June 16, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 10, 1997, the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation because visits proscribed in the Order of November 18, 19996 in Paragraph 3A and B, the mother complaints that the father refuses to surrender the children when she goes to pick them up at his home, contending that he has no transportation or no means to return them from the mother's home to the father's home. This Court finds the father has not expended every effort to provide the transportation necessary to return the children to his home. In this regard, we find we would be in contempt of the Court Order, but we postpone any punishment therefor.

The father agrees that he will commence complying with Paragraph 3A Friday, June 13, 1997 and every two weeks thereafter in accord with the Order entered November 18, 1996. Each time Mr. Trypus or his designee transportation transports the children, the father, Michael Proctor, agrees and is DIRECTED to pay the transporter $10 cash.

The parties agree and the Court DIRECTS that as far as Paragraph 3B is concerned, giving the mother a two-week continuous visitation period in August, it shall be the responsibility of the mother to pick up the children and it shall be the responsibility of the father to provide for their return through Mr. Trypus or his designee.

However, the mother must give the father forty-eight (48) hours advanced notice of her intentions of visiting with the parties son. These additional visits must be mutually agreed upon by both the mother and the father.

Arrangements for the mother's visitation time with the child shall be worked-out between the parties on these three days. Mother shall have custody of the child on Christmas Eve. Further, father hereby agrees to also pick-up the child from the mother's residence at the expiration of her visitation period with the child.

6. Any party transporting the child shall make sure that seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the law of PA.

Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the child's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to likewise and not to disparage the other party in the child's estimation.

9. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this Order, or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which compels the cancellation or modification. June 2, 1995, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1995, this matter is before the court on plaintiffs petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The plaintiff appears with counsel and the dft. does not appear.

He was served by the sheriff at his place of employment on May 19, 1995 by cert. mail, ret. rec. req., insofar as the dft is employed in Lake Milton, Ohio. He did not personally sign the cert. mail return but theplff. indicates that she has spoken with him andhe was aware of the hearing but did not intend to appear.

Accordingly, the following order is entered:

1. The dft. shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten or stalk the plff. named in petition.
2. Thedft. may not go tothe plaintiff's residence at 173 Maple Lane, Jamestown, Pa. nor any future residence she may occupy, at nay time, except if he arranges with plaintiff's counsel to go to plaintiff's residence for the purpose of removing his personal belongings. He may not go without obtaining permission of the plff. to do so through her counsel. The dft. is advised that plaintiff's counsel is Gerald Sullivan at Northwestern Legal Servcies in Meadville.
3. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.
4. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Pa. St. Police, Meadville Barracks, and to County Control. Additionally, insofar as the dft. is unrepresented, a copy shall be sent to him by regular mail at 313 Porter St., NE, Warren Ohio 44483 by the Prothonotary.

6. This order shall remain in full force and effect through May 29, 1996.
7. Insofar as the dft. has not appeared this day, if he represents to the court through verified petition that he in fact did not have notice of this hearing, and the reason he wasn't here is because he was unaware of the hearing, then a hearing will be scheduled to determine whether or not this order shall remain in effect through May 29, 1996.
8. Costs shal be paid by the dft. within 30 days from this date tot he Prothonotary of Crawford County. Those costs are $93.50. BY ORDEROF THE COURT,

Sept. 3, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 3, 1996, the Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Master in Divorce is denied without prejudice to refile when the deficiencies outlined in this Order are corrected.
Specifically, while the parties appear to agree that the marriage is irretrievable broken, neither has filed an affidavit of consent. Additionally, while the Plaintiff maintains that income and expense statements are not necessary and inventories are not necessary, based on the issues to be heard by the Master, they are, in fact, necessary. They should be filed timely by both parties, but at least prior to moving for a Master, the moving party should file both.
Additionally, the approximate value of marital assets should be indicated in item 12 of the Motion based on at least the moving party's inventory and the other party's inventory also if it has been filed.
Finally, we note that item 6 indicates the date the complaint was filed but does not indicate when it was served. Item 4 does not indicate whether complex issues of law or fact are involved.

8/21/98 Faxed to Gregg & Thomas

August 21, 1998 ORDER FILED. And now, August 20, 1998 it is ordered as follows:
1.Plaintiff's Exhibit 1,2,3,4 and 5 were admitted into evidence at the hearing on August 19,1998 over a hearsay objection made by the Defendant. While the normal and necessary college expenses including tuition, books, room and board and incidentals for the son of these parties is releveant and although the Plaintiff may have the burden of proving those items since he is petitioning the court for relief and although the truth of the matters set forth in those exhibits may in fact constitute hearsay the Court (a) would not normally expect persons from Thiel College Billing Department or book store or persons from PHEAA Federal Stafford Loan Program to come to Court to testify as to the items included in said exhibits and (b) does not believe as a practical matter, that there should be much dispute about the charges that Thiel College is making or any benefits or loans the student is receibing since those ought to be easily determined s0 that to make efficient use of court time the balance of the time is devoted to the central issues in the case.
2. Accordingly the Defendant now has an opportunity to review those exhibits and to determine the truth and accuracy of the contents of those exhibits. If she can show that those exhibits are not accurate then she shall so notify counsel for the Plaintiff at least ten days prior to the next hearing so that counsel may bring in appropriate witnesses to prove the authenticity of the exhibits and the truth of the matters contained in said exhibits.
3. The hearing in this case is continued to September 10, 1998 at 2:15 o'clock PM in Courtroom No. 1, Crawford County Courthouse.
4. There are some significant issues in this case but the Court believes the expenses connected with college for the child as well as the income of the parties should be no mystery and that those matters ought to be presented to the Court in a quick easy to understand fashion. Same is also true of the expenses the parties have undertaken and are responsible for generally as well as those that are directly related to the Agreement of Feb. 17,1997.
There may be some minor disputes as to amounts but essentially income and expenses including the child's college expenese ought to be straight forward and presented in a very efficient manner so that the parties in the Court can devote the balance of their time to the real issues in the case.

June 5, 1995 ORDER, filed. AND NOW, May 31, 1995, this matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears represented by counsel, and the Defendant is without counsel. He indicates that he expected Greg Keenan, Esquire to be here. But Plaintiff's counsel indicates that eh checked with the Public Defender's Office, and Mr. Keenan was not scheduled to be here. We have indicated to the Defendant that we will continue this hearing to allow him to have his counsel present, but he is instead agreeabel to proceeding without counsel with an order to be entered without admission of the allegations of the petition on his part.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the Plaintiff named in the petition.
2. The Defendant shall not go to Plaintiff's residence where ever that may be even if he is invited to that residence. Any police agency shall presume that if the Defendant is at the Plaintiff's residence he is in violation of this order. In the event the Plaintiff wants the Defendant to come to her residence, the parties shall seek a modification of this order prior to him doing so.
3. The Plaintiff is currently expecting a child which child is the child of both the Plaintiff and this Defendant. If during the course of her pregnancy the Plaintiff learns of any problems with the child through her doctor, she shall promptly notify the Defendant of that in writing. Likewise when it is time for the child to be born and the Plaintiff is going into labor, she shall contact the Defendant as soon as possible notifying him of that fact. It is not our intention to provide in this order that the Defendant will then be permitted to go to the hospital and that will only occur if the Plaintiff specifically grants permission to the Defendant to allow that.
4. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Meadville City Police, Crawford County Control, and shall be sent ty regular mail to the Defendant care of the Crawford County Jail or if he is no longer incarcerated, at 1204 Pennsylvania Avenue Meadville, Pennsylvania.

The Defendant is reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine not less than $100 and no more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.

The Defendant shall pay court costs in this proceeding in the amount of $93.50 within 90 days of the date of this order. Those shall be paid to the Prothonotary's Office on the first floor of the Crawford County Courthouse.

5. This order shall remain in full force and effect through May 30, 1996.
6. The Defendnat will not contact the Plaintiff by telephone or in writing.

AND NOW, this 22 day of May, 1995, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Motion for Writ of Habeas Corpus, hearing is set forth the 25th day of May, 1995 at 4:00 p.m. in Courtroom 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse. BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

May 31, 1995 Order filed. AND NOW, May 25, 1995, this matter is before the Court on a Motion for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed by Michael Glad.

Essentially, he is being detained in Crawford County as a technical parole violator under State supervision as a courtesy for a sentence imposed in Bucks County.

The State Parole Officer incharge of the case indicates that on May 18, 1995, he sent an appropriate motion to Bucks County to - determine whether the Court wishes to issue a detainer in Bucks County and has not received an Order form that Court.

We took a recess and spoke to Judge Isaac Garb in Bucks County, who indicsted to this Court that he did not have a formal motion in front of him, and therefore, has taken no action.

I tappears at this time that the defendant is not being illegally detained, and therefore, we are powerless to issue the Writ of Habeas Corpus. HOWEVER, it would also appear that if the defendant is detained beyond May 31, 1995, his detentionmay well be illegal if a detainer has not been signed by Bucks County.

The State Parole Officer indicates that if the detainer is not signed by that date, that he intends to release the defendant from his detainer, and if that does not occur, the defendant may request a rehearing in this matter and we will take appropriate action at that time.

June 26, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 22, 1995 this matter comes before the Court on an emergency basis because of a petition filed alleging that persons without standing, namely the Plaintiffs Bentley, had, without permission, removed minor child Timothy (d.o.b. 2/27/95) from the custody of the child's mother Geraldine Warring in Jamestown, PA (Crawford County) and were refusing to return the child.

An order was entered directing immediate return of the child to the mother and the Bentleys complied with said order. The matter now comes before the Court on the initial petition to return custody of the child and the plaintiff's petition to secure custody of the child.

Allegations of the parties are reviewed by the Court and it is the contention of the Bentleys that they received the child with the permission of the mother Geraldine Warring under some type of an assertion that she was incapable of taking care of the child and wished the Bentleys to have custody of the child, with appropriate visitations for the mother.

Mother is 16 years of age, claims to be learning disabled, and only completed 8th grade. The father of the child is Thomas Hanick, currently in the military service, stationed at an unknown location.

Mother denies she is incapable of taking care of the child and resides with her mother, Geraldine Warring. To further complicate matters further, mother of the child and her mother have moved from a Crawford Co. address in Jamestown, PA to a Mercer C. address in Jamestown, PA.

Geraldine M. Warring

The issue before the Court this date is the standing of the Bentleys to bring this custody proceeding. The ruling of this Court is that the Bentleys are too distantly related to the child at issue to have standing to secure custody of the child in a custody proceeding, particularly so when the mother of the child and the grandmother of the child are actively opposing said custody, whether it be on a permanent or short-term basis.

Accordingly, this Court dismisses the custody action without prejudice to Frank M. Bentley and Linda Bentley to refer and report any miscare, ill treatment, or danger to the child to the Mercer County Children & Youth Services. Under any circumstances, this Court advises the Bentleys that if they believe that the child's welfare is endangered by the conduct of the mother or the home conditions where the child reposes, they should not attempt to take the child into their possession but report it to the Mercer County Children & Youth Services for investigation and appropriate action.

October 1, 1999 Pretrial Order filed. And Now, September 30, 1999 after a Pretrial conference with all Counsel present, the Corut enters the following Order:
1. All discovery is completed and the paraties are ready for trail, but it is unceratin whether trial will be able to commence during the October 1999 term of Civil Corut. If trail deos appear to be possible during the October 1999 term of court, the parties should be ready to pick a jury as early as the morning of October 11, 1999 The Court Administrator will keep the parties advised as to teh status of the trial list. It is anticipated this case will take 5 to 6 days to try.
2. Description of Case. After experiencing server pain in her right arm and neck in May of 1999 the wife plaintiff was referred by her family physician to the defendant, an orthopedic specialist Surgery was performed and treatment continued, including subsequent surgery. The plaintiff maintains that the surgery and care given by the defendant to the wife plaintiff was negligent care.

3. Legal Issues. There were two legal issues regarding damages. One involves the amount of wife plaintiff's medical bills that would be presented to the jury. Those bills were paid through medical assistance. It appears that the parties are going to be able to resolve that by providing a stipulated amount to be presented to the jury in some form. Therefore, we will not address that issue further unless there is a problem in which case the parties should bring tha o the court's attention.
The seocnd issure involves whether loss of earning's evidence can be presented by the plaintiffs due to the fact that the wife plaintiff was receiveing social security disability benefeits since approximately April of 1992 amd continues to receive those benefits. Apparently she originally qualified because of a stroke that she had had in 1992 and because of her obesity. The defendat has addressed that issue by providing some case law and teh plaintiff has filed a brief and we will begin to decide that issue but make no final decision until just prior to trial since defendant's trial counsel was not available for the Pretrial Conference and substitute counsel may want to provide more case law with regard to that issue.
4. Stipulations. The parties agree that the medical records, which are applicable in this case, may be used without the necessity of authentication by a reocrds custodian. As we have further indicated they should be reaching an agreement and stipulation with regard to the amount of medical bills in this case.
5. Exhibits There do not appear to be any objections tot eh exhibits that need to be dealt with prior to trial. This Order, is of course without prejudice to either party to raise any objecitons that they have to exhibits during the oourse of trail.
6. Peremptory Challenges. The plaintiffs shall have 4 peremptory challenges and the defendant shall have 4 peremptory challenges. In addition to the 20 jurors called, 4 jurors will be called as alternates with the plaintiffs to have 1 peremptory challenge and the defendant to have 1 peremptory challenge so that 2 alternates are left.
7. Prior to jury selection, the parties shall attempt to reach an agreement as to what voir dire questions shall be asked and in doing so shall consider the questions contained in Pa.R.Civ. P.220.1. The parties will attempt to reach an agreementas to what voir dier questions shall be asked in doing so shall consider the questions containted in PA. R.CIV.P.220.1 The parties will attempt o prepare a juror questionnaire to be provided to the jurors at the time of jury selection which would reduce the amount of oral questions and therefore expedite the jury selection process.
8. Poitns for CHarge. Counsel shall submit requested Points for Charege as soon possible but not later than the close of presentation of all evidene. Prior to oral argument by the parties, the court will rule on requested Points for Charge so taht parties will know what the court intends to tell thejury.
9. Proposed Verdict Slip Any counsel desiring to submit a proposed Verdict Slip shall do so prior to teh commencement of final argudment.
10. Witnesses The palintiffs indicate that they intend to call in their case in chief both plaintiffs. Dr. Brian E. Dalton by video deposition, Dr Jeffrey Yablon, Dr. M. Suan Matthews, Rev Cindy Kightlinger and one of the plaintiffs' children.The defendant indicates that he is intends to call in his case in chief the defendant Dr. David Kraus, Dr. James O-Ong, Dr. M. Susan Matthews, Dr. Ruth P. Kane, Dr. Ravindra Godse and Dr. Robert A. Driscol.
The defendant has not supplies an expert reqport from Dr. Ong. and if trail is to be in October he shall do so no later than October 6, 1999, and this is without prejudice to the plaintiffs to ask for a continuance once they receive that report, if they believe that they need a continuance after considering the report.
We also note that there are video depositions that need to be taken and the parties should do that promptly and provide the court with a hard copy of any transcripts from those video depositions os that the court may make rulings on any objections.
11. Continuance. At this time it appears that this case could get tried druing the Oct 1999 term of Civil Cour t in fromnt of most likely, Judge Miller, tut is still uncertain. The defendant has agreed to continue this case to the Feb. 2000 term of Civil Court if it does not appear certain that it can be tried in October of 1999 after this day and plaintiffs' counsel will contact the court this day to indicte whether that is acceptable to the plaintiffs.
If it coannot be determined today for sure this case will be tried in October of 1999 it will be continued until February 2000 term of Civil Court to be started on the first day of that term in front of either Judge miller or the undersigend.
The reason for this continuance would be to allow the parties to have a date certain so that they can have their witnesses available as needed.

June 7, 1995 ORDER, filed. AND NOW, Juen 2, 1995, the parties appeared in open court. The plaintiff desired to proceed with this matter. The Court explained the process to the defendant and he agred to the entry of an Order.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff. He shall not go to her place of residence or place of employment. In fact, he shall not be within 100 yards of those places. The plaintiff works at the Titusville Hospital, and therefore, this Order does not prohibit the defendant from making legitimate trips to the Hospital for his own care, to conduct business with the Hospital, or to visit persons he is related to or close to if they are patients in the Hospital, but he shall not go to the Hospital for the purpose of seeing the plaintiff or talking to the plaintiff, unless she agrees to that. If he happens to run across the plaintiff at the hospital he shall go about his business and not interfere with her.
2. The defendant may contact the plaintiff by telephone in the event there is an emergency involving the children, provided the communication is not abusive, harassing or threatening. If the parties agree, he may call the plaintiff's residence to talk to the children at times that the plaintiff agrees to. The defendant shall have a right to wite to the children and communicate with them by mail. He shall have a right to communicate with the plaintifff by mail, as long as the writings are not too frequent or are not abusive, harassing or threatening. The plaintiff has agreed in this hearing that the defendant may call his children as he pleases, so long as the calls are during daylight hours, and so long as the calls are not harassing, threatening, or abusive toward the plaintiff.
3. The parties have already agreed to custody and visitatiion. That agreement apparently is oral and not in writing. The exchanges of custody shall take place in the Municipal Parking Lot in Titusville, unless the parties mutually agree to another locatiion.
4. This Order may be enforced without a Warrant of Arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.
5. A copy of this Order shall be delivered by teh Prothonotary to the Titusville Police Department, to the Pennsylvania State Police at Corry, to County Control, and a copy shall be mailed regular mail to the defendant at 219 East State St., Pleasantville, Pa. 16341.
6. This Order shall remain in full force and effect for one year from this date' that is, until June 1, 1996, unless modified or terminated by further Order of Court.

APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CITY OF TITUSVILLE ZONING HEARING BOARD
1 copy atty.
Writ of Cert. issued C. Ford

Jun. 15, 1995 Petition for Stay of Proceedings Pending Review of Court, filed.

Jun. 20, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 20, 1995 the Plaintiffs appear pro se with a petition for stay of proceedings pending review of court which appears to be filed pursuant to the provision of 53 PS 11003-A.

The Plaintiffs after securing this time for an emergency appearance before the Court due to the fact that they were concerned that work on the project for which the permit has been issued will begin on June 21, 1995 alleged in court that they have duly served the zoning hearing board, the applicant, and have notified counsel for the applicant that they will appear this day.

Accordingly, it is ordered and directed that the zoning hearing board's actions which have been or may be taken pursuant to their decision of May 17, 1995 regarding the application of Thomas D. Sneeringer is stayed pending further order of court.

This order is without prejudice to the Defendant, Zoning Hearing Board of Titusville,Crawford County, Pennsylvania or any future intervenors to request a hearing with regard to whether this stay shall be continued and also without prejudice to those parties to seek relief in accordance with 53 PS 11003-A(d).

In entereing this order we note that on June 15, 1995, the Plaintiffs filed an appeal from the decision of the City of Titusville Zoning Hearing Board which appears to be a timely appeal and otherwise in order on its face.

BY THE COURT:
Anthony J. Vardaro,, J

July 21, 1995 Faxed Altomare & Felton, mailed Cooks

Aug. 22,1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 17, 1995, at the time fixed for argumetn on this zoning appeal, it appeared to the Court and the attorneys that the record from the Zoning Hearing Board may not have been sent to the Prothonotary, either because the Prothonotary did not issue a writ of certiorari, or if the Prothonotary did issue a Writ of Certiorari, the record has not come as of this date.

We attempted to determine what the record would consist of before the Zoning Hearing Board, and therefore, before this Court. The parties agreed that the following would make up the record before the Zoning Hearing Board, and thus the record before this Court:

1. Transcript of the Zoning Board Hearing held on Wednesday, May 17, 1995.
2. Site plan, which is Exhibit C to the Sneeringer brief.
3. Survey, which is Exhibit A to the Sneeringer brief.
4. Application for Variance, which is Exhibit B to the Sneeringer bried.
5. Fox letter of May 10, 1995, which is Exhibit A to the Cook brief.
6. Official zoning map, which is an Exhibit to the Cook brief.
7. Portions of the ordinance which are attached to the Sneeringer brief and the Cook brief.
8. Letter to Cooks from Lorenz, dated May 11, 1995, advising the Cooks of the hearing before the Zoning Hearing Board.

The parties also agareed that Title One to the Zoning Ordinance, Sections 1301 through 1325 should be part of the record in this case. The attorneys are ORDERED and DIRECTED to furnish a true and correct copy of those sections of the Court within the next 5 days. That may be submitted directly to the Judge's Chambers.

Counsel for the Sneeringers believes that there should be three documents submitted of record, which said documents werw not, according to the transcript in this case, before the Zoning Hearing Board. Those documents may have been before the Zoning Hearing Board and may have been considered by the Zoning Hearing Board, but there is no evidence on the record at this point that they were, in fact, considered or reviewed by the Zoning Hearing Board. Those are documents that deal with whether or not the subject property was a non-conforming use. That is a crucial issue because that is the starting point for this zoning appeal.

ACCORDINGLY, if the parties are unable to stipulate as to additional matters that will make up the record and are not so able to stipulate within the next 15 days, counsel for the Sneeringer shall file a petition with the Court to include certain additional matters with respect to whether or not the property is a non-conforming use into the record in this case. That petition shall set forth in detail the documents or the evidence which the Sneeringers wish to add to the record. At that point, the Court will consider the petition and avail itself of the various options it has, such as denying the petition, or referring the matter to some tribunal, including this Court, for further hearing. The petition of the Sneeringers shall indicate whether or not the Cooks consent to the addition of that evidence or information to the record.

It appears that there may be typographical errors in the transcript before the Zoning Hearing Board. The attorneys shall have 15 days to get together to stipulate as to the corections that should be made and submit a written stipulation signed by both counsel to the Court. If there are any corrections that they cannot agree to, they shall also indicate what those are and the Court will make a determination as to how those will be disposed of. Gordon R. Miller

Jun. 16, 1995 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED Bryan A. Stancliff personally on June 16, 1995 at 9:25 AM by handing a copy of the Protection from Abuse to him at his grandmother's residence, 314 Spring Street, Cambridge Springs, Crawford County,PA.

So Answers,

Shawn E.Ashbaugh, Deputy Sheriff
Robert M.Stevens,Sheriff

Jun. 23, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 22, 1995 after informal hearing, the Court believes a Protection from Abuse Order by the mother is in order against her 20-year-old son. Accordingly, the Defendant is directed not to threaten, assault, annoy,or harass the mother or her husband in any fashion.

Apparently the son Defendant has an '82 Cutlass 4 wheel drive in inoperable condition in the parents' propery and in addition, a motorcycle and a lawn mower. Additionally, there is anautomobile transmission, motor, and rear end of an '86 Firebird on the premises that the parents wish removed. Accordingly, the Defendant is directed within 30 days to remove said property from his parents' premises, and in the event he does not do so, a copy of this order shall be sufficient authority for the parents to sell the same for junk and retain the proceeds thereof.

The Plaintiff apparently still has clothes and personal effects at his parents' home and can give the Court no date when he will come and remove the same from the parents' hom. Accordingl the court directs the parents to put said clothing and personal effects in the motor vehicle on their premises and to leave the keys in the vehicle with if the same are not repossessed within the aforesaid 30-day period, they may dispose of the clothing and personal effects as they see fit.

This order shall remain in full force and effect for a period of 1 year.

Any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff,or constable having reasonable grounds to believe that the Defendant has violated the order to the extent that he has harassed,abused, or annoyed the parents may enforce this order without warrant, lodge the Defendant in the Crawford County Jail, and request an imemdiate contempt hearing.

A copy of this order shall be lodged with County Control and the Pennsylvania State Police.

The Defendant is directed to pay costs in this case in the amount of $112.50 within 30 days of this date.

The Defendant has no address at which a copy of this order may be mailed, and accordingly, he may pick a copy of the same up at the Prothonotary's Office any time after June 26, 1995.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P.Richard Thomas, S.J.

July 13, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 6, 1995 after a formal hearing, the Court finds, in a very close case, that the Plaintiff has sustained her burden of proof by the fair weight and preponderance of teh evidence, and accordingly orders as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten or stalk the Plaintiff.
2. This order shall remain in full force and effect for a period of six months from this date unless modified or terminated by further order of Court.
3. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's residence or place of work. He shall not be within 100 yards of her residence, if he in fact knows where she lives. If she does not notify him as to where she lives, and we are not obligating her to do so, then the Defendant may not know what property he must stay away from. In that event, he shall not go to her residence or be within 100 yards of it after he finds out where she lives.
4. Primary physical custody of the minor children is awarded to the Plaintiff. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the children. The father shall have a right to visit the children and take them into his custody every other weekend from 5:00 p.m. on Friday night until 5:00 p.m. on Sunday evening. The first weekend shall be July 7, 1995. Transportation for these visitations shall be provided by the Defendant's father. Therefore, the Plaintiff shall either deliver the children to the Defendant's father's in time for the father to deliver the children to the Defendant by 5:00, or she shall notify the Defendant's father where she is living so that he can pick them up. If she lives in the City of Meadville, or within a 5 mile radius fo the Crawford County Courthouse, she may ask the Defendant's father to pick the children up where she is, but if she lives beyond that radius or beyond the City of Meadville, then she shall take the children to the Defendant's father's home or at a place where the Defendant's father will pick them up. Furthermore, the Plaintiff shall make the necessary arrangements to pick up the children from the Defendant's father's at the end of the visitation on Sunday evening.

   All of this would be made easier if the Defendant and his father knew where the Plaintiff lives. If the Plainitff keeps her address secret, then it shall be up to her to make sure that she has made appropriate arrangements for these transfers of custody.
5. The Court encourages the Plaintiff to receive telephone calls and letters from the Defendant provided they are not done with unreasonable frequency. This communication must center around the children. We believe that the Defendant should have the ability to call or write the Plaintiff with respect to his concerns involving his children, especially if the children are sick while they are in his custody. The Plaintiff may limit telephone calls from the Defendant to daylight hours.
6. These provisions with respect to custody and visitations are subject to modification or amendment in an appropriate child custody proceeding.

8. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police - Meadville Barracks, the Meadville City Police Department, and to County Control.

9. In view of the fact that neither party has gainful employment, costs are waived and shall be paid by Crawford County.

10. The Defendant is reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.

11. The Defendant's date of birth is February 5, 1970 and his Social Security Number is 523-15-6902.

12. The Plaintiff claims that the Defendant has her driver's license and the Defendant denies that. If the Defendant has the driver's license, he is ORDERED and DIRECTED to deliver it to his attorney within the next 24 hours for delivery on to the Plaintiff's attorney. If it turns out that he has the driver's license and the Plaintiff is able to prove that, and if the Defendant does not comply with this order with respect to delivery fo the driver's license, the Court will, after an appropriate hearing, hold him in contempt of Court. In the event that he does not have the driver's license or does not turn one over, then the Plaintiff will obviously have to get another driver's license through other sources.

13. The Plaintiff may pick up her personal belongings and the clothing and personal belongings of the children at a time to be agreed upon by the parties within the next week. The plaintiff appears without counsel and the defendant appears with counsel and the parties have worked out certain amendments to the Protection From Abuse Order entered by Judge Gordon R. Miller on July 6, 1995.

Specifically, that Order is amended to the extent that transportation may be provided not only by the defendant's father, but also by his mother or other family member until further Order of Court, the Court noting that there is a custody mediation set in this matter for October 26, 1995, at which time it should be possible to resolve all outstanding custody and visitation issues.

The Order of July 6, 1995, is further amended to state that the defendant, if he sees the plaintiff out in public, shall have no contact with her and shall go a different direction unless plaintiff, in which case, the defendant may, of course, greet the child or children and have a conversation with the child or children, but shall have no conversation or confrontation with the plaintiff.

A copy of this Order modifying the July 6, 1995 Order shall be sent to the Pennsylvania State Police, Meadville Barracks, Meadville City Police, and to County Control, the Court noting that in all other respects in which it is not modified by this Order, the July 6, 1995 Order remains in effect.

Oct. 18, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, October 11, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the Defendant with regard to enforcement of certain provisions of appropriate child support and child custody agreement entered into between the parties on October 10, 1995.

We are not going to move forward at this time because procedurally we are not sure whether this matter is properly before the Court.

Specifically, while 21 Pa.C.S.A. 3105(a) allows for enforcement of an agreement entered into by the parties whether or not it has been merged or incorporated into the divorce decree that section specifically speaks to that agreement having to pertain to matters within the "jurisdiction of the Court". We are unsure as to whether the matters contained in that agreement of October 10, 1995 are actually within the jurisdiction of the Court because the original divorce complaint filed in this matter on June 22, 1995 was only a divorce action and did not include an equitable distribution count.

We are going to give the parties an opportunity to file memorandums of law with regard to this issue and specifically the jurisdiction issue as well as the applicability of that section and Section 3502(e) of the Divorce Code.

The parties shall file memorandums of law no later than 4:30 p.m. on October 24, 1996 and thereafter the Court will decide whether further hearing is appropriate or whether this action must be brought in another manner.

Jul 6, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 3, 1995 this matter comes before teh Court upon petition of the Plaintiff for a Protection from Abuse order. Both parties appear, both without counsel, and the Defendant, having been advised of his right to counsel, indicates that he does not want counsel but wants an order entered without admission of the allegations of the petition.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, or threaten the Plaintiff or any minor child named in the petition.
2. The Defendant shall not go to the marital residence at 838 N. Cottage Street in Meadville, which shall be in the sole possession of the Plaintiff. The Defendant may not go to that residence even if he is invited by the Plaintiff, insofar as any police agency will presume that he is in violation of this order if he does so. In the event the parties wish for the Defendant to be able to go to the marital residence in the future, they should seek a modification of this order prior to him doing so.
3. The minor children shall be in the sole custody of the Plaintiff pending further order of Court in this action or any other appropriate action. The Plaintiff will make arrangements for the children to visit with the Defendant through the Defendant's sister. Those visits will take place in Cochranton.
4. The Plaintiff will make arrangements with the Defendant's sister this day for a time for his sister to come to the marital residence to pick up the Defendant's personal belongings.
5. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.
6. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Meadville City Police Department and to County Control. Additionally, a copy shall be sent by regular mail to the unrepresented plaintiff at 838 North Cottage Street in Meadville and to the unrepresented Defendant c/o his parents at 105 Pine Street in Cochranton, PA.
7. The Defendant is reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.
8. The Defendant shall pay costs in this case to the Prothonotary of Crawford County on the first floor of the Crawford County Courthouse in the amount of $93.50 within 90 days of the date of this order.

Shawn E.Ashbaugh, Deputy Sheriff
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

July 13,1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 7, 1995 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

Both parties appear without counsel, and the Defendant's right to counsel of his choice is discussed with him. He is under the impression that because he is incarcerated that he is entitled to a Public Defender in these proceedings, and the Court explains that a Public Defender will represent him in the criminal procedings only. After the Court explains to him the various ways to proceed, he indicates that he is agreeable to an order being entered consistent with the temporary abuse order, without admission of the allegations of the petition.

Accordingly, it is ordered and directed that:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten or stalk the Plaintiff or any minor child named in the petition.

2. The Plaintiff shall have sole possession of the residence at 1131 East Street in Meadville, and the Defendant may not go within 100 yards of that residence. The Defendant is cautioned that eh should not go to that residence even if he is invited there, insofar as any police agency will presume that he is in violation of this order if he is at that residence.

3. If at some point the parties wish for the Defendant to be able to go to that residence, they should seek a modification of this order before he does so.

4. Pending further order of Court in this proceeding or any other appropriate proceeding, the Plaintiff shall have physical custody of the minor lchildren. The Defendant may arrange, through a representative, for visitation withs the children at the discretion of the Plaintiff. He may also write to the children, so long as none of his letters contain anything abusive or harassing.

5. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

6. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Meadville City Police Department and to County Control, and a copy shall be sent by regular mail to the Plaintiff at 1131 East Street in Meadville and to the Defendant, c/o the Crawford County Jail.

7. The Defendant is reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.

8. This order shall remain in full force and effect through July 6, 1996.

9. In light of the fact that the Defendant is incarcerated, the County shall pay costs.

July 11, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 7, 1995, the parties appeared in Court. The Plaintiff had counsel. The Defendant did not. The Defendant was advised as to the nature of this proceeding, and he understood it. The parties agreed to a settlement in this matter including the contempt petition; and based upon said settlemetn, the Court orders as follows in settling this matter. The Defendant does admit that he engaged in the conduct alleged in the complaint. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the Plaintiff or minor children named in the petition.
2. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's residence or place of employment nor shall he be within 100 yards of either of those places.
3. The Defendant shall not contact the Plaintiff at her place of employment under any circumstances.

That 6 month period will give the Defendant an apportunity to either schedule a hearing for equitable distribution or bring a replevin action to try title and right to the possession of those items and obtain those items if he prevails and is entitled to them.
6. Custody of the party's minor children shall be with the Plaintiff. The Defendant shall have absolutely no right to visit his children or to take them into his custody or to contact them without further order of court. As provided in the Protection from Abuse Act, this order is effective and binding on the parties unless changed or modified by a court of common jurisdiction in a custody action.
7. The contempt complaint is dismissed upon the request of the Plaintiff. In doing so however, we place of record our stiff warnings to this Defendant that if he violates this order this Court will consider the events that occurred on July 5, 1995 that were the basis of the contempt petition we are now dismissing and take into account all of the Defendant's conduct with respect to court orders in determining an appropriate punishment. We note of record that the State Trooper made a strong recommendation that the complaint for contempt not be dismissed and that the Defendant be punished. We are declining that opportunity based upon the desires of the Plaintiff and the fact that the Defendant has spent three days in July 26, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, July 24, 1996, at the time this matter is before theCourt the Court explores the contentions of both parties to this action and listens to argument from counsel in view of the uncontested factual situation that themobile home is now in the custody of other persons who have assumed and have been paying the financial obligations due thereon; andin view of the fact that the Plaintiff in this action has not resided in the marital residence for approximately two years, the Court finds it does not have the authority under Section 3520(c) of the Divorce Code to grant her request for exclusive possession of the former marital residence particularly in view of the fact it is now occupied and being financed by other persons although official title to the mobile home has not been transferred. In this regard, it appears that the reason the title has not been transferred, is that the purchasers have not paid to former joint owned Audrey K. Nell a $1,000.00 as her share of an equitable interest in the mobile home when it was sold.

Under all the circumstances, the Court declines to grant the petition for exclusive possession of the former marital residence to the Defendant wife in this case.

Jul. 13, 1995 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED Wanda S.Gill personally on July 12, 1995 at approximately 4:05 PM at the residence, 259 Fry Road, Lot 1, Jamestown, Crawford County, PA. She was served by Plaintiff's father, Mr. Schneider, first name unknown.

July 20, 1995 Order filed. AND NOW, July 19, 1995, this matter comes before theCourt on Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears represented by counsel. The Defendant does not have counsel, is advised of her right to counsel indicates that she has attempted to get counsel, and will proceed on her own.

After formal hearing inthis matter, we find that there has been abuse within the meaning of the act, although we find that it is probably minimal and that inthe past, apparently these parties have been abusive to one another.

In light of the fact that the Defendant appears very unstable to the Court this day, we will enter the following order:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass or threaten the Plaintiff or any minor child named in the petition.

2. The Plaintiff shall have exclusive use of the home at which both parties were residing at Lot 1, 259 Fry Road, in Jamestown, Pennsylvania, and the Defendantmay not go to that residence. She is cautioned that she shall not go to that residence even if she is invited, insofar as any police agency will presume that she is in violationof this order if she does go to that residience. If the parties wish for her to be able to go to that residence in the future, they should seek a modification of this order prior to her doing so.

3. Pending further order of Court in this proceeding or any appropriate custody proceeding, which either party may file, the Plaintiff shall have physical custody of the children. The Defendant shall be entitled to reasonable visitation with the children and the parties shall work that out so that the Defendant does have an apportunity to have the children with her.

4. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

5. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police, Meadville Barracks, and to Crawford County Control.

6. The Defendant is reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.

7. Insofar as the Defendant is unrepresented, a copy of this order shall be sent to her by regular mail at 501 Depot Street in Jamestown, PA.

8. This order shall remain in full force and effect for a period of 4 months.

9. The County shall pay costs in this proceeding.

Jul. 25, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 21, 1995 after a formal hearing in which both parties were represented by counsel, it appears that the Defendant has violated the Protection from Abuse Act by going further with respect to restraining his wife than he probably should have to protect himself, and therefore,we enter the following order:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse,harass, or threaten the Plaintiff.
2. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's residence or place of work.
3. The Plaintiff shall have sole possession of the marital home until January 15, 1996. It appears that record title to the martial residence is in the Defendant and therefore the Court's ability to grant sole possession to the Plaintiff centers around her having custody of the two minor children. We believe that the parties should be able to work out their differences or obtain a further court order in a divorce action by January 15, 1996. While the Plaintiff resides in the Defendant's property, she shall not damage it or destroy it. The property shall not be wasted or damaged except for normal wear and tear. In the event that the parties cannot resolve their differences and in the event that the matter of possession of marital property is not resolved through a divorce action in some way, the Plaintiff may come back in this action to seek additional periods of time. We take no position on what order we would enter at that time. At the most, we could not grant her possession beyond 12 months from this date.

If she vacates the property before January 15, 1996 she shall notify the Defendant so that he may regain possession.

4. The Defendant shall have a right to go to the marital residence at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, July 25, 1995 to pick up his personal belongings. Before doing so, however, he shall give a written list of items which he desires to pick up to the Plaintiff by 9:00 a.m. on Monday morning. That will be delivered to her residence or through the attorneys. That will give the Plaintiff an opportunity to decide if she should take appropriate action with respect to those items. She will then have a list of the items he is taking. She will have a right to photograph them in order to preserve evidence for equitable distribution, if that takes place. She will also have a list if equitable distribution takes place. In the event there is a dispute as to the items whichhe is taking, the disputed items shall be left behind and he shall not take them. Those items, together with any other items of marital property or non-marital property which is titled in the Defendant's name, shall be retained by the Plaintiff and not damaged, destroyed, or removed without further order of court. Those items shall remain on the property in the same condition in which they now are in so that the Defendant may either seek the right to some of those items through equitable distribution or bring an appropriate replevin action. This Court will not tolerate either party damaging or destroying personal property of the other or marital property. These matters shall be resolved in a peaceful manner, either by agreement or through appropriate legal proceedings.
5. Primary physical custody of the children shall be with the Plaintiff, with the parties having shared legal custody. The Defendant shall have a right to visit and take his children with him from 6:00 p.m. each Monday to 6:00 p.m. the following Wednesday. The Plaintiff shall deliver the children to the Defendant's place of work no later than 6:00 p.m. on Monday, and she shall be back at 6:00 next Wednesday to receive the children back. The son may go to the Boy Scout camp that has already been scheduled and for that period of time, the Defendant's visitation in the child shall be suspended.

PETITION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS IN A DIVORCE ACTION
PURSUANT TO Pa. R.C.P. 1920.62
1 copy pltf.

AND NOW, July 5, 1995, upon consideration of the petition filed by the Plaintiff in this action, and supported by an affidavit attached thereto, all being pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.62 the Plaintiff is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis at this time.

The Plaintiff is directed to inform the prothonotary's office or the Court of any improvement in her financial circumstances that would permit her to pay the costs incurred in this action and shall be responsible for doing so upon an improvement of her financial condition.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

July 12, 1995 Memorandum filed. AND NOW, July 11, 1995, the Court has reviewed several documents submitted by the plaintiff, pro se.

The petition to proceed informa pauperis in a divorce action pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1920.62 was approved and an order entered July 5, 1995 permitting the plaintiff to proceed in forma pauperis.

The other package of documents included the first page of a divorce complaint, an affidavit of consent signed by the plaintiff, an affidavit of consent to be signed by the defendant. A praecipe for review under 3301(c) the Divorce Code, a proposed decree and a notice to defend and claim rights.

We are directing the Prothonotary to return those documents to the plaintiff because they are defective. The complaint is not signed nor verified. There appears to be only one page of several pages to the divorce complaint. The affidavit of consent cannot be filed until 90 days has elapsed from the date of the filing of the complaint submitting a decree at this point as premature.

Thus we are permitting the plaintiff to proceed in forma pauperis but we will not accept her complaint and other attempted filings becuase they are all improper.

July 2, 1996 ORDER filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

X A proper return or proof of service has not been filed.
X As to a 3301(c) divorce:
X There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(d) (1) in the form required by 1920.73 was mailed or delivered to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or submit; and the parties have not executed and filed with the Prothonotary a waiver of notice substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1920.72(c).
X Other: Under Rule 1920.42(b) (2) of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure the affidavits of consent must be dated no more than 30 days before the date they are filed of record. That was not doine in this case.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

July 18, 1995 Appearance of Barbara J. Walton for Defendant filed.

Jul 25, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 20, 1995, after a formal hearing where the Defendant denies that he engaged in any physical abuse or other type of abuse prohibited by the statute, the Court finds by the fair weight of the evidence that the Plaintiff has sustained her burden of proof and therefore grants the Plaintiff relief and orders as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the Plaintiff.

2. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's place of work or residence accept as here and after provided.

3. The Plaintiff is awarded exclusive possession of the marital residence until October 15, 1995. This residence is apparently titled in the Defendant's name solely. The Plaintiff is awarded exclusive possession of the premises because at the moment she has custody of a 16 year old child. Therefore, our authority for this is 23 PACSA 6108(a)(3). Furthermorel, this period of time when the parties are separated and the Plaintiff remains in the marital residence, we'll give the parties an opportunity to amicably and peacefully settle their differences as well to give the Plaintiff an opportunity to find other housing.

4. The Defendant shall be permitted to return to the marital residence at a time to be agreed upon for the purpose of removing purely personal belongings. He shall give the Plaintiff a list of those belongings so she knows what he is taking and so that both parties are informed about what is being taken for equitabel distribution purposes. He shall give her a list at leat 72 hours in advance of the time that he intends to pick the items up so that she may look at the items or photograph the items if she believes it is important to preserve evidence for equitable distribution in the event there is any dispute about what eh can take. The Defendant shall leave the items disputed at the property. Any items that belong to the Defendant or that may be marital property as defined in the divorce code that are at the marital residence now or remain there, shall be kept in safe keeping by the Plaintiff. That is, she shall not dispose of destroy, damage, or mutilate any items of personal property that are owned by the Defendant solely or that could be considered marital property without further order of court or without an agreement in writing from the Defendant. If the Defendant believes that she is wrongfully holding items that are his after he is requested in writing to get them, he may bring an appropriate action including an action for equitable distribution or special relief in a divorce action to test the title and the ritht to possess those items.

vs.
John Y. Wilfong

A. D. 1995 - 690

The point of this order is that we believe he should be able to pick up items that are personal to him since he will not be living at the residence for sometime, to preserve all items until this matter is resolved; but to require him to leave disputed items behind in safe keeping so that those matters can be resolved in a court proceeding rather than out at the property.

If the Plaintiff is unable to find adequate substitute housing within the next 2 and a half months and can convince the Court that she has made every reasonable effort to do so, she shall be permitted to file a petition for an extension of the right to live in the marital residence; and the court will hold a hearing and receive evidence and hear arguments from both parties in an effort to determine whether or not she should continue to reside there or whether she should move by October 15.

5. We made no provision with respect to custody visitation or support.

6. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

7. The Prothonotary shall send a copy of this order to the Pennsylvania State Police at Meadville and to county control.

8. This order shall remain in full force and effect unless modified or terminated by further court order from 1 year from this date except the provisions with respect to exclusive possession of the marital residence which is provided for above.

9. The Defendant shall pay court costs in the amount of $118.50 within 30 days from this date.

10. The Defendant is reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine of $100 and no more tha $1,000 and a jail sentence up to 6 months.

11. The new act requires orders to set forth Mr. Wilfong's date of birth and social security number. The Defendant's date of birth is October 28, 1949 and Social Security No. 181-40-147.

We make no provision with respect to the support at this time because spousal support is apparently going to be contested and because it appears that the Defendant is paying all of the bills of the household at this time that would include a mortgage payments, utilities, taxes, and automobile insurance. We think the issue of spousal support should be decided in support court, and this will be coming up in August. With respect to child support, it may well be that the Defendant is paying enough by way of payments in kind to satisfy a child support responsibility given the fact that both parties have a responsibility to support the child.

1. The motion to dismiss the condemnee's preliminary objections filed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation is hereby denied.

2. A hearing and/or argument on the condemnee's preliminary objections is hereby scheduled for the 23rd day of October, 1995 at 2:15 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No.1. of the Crawford County Courthouse. The parties shall comply with the Crawford County Civil Rules with regard to the filing of briefs.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

September 29, 1995 Motion to Dismiss filed. And now, comes the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation by and through its Attorney Michael J. Creighton, Esquire, and prays this Honorable Court to dismiss the Preliminary Objections to the Declaration of Taking in the above-captioned matter and in support thereof avers the following:

1. A court may dismiss preliminary objections to a Declaration of Taking without holding an evidentiary hearing or directing depositions to be taken. Miller v. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, 498 A. 2d 1370 (1985);

2. Condemnee's allegations in paragraphs d through i are essentially assertions that the design selected favored other interests or that condemnee wishes to design the project in another fashion. These assertions are all contrary to well established law [Washington Park Inc. Appeal 425 Pa 349, 229 A.2d 1 (1967).; Simco Stores v. Redevelopment Authority of Philadelphia, 317 A.2d 610 (1974);

3. Condemnee's only other assertion of particularity is that the condemnor relied on environmental reviews of other agencies. The entire issue of environmental review is collateral and is not a proper preliminary objection [Condemnation Route 58018 Appeal, 375 A.2d 1364 (1977); Condemnation Route 201 Appeal, 349 A.2d 819 (1975).].

Wherefore, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, requests this Honorable Court to enter an order dismissing the Preliminary Objection to the Declaration of Taking filed in the above-captioned matter or, in the alternative, to immediately set for evidentiary hearing the matters herin raised.

Oct. 25, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 23, 1995, at the close of the Condemnee's case in support of her preliminary objections, the Commonwealth, Consemnor, made a motion to dismiss the preliminary objections. The Court will take this matter under advisement and make a decision on the motion to dismiss as soon as the Court is able to do that. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Condemnor shall file a brief or memorandum of law in support of it's motion to dismiss no later than 4:30 p.m. on Monday, October 30, 1995. At the time of filing, counsel for the condemnor shall serve a true and correct copy on counsel for the condemnee.

2. The Condemnee shall file a supplemental brief or memorandum in opposition to the motion to dismiss no later than 4:30 p.m. Monday, November 6, 1995 and serve a true and correct copy on counsel for the Condemnor.

3. At that point, the matter shall be ripe for decision by this Court; and the Court will make a determination as quickly as possible.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Oct. 25, 1995 Order mailed Atty. Ingram and Creighton.

Nov 27, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, November 20, 1995, for reasons that have just become apparent to the undersigned Judge the undersigned Judge hereby recuses himself from all aspects of this case.

Since Crawford County is a two judge county the Honorable Anthony J. Vardaro shall hear and decide all matters in this case. Unfortunately there has been an evidentiary hearing and oral arguments before the undersigned Judge. Each party shall indicate its preference as to whether an additional oral argument shall be scheduled before Judge Vardaro or whether Judge Vardaro may decide this matter based upon the transcript from the hearing, the record and the briefs presented by the parties.

Each party shall file a written motion within 14 days from this date indicating its preference on how to proceed and either moving the Court for an additional oral argument or moving the Court to decide the matter based upon the record, transcript from the hearing and briefs.

The $600 shall be paid $200 on or before the 15th of June and a similar amount on or before the 15th of July and the 15th of August.

The Court awards $150 in attorney's fees which will be paid by Aug. 1, 1997 directly to counsel for the father.

Jan. 30, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, January 16, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for bifurcation filed by the Plaintiff. Both parties appeared represented by counsel and they agree to a bifurcation of the divorce case form the economic issues. Accordingly, it is ordered that the divorce action is bifurcated and either party may therefore praecipe for a divorce so long as everything else is in order.

As part of the agreement to bifurcate, the parties have indicated that the economic issues will be resolved by a separate agreement which depending on timing of the divorce may or may not be incorporated in the divorce decree but shall include the following agreement:

1. The Plaintiff will release all claim to the real estate of the parties by signing a Quit Claim Deed to the defendant.
2. The Plaintiff will be responsible for all marital debts except that the Defendant will cooperate ina bankruptcy proceeding to be filed on behalf of both parties withthe Plaintiff to pay the costs of that proceeding.
3. Commencing this day, the Plaintiff will owe to the Defendant any alimony obligation of $500 a month for a period of 5 years. Until such time as the divorce is granted that shall be an alimony pendente lite obligation but it shall nonetheless whether it be alimony pendente lite or alimony continue for a period of 5 years. The Plaintiff may seek to modify that award if his employment changes unless his employment changes due to a voluntary quit.
4. The Defendant shall be entitled at the time of the retirement of the Plaintiff to $86.89 per month form the Plaintiff's pension and the parties shall sign a quarto to that effect.
5. The Plaintiff shall be responsible for paying the sum of $00 to Defendatn's counsel. He shall do so by continuing in effect the attachment of his wages that is currently taking place through a support obligation. That is apparently in the amount of $55 more or less. The Defendant shall be responsible for payming over any amount that she receives above and beyond $500 per month to her counsel for that amount to be creditied toward the $500 - obligation to the Plaintiff. That shall continue until the Defendant's counsel has received the sum of $500 in full for attorney's fee.
6. Notwithstanding the provision that the Plaintiff will be responsible for all marital debt, it is agreed that the Defendant will be responsible for all marital debt associated withthe marital residence including the mortgage, taxes, utilities, and any related items.

Feb. 14, 1997 Petition for Reconsideration of Order by Defendant filed.

Feb. 18, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, February 14, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Renconsideration of an Order which was entered by the Court on January 16, 1997 essentially bifurcated the divorce portion of this matter from the economic issues so that a divorce could be granted, and in the Order, the parties asked the Court to also set forth what their agreement was at that time with respect to economic issues. We did so, and at this time, the defendant indicates through counsel that counsel apparently was unaware of a 401(k) plan in the name of the plaintiff and was only advised of that by his client after the entry of the Order.

We are uncertain as to the binding effect of the portion of our Order of January 16, 1997 regarding economic issues, but at this time, we will direct the plaintiff to provide the 401(k) information to defense counsel within 45 days with making a determination as to whether the defendant may make a claim for a portion of the 401(k) at this time in light of the January 16, 1997 Order and apparent agreement of the parties.

If after receiving that information, the defendant wishes to maintain that she can claim a portion of that 401(k) and the parties cannot agree, that matter may be brought before the Court for further hearing and argument and the parties should be prepared to provide legal authority for their positions.

Nov. 5, 1997 ORDER filed. Defendant made an oral request for continuance of the Master's Hearing scheduled for Nov. 6 and 7, 1997, to allow an opportunity to obtain an appraisal of the personal property. The appraisal was supposed to have been arranged by Defendant, per the scheduling order entered by the Master on Aug. 1, 1997. Defendant apparently overlooked the provision directing him to make arrangements to obtain the appraisal. He has now discovered this, but too late to obtain the appraisal before hearing. Apparently Wife is not agreeable with proceeding with the hearing and submitting the appraisal at a later date. However, with prior business and the upcoming holidays, it would not be possible to reschedule the matter for over two months, which does not appear reasonable. Therefore:

The request for continuance of the hearing scheduled for Nov. 6 and 7, 1995 is denied.

Husband is directed to arrange for and obtain the appraisal of personal property. Once received, if either party requests it, a hearing will be scheduled for the limited purpose of taking testimony on the issue of the valuation of personal property. Any costs associated with the supplemental hearing will be borne solely by husband, which will be taken into account by the Master in the final recommendation for equitable distribution.(See papers filed).

Aug. 11, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 7, 1995 this matter comes before the Court for a hearing with respect to the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears represented by counsel and the Defendant appears with counsel, is advised of his right to counsel, indicates that he has consulted counsel, and will be representing himself. The parties have reached an agreement for the entry of an order without admission of the allegations of the petition on the part of the Defendant.

Accordingly, it is ordered and directed as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the Plaintiff, nor shall he procure anyone else to do so at any time or any place.
2. The marital residence at Golfview Manor in Meadville shall be in the sole possession of the Defendant.
3. The Defendant may not go to any residence occupied by the Plaintiff at any time during the term of this order. The Defendant is cautioned that even if he is invited to the Plaintiff's residence, he should not go to her residence insofar as any police agency, if called, will presume that he is in violation of this order if he is at the residence of the Plaintiff. In theevent the parties wish for the Defendant to go to the Plaintiff's residence, they should seek a modification of this order prior to him doing so.

Dec 21, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 21,1995, the Court has reviewed its notes from the hearing of November 28, 1995 and the materials that have been submitted since that hearing.

A resolution of the issues of alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and expenses depends upon the plaintiff establishing a need for payment and a determination of the defendant's financial abilities.

The Court is unable to make a determination based upon the information resented. WE sense that the plaintiff can establish a need but we do not know her monthly expenses. We sense that the defendant has the ability to make some contribution but we have a number of questions aaboaut his 1993 and 1994 tax returns and have received no written information about 1995.

All of this may be because the parties cut their presentations short on November 21, 1995 to accommodate the Court.

Accordingly the hearing in this matter shall be reconvened for the 29th day of December, 1995 at 9:15 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse. The Court will makes its determination at that time. BY THE COURT

May 6, 1999 Notice of Scheduled Pre-Hearing conference filed.

June 2, 1999 Order filed. AND NOW, June 1, 1999, the Court disposes of three Petitions as follows:
1. The Defendant's Petition for Sanctions alleging a discovery violation is denied. However, it appears that the Interrogatories propounded fromthe defendant to the plaintiff do include information that must at some point be disclosed by reason of the death of the plaintiff's father. ACCORDINGLY, the plaintiff is ordered and directed to respond to the appropriate Interroagotories, giving appropriate answers and responses as soon as she learns of any inheritance she may or will receive from her late faterh or by September 13, 199, whichever first occurs. It appears that the inheritance tax return in this case must be filed by September 12, 199.
2. The Defendant's Request that Spousal Support be Stayed is denied for two reaons. First of all, we believe that should airse in the Domestic RElations Section. Secondly, if we are able to do anything with support in a divorce action, it would occur only if we have imposed sanctions, which we have not imposed. Therefore, we do not believe we have the authority to grant that request.
3. The Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief to prevent the parties form disposing of assets is granted and both parties are enjoined from the transfer, disposition, assignment, et cetera, of any assets without the written consent of the other or without obtaininga Court Order.

COMPLAINT FOR CHILD CUSTODY

Oct. 19, 1995 Stipulation and Consent filed. Consent Custody Agreement Order filed. TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURTS: AND NOW, this 17 day of October, 1995, upon presentation and Stipulation and Consent of the parties, attached hereto and after consideration of the same, it is hereby ORDERED, DIRECTED, AND DECREED, that:

1. The parties shall have shared legal custody of the minor child, Brittny Baldesberger. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and the major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

2. Primary physical custody of Brittny Baldesberger shall be with the Plaintiff, Melissa J. Caldwell, subject to the following partial custody rights of Defendant Michael A. Baldesberger:

This period shall begin at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday and continue until Sunday at 5:00 p.m. After six (6) visits during the above hours, the visits shall be expanded to begin on Friday at 4:00 p.m., projected to start on Friday, September 15, 1995.

3. The parties agree that each shall have visitation with the child on holidays. The holidays shall take precedence over the regular schedule. The father shall be entitled to the following holiday schedule each year:

Easter	1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Labor Day	9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The exception to this is calendar year 1995 when father shall have daughter from Friday, August 18 at 4:00 p.m. until Friday August 25th, at 12:00 p.m. noon when daughter shall be returned to mother for the weekend and father shall not exercise his fourth (4th)weekend visitation for August 1995.

4. The parties are free to make alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are encouraged to do so. Each party will try to accommodate the other to allow visitation and agree to provide 24 hour notice of a need to make any changes in the visitation. The parties further agree that the presence of each is important in the child's life.

5. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due from the child.

6. None of the parties shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time during which said party has the care and custody of the subject minor child. None of the parties shall expose the minor child to harmful situations or harmful people whil having custody of the child.

Aug. 21, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 17, 1995, the parties appear before the Court pursuant to the Plaintiff's Petition for Additional Remedies. The plaintiff filed a Divorce Complaint on August 3, 1995, and on August 9, 1995, filed a Petition for Additional Remedies. He was seeking exclusive possession of the marital residence and temporary physical custody of the minor children. He claims that the defendant left him in June of 1995 and left him withthe children. He is willing to allow the defendant to visit the children, but he does not want her to have custody and does not want her to remove the children from the jurisdiction until there has been a mediation conference.

The defendant believes that shenow has a two-bedroom mobile home where the children can stay and that she prefers to have primary physical custody. She also claims that the plaintiff may not be the father of the oldest child.

At the risk of returning these folks to an all-out war, we refuse to do anything at this point because it is premature. We believe that the custody matters should go the normal course, through custody mediation and possible hearing denovo before the Court where all of these issues may be heard at a more lengthy and appropriate forum. It does not appear that there is anything of an emergency nature now that immediately impacts the health, safety, morals and wlefare of the children. THEREFORE, we will not intercept the normal process that has been followed in Crawford County for many years. We encourage the parties towork together to resolve matters, keeping in mind the best interests of the children and not to take the law into their own hands. We also would anticipate that there will be a mediation hearing within the next 2 to 3 weeks, where maybe more permanency can come to the situation.

Aug. 24, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW,August 18, 1995,at the close of the plaintiff's case, the Court is not satisfied that the plaintiff has made out a prima facie case of a violation of the Portection From Abuse Act. She testified to some incidents that happened four to nine years ago, which are stale. She testified to two current incidents where there was reference to "Nicole Brown Simpson" and that the defendant is a truck driver and "could have someone killed for money." She was not specific as to when and where and the exact circumstances under which these happened. There clearly has not been a physical abuse or threats or physical abuse. We are not satisfied that the plaintiff is in reasonable fear of bodily injury, and therefore, this action is DISMISSED.
Since the plaintiff is not working costs shall be paid for by Crawford County.

Aug. 23, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW,August 21, 1995, at the time set for hearing, the parties mutuall agree that the matter has been largely amicably resolved. The parties and counsel advise the Court they have mutually resolved the matter as follows:

1. The defendant agrees he will not threaten, harass, assault, or annoy the plaintiff in any manner, nor will he go to her residence without her express consent.
2. The parties agree the real estate held as tenants in common by both parties, being a house and lot as described in Deed Book Volume 0106, pag 0764, will become the property of the defendant Carl J. Bell, and he will assume an outstanding morgage obligation against the same and be totally responsible thereto for payments due mortgagee Hazel Tomczak.
3. The parties agree that the personal property located in the aforesaid jointly owned real estate will become the sole property of the defendant, except for the following items:
   A refrigerator;
   A couch;
   Mattress and springs;
   2 fans;
   push lawnmower.

   The remaining household contents may be picked up bythe plaintiff Tammy M. Ace, without objection or interference, on Saturday, August 26, 1995, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.
4. The parties mutually acknowledge that there was born of their relationship a five-year-old child, Virginia Lynn Bell, and that primary custody of said minor child will be with the mother. The father shall be entitled to visits every Wednesday between the hours of 41 p.m. and 8 p.m. and every Saturday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. It shall be the responsibility of the mother,and the mother agrees, that she will assume the responsibility of transporting the child to and from the father's residence for these visits.
5. The parties have informally discussed more extensive visits for the father, particularly during his vacation period, but are unable to agree at this time on extended visits to be accorded the father, and the length and specific scheduling thereof. In the event the parties cannot amicably resolve this issue on more extended father visits, either party may bring a custody or visitation petition before the Court.
6. The issue of support is discussed and in view of the fact the mother is receiving Public Assistance, she acknowledges she will proceed as soon as possible to the Domestic Relations Office and file a support petition. The father is advised that if a support obligation for the child is determined to be due, that he will be responsible for payments for support from the day the support petition is filed, not from the date an ultimate support Order is completely entered. In this regard, the father is advised that it would be to his advantage to commence making appropriate support payments, even before the amount thereof is officially determined.
7. This Order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one (1) year from this date.
8. Costs in this case in the amount of $123.50 will be paid by the defendant on or before September 22, 1995,at the Prothonotary's Office at the Courthouse.

Order:

And now, this 14th day of August , 19 95, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.
2. Special Conditions: Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff. He shall not go to Plaintiff's residence. Custody of the child is awarded to Plaintiff.
3. This Order may be enforced without a warrant any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.
4. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police departments in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides and to County Control.
5. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.
6. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court Liability for payment or fees and costs will be determined by final court order.
7. The Defendant is reminded that this is an Order of Court and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine up to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.
8. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

Hearing is hereby set for August 22, 1995 , at 3:30 p. m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse. The defendant is advised he may retain a lawyer to represent him at said hearing if he so desires but he is not required to do so.

BY ORDER OF COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

Aug. 16, 1995 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED Andre Goodrum personally on August 16, 1995 at 9:25 AM byhanding a copy of the Protection from Abuse to him at his residence, 450 Chestnut Street Apt. 5, Meadville,Crawford County,PA.

Shawn E. Ashbaugh, Deputy Sheriff
Robert M. Stevens,Sheriff

Aug. 24, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW,August 22, 1995,after hearing, the Court is not convinced that an Abuse Order is appropriate in this case.

The main thrust of the problem is a child born out of wedlock to this eighteen-year-old mother, and apparently, the defendant father has no employment and no incentive to work, but insists on periodic visits with the child.

ACCORDINGLY, we find no basis for solving this problem through an Abuse Petition, and we DISMISS the Petition, direct the County to Pay the costs.

In this regard, however, we advise the father of the child, Andre Goodrum, that if he wishes periodic visitations or brief periods of custody with his child, the burden should be upon him to bring an appropriate custody or visitation action so that the Court, in a full hearing, could ascertain whether ongoing continuous visits with the father are in the best interests of the child. ACCORDINGLY, the mother may make whatever arrangements she wishes regarding visitations with the father, but she will not be required by this Court to do so as the Court feels the burden of establishing a visitation schedule should fall upon the father Andre Goodrum and the matter should only be rsolved after a complete hearing as to whether or not it is in the best interests of the child to have periodic visits with the father.

Aug 31, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 25, 1995 after an informal hearing, it appears that both of these parties have been physical with the other and they undoubtedly should stay away from each other unless they can conduct themselves appropriately. We are not inclined to enter a protection from abuse order against only one of them.

Accordingly, this petition is dismissed. The temporary abuse order of August 18, 1995 is vacated.

A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Meadville City Police Department and to County Control. A copy shall also be mailed to the Plaintiff at 306 Walker Drive, Meadville, PA 16335. A copy of this order shall be mailed to the Defendant at 759 Whittier Avenue, Meadville PA 16335.

Aug 31, 1995 sent Dft.

Sep. 18, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 15, 1995, the parties appeared in open court. The defendant was filing a Complaint for Indirect Contempt alleging that the plaintiff deprived him of visittion rights on Saturday, September 9, 1995. He claims that he went to pick the children up and they were not present. She claims that the parties had a discussion about changing the visitations to delete Saturday, and therefore, she took the children to the Jamestown Fair, believing that that was an agreement. She was later mistaken. The defendant apparently did not agree to cancelling Saturday visitations. She claims that she did not violate the Order willfully.

We take no position on the Contempt Complaint because we have not held a hearing. Rather than schedule the matter for a hearing some time in the future, the parties have agreed to resolve this matter now.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The Protection From Abuse Order of August 23, 1995 is modified.
2. Paragraph 3 of the Order is modified to provide that the defendant shall have a right to visit his children every Sunday between the hours of 12 o'clock Noon to 8 o'clock p.m. This is a time change. This also deletes Saturdays so that the visitations by this Order shall be on Sunday.
3. The Court will not process the defendant's Complaint in view of this Order.
4. The parties are advised that this Court will change the custody provisions if the parties agree and this Court will enforce thePFA Order if there is any contempt. HOWEVER, we will not entertain hearings to modify custody until the parties file an appropriate Custody Complaint.
5. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police and to County Control.

Dec. 6, 1995 Motion for the Plaintiff to have visitation of Christian & Charles Boylen at the Diamond in Meadville, filed.

Dec 7, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 6, 1995 this matter comes before the Court in Motion Court on a motion filed pro se by the Plaintiff in this Protection from Abuse action. The motion is brief, but the Plaintiff indicates that a protection from abuse order was entered at this number and term on August 23, 1995 and she seeks a modification of that order with respect to visitation with the minor children by the Defendant.

The motion does not contain any indication that the Defendant was notified that it was being presented in Motion Court this day, but the Plaintaiff indicates that she did provide a copy of this motion to the Defendant on Monday, December 4, 1995. She also indicates tht he has no known address and that she is expecting him to next come to her residence to visit with the children on December 10, 1995.

Accordingly, based on the motion, it is ordered and directed that the Protection from Abuse Order entered previously is amended to the extent that commencing December 17, 1995 and every other Sunday thereafter, visitation with Christian Boylen and Charles Boylen shall take place at Diamond Park in Meadville during the months of June, July, and August, and at the Kentucky Fried Chicken Restaurant in Conneaut Lake during the months of September through May, during the hours of 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. every other Sunday, until further order of Court.

The order shall not take effect until a copy of the order has been served personally upon the Defendant either by the Plaintiff or in some other manner. Presumably, that would be able to happen on December 10, 1995 when the Defendant comes for a visit at the Plaintiff's home.

This order is without prejudice to the Defendant to request a hearing if he is not agreeabel to this modification so long as he requests that hearing within 30 days of the date of this order. If he requests such a hearing, this order shall be followed until such time as there is a hearing or until such time as there is further order of Court.

Nov. 18, 1996 Praecipe to Transmit Record filed.

Nov. 22, 1996 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record andis returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this itme because: As to a 3301(c) divorce: There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(d)(1) in the form required by 1920.73 was mailed or delivered to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or submit; and the parties have not executed and filed with the Prothonotary a waiver of notice substantially in the form set forthin Rule 1920.72(c).

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

Dec. 13, 1996, Affidavit of Service filed. Carrie A. Davis, beign duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that she is employed by Jos. F. Kulwicki, III atty. for plff, and as such on 11/23/96 she hand delivered a notice of intention to request entry of divorce decree to dft.
Carrie A. Davis.

Dec. 13, 1996, Upon praecipe of plff. attorney, this case isresubmitted tothe court.

Dec. 23, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 19, 1996, this matter has been referred to the Court for the second time for review and, once again, we decline to enter a divorce decree because the applicable rules have not been fully complied with.

Pa.R.C.P. 1920.42(d)(1) provides, inter alia, that no decree shall be entered unless a notice of intention to request the entry of a divorce decree was mailed or delivered at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of the filing of the praecipe to transmit the record for review. The rule is prescribed by Pa.R.C.P. 1920.73(a).

Reference to that rule shows that there are two form notices, one to a party represented by counsel and another form to be used where a party is not represented by counsel. In this case the defendant is not represented by counsel. Therefore the wrong notice was used.

We also call to counsel's attention the fact that the notice may be dispensed upon the signing and filing of a proper waiver. Se. Pa.R.C.P. 1920.42(e).

We. expect the plaintiff and counsel to follow the rules properly.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

1 copy (plff)

Aug. 29, 1995, Informa Pauperis Statement filed. 1 copy (Plff)

Aug. 29, 1995, RE: PETITION FOR HABEAS CORPUS ORDER FILED. ORDER: AND NOW, Aug. 18, 1995, after consideration of the Petitioner's pro se petition for writ of habeas corpus, which due to an appearent filing error did not reach the court until July 31, 1995 said petition is dismissed without a hearing.

42 Pa. C.S.A. 6503(b) states:

Where a person is restrained by virtue of sentence after conviction for a criminal offense, the writ of habeas corpus shall not be available if a remedymay be had by post conviction hearing proceedings authorized by law.

Here the dft, who has not yet served his minimum term, is not alleging that the sentence imposed is not within the legal limits but is alleging that his sentence was invalid due to consideration of an improper factor by the court. Petitioner should be precluded from raising such issues in a habeas corpos claim as such issues could have beenraised in direct appeal or post conviction proceedings. See Commonwealth v. Wolfe, 4;3 ¼a/ 583. 605 A. 2D 1271 (1992), appeal denied, 531 Pa. 646, 612 A.2D 985.

In absence of averments which if true would entitle relator to relief, a trialcourt can properly dismiss a petition without a hearing. Commonwealth ex rel clawson v. Maroney, 201 Pa. Super. 126, 191 A2D 689 (1963).

9) Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the child's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the child's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the child's estimation.

10) The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

11) Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

12) Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $210.00 ($60.00/hr. x 3.5 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are divided as follows:

a. The deposit required for the appointment of the custody mediator was made by the father. The deposit shall first be applied against the entire costs of the mediation.

b. The remaining $69.00 shall be paid by Crawford County for the reason that the mother's income is modest and the imposition of costs and fees under the circumstances would be burdensome to her.

13) Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

The parties shall alternate the following Thanksgiving by following the above visitation schedule.

c. Easter: The father shall have the children on the evening before Easter Day. The children shall attend church with their father on Easter Sunday. Once church is over with, then the father is to take the children to the mother's residence.

July 10, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 3, 1997, this matter comes before the Court for a de novo custody hearing specifically at the request of the Defendant.

The record indicates that on May 1, 1997, notice of the bearing was mailed to him at his then address, which apparently was on Randolph Street in Meadville. The Plaintiff confirms that he did reside there at that time, although he has now moved apparently to the Franklin area.

Accordingly, no hearing is necessary, in light of the fact that the Defendant, who is the one who requested the hearing, has not appeared after due notice.

Upon request of the Plaintiff, we will make a couple of modifications to the order of April 10, 1997, which will become a permanent order with these modifications.

1. Any party transporting the children shall have appropriate restraining devices in his or her vehicle, which are specific child being restrained and transported.
2. No party may relocate to another address without providing that information promptly to the other party, and if appropriate, proceeding in this Court to obtain permission to relocate.
3. The Defendant has still not taken the seminar for separating parents, although he was ordered to do so within five days of the April 10, 1997 temporary order. He shall register for that seminar within 10 days of the date of this order and take and complete the first available seminar, and if he fails to do so, he shall be in contempt of Court and shall pay a fine of $500 and still be required to take the seminar.

August 6, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, August 5, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on a Motion for Contempt which is filed pro se by the plaintiff. This should be in petition from verified, but counsel for the defedant is present and indicates that he will be representing the defendant in this matter and entering an appearance shortly.
Although the plaintiff has not explainted the facts which surround the alleged contempt, she does so orally and indicates that it involves an exchange of the children, at which time, she alleges the defendant attempted to run over her husband with the children in the car. It is alleged that this occurred on July 26, 1998. The other allegation of contempt is that the defendant has not complied with our Order of July 3, 1997 requiring him to take the seminar for separating parents Insofar as those two incidents have been outlined they will be the sole incidents that will be the subject of the contempt hearing which we know scheduced Augsut 27, 1998 at 3:30 PM in Ctroom No. 1 or 2.

September 1, 1998 ORDER FILED. And Now August 27, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Contempt. The plaintiff appears and the defendant appears represented by counsel and we proceed informally.
First of all the defendant's counsel indicates that he has signed up and paid for the Seminar for Separating Parents and he is directed to attend that seminar on the date he is scheduled to attend, which is Sept. 10, 1998.
With regard to the other issue, the parties agree that there just needs to be some modifictaiton in the current Custody Order to accommodate problems or potential problems between the palintiff's current spouse and the defendant.
Accordingly, it is ordered and directed that the current Custody Order is amended to the extent that when the defendant returns the children form a period of temporary physical custody, he shall return them to the bus stop at Wm. Gill Village where the palintiff mother will be waiting for him to retain custody of the children. Both the plaintiff and the defendant will make every effort to make that exchange on time, particularly sicne the plaintiff mother will have to wait only in the shelter of that bus stop for the return of the children.

TAKES custody of the children, that will continue to occur at the residence of teh plaintiff mother except if the plaintiff mothr's husband is going to be home when that exchange is to take place, plaintiff mother shall walk up to the bus stop at the time set for the defendant father to take custody of the children so that the exchange of custody will occur at the bus stop.

Again, particularly on Fridays, the defendant father will make every effort to be there in a timely manner since the children may be out at the bus stop in inclement weather.

In the event the plaintiff mother obtains transportation in the future prior to any other modification of this Order, the parties will then make an effort to agree on a public place for the exchange of the children, and if they cannot do so either party may file a motion asking the Court to designate such a place, which motion may be argued at Motion Court.

The Court's intent is that when the palitniff mother goes to the bus stop for an exchange of custody to take place, that she shall go there only with the children or alone,but not with her current husband.

6) All visitation by the father shall occur through the use of an intermediary, as provided in this Court's Protection from Abuse Order, dated May 26, 1995, which is filed at A.D. 1995-495. The father shall pick the children at the home of the mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey and shall return them to that same residence. Any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania.

7) Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

8) FNeither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor children. The parties are cautioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the children are being transported or in the bedroom of the children.

9) Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the children's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the children's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the children's estimation.

10) The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient, provided that such alternative arrangements are made through an intermediary. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

11) Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

12) Special Provisions: a. The visitation schedule referenced in this Order was arrived at by agreement of the parties during the course of a mediation conference held on November 10, 1995. At that time, the father agreed that he would make certain that the children attended church on Sundays as requested by the mother. Accordingly, as the father has agreed to such a provision and in view of the fact that the mother would not have consented to allowing the father to have the children on Sundays but for the father's agreement to take the children to Sunday services, it is hereby ORDERED THAT THE FATHER SHALL TAKE THE CHILDREN TO Sunday services on those days when he has visitation rights with the children.

b. As stated previously in this Order, a protection from abuse order has been issued at A.D. 1995-495. The provisions of the protection from abuse order shall continue in full force and effect except to the extent that said provisions conflice with the provisions appearing in this Order in which case the provisions of this Order shall take precedence.

c. The children shall be permitted to telephone their father or mother when in the custody of the other party. Such telephone calls shall not be monitored.

d. In the event either party takes the children for an overnight trip more than 100 miles from Conneaut Lake, they shall provide to the other party notice of the trip and the location where the children will be spending the night.

13) Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $300.00 ($60.00/hr. x 5 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are to be paid as follows:

a. The parties shall share in the $300.00 cost of the mediation;

b. The father shall pay the $9.00 Court Order filing fee.

14) The deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was made by the father. The deposit shall first be applied against the entire costs of mediation. The mother is ordered to pay to the Prothonotary of Crawford County the sum of $150.00 within thiry (30) days of the date of this Order.

15) Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

October 2, 1995 ORDER of the Court: AND NOW, September 29, 1995 the matter is before the Court on a motion filed by the Plaintiff to amend the terms from the fact that the Defendant visited the Plaintiff's residence earlier in September and the police observed his entry into her premises and considered it as a violation of the abuse order originally entered June 29, 1995.

Apparently the parties are getting along better and are attempting a reconciliation. Accordingly, the Court strikes paragraph 2 from the original June 29, 1995 order to the end that the Defendant may go to the residence of the Plaintiff if invited or with her consent. 8) Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor child. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported or in the bedroom of the child.

9) Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the child's estimation. The Court is advised and both counsel agree that blood test work recently completed excludes the Plaintiff in this action, Timothy J. Cornell as being the father of the child. The court is also advised that custody of the child is now with the mother, Danielle A. Stanonis. Accordingly, this Court finds no need for a De Novo Custody Hearing and hereby discontinues this custody action to the end that the mother, Danielle Stanonis shall have exclusive custody of the child and Timothy J. Cornell acting through his counsel agrees he has no custodial rights or interest in the child. The Plaintiff, Timothy J. The records in the case indicate the parties petitioned for an amendment that the defendant b allowed to go to the residence if invited by the plaintiff. The parties apparently reached an agreement and the defendant spent some time at times overnight at the marital residence. Apparently, on or about September 26, the defendant attempted to move property from the marital residence, resulting in the filing of a Complaint that he was on the premises without the permission of the plaintiff.

The matter is reviewed by the Court, and essentially, there is a dispute regarding property ownership, the location thereof, and perhaps the ownership of some of the marital property. Under any circumstances, the parties mutually agree that on Friday, October 6, 1995, the defendant may come to the premises and remove a water bed, a Dumont TV set, an antique desk, various model die-cast race cars, defendant's clothing and the defendant's golf clubs. The defendant may remove only the specified items.

The Court declines at this time to make a decision regarding any remaining marital property in the home.

The parties mutually agree that the defendant may go to the marital residence to visit the plaintiff so long as the invitation comes from the plaintiff and that he leaves the marital residence any time requested to do so by the plaintiff.

Unpaid costs in this case are to be paid by the defendant in the amount of $92.50 to the Prothonotary's Office on or before October 4, 1995, at 4:30 p.m.

Feb 9, 1996 PFA Order: AND NOW, February 5, 1996, this matter is before the Court for an Indirect Criminal Contempt Hearing with regard to a Protection from Abuse Order entered by the Court.

The Defendant appears without an attorney and is advised of his right to an attorney through the Public Defender's Office free of charge if he cannot afford an attorney and indicates he wishes to proveed without an attorney. He admits the allegations of the complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt.

After some discussions with the parties, it appears that athis continues to be a problem based on the Defendant's desire to see children with the Plaintiff for whom the Defendant is not the natural father. If that is the issue the Defendant is trying to resolve, he should seek counsel through an attorney to determine what his righrts may be. It is certainly not appropriate to become involved in the activities that he has been involved in.

Specifically, in this case, apparently, he was trying to throw a rock or stone toward the house to get the attention of the children and ended up breaking a window.

In light of these actions and upon his admission, we adjudicate him in contempt of court.

He is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of 3 months and a maximum term of 6 months to be computed from January 29,1996. He is granted Work Release privileges for that incarcaration.

At this time in light of the recommendation of the Plaintiff, the sentence of incarceration beyond this date is suspended, and the Defendant is placed on probation for aperiod of 6 months subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. He shall comply with the conditions set forth in Crawford County Local Rule C1405.
2. He shall make restitution for the damage caused to the windows ata the Plaintiff's residence upon being advised of the amount of that in writing with appropriate proof by the Plaintiff. Once that has been submitted, the Adult Probation Department will set up an appropriate schedule of payments for restitution as well as fines and costs.
3. The Defendant shall pay a fine of $200 for his involvement in this offense.
4. The Defendant shall totally and completely obey the Protection from Abuse Order entered in this matter together with the modification made to that order

May 28, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 16, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for civil contempt for violation of a Protection from Abuse Order. The Plaintiff appears with counsel and the Defendant appears without counsel but indicates he has consulted counsel in Ohio.

Apparently, there have been ongoing proceedings between these parties in Ohio but essentially the Plaintiff's petition here is that the Defendant has not complied with the requirements of Paragraph 7 nor Paragraph 9 of our order of September 13, 1996.

The Defendant also indicates that he has now within the last month made payment toward court costs which left a balance of $10. The order required that those costs would be paid within 30 days of September 13, 1996.

The Defendant also indicates that he has now within the last month made payment toward court costs which left a balance of $10 The order required that those costs would be paid within 30 days of September 13, 1996.

The Defendant also indicates that he has now within the last month made a payment of $50 toward a medical bill leaving a balance of $750.

He indicates various reasons why he has not complied but it appears he had the financial means to do so if he did it on an ongoing basis from when the order was entered and agreed to by him on September of 1996 but he simply did not do so.

Under these circumstances, we find that the Defendant is in contempt of this Court's order of September 13, 1996. For his contempt, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of 3 months and a maximum term of 6 months. Said sentence is suspended in order to give him an opportunity to purge himself of contempt. He may do so by doing the following:

1. He shall pay the remaining balance of $750 with regard to medical bills directly to the Plaintiff to be applied toward those medical bills within 60 days of the date of this order.
2. He shall pay $10 in remaining court costs forthwith.
3. He shall pay a fine of $250 to the Prothonotary of Crawford County within 90 days for the date of this order.
4. If he fails to comply with these requirements to purge himself of contempt in any manner, the prothonotary or the Plaintiff may seek a bench warrant and if a bench warrant is issued for such violations no hearing will be scheduled unless the Defendant request one to establish that for some reason the facts are incorrect with regard to his failure to make any required payments. If the Defendant is incarcerated, he will be permitted to apply for parole at the expiration of his minimum sentence provided his conduct in the Crawford County Jail has been appropriate.

Nov. 27,1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, November 21, 1995, after a formal hearing but one not on record, the Court is not satisfied that the Plaintiff acted in wilful contempt of a Court Order, although we do find that her actions may have been less than perfect.

The attaorneys agreed that there would be no record of this proceeding, but they did agree to proceed formally.

Since there is no further documentation on this, we will add something to this Order to preserve the record. We find that the Plaintiff was required to move out of the marital residence because she was for the first time asked to pay rent in a residence where they never paid rent before. That came shortly after she was awarded temporary residence of the marital residence in a PFA action. We fault her to some extent for not attempting to get work or welfare in Crawford County so she could live in the same area where her husband lives and accommodate a mid-week visitation schedule. She claims she moved to Pittsburgh because she could not afford to live in Crawford County. She appears to be living in a house rent free, and receiving Public Assistance. There was no evidence as to her monthly expenses in that residence, all we know is that she is not paying rent. She had to change her situation. Her move to Pittsburgh is not at this point considered to be a wilful violation of a Court Order.

Essentially the condemnee argues that the condemnor abused its discretion in electing to condemn the easements on the condemnee's property and that the condemnor has established a standard of conduct to find a highway route that wilkl result in the least possible inconvenience to the public and private land owner and, in this case, has abused its discretion in failing to fuly and fairly consider the impact on the condemnee who will bear a disportionate burden of the taking. With respect to those issues, recognizing that we cannot substitute our judgment for the condemnor, we do not find that the condemnor acted in an arbitrary or capricious manner in exercising its judgment in this matter.

Sept. 15, 1995 Motion to Amend or Modify a Protection From Abuse Order filed.

Sep.20, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW,September 15, 1995, both parties appeared in motions court this date. The plaintiff filed a Motion to Amend or Modify a Protection From Abuse Order asking for three changes, to-wit:

1. A prohibition on the defendant going to her place of work at McDonald's in downtown Meadville.
2. A prohibition on the defendant contacting her friends and family.
3. A prohibition on the defendant to prevent him from harassing the children.

Motins Court is not the proper place to hold hearings. We indicated to the parties that the Protection From Abuse Order does not cover friends and family where the parties were never married because of the definition of "family member" in the Protection From Abuse Act. Obviously, certain persons are entitled to relief under the Protection From Abuse Act and the plaintiff's friends and family would not be among those persons.

We indicated that we would not resolve the issue with respect to the children without a hearing to hear both sides. We indicated that we might prohibit the defendant from going to theMcDonald's drive-in window if the plaintiff is theonly person at that window, but we would not prohibit the defendant from going inside McDonald's Restaurant even if she was working so long as he behaves himself.

Since apparently evidence must be received, we are scheduling a hearing for Monday,September 25, 1995, at 3 o'clock p.m., inCourtroom No. 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

In the meantime,we caution the parties that both must comply with the Order of May 31, 1995, unless it is amended or modified.

October 2, 1995 ORDER OF THE COURT:

AND NOW, September 25, 1995, at the time set for hearing on this abuse petition, the matter is mutually discussed and after receipt of input from both parties, the court enters the following order:

1. The Defendant may not contact the Plaintiff for any purpose except as noted hereafter through an intermediary and will not go to her premises or call her on the telephone for any purpose.
2. If the Defendant has a need to go to the McDonald's Restaurant in Meadville, Pennsylvania the place of the Plaintiff's employment, he may not contact her, talk to her threaten, annoy, or harass her in any fashion.
3. Neither the Defendant nor any person acting on his behalf my threaten, annoy, or harass the Plaintiff in any manner.
4. The parties are the parents of a 6-week old child, Richard. Said child shall remain in the primary custody of the mother. The father shall be entitled to weekly visits with the child every Saturday between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m., and may take the child to his residence at 204 Pennsylvania Avenue for said visits. Father shall not remove the child from Crawford County during said visits for any purpose. In order to facilitate the visit, the mother will arrange to take the child to the residence of Virgin Kardeama, Apartment J, 442 Fairmont Apartments, Meadville, Pa.; and the Defendant will pick up the child at said residence and return the child to said residence and the mother may retrieve the child from Virginia Kardeama after the father has returned the child. It shall be the responsibility of the father to pick up and return the child.
5. In the event of any injuries or health or emergency requiring doctor's care or hospitalization, the mother will promptly notify the father at his residence (333-2068). Likewise, in the event of any injuries or illness of the child while in his custody the father shall notify the aforesaid Virginia Kardeama of said situation so she can communicate the same to the mother.
6. Even though the father contends that he no longer consumes alcohol or uses illegal drugs, it shall be a condition of this order that hte father shall not have consumed alcohol or illegal drugs of any kind within a period of 24 hours before said visit or during said visit with the child.

Aug. 22, 1995 TEMPORARY ORDER, filed. AND NOW, this 22nd day of August, 1995, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, William Dean Ruhl, born May 1, 1994

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3) The parties shall share primary physical custody of the child as follows:

a. Mother shall have the right to take the child into her care and custody beginning at 7:30 a.m. on Monday morning and continuing until 5:00 p.m. the following Thursday afternoon. The father shall have the right to take the child into his care and custody from Thursday at 5:00 p.m. until Monday morning at 7:30 a.m.

4) Holiday, vacation and birthday visitations shall be arranged as follows:

a. Christmas. The Christmas holiday will be divided into two segments, with the one segment being from noon on December 24 until noon on Christmas Day, December 25. For the year 1995 and each odd year hereafter, mother shall exercise partial custody of the child during this period of time. The father shall exercise partial custody during this period of time for each even numbered year hereafter.

The second segment commences at noon on Christmas Day and continues through to 7:00 p.m. on December 26. For 1995 and each odd year hereafter, Father shall exercise partial custody during this period of time. For each even numbered year hereafter, mother shall have partial custody of the child during this period of time.

b. The child shall spend Father's Day with his father from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and Mother's Day with his mother during the same hours.

c. Each parent shall be entitled to two weeks of continuous partial custody of the minor child. The mother shall exercise her two weeks of continuous partial custody of the child during the period of time while the father is attending his compulsory summer National Guard annual training. The father shall be entitled to exercise his period of two weeks of continuous partial custody of the child by giving to the mother not less than 30 days advanced notice of his intention to exercise these rights.

d. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this order relating to custody.

5) Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation ormodification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modificatiion. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6) The father shall have the responsibility for transporting rthe child because of the mother's lack of transportation at this time. When the mother acquires an automobile, she shall consult with the father in an effort to attempt to equally divide the transportation resquirements of this order. In the meantime, father shal do the pick-up and delivery of the child, allowing him a one-half hour deviation from the times referenced in this order which will accommodate his work schedule or possibility inclement weather.

7) Each party shall teach said child to give to theother party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

8) Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody fo the subject minor child. The parties are cautioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported or in the bedroom of the child.

9) Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the child's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the child's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the child's estimation.

10) The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting trhe custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangemetns shall b eby mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

11) Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

12) Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $276.00 ($60.00/hr. x 4.6 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee shall be paid by the County by reason of the fact that the parents are of modest means and requiring them to pay the cost of the mediation would be financially burdensome to them.

13) Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

14) The provisions appearing in this Court's Order of May 19,1995 are preempted to teh extent that said provisions are inconsistent with this Order.

April 21, 1999 Order Distributed by Court.

April 22, 1999 Plaintiff's Exhibit's filed.
April 22, 1999 Defendant's Exhibits filed.
April 22, 1999 Dr. Ernst Marsolais, M.D. filed.

April 22, 1999 Pre-trial Order filed.

ORDER: AND NOW, April 12, 1999 aftera Pretrial Conference with all counsel present, the court enters the following Order:

1. All discovery is completed, the parties are ready for trial, and trial shall commence on Monday April 19, 1999, during the morning hours at the Crawford County Courthouse. It is anticipated that this case will take 3 days to try.

2. This is a negligence action brought after the plaintiff allegedly fell on the property of the defendant which resulted in serious back injury to the plaintiff. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant was negligent in failing to properly remove snow and ice from it's property and further regligent in failing to properly remove snow and ice from it's property and further negligent for having a weighing area that required the truck driver, such as the defendant, to exit his vehicle in order to check the scale weight for the rear axle of the vehicle being weighed.

The plaintiff seeks lost wages, and a loss of earning capacity. He further seeks damages for past pain and and suffering and inconvenience inn future damages for pain and suffering and inconvenience. in addition, he seeks for past and future loss of life's pleasures.

The plaintiff has occurred medical bills in the amount $88,075.12, the amount and resonablesness of which have been admitted by the defendant.

3. LEGAL ISSUES

There are legal issues in the nature of a contributory negligence issue, as well as whether the doctrine of assumption of the risk is applicable. Additionally, the defendant has filed a Motion In Limine arguing that the plaintiff should be precluded from presenting special damages for lost wages because he was denied worker's comp. and therefore, presumably has been able to work at least for most of the time since he was injured. In as much as the plaintiff maintains there wasa never such an adjudication in a workers compensation setting, the parties have agreed that the plaintiffs counsel will obtain all worker's compensation records available from plaintiff's worker's compensation counsel in Ohio and provide copies of those to the defendant's counsel so it may be determined whether that is , in fact, a legal issue. Additionally, as part of that issue, the defendant is concerned the plaintiff's counsel will somehow bring out that the plaintiff has filed bankruptcy and we do not believe that would be permissible, although it may be permissible for the plaintiff to bring out the fact that he has had certain financial hardship as a result of his injury. We will rule later on ther defendant's Motion in Limine under advisement and will rule.

4. WITNESSES

The plaintiff indicates that he intends to call plaintiff and plaintiff's wife, togther with William Burton and Daniel Grove. In addition, there may be parts odf a deposition of Richard Rust, asd supervisor of distribution at the defendant's business read into the record. If the pliantiff wants Richard Rust available personally for trial, he must notify the defendant's counsel as promptly as possible so that Mr. Rust can be available. In addition, an expert in vocational evaluation, Dr. William Huston Reed, will testify live and thre plaintiff intemds to present the deposition of J.E. Hendrich and Dr, E.B. Marsolais. With regard to Dr. marsolais, we note that the deposition is scheduled for April 11, 1999, and as such, if there are any objection that will need ruled upon bt the court, a hard copy of that transcript should be supplied to the court as soon as possible after the the deposition is taken,

The defendant will call Tim Leone and John Williams. he may also call

In addition, counsel should prepare, in writing, any additional voir dire qestions they wish to ask to the jury and exchange those no later than Wednesday, April 14, 1999. If there are any objections to voir dire questions that cannot be worked out, they should be brought to the court's attention prior to jury selection on April 19, 1999.

6. PEREMPTORY CHALLENGES

The plaintiff shall have 4 peremptory challenges and the defendant shall have 4 peremptory challenges so that a total of 20 jurors in the panel will be called. an Additional 4 jurors will be called, with each party to have 1 peremptory so that 2 alternates remain from that group.

7. EXHIBITS

It appears that the parties will not be having any objection to one another's exhibits tht are known. They should however, have the exhibits pre-numbered and provide true and correct copies to opposing counsel no later that April 14, 1999. Any known objections to the exibits should be raised prior to jury selection on April 19, 1999.

8. POINTS OF CHARGE
