February 17, 1964 Additional Interrogatories addressed to the plaintiff, Custode Petrusso by the defendant for Answer Under Oath filed. Service of copy accepted February 17, 1964 by Thomas Ferris, attorney for Plaintiff.

Feby. 20, 1964, Objections to Interrogatories under Pa. R.C.P. No. 4005 (6) filed. Service of copy accepted by defendant's attorney.

February 25, 1964 Opinion and Order Sur Objections to Interrogatories filed. Order: Plaintiff's objections to Interrogatories Nos. 3, 5, 6, 7, 10, 15, 23 and 34 are overruled and the plaintiff is directed to file sworn answers to the same.

Plaintiff's objection to Interrogatory No. 4 is sustained insofar as answering the same would require the plaintiff or his counsel to make an investigation of hospital, doctor, or other medical records. The plaintiff is required to answer said question based on his own recollection of events, times and dates and from such personal records in and about his own household as would refresh his recollection.

Plaintiff's objection to Interrogatory No. 9 is sustained insofar as it requires any answer relating to any history of nervous disorders in the plaintiff's family. The plaintiff is required to answer as it applies to himself only.

Plaintiff's objection to Interrogatory No. 16 is sustained insofar as it relates to confinement for illness, as the same question is propounded in Interrogatory No. 4 and answers of the same would be repetitious. Insofar as injuries, as distinguished from illnesses are concerned, and if hospital confinement for the same has not already been answered in answer to Interrogatory No. 4, the plaintiff is required to answer in the same manner as prescribed in No. 4.

Plaintiff's objection to Interrogatory No. 17 is sustained in view of the ruling on Interrogatories Nos. 4 and 16.

Plaintiff's objection to Interrogatory No. 33 is sustained as being repetitious and answered under other answers.

Plaintiff's objection to Interrogatories Nos. 8, 18-b, 20 a and b, 25 and 31 are sustained and the plaintiff need not answer the same.

It appearing to the Court that the four Interrogatories set forth in the Additional Interrogatories addressed to the plaintiff are repetitious and that the answering of the interrogatories set forth in the original interrogatories and the defendant's own knowledge of the facts will provide the defendant with more than sufficient detail to adequately prepare his case the plaintiff is not required to answer Nos. 1, 23, 27 and 31 of the Additional Interrogatories.

Stuart A. Culbertson	vs. Mary Elizabeth Baiera	May 31, 1966 Sur Petition To Modify Order Filed.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J. And Now, May 27, 1966 after hearing held May 26, 1966 the court finds the welfare of the minor child Elena Marie Baiera, would best be promoted by allowing more extensive visits with her father, Charles J. Baiera, Jr. Accordingly the previous written orders regarding visitational rights and custody, both at the Habeas Corpus action at No 101 December Sessions 1962, and any oral modifications thereof, are hereby revoked and the following custody and visitational privileges established:

The custody of Elena Marie Baiera shall continue with her mother.

Charles J. Baiera, Jr. shall have a right to have his minor child with him at his home, or any other proper and suitable place, on the second weekend of every month commencing Saturday at 10:00 A.M. and terminating Sunday at 8:00 P.M., Charles J. Baiera, Jr., shall notify his former wife, Mary Elizabeth Jarrett, if it is impossible for him to have said child on said weekend, and on any weekend that he fails to appear to receive the child in his custody by 11:00 A.M. Saturday his former wife shall be free to assume that he does not intend to take the child for the weekend and may make any other plans of her choice. So long as Elena Marie Baiera is attending dancing school, Charles J. Baiera, Jr, or his present wife, will make the necessary arrangements to see that she attends all sessions of her dancing classes. Further, Charles J. Baiera, Jr., having assured the court that the child will attend a Catholic Church on the Sunday while in his custody, it is hereby ordered that he make arrangements for the child to attend a Catholic Church on each and every Sunday he has the child in his custody.

In addition, Charles J. Baiera, Jr. shall have the right to have the custody of his minor child on Wednesday of each week at such hours as may be mutually arranged between he and his former wife; and in the absence of an agreement in this regard, the hours are hereby established as 1:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. Should school or kindergarten classes come within the prescribed time, the visitational hours shall commence one-half hour after the dismissal of school or kindergarten and continue until 8:00 P.M.

Charles J. Baiera, Jr. shall have the right to have the child with him during the week commencing Monday

August 22, 1966, at 10:00 A.M. and Terminating Sunday August 28, 1966 at 8:00 P.M. The one week summer visit shall continue yearly thereafter and shall be during a week when the vacation schedules of the parties and their spouses do not conflict and with the further provision that Charles J. Baird, Jr. shall initiate the arrangements for the summer vacation visit before June 10th of each and every year. It is the Courts intention that the child shall be able to share the vacation plans of both parents during the summer months.

The child shall remain in the custody of Mary Elizabeth Jarrett, her mother, on Easter of every year, with the provision that sometime during Easter Day she have a visit with her father and in the absence of an agreement of the parties regarding the hours and length of said visit the same are hereby established as the hours between 4:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M.

The parties are urged to make reasonable and flexible arrangements for the sharing of the child during the Christmas holidays and in the absence of any agreement, the child shall remain in the custody of the mother during Christmas Day, but shall be in the custody of her father the day before Christmas from 9:00 A.M. until 8:00 P.M.

Orders in this case having been entered both at No 73 November Term 1963 and No 101 Domestic Relations Division 1962, insofar as custody and visitation matters are concerned the case will hereafter remain docketed in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, at No 73 November Term, 1963, and a copy of this Order filed with the Domestic Relations Office shall terminate all visitation and custody proceedings in regard to the Domestic Relations Court.
