for denying this request is technical The Rule clearly provides that at the time the subpoena is served a fee for one day's attendance must accompany the subpoena. We recognize that that Rule does apply to persons other then parties and that Mrs. Stine is a party. However, that was a method by which the Intervenors attempted to compel her attendance. The Notice to Attend which applies to a party was never issued or sent in this case. We feel we are therefore dealing with the subpoena rules, not the notice to attend rules.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR March 1998

April 1, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, March 30, 1998 at the time fixed for argument in this matter, counsel for the condemnees believes that there are issues of fact and he would like to proceed by issuing interrogatories, taking depositions and having an evidentiary hearing.
The condemnor has a construction project that must go forward and so the Court must balance the interest of both parties in this case. In order to do so and in order to comply with 26 P.S. 1-406, we are establishing the following schedule:
1. The condemnees shall issue interrogatories to the condemnor within the next 20 days.
2. The condemnor shall answer all interrogatories propounded of it within 20 days after it rceives the interrogatories.
3. If the parties decide to proceed with depositions only or depositions in part and a live evindentiary hearing in part, all depositions shall be concluded by July 2, 1998.
4. A hearing and/or argument is hereby scheduled for 9 AM Thursday July 2, 1998 in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.
5. In balancing between the need to decide the facts in this case and the need to give the condemnees an appropriate amount of time to develop a factual record as weel as to engage in discovery with the need for the condemnor to proceed with the construction prouect and have finality to these issues, we think this time schedule is appropriate. We take no position on any furhter continuance or any further request in this case. We expect the parties to diligently try to get this case ready for an evidentiary determination on July 2, 1998 either by depositions, depositions and hearing, or hearing.
In the event that any parties want further relief or an extension of time, we will expect that party to be able to justify that request. We will not allow any continuances by either party simply because of lack of activity on that party's part of lack of due diligence on that party's part.

June 23, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 19, 1998, at the close of the Petitioner's case, with regard to this contempt matter and sanction matter, after motion by counsel for the Respondents to dismiss this matter entirely, said motion is denied , except that any contempt proceeding or request for sanctions against the individual board members is dismissed at this time.
Also at this point the Court will decline to award attorney's fees in these proceedings at all because we are of the opinion that counsel for the Petitioners is not being paid a specific fee of any nature that would allow them to recover counsel fees that would have been lost in this case.

Martin and Maryann Martin and the condemnees have filed in response, a Motion to Strike Revocation of Condemnation and Rule 4019(c)(4) Motion for Contempt Sanctions, it is ordered and directed that this matter shall be scheduled for argument on the October 1998, Argument List, wherein the parties will be given an opportunity to address any legal issues with regard to whether the condemnees may be afforded the relief they request with regard to striking the revocation of condemnation and whether they may be entitled to Rule 4019(c)(4) Contempt Sanctions after the condemnor has filed a Notice of Filing of Declaration of Relinquishment of Property with regard to the condemnees.

Furthermore, once that is properly done, the Notice of Intention to Request Entry of Divorce decree must comply with the requirements contained in pa.R.Civ.P.1920.42(d)(1)(d)(2). We will attach a copy of that rule to this Order.
Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the reocrd is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

The mother does have an obligation to permit the fahter to "take part fully in important decisions affecting the children such as 3 . . . neducak treatnebt. . . ." We expect her to comply with that part of the Order and we will hold her in contempt if we are ever convinced that she is not complying with that part of the Order.
If the mother had discussed these matters with the father and they could not come to terms tehn most likely the mother could have proceeded any way to have the children treated by Ms. Berkey because someone has to make a decision where there is an even number of people on each side of the issue. We think the primary physical custodian should make those decisions. This may render hollow the Court Order that obligates the mother to give the fahter input on these matters.
Furthermore, the father raises two additional issues. The first is taht the mother is violating the no smoking provision set forth in Paragraph II-F and that all expenses involving Ms. Berkey so far should be paid by the mother since he has not been consulted. A resolution of this last issue goes back to the first matter we discussed above and that is who is telling the truth.

1. We expect both parties to follow the Court Order and if we ever have an opportunity to find that one is not, we will impose sanctions which may be severe. These are the kinds of matters parties should work out on their own and not involve a courtroom.
2. The mother shall obtain a written opinion from Kathy Berkey and submit the same to the father with a copy to the Conut within the next 30 days. Ms. Berkey shall state why the children are meeting with her and whether or not she believes this is necessary advisable or appropriate. The fahter shall have a right to take the children to a psychiatrist or psychologist at his own expesne and obtain an evaluation as to whether or not the children should be seeing Ms. Berkey for the reasons they are seeing her. He shall provide to that psychologist or psychiatrist a copy of Ms Berkey's letter that will be sent within the next 30 days. If it turns out that the father's expert does not believe that the children should be evaluated and counseled, thne the court on motion of either party, with the expense to be shared by the parties 50-50, shall appoint a thirs psychologist to render an opinion. If it turns out that all we receive is a letter from Ms. Berkey and if it turns out that she believes in her professional opinion that these children should be counseled and sets forth the reasons, then we will excuse the mother form her obligation to discuss this with the father if that in fact is the truth (We note that she denies that and believes she did discuss the matter with the fahter) because as a practical matter, she would have had that right to make that decision and it would appear to the Court that the psychological sessions had merit.
3. The mother shall not smoke in front of the children or in the same room or car as the children.
4. The fahter's request that the mother pay all of the Berkey expenses up to this date is held in abeyance untile this Order is carried out and we find out ultimately whether the children should be going to see Ms. Berkey or not.

BY THE COURT
GORDON R. MILLER, PJ
8/4/98 MAILED IRWIN AND DIST. BRODE

September 14, 1998 ORDER FILED. And Now, September 8, 1998 the Court commends the parties for following through with, and complying with, paragraph 2 of the Order of July 31, 1998. We have reviewed the confidential counseling summary of August 10, 1998 submitted by Kathy S. Berkey pursuant to said order and find that she gives an opinion that the dauthter, Cheyenne is in need of periodic counseling. The licensed clinical psychologist which the fahter took the children to gave an opinion dated August 31, 1998 that the two daughters are at risk to have transitory adjustment problems of the type cited by Ms. Berkey if the parents do not learn to resolve their conflicts. He further indicated that both children would be at risk to have more serious adjustment problems in adolescence if the parents do not find ways to resolve conflicts and reach compromises which emphasize the needs of the children.
Dr. Cilluffo therefore believes that the children need some sort of counseling or treatment. He differs, however, from Ms. Berkey as to how that will be done and who will do it. He believes that we should order both parents and the families to participate in family counseling to resolve their post divorce conflicts and to learn to communicate more effectively That person should also periodically see the children as suggested by Ms. Berkey. The counselor should see the children alone or with either parent on an equitable basis and that the new family therapist not be one who is treating either of the parents.
We tned to agree with Dr. Cilluffo based upon the very brief time we saw the parties in court although we have not seen the children.
However, we must keep focused on teh matter that was before us. That was a motion to contempt filed by the father alleging that when their mother took the children to Kathy Berkey for psychological counseling and did not consult him that she violated the prior order and we should hold her in contempt.
We conclude that the mother did not violate the order and we will not hold her in contempt. It appears that both Ms. Berkey and Dr. Chilluffo both believe counseling is appropriate even though they disagree on how that should be done. We are not qualified to say which opinion is correct, For the pruposes of the contempt matter all we need to determine is whether or not Ms. Berkey's opinion is incorrect and we cannot do that. The mother apparently followed Ms. Berkey's recommendaitons and we will not hold her in contempt for having done so. Where there is a genuine disagreement we will not become "super psychologists or parents."
Accordingly it is ordered as follows: The father's Mtoion for contempt is denied.

May 12, 1998 AMENDED PETITION FOR CONTEMPT FILED

May 28, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 12, 1998 this matter is before the Court for further hearing on a custody and visitation issue. It is the allegation of the mother that a physical examination on April 8, 1998 disclosed sexual abuse of the child and the mother is suspicious that teh father of the child is responsible for the same. The fahter denies said allegations and insists on the visitation rights accorded to him by a consent custody order dated Nov. 26, 1997.
The position of the mother is that Children & Youth Services have advised that in view of the April 8, 1998 physician's report they will reopen the case in which they previously found no evidence of abuse and the court is uncertain as to how long this subsequent investigation by Children & Youth will take and what the postiion of Children and Youth will be if called upon to testify in this case. Accordingly, this Court continued hearing on this case until June 22, 1998 at 9 AM in a courtroom to be assigned by the Ct. Admin. In the meantime the Defendant is accorded the previous visits set forth in the November 22, 1997 Order commencing the weekend of May 15, 1998. These visitations are accorded to the father ont he condition that during the time he has the child in his custody an adult person shall also be in the presence of the visits while the child is in his physical custody. The parties mutually agree the fahter shall have the child on May 15-17, 22-24, 29-31. The first weekend visits accorded the father in the Nov 26, 1997 Order shall be for the month of Une, the weekends of June 5-7, 12-14, 19-21. The mother has planned a party for June 20 and the fahter will pick the child up at 7 PM on June 20. If Children & Youth make further investigations in this case that are reduced to writing a copy of the same shall be sent to counsel for both of the parties.

AND NOW, April 24, 1998, upon receipt of a Complaint For Indirect Criminal Contempt filed in the above captioned case at the office of District Justice Wayne Hanson on April 22, 1998, and the Defendant being incarcerated in lieu of bond set at $30,000, hearing on this petition is set for Monday, May 4, 1998, at 3:00 p.m., CR #2, Crawford Co. FOR THE COURT, Ann A. Walker, Ct. Adm.

April 24. 1998 Order Distributed by Ct. Adm.

May 8, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 7, 1998 we enter this Order insofar as the parties appeared for a hearing on a complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt for violation of a Protection from Abuse Order which was filed by a PA State Police Trooper on behalf of the plaintiff.
At the time set for that hearing, plaintiff's counsel indicated that there were other instances of contempt she wished to raise and counsel for the defendant objected to those being heard unless they were formally raised and he was granted a continuance to prepare to respond to them.
Sccordingly, we granted that continuance and we grant leave to the plaintiff to file an amended complaint within 7 days from the date of this Order.
The issues raised in the original complaint as well as the amended complaint will be heard on May 22, 1998 at 1PM in Ct Room 2 before the undersigned.
There was also an indication that a proceeding had been held in Warren Co, based on our Original Order of Dec. 17, 1997 in this action resulting in the defendant receiving a sentence of incarceration of 30 days. We have now received a copy of an Order enteredby Sr. Judge Robert L. Wolfe in Warren Co. on April 24, 1998 and he does in fact impose a 30 day sentence of incarceration which by our reading of the Order commenced on that date.
The defendant is concerned about whether he was receiving credit against that sentence for his incareration and reqeusts a reduction in his bond in this proceeding and we will decline to do so since it appears that he will still b serving the sentence imposed by Judge Wolfe when we have the hearing on May 22, 1998 and accordingly would not be able to re released on bond even if we did reduce bond.

May 27, 1998 ORDER FILED: AND NOW, MAY 22, 1998, this matter comes before the Court for a contempt proceeding with regard to this Protection from Abuse matter.
Both parties appear, represented by counsel and the defednant, through counsel, admits the allegations at least to the extent that they constitute contempt and he is so adjudicated.
For his contempt in this matter, he is sentenced to undergo imprisoment in the Crawford Co Correctional Facilitiy for a minimum term of 3 months and a maximum term of 6 months, with any credit that he is due for pre-sentence incarceration. Said sentence is suspended at this time, subject to the following terms and conditions:
1. The defendant shall be placed on the House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring Program for a period of 30 days with that time period to be increased if he is not successful in that program.
2. He shall be subject to all the normal conditions of the House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring Program, and specifically to the extent that it is not already covered within those conditions, he shall abstain completely from the use of alcoholic beverages and controlled substances and shall be subject to rancom for the use of such substances.
3. He shall immediatley make arrangements for a mental health evaluation, either in Erie or Crawford County, and thereafter he shall undergo such counseling and treatment that may be deemed necessary as a result of the evaluation, and not discontinue the same without the permission of the Adult Probation-Parole Department. If he has not had that eavaluation when the initial 30 days of Electronic Monitoring is up, he will continue in the House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring Program until such time as that evaluation has occurred.
4. The defendant will also make arrangements immediately for a drug and alcohol evaluation and undergo such treatment as may be deemed appropriate and not discontinue that without the permission of the Adult Probation-Parole Department. Again, if he has not had that evaluation when the initial 30 days of Electronic Monitoring expires, he will not be released from House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring Program until he does have that evaluation.
5. The defendant's supervision with the Adult Probation-Parole Department will continue for a period of 6 months from this day and he will be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Crawford County Local Criminal Rule C1405 during that period of time.
6. As a special condition of his probation, he shall absolutely be forbidden from going on any property of the Corry Schoool District whichever county it may happen to be in. This includes not only school facilities but recreational facilities as well as administration facilities.
7. During the period of his probation, the defendant may not go within 100 years of Our Lady of Victory church in Spartansburg nor 100 years of Saint Elizabeth's Church in Corry.
8. The defendant from this share of a divorce settlement ultimately reached in this matter at number 1997-697, which is the pending divorce action, will reimburse to plaintiff's counsel the sum of $1000 for her fees with regard to this contempt preceeding.

9. The defendant shall within 90 days from this date pay a fine of $100 to Crawford County for his contempt in this matter.
10. As a condition of this Order if the defendant violates the terms and conditions of his probation and we so find after an appropriate hearing, this Protection From Abuse Order will be extended automatically for a period of one year beyond its normal ending date.
11. Based on the Order entered by Senior Judge Robert L. Wolfe in Warren Co on April 24, 1998 the defendant's visitation rights with his children have been completely suspended and that shall remain in full force and effect as an Order of this Court until such time as there is an appropriate psychological evaluation of the defendant. At that time, he may petition the court for further hearing so that his visitation rights and/or temporary physical custody rights may be reinstated. It is the Court's hope taht that can occur fairly rapidly insofar as we do not believe it is a good situation for the father not to have any contact with his children for a lengthy period of time and we would hope that once it is determined what problems Mr. Baressi is having that we can reinstate some form of visitation.
12. The defednant is eligible for release from the Crawford County Correctional Facility and the $30,000 bond holding him is rescinded as soon as he cna be released to the House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring Program. It is his intention to reside at 18480 Hare Creek Rd in Wayne Twp, Erie Co. PA but at this time there is not a telephone at that residence.As soon as there is telephone service available he may be immediatley released without further Order of Court, assuming that his conduct in the Crawford County Correcitonal Facility continues to be appropriate.

June 26, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 25, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on various petitions raised on both of these cases by the plaintiff.
After partial informal hearing and some formal hearing, it is ordered and directed as follows:
1. The defendant shall sign this day the deeds for the four rental properties that are to be turned back to the bank pursuant to our Order of Feb. 6, 1998, and he has done so in open court before a Notary Public. Those deeds have been tendered to the wife's attorney and plaintiff's counsel sahll make every effort to expedite the transfer of the property back to the Corry Savings Bank. As a condition of that transfer, however, unless both parties agree otherwise at some further time, the bank shall agree to pay any real estate commission it is due as a result of a sales contract for the sale of the Church Street property for $158,000.
2. The defendant sahll issue a check to the plaintiff in the amount of $2900 as required by our Order of May 22, 1998 and we note that he has done so today in open court.
3. Pending any further Order of Court, while these properties are being managed by the plaintiff pending their return to the Corry Savings Bank, the defendant may not go to any of those properties.
4. In order to turn the properties back to the bank, it will be necessary for the plaintiff wife to have the keys to the properties and the defendant husband believes they are located in his former residence in Clymer, NY. He is not very helpful as to where they may be found.
5. The defendant husband is ordered and directed to produce those keys to his counsel so they may be turned over to plaintiff's counsel within 5 days from his release from the Crawford County Correctional Facility on to Electronic Monitoring, or if he is released directly on parole, at the time he is so released. If wife plaintiff needs those keys prior to that date when he is released, provided the bank indicates in writing that they do need the keys and a copy of that writing is provided to defendant's counsel, plaintiff is authorized to go to the residence in Clymer, NY, and with the permission of Mrs. Campsell or her son, enter the residence for the sole purpose of searching for those keys. She shall not in any way destroy or remove any other property belonging to the defendant, but shall only be there for the sole purpose of taking possession of those keys.
6, As part of the condition for the transfer of the property back to the bank, it is ordered and directed that the attorney for the plaintiff shall obtain a full release from the bank with regard to both of these parties.
7. It is our intention that the provisions of our Order of May 22, 1998, particularly with regard to the management of the rental properties by plaintiff wife and her responsibility in that regard as set forth in numbered paragraph 1 shall remain in full force and effect while those properties are still in the names of these parties and as long thereafter as it takes to settle all the outstanding bills that may be in place at that time.

Dec. 2, 1998 Order filed. And now, December 1, 1998 the Corut finds as a fact that the Defendant violated the terms and conditions of probation by failing to keep the Probation Department infomred of his wherabouts.
It appears to us that the Plaintiff in this case is claiming that there are other potential violations of the PFA Order which may come up in the contempt proceeding that is not set for December 16, 1998 at 2:30 PM in Courtrom No. 2.
The only ground before this Court is the one ground set forth in the motion of Nov. 23, 1998 and we have restricted this proceeding and hearing to that one ground. The timing of this has been unfortunate given a weekend and the Thanksgiving holiday where the Courthoue is closed for two days, but the Corut is required to hold a hearing when someone is in jail as quickly as possible. That means that short notice was necessarily but unfortunately given to the Plaintiff and her counsel.
The Defendant is working for Rail Transport in Marshfield, Wisconsin. He has gone through a training session and now has a semi tractor to drive on his own as part of his continued training. Apparently he has come back to CRawford co. twice and maybe more times or more longer periods of time, without notifying Mr. Weinddorf.
Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:
1. We find as a fact that the Defendant has violated the terms and conditions of probation.
2. The Defendant is released from custody forthwit.
3. In additon to all of the other terms and conditions of supervision that are set for in Crawford County Criminal Rule Cl405 the Defendant shall notify the Crawford County Adult Probation Departmetn by telephone on the following occassions:
a. Every Friday commencing with Friday, Dec. 4 1998 between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM eastern standard time. During that telephone call he shall call Mr. Weindorf and talk to him personally. If Mr. Weindorf is not available then Mr. Weindorf shall arrange to have someone else talk to Mr. Baressi In that phone call, Mr. Baressi shall tell Mr Weindor, truthfully exactly where he is and the telephone number he is calling from. He shall also tell Mr. Weindorf his schedule for the next week and any other information regarding his whereabouts so that teh Adult Probation Dept. can keep track of this Defendant.
Normally, a Defendant who is on supervision would have a residence and a telephone number and a place of work within Carwford County that the Probation Officer could verify. Since Mr. Baressi is on the road, that is not possible; therefore we are substituting this arrangement for the typical probation/parole arrangement.
b. Within 48 hours of any time when the Defendant will be traveling through Crawford County or within a hundred miles of Crawford County.
Once again those calls shall be between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM He shall ask for Mr. Weindorf. If Mr. Weindorf is unavailable he shall talk to someone else in the Adult Probation Department.
C. For these purposes, whoever Mr. Baressi talks to in the Adult Probation Department shall make a note in writingof the telephone call and a summary of the contents fo that call.
4. The Defendant shall remain on probation at least until the hearing on Dec. 16, 1998 since this is Judge Vardaro's Order.
5. It appears to us that because we have determined the Defendant violated the terms and conditions of probation that the PFA Order would be extended automatically for a period of one bear beyond its normal ending date. We give Judge Vardaro the opportunity to make that decision finally, once he has heard everything.
6. Mr. Baressi does not have to notify anybody that he is returning to Crwford County on December 15, 1998 in advance of the hearing the next day. If he comes back to Crawford County before Dec. 15,1 998 then he must comply with the other provisions of this Order.

Dec. 23, 1997 ORDER FILED And Now, Dec. 22, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for temporary custody filed in Motions Court by the Plaintiff. Apparently, while we dictated that order in Motions Court on Dec. 15,1997, it has not yet been transcribed, and neither the Plaintiff nor his counsel followed up to make sure that happened, to serve the Defendant with a copy of this proceeding and the fact that a hearing had been set.

Therefore, the Defendant is not ready to proceed and this matter is continued, to be reset as soon as possible by the Court Administrator.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT
ANTHONY J. VARDARO, J.

12/23/97 DISTRIBUTED HATHWAY & WALTON

Dec. 24, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 15, 1997, this matter comes before the Court in motion court with a presentation of what is titled a petition for temporary custody, which is presented by the Plaintiff.

The Defendant apparently was notified of this presentment, but not in a manner consistent with the local Rules of Court. Additionally, this pro se petition is not verified and is essentially a petition for special relief under Rule 1915.13.

Rather than require the Plaintiff to file this in proper form and give proper notice to the Defendant, we will schedule a hearing in this matter as a time already scheduled for a protection from abuse hearing in an action filed by the Defendant in this custody action against the Plaintiff in this custody action.

Accordingly, we will treat the Plaintiff's unverified petition as a petition for special relief, and hearing is scheduled for Dec. 22, 1997, at 11:30 AM in Courtroom no. 2 before the undersigned.

The Plaintiff father shall provide the Defendant mother with proper notice under the Rules of Court of that hearing in a timely manner, or the hearing will not proceed.

This hearing is set upon the Plaintiff/father's representation that he has requested mediation in this matter.

September 17, 1998 Order filed. And Now, September 17, 1998 the matter is before the Court on a Petition for contempt for wilful and deliberate failure of the mother to accord weekend visitations set forth in the Order of April 16, 1998. The Mother admits the visits were not given and expresses verious reasons therefor which the Court does not accept as a valid excuse for not according visitations.

ACCORDINGLY, the father of the child, Michael J. Callahan is accorded additional weekend visits to make up for the four visits which he missed having with his minor child. These visits shall be made up on the weekends of Sept. 25, Oct. 9, Oct. 23 and Nov. 6.

The parties consent to the amendment being made to the Order of April 16, 1998 to the effect that the father will give the mother notice of whether he intends to exercise his visitations on the day before the visit starts namely Thursday by 6 pm.

This Court finds the mother acted without justifiable reason or cause for refusing these visits and accordingly we direct that she pay attorney fees in the amount of $100 with said paym ents to be made directly to the plaintiff and shall be made by sending him a payment on or before Oct. 1, Nov. 1, Dec. 1 and Jan 1 in the amount of $25.00 until the entire $100 is paid in full.

The parties mutually agree that the original Order regarding transportation of the hcild is to be amended and it shall now be the responsibility of the mother to deliver the child at teh designated time to the father at his residence and it shall be the responsibility of the mother ot pick up the child at the fahter's residence at the end of the visit.
