And now, Dec. 9, 1897, comes Geo. N. Wilcox, Sheriff of Crawford County, and says: That by virtue of the above entitled execution he levied on certain personal property as the property of the Deft., and found the same in his possession. That he has had notice from Wesley B. Best, Attorney for May S. Baird, Chas. A. Baird and T. D. Baird, that all of said personal property belongs to them, the said May S. Baird, Chas. A. Baird and T. D. Baird, and not to the Deft. in this execution. He therefore enters this rule on the above named plaintiffs, defendant and Claimants, to show cause why an issue should not be framed to determine the ownership of said goods and chattels so levied on by him as aforesaid, as required by law, in cases made & provided.

And now, Dec. 7, 1897, comes Geo. N. Wilcox, Sheriff of Crawford County, and says: That by virtue of the above entitled execution, he levied upon a certain Hardware Store, situate in the 4th Ward of Meadville, as the property of Defts., and found the same in possession of A. M. Gundaker, Frank Ehrgott and Jacob Ehrgott & Co. That he has had notice from Otto Kohler, Atty. for Ehrgott & Co., said firm being composed of Jacob Ehrgott and Adam Weisman, that all of said personal property, so as aforesaid levied upon, belonged to the said Jacob Ehrgott and Adam Weisman, doing business as Ehrgott & Co., and not to the Defts. in said writ. He therefore enters this rule on the said claimants, to show cause why an issue should not be framed to determine the ownership of said goods and chattels, so as aforesaid levied on by him, as required by law, in such case made and provided. (See R. D. 11, p. 518.) Dec. 10, 1897, Return by Shff., of service of Rule on Pltff., Defts., & claimants, filed.
