Petition of Appeal from Suspension of Operators' License - 1 copy certified Order: And Now, this 16 day of May, 1972, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition for Appeal from Order of Secretary of Revenue suspending Operator's license, asked by motion of John M. O'Laughlin, Attorney for Francis E. Brawley Petitioner, a hearing is granted de novo to determine whether the Petitioner, Francis E. Brawley, is subject to suspension of his operator's license. This appeal shall act as a supersedeas of the suspension order. Hearing be fixed for the 20th day of June, 1972 at 2:30 P.M.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 26, 1972 Appearance of Stuart A. Culbertson attorney for Plaintiff Filed.

June 9, 1972 Motion for Continuance of Hearing Filed. And now, June 8, 1972 the within hearing is continued to Aug. 8, 1972 at 10:30 A.M.

Per Curiam
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug. 9, 1972 Order Filed. And Now, August 8, 1972, it appearing that due to a misunderstanding, Counsel for the defendant did not know of the hearing scheduled this day. Accordingly, this hearing is continued until September 25, 1972 at 10:00 A.M. In the meantime, Counsel for the Commonwealth is directed to ascertain from the Department of Revenue the policy of the Department regarding a suspension for refusal to take a breath test and the suspension for a plea of guilty to operating under the influence and ascertain whether or not the Department's policy is to permit a suspension under both situations to run concurrently.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 2, 1972 Order Filed. And Now, September 25, 1972, on motion of the defendant the appeal is withdrawn for the reason that a letter from the Assistant Attorney General representing the Bureau of Motor Vehicles dated August 23, 1972, advised Counsel for the Commonwealth that in view of the fact that the defendant had his operating privileges revoked on May 30, 1972 for violation of Section 1037 of the Vehicle Code that the six (6) months suspension here at issue will run concurrent with said one (1) year revocation.

Sept. 8, 1982, Order filed. And Now, Sept. 7, 1982, it appears the matter was filed by a praecipe for summons June 8, 1972, followed by a Complaint Jan. 31, 1973 and the matter has remained inactive since that date. The defendant Ronald E. Rearick petitions the Court for dismissal under Rule 1901. At the time of argument, there appears to be no fault with the Courts' system for delay of the matter and the matter could have been processed to speedy completion by its placement on the trial list or petition for arbitrators within the ten year period the matter has laid dormant. The Court hears no cogent reasons why Rule 1901 should not apply, and accordingly, feels duty bound to apply said Rule.

O. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 30, 1972 Order filed. And Now, October 25, 1972, after partial hearing and a request for a continuance of the hearing at the request of the patient's attorney, this hearing is continued generally for a period of thirty (30) days on the following terms and conditions:

1. Jon B. Johnson will remove himself from the residence of his wife and take up residence with his parents and not change this residence without the consent of the Court or the Spencer Hospital Clinic. 2. He will make adequate arrangements voluntarily for the support of his children.

3. He will not molest or harass his wife, and under no circumstances will he contact her if he has been consuming any alcoholic beverages. 4. He shall report to the Spencer Hospital Clinic at such time as directed and participate in such counseling and therapy sessions as they may prescribe.

5. Upon violation of the terms of this Order or if the patient resorts to excessive drinking, he may be apprehended by a representative of the Clinic and confined at the Clinic with the privilege to request a hearing within forty-eight (48) hours. This Order shall be sufficient authority for the Clinic to release the patient forthwith.

6. The Clinic shall submit periodic reports to the Court but under any circumstances an up-to-date report within thirty (30) days of this date.

Colwell, a minor, injured his hand on a glass section of a door leading to a locker room at Meadville Area Senior High School. In June, 1973, Preliminary Objections to Plaintiffs' complaint were filed, raising the defense of governmental immunity. On May 23, 1973, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Ayala vs. Philadelphia Board of Public Education, ___ Pa. ___, 305 A. 2d 877, abolished the common law doctrine of governmental immunity. Defendants contended however that the Court's ruling is prospective only and has no application in the present case. In this regard they cite numerous cases in which rulings were applied prospectively. But to apply Ayala only prospectively flies in the face of its clear intent to discard once and for all the worn out and antiquated theory of governmental immunity. We can only construe the language of Ayala as applying retrospectively and had our Supreme Court intended prospective applicatio

1 copy attested.

Nov. 16, 1972 Affidavit of Service filed. Rowland B. Mahany, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says: That he is an attorney at law, duly authorized to practice in the Courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and his law office is located at No. 101 West Main St. Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa.; that, on November 3, 1972, he deposited in the United States mails a certified copy of the Complaint in Divorce in the above captioned case, addressed to the defendant, Mr. Thomas K. Pintagro, 117 Maple St. Jamestown, N.Y. and that this mail, which was Certified Mail No. 18471, was marked with directions to "Deliver to Addressee Only"; that said certified copy of the Complaint in Divorce was endorsed with notice to the Defendant to appear and answer within twenty (20) days from the date of service, or the matter would proceed without him; that the said Certified copy of the Complaint in Divorce was delivered to the Defendant, Thomas K. Pintagro on Nov. 9, 1972, as evidenced by the Return Receipt of Certified Mail No. 18471, signed by the said Thomas K. Pintagro, which is attached hereto and made a part hereof; that, a letter of transmittal was also enclosed in the certified mail envelope containing the certified copy of the Complaint in Divorce, which letter of transmittal advised the Defendant of his rights in this case, and a copy of this letter was also attached.

December 20, 1973 Order filed And now, December 12, 1973, after hearing, the Court adjudges Vivian K. Whitman in Contempt of Court for her wilful and deliberate failure to comply with the visitation order entered by this Court on July 27, 1972, in view of the fact that on the first weekend in November, the children were refused visitation with their father on the alleged ground that the father was not complying with the Support Order. The Court finds as a fact, that the father has faithfully complied with the Support Order. The sentence for contempt is suspended and the defendant and her spouse are cautioned that the Court will tolerate no further disregard of the Court Order, and if after further hearing in the future the Court finds the defendant in cooperated with her spouse has wilfully and deliberately violated this Court Order, a sentence for contempt will be promptly imposed.

July 2, 1973 Order filed. (Dec. Complaint in Divorce). Order: And now, this second day of July, 1973, this divorce case is referred back to the Master for further hearing. The Complaint was filed on October 30, 1972 but the testimony indicates that the parties did not separate until March 1, 1973, without explanation.

While the resumption of marital relations after an action of divorce has been filed does not of itself invalidate the divorce or constitute a bar when the grounds alleged are indignities to the person: Nixon v. Nixon, 329 Pa. 256, 198 Atl. 154 (1938), there appears little doubt that resumption of such marital relations is a factor to be considered in determining whether the mistreatment was really such as to make the plaintiff's condition intolerable and his or her life burdensome; Nixon v. Nixon, supra; Cunningham v. Cunningham, 119 Pa. Superior Ct. 380, 181 Atl. 458 (1935); DiStefano v. DiStefano, 152 Pa. Superior Ct. 115, 31 A 2d 357 (1943); Mathias v. Mathias, 114 Pa. (1) The evidence would indicate that the defendant would merely deny the allegations of the plaintiff testified to under oath at the Master's Hearing and the Court is of the opinion that he lost his right to now contest the action by said denials in view of his failure to continue his representation by counsel and to appear at the Master's Hearing.

(2) The Court is not satisfied by the evidence presented at this hearing that an attempt was made by the plaintiff to perpetrate a fraud on the Court by committing perjury at the Master's Hearing.

(3) The Court, of course, reserves the right to determine the adequacy of the grounds for divorce when the matter is routinely submitted to the Court for disposition.

May 4, 1973 Petition for Additional Hearing Re Custody of Minor Children and Order filed. Order: And now, this 4 day of May, 1973, upon presentation of the above and foregoing Petition a hearing is scheduled for the 30th day of May, 1973, at 2:30 P.M. o'clock at which time both the relatrix, Margaret L. Stearns and the defendant, David Frank Stearns, as well as both children, shall be present and the Court shall hear additional testimony concerning the matters raised in the Petition.

P. Richard Thomas, Judge

June 11, 1973 Order filed.

And Now, May 30, 1973, after further hearing in this matter, the Court is not satisfied that the petitioning father David Frank Stearns has produced sufficient evidence to warrant the Court changing its Order of January 5, 1973 and transferring custody of the Children back to him.

The Court admonishes the mother to continue her efforts to secure cancellation appointments from Doctor Kenneth Schmidt in order that the Children's teeth may be properly cared for.

It further appears to the Court that the Children have been seen by Doctor Morris at Edinboro and after review of the hospital records the Doctor's report indicates the children were in reasonably good health and needed no medical attention. The Court admonishes the mother that if there is any indication of medical problems to see that the children are taken to Doctor Morris.

The Court requests from the Edinboro Elementary School a report on both David and Jeffrey Stearns that would inform the Court as to whether the children appear in school in proper clothing, in a clean condition and appear to be in good health. The Court would appreciate an evaluation from the principal or the teachers regarding any problems the children have related to the school authorities and whether or not the children seem reasonably emotionally adjusted to the school atmosphere.

is also representing Jerry Russell, we will limit the two (2) attorneys to one opening address to the jury one closing argument and either attorney may cross examine any plaintiff witnesses or directly examine any defendant witnesses, but both attorneys will not be accorded duplicate privileges.

3. The Court again rules that the issue on the foreign attachment involving the alleged fraudulent transfer of the property by defendant Russell to Garnishees will not be tried as part of this case.

4. In relation to the evidence, the Court rules that evidence will be received showing that the plaintiffs fired pellets at the Russell home on the evening in question, proceeded down the road and returned to the scene where the defendant fired his gun at them. No testimony will be permitted to show the plaintiffs fired pellets at any other houses that evening or what plans or preparations were made for the firing of the pellets at the Russell house for the reason that these acts would be immaterial and would not be known to Mr. Russell at the time he fired his gun at the plaintiffs or their vehicle.

5. At the first trial, the Court permitted defendant Russell to relate a lengthy series of prior vandalism acts or harassment acts directed at him or his property and the Court believes this ruling was in error and so ruled in its prior Opinion. Accordingly, at this trial, Mr. Russell may testify as to what he believed and what his state of mind was on the evening in question, but he will preclude any recital by defendant Russell or others of the alleged harassment and vandalism acts which took many pages of testimony at the first hearing. This ruling is made on the assumption that the defendant cannot show any of the alleged acts were committed by or encouraged by any of the plaintiffs.

No. 153 November Term, 1972

Aldred Albert Vatter and Tammy Lynn Vatter are in the custody of their father who has not remarried: and Whereas the parties represent to the Court that agree that the Court may make an Order granting custody of the children to the present possession to the parent having such possession: and

Whereas, the Court has no objection to confirming custody of the children as it presently exists in each parent subject to evidence that the home is satisfactory and that the morale of each parent is satisfactory: and Whereas the Court has requested the Director of Child Welfare Services of Crawford County to investigate the situation in both homes: and Whereas, the Court is not satisfied that the present home situation of the father will permit continued custody of the children in his care unless his personal life is corrected: Now, This 19th day of December, 1972, it is hereby Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. That, subject to the approval of the home and home conditions by Child Welfare Services of Crawford County, the custody of Ricky Lee Vatter and Patricia Louise Vatter shall be in the mother, subject to the visitation rights and privileges in the father as hereinafter set forth. 2. That, subject to the approval of the home and home conditions by Child Welfare Services of Crawford County and subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, the custody of Aldred Albert Vatter and Tammy Lynn Vatter shall be in the father, subject to the visitation rights and privileges in the mother hereinafter set forth. 3. The father shall be given a reasonable time either to procure a housekeeper of an age which will not reflect upon his morals or be a bad example to the children or, in the alternative, to enter into a suitable marriage relationship with the housekeeper whom he presently has. In the event that he does not adopt either alternative within ninety (90) days of this date, the mother of the children shall file a petition with the Court setting forth that fact and requesting that the custody be placed in her pending a correction of the father's personal life. 4. The father shall have the right to have the two (2) children in the custody of the mother visit him the first and third weekend of each month beginning with the month of January, 1973. The mother shall have the right to have the two (2) children in the custody of the father visit her the second and fourth weekend of every month beginning with the month of January, 1973. 5. The father shall have the children on Christmas Eve for the year 1972 and the mother shall have them on Christmas Day for said year. Thereafter the parties shall alternate the Christmas holiday in that manner and each of the other holidays the rest of the year in the same manner. 6. Neither party shall say or do anything to turn the children against the other party and neither party will subject the children to any person or circumstance which will adversely affect their health, welfare, education or their morals. 7. This Order may not be changed by agreement of the parties unless said agreement is confirmed by an Order of this Court and

Dec. 8, 1972 Order Filed. Whereas, the Defendant, Dennis E. Strawcutter, are husband and wife and the parents of one (1) minor child: to-wit: Terri Jean Strawcutter, and prior to October 26, 1972, were residents of New York State residing in Rochester, New York: and Whereas, the parties separated on or shortly before October 26, 1972, and the Plaintiff, Sharon A. Strawcutter, came to Crawford County with the minor Child, Terri Jean Strawcutter, and instituted a Habeas Corpus proceeding on or about October 30, 1972; and Whereas, the Plaintiff was unable to effect service of the petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus, and on or about October 29, 1972, the Defendant regained physical possession of the Child and took the Child back to the matrimonial domicile in Rochester, New York; and Whereas the Plaintiff at the invitation of the Defendant's mother, went to New York State on or about November 8, 1972, and regained physical possession of the Child and brought the Child back to this County: and Whereas, on November 21, 1972, the defendant again attempted to forcibly secure physical custody of the child: and Whereas the present petition to confirm custody is for the purpose of preventing the spiriting of the Child back and forth between the parents: Now, therefore, this 5th day of December, 1972, it is hereby Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. That the Defendant, Dennis E. Strawcutter and anyone on his behalf, shall not remove Terri Jean Strawcutter from the custody of her mother without further Order of this Court. 2. This Order is not to permanently adjudicate custody of the child in the mother but merely to prevent each party from taking the child from the custody of the other until there has been a hearing in open Court, the opportunity for both parties to present evidence indicating that the interests of the child would be best served by having the child with his or her custody. A copy of this Order shall be served immediately upon the defendant either personally or by registered mail, restricted to delivery to the addressee only. 3. This Order is without prejudice to the right of the father of said Child to request a hearing either on the original petition for Habeas Corpus filed in this Court October 30, 1972 or a hearing on the petition before this Court to confirm custody filed in this Court on November 16, 1972. But until such hearing and adjudication by the Court, the Defendant shall not remove the Child from the custody of the mother or from this jurisdiction under penalty of being held in contempt of Court.

Oct 6, 1978 Copies of Order given to Bruce Barrett, Esq and Robert Curtis, Mental Health

Oct 11, 1978 Order filed: And Now, October 11, 1978, after further hearing and on listening to medical testimony, testimony from a sister and the Mental Health Administrator, the Court is of the opinion that it would be unwise and against the best interest of the patient to release him at this time and that because of a lengthy past history he does present a danger to himself if released at this time.

Accordingly, he is recommitted to Warren State Hospital under section 304 of the Mental Health Act for a period of ninety (90) days and the court notes at this time that he is not to be placed in the forensic unit as it is obvious everyone agrees that the criminal charges against him were filed only for the purpose of bringing his mental condition to the attention of the authorities and that proper treatment of this case lies in the Mental Health field and not the criminal courts.

The problem facing the Courts and the one the Court wishes the Mental Health Administrator in cooperation with the staff at Warren State Hospital to solve lies in the fact that the patient will need a reasonably secure place and environment in which to live because the physical condition of his mother does not make it possible for him to resume living with her. In this regard, the Court notes also that repeated recommendations for a close association with the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation have produced no cooperation from the patient and the patient is directed to cooperate with the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation and the staff at Warren State Hospital as directed to immediately initiate this contact to see if the patient can be funneled one way into a rehabilitation program.

It appearing that the attendants who brought the patient from Warren State Hospital have returned to Warren State Hospital have returned to Warren, the Court directs that he be given overnight confinement in the in-patient unit at the Mental Health Center and the Administrator is directed to provide transportation for him back to the institution in accordance with this Order on October 12, 1978.

thereafter, to be paid through the Domestic Relations Office of Crawford County and forwarded to Robert S. Bailey, Attorney for the Plaintiff, Sandra May Amann. This order will automatically terminate when the total payment of $400.00 is made. In view of the fact the defendant advises the Court he cannot guarantee that he will not change his residence and leave the state and cannot guarantee he will comply with this order, the defendant is directed to sign a Compliance Bond, cosigned by the Sheriff or his Deputy in the amount of $400.00 for compliance with this Order, which said bond is to be filed with the papers in this case. In the meantime, the Plaintiff is authorized to proceed with this divorce action without payment of costs and state taxes, but as payments are received by the Plaintiff Attorney, the same shall first be advanced to pay costs and the Master's fee with the balance to be applied on Attorney's fees as prescribed by the Crawford County Bar Association's Minimum fee schedule. The Court notes at this time that there is a support order in Erie County at No. 847 Sessions, 1971, ordering the defendant to pay for the support of his wife the sum of $12.00 per week upon which no payments have been made since June of 1971. The Court this day advises the defendant that if his wife continues to receive public assistance that in all probability this order will have to be complied with in Erie County.

of the foregoing Petition and on Motion of Ballard C. Smith, Jr., Esquire, Attorney for the Plaintiff a Rule is granted on the Defendant to show cause why he should not pay the Plaintiff Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Costs. Returnable to the Crawford County Court House, on the 9th day of May, 1973, at 10:00 o'clock A.M.

P. Richard Thomas P.J.

May 14, 1973 Order filed. Whereas, the defendant is presently unemployed and receiving Ninety-One Dollars ($91.00) per week Unemployment Compensation, but has an earning capacity in excess of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month; and

Whereas, the Court feels that the defendant's unemployment is temporary but that an order presently cannot be made for Alimony Pendente Lite for the support of the wife and children for the reason that the same would only last until the divorce was granted, and secondly, for the reason that the defendant's present earnings would not permit an allowance in addition to payment of divorce costs and fees; and

Whereas, the Court feels that the taxpayers of this Commonwealth should not be required to pay for a divorce in this case in view of the defendant's earning potential; and

Whereas, the Court feels that the mother of the children should file an appropriate proceeding in the Domestic Relations Court to secure support for the children which will last after the support has been granted;

Now, Therefore, this 9th day of May, 1973, it is hereby Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. That the defendant shall pay the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) to cover the divorce costs and fees by payment of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per week until the full amount is paid; provided, however, that the entire amount shall be paid on or before August 1, 1973. Said payments shall be made through Max B. Maloney, Esquire, attorney for the defendant, who shall disburse the money in accordance with this Order.

2. In the event that the defendant becomes gainfully employed prior to the granting of an absolute divorce and the plaintiff has not instituted Non-Support proceedings in the Domestic Relations Court, the Court will upon application, reconsider the granting of Alimony Pendente Lite.

In the meantime, the children shall spend every other weekend in the home of their mother or their maternal grandmother commencing Friday at 7:00 p.m. and ending Sunday at 8:00 p.m., with the first weekend visit to commence October 6, 1972. In the event that the aforesaid transaction is not completed by the Christmas school holiday season and the children are still in the custody of their father during said vacation period, satisfactory arrangements will be made between the parents to have the children in the custody of their mother for a period of not less than three (3) consecutive days during the December vacation period; providing, however, the children, if they are still in the custody of their father, will be in his home on Christmas Day.

When a subsequent Order is entered providing for transfer of the children upon assurance of suitable living arrangements, the Court at that time will include in the Order an appropriate amount of visitations for the father and also a provision for more extensive visits during the summer vacation period.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 22, 1972 Motion for Amended Order and Order filed.

And Now, December 21, 1972, a Motion having been presented on behalf of Margaret L. Stearns asking transfer of custody of the two minor children to her care upon the strength of a statement from Ray S. Carlson that a 12 by 65 foot mobile home has been placed on the property and is ready for occupancy and all utilities are functioning the court deems it advisable to give the defendant the opportunity to ascertain the truth of the statements made to the court and accordingly, a hearing is scheduled for January 5, 1973, at 1:30 P.M. in this matter. In the event the father of said children is satisfied that the proposed new trailer living arrangements are satisfactory for the proper upbringing of said children and does not wish to be heard in this matter, he shall so advise his Counsel and the court will enter an appropriate order without the necessity of further hearing.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 23, 1973 Order filed. And Now, January 5, 1973, after hearing, the Court is satisfied that the former unsatisfactory living arrangements have been corrected and that a new modern mobile home is erected on the premises with all appropriate utilities. Accordingly, custody of the two (2) minor children, David and Jeffrey are returned to the custody of their mother effective this date.

It shall be a condition of the return to the mother of the custody of these children, however, that she provide appropriate medical and dental care for both children in view of the fact that the minor David has recently undergone a series of tests indicating the possibility of ulcers and must now be on a special bland diet and take special medication, and that the son Jeffrey has exhibited borderline epileptic tendencies and is always on medication. In this regard, the mother of said children, Margaret A. Stearns, is specifically directed to see that the children are reexamined by either Doctor Miller or Doctor Morris at the Edinboro Medical Center within twenty (20) days of this date and that she advise said doctors that current medical records are in the hands of Dr. A. N. Sarain of Linesville, Pennsylvania, who has done a physical workup on these children and that a report from him would be helpful to the physicians at the Edinboro Medical Center.

Further, it appears that the children's teeth are in serious condition and the father has made arrangements with Doctor Richard Obermeier of Meadville, Pennsylvania, to take x-rays and to do some treatment. The mother advises the Court this date, however, that she intends to take the children to another dentist who will do work under the State Medical Aid program by the name of Doctor Bolser. Accordingly, the mother is directed to see that the children are scheduled promptly for dental care with Doctor Bolser and the mother is directed to advise the doctor that they were formerly under the care of Doctor Obermeier so that Doctor Bolser may have the advantage of any reports that Doctor Obermeier may wish to forward. In this regard, the mother is to see that the children observe proper dental hygiene practices as prescribed and recommended by the dentist.

By agreement of the parties, the father is to have said children in his custody on the first and third weekends of every month, commencing with the month of January, 1973, and, unless the parties agree otherwise, the children shall be picked up by the father at 9:30 A.M., on Saturday and returned at 8:30 P.M. on Sunday evening. On any scheduled visit when the father does not appear without any explanation by 11:00 A.M., Saturday, the mother may consider the visit cancelled and make appropriate other plans for the children.

In addition, the father may have the children for two (2) nonconsecutive two week periods during the school summer vacation period and, unless the parties agree otherwise, this shall consist of two (2) weeks in June and two (2) weeks in August; provided, however, the burden shall be on the father to advise the mother of the children thirty (30) days in advance of the respective two week periods he wishes to have the children.

Insofar as the Christmas Holiday season is concerned, the children shall be in the home of their mother on Christmas Day, but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children visit in the home of the father for a period of not less than three (3) days either before Christmas or after Christmas.

By Order of the Court,

nature of their testimony that would be germane to the custody issue.

The aforesaid award of custody is made subject to the following visitation rights in the father:

1. The father shall have the right to have the child in his custody on the first and third weekends of every month except the months of November, December, January, February and March, when he shall be entitled to have the child in his custody for the first weekend of the month. The weekends for the purposes of this order and unless the parties agree otherwise shall be from 5:00 P.M., Friday until 8:00 P.M., Sunday.

2. On any weekend the father does not intend to exercise his visitational rights he shall notify the mother in advance and on any weekend that the father does not arrive prior to 7:00 P.M., on Friday, the mother may consider the visit cancelled and make appropriate other plans for the child.

3. During the Christmas vacation period the child will be in the home of the mother on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day but satisfactory arrangements will be made between the father and mother so that the child will spend at least a three day visit with the father during the Christmas vacation period. In the event the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding these dates, the dates will be each year December 26th, 27th and 28th.

4. The parents of the child shall keep each other advised at all times of any change in their address.

5. During the summer school vacation period the father shall have the right to have the child with him for a consecutive two (2) week period in the month of June and a one (1) week period in the month of July. The dates for said visits shall be established by the father and he shall give the mother at least thirty (30) days notice of the weeks during the summer months which he intends to have the child. Unless the parties agree otherwise the visits shall start Sunday noon and terminate on Sunday noon.

The child shall be surrendered this date by the father to the mother and the child's clothing and personal possessions in the possession of the father will be turned over to the mother.
