We have received the Master's Report in this contested divorce action, reviewed the Plaintiff's Exceptions to the Master's Report, heard oral argument, and have carefully read the entire 170 page transcript of the contested hearing held before the Master in Divorce.

Our conclusion is that the Master was correct in finding that the Plaintiff husband failed to carry his burden of proof of convincing the Master (and on review, this Court) that his wife's conduct was such as to entitle him to a divorce on the ground of indignities to the person.

The exceptions to the Master's Report are dismissed and the Court refuses to grant a divorce.

So answers,

Jan. 29, 1973 Order filed. And Now, January 23, 1973, after hearing, the Court finds that there is not sufficient evidence of neglect or moral unfitness on the part of the mother as warrant taking the children out of her custody, but that her future plans are so uncertain and so unstable that until said plans have crystalized it would not be for the best interest and welfare of the children to have them remain in the mother's custody at the present time. Therefore, the custody of Leanne Wright, born May 27, 1965; Tina Marie Wright, born February 8, 1967; and Trevor W. Wright, born October 23, 1968, is awarded to the father, subject to the regulations and conditions hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

1. That the father will keep and maintain said children in the home of his parents and that in the event that he removes from said home, that the children will not be removed therefrom without further Order and permission of the Court.

2. That the mother shall be permitted to see and visit the children and take them into her custody on Saturdays of each week between the hours of 1:00 o'clock P.M. and 7:00 o'clock p.m. and on the second and fourth weekend of each

April 11, 1973 Order filed: And Now, April 6, 1973, after counsel had stated their position to the Court, the defendants' Preliminary Objections to the Complaint in Trespass are dismissed for the reason Court and counsel believe the matter can be more expeditiously clarified by appropriate discovery proceedings.

April 28, 1975 Testimony and Report of Master filed.

July 30, 1976 upon praecipe of plaintiff's attorney this case submitted to the Court.

August 24, 1976 Memorandum filed: A more proper ground for divorce in this case would have been desertion in view of the fact that the defendant's conduct although certainly constituting indignities to the person, did not apparently make the plaintiff's life burdensome and condition intolerable.

However, in view of the fact that the desertion period would have long since expired and that the defendant's conduct was sufficient to make the plaintiff's life burdensome and conditions intolerable even if at the time of the separation it did not appear to do so for emotional reasons, we are granting the decree.

August 3, 1973 Opinion filed. T. Joseph Thomas, J.

The parties to this action were married on June 3, 1972, and separated in November, 1972. There was no evidence of physical abuse towards the wife and it is our opinion that the evidence as it now stands falls short of justifying a divorce on the ground of indignities to the person for the reasons set forth in our many opinions: Ruby L. Lewis vs. Ralph Lewis, at No. 130 May Term, 1967; Patricia Ann Jerome, a Minor, vs. Jerry Donald Jerome, a Minor, at No. 35 May Term, 1967; Diana L. Cooper vs. Jackie A. Cooper, at No. 168 February Term, 1968; Ellis E. Muir vs. Linda B. Muir, at No. 157 September Term, 1968; Laura Lee Halff vs. Stephen K. Halff, at No. 13 November Term, 1967, and Lorraine K. Sutton vs. Larry M. Sutton, at No. 163 February Term, 1968.

However, we will give counsel the same opportunity that we have in other cases to list the matter for argument en banc or to file a motion for reference of the case back to the Master to take further testimony if such testimony exists or for such other action as plaintiff's counsel may desire.

Order: And Now, February 27, 1973, upon consideration of the foregoing petition, a hearing is hereby fixed in the above entitled matter for the 30 day of May, 1973 at 9:30 o'clock A.M., or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had at Courtroom No. 002, Courthouse Meadville, Pennsylvania. This appeal shall act as a supersedeas and the driving privileges of the said Hugh N. Walker are continued in full force and effect pending a determination of this appeal.

By Curiam,
Richard Thomas, P.J.

April 16, 1973 Appearance of John J. Kennedy, Jr., Assistant Attorney General for Commonwealth of Pennsylvania filed.

June 11, 1973 Order filed. And Now, May 30, 1973, at the time scheduled for this hearing, the Court is advised by letter dated May 15, 1973, from John J. Kennedy, Jr., Assistant Attorney General, that the suspension here in issue had been rescinded and accordingly, no hearing on the appeal was necessary.

The Court notes, however, that the Commonwealth has advised counsel for the Defendant that while rescending the suspension here at issue because of an administrative error on the part of the Bureau of Traffic Safety, it intends to requspend the Defendant under another Section of the Vehicle Code.

Counsel for the Defendant refuses to withdraw the appeal contending that a hearing should be held and upon failure of the Commonwealth to proceed this Court should sustain the appeal with prejudice and thus preclude the right of the Commonwealth to belatedly correct its administrative error.

While we accept the logic of the Defendant's argument that the Commonwealth is not entitled to a "second bite of the suspension apple" in attempting to correct its own error, we feel this equitable legal doctrine is not ripe for judicial determination at this time.

The Commonwealth having cancelled the imposed suspension because of its own error, the appeal is sustained and the Commonwealth directed (if they have not already done so) to cancel the suspension of the Defendant, Hugh M. Walker, (operator number 14-726378) forthwith.

By Order of the Court,

Service of copy accepted April 6, 1973 by Paul D. Shafer, District Attorney.

May 9, 1973 Order filed.

Order: And now, May 4, 1973, on motion of the Commonwealth, this hearing is continued for the reason that procedures questioned in the petition apparently reach Constitutional issues and the State Attorney General was not notified of the proceeding and, secondly, for the reason that due to the oversight on the part of the Court or the Prothonotary's Office this matter was not listed on today's argument list until May 2nd or 3rd, 1973.

In view of the fact the defendant's case is scheduled for trial at the term commencing May 14, 1973, the District Attorney has agreed that in the event of an acquittal of the defendant there would be no contest of the right of the defendant to have the automobile returned. The Court will order the immediate return of a 1965 Buick Skylark, two-door sedan to the defendant, Peter Selleck, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Posting of a cash bond in the amount of $500.00 as substitute for the car returned.

2. A filed stipulation by the professional bondsman, Harvey Childs, agreeing that the $2,500.00 already posted shall be applicable and guarantee the return of the aforesaid car in question after an ultimate determination of the legal issue raised by the petition.

3. At the final disposition hearing if the Court rules adversely to the defendant and orders the confiscation of the automobile, it will be returned on the day of the hearing in substantially the same condition as it now exists, normal wear and tear excepted.

4. In the event the defendant does not wish immediate surrender of the vehicle or does not wish to post bond in compliance with these terms, the state police will continue in custody of said automobile.

The Court will schedule further hearing in this matter in the event the criminal case is not disposed of during the term commencing May 14, 1973, said hearing requested on this petition any time after May 29, 1973.

Counsel for the defendant is directed to forward a copy of the petition objecting to the confiscation and a copy of this order to the Attorney General of the Commonwealth and notify the Attorney General of any future hearings involving this issue.

Note an exception for the Commonwealth and the Defendant.

2. Insofar as visitational rights are concerned, the Court accords the father the right to have the children in his custody every Saturday from 12:00 Noon until 5:30 P.M. In the event the father of the children does not call for them by 1:00 P.M., on Saturday the mother may consider the visit cancelled.

May 14, 1973 Order filed. Whereas, this case is before the Court upon Petition of the plaintiff for Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fees and Costs in the above-entitled divorce action; and

Whereas, the evidence indicates that the parties are still residing in the same household because they have seven children, the Petitioner is unable to find other available premises and the defendant refuses to move; and

Whereas, the parties were formerly on Public Welfare and the plaintiff is still receiving such assistance; and

Whereas, the defendant has recently become employed at the Saegertown Manufacturing Company but is not contributing anything to the support of the plaintiff and the children; and

Whereas, the Court believes that any temporary Order for the support of the plaintiff and the children will result in a decrease in the Public Assistance being received by the plaintiff which she urgently requires because in the opinion of the Court the Department of Public Assistance erroneously cut the assistance being receiving in half;

October 15, 1974 at 4:44 P.M., Decision of Arbitrators filed in which they find in favor of the Plaintiff in the amount of $1000 with interest from August 11, 1972.

Dissenting Opinion:

It is my finding that Defendant, Philip Yochum and Vacation Camplands, Inc. entered an oral contract with Plaintiff, William Darrin d/b/a Environmental Design Group in July of 1972 wherein Plaintiff agreed to prepare a "preliminary master plan" of Defendant's proposed subdivision in Summit Township, Crawford County, in return for Defendants to come to pay Plaintiff thirty ($30.00) dollars per acre for the work. The proposed subdivision involved approximately seventy (70) acres of land.

The above findings are predicated on my assessment of the credibility of the witness. It is difficult to accept Defendants testimony that Plaintiff agreed to prepare a subdivision plan for approximately seventy (70) acres of land at a price of $200-$300. An additional weakness in Defendants position, in my opinion, was his failure to present his wife as a witness to at least explain her absence as she was with Defendant during the meetings when the contract was formed with Plaintiff.

I therefore, find for Plaintiff in the amount of $2,160.00 plus interest from August 11, 1972.

No. 112 May Term 1973

Oct. 15, 1973 Order filed. And Now, October 2, 1973, after verdict of guilty and sentence of the defendant, counsel for the defendant advises the Court that he still objects to the confiscation of a a 1965 two door Buick sedan confiscated by the State Police in connection with this drug related case and confiscated under the terms and conditions of the Controlled Substance Act of April 14, 1972 under Sections 28 and 29 thereof. It appears the defendant is contesting the constitutionality of the Act insofar as it relates to seizure of this vehicle and accordingly, is required to give the Attorney General notice of his contest of the constitutionality of this statute.

Accordingly, we hereby issue a Rule to Show Cause on the defendant as to why the vehicle should not be confiscated and turned over to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the Act and direct the District Attorney to give the Attorney General prompt notice of this hearing. Argument on this Rule to Show Cause is scheduled for November 2, 1973, at 1:30 o'clock P.M. before the undersigned.

Accordingly the Court dismisses this action and with the consent of the defendant and counsel directs that a 1965 Buick two-door sedan, Serial No. 4A335 H 101759 with a New York registration No. FA6452 be surrendered in accordance with the Act of April 14, 1972 Act 64, Section 28 and 29 to the Department of Health.

The Court this vehicle was seized by law enforcement officers on or about March 2, 1973 as being the vehicle owned by one Peter Chalmer Selleck, 5780 Main Street, Williamsville New York, 14221. With this order said vehicle shall become the property of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and its appropriate department, subject, however, to the following terms and conditions:

No. 119 May Term 1973

Aug 7, 1978, Order filed: And Now, July 25, 1978, after further review Hearing, the Court finds no substantial difference between the home situations of either parent and finds that both parents are physically, emotionally and financially able to care for the children; however, the Court feels at this point that the children are best served to remain in the custody of their mother, and accordingly, custody of Steven Gerald Deeter & Ray H. Deeter, Jr. is hereby awarded to the custody of their mother, Lois E. Jones.

The Court notes at this time that the mother and her husband are employed and she advises the Court that so long as the present financial condition of the family remains relatively the same, she is not interested in securing support from the father for the two children in her custody. This position is taken without prejudice to her right in the event of change of circumstances to request some support for the two children.

The Court believes the parents, acting through their counsel, are able to work out visitation arrangements for weekends with the minor children and for a more extended period of time during the summer vacation period in order to accommodate the vacation schedules of the respective families. Accordingly, the matter is referred back to the parties and their counsel to attempt to work out a supplemental visitation arrangement in order that the children may have meaningful visits with their father on weekends and during the summer school period. Once the agreement is reached, the Court requests it be reduced to writing and filed as an addendum to this Order.

Each party is Directed to pay their own costs in this case.

By Order Of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug 7, 1978, Copies of Order given to David Swaya, Esq. and Paul Allen, Esq.

Nov 16, 1978, Order filed: And Now, this 16 day of November, 1978, by agreement of the parties, it is hereby Ordered and Directed that the primary custody of Ray H. Deeter Jr., born October 29, 1968, and Steven Gerald Deeter, born September 14, 1970, minor children, shall be in the mother, Lois E. Jones, formerly Lois E. Deeter, subject to the visitation privileges of the father, Raymond H. Deeter, Sr., and to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

1. The father shall have the right to take the Children into his custody every other weekend beginning with the first weekend following the date of this Order from 6:00 P.M., Friday, to 8:30 P.M., Sunday, both prevailing local times. The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the children.

2. Holidays and special days are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows:

A. Holidays shall be Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Labor Day, and New Year's Day.

(1) The father shall have custody of the children on Easter Sunday, 1978, Thanksgiving Day 1978 and New Year's Day 1979, and the mother shall have custody of the children on July 4, 1978, Labor Day 1978.

(2) In 1979, if this Order has not been previously changed the father shall have custody of the children on July 4th, Labor Day and Christmas Day, and the mother shall have custody on Easter Sunday, Thanksgiving and New Year's Day 1980.

(3) The parties shall continue to alternate holidays from year to year in the same manner if this Order has not been previously changed.

(4) On the holidays when the father or mother has custody, the opposite party shall have the right to have the children with him or her on the eve of said holidays

No. 119 May Term 1973

This case is continued until May 25, 1973, at 9:30 A.M.; provided, however, that jury trials are not in session at that time. In the event jury trials are in session, the Court will set another date for completion of this hearing.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 25, 1973 Exhibits filed.

June 4, 1973 Order filed. And now, May 25, 1973, after hearing held this date and the prior date of May 11, 1973, the Court determines that at this time it is for the best interest of the two (2) minor children, Ray Deeter, Jr., and Steven Deeter to be removed from the custody of their mother Lois E. Deeter and placed in the custody of their father, Ray H. Deeter, Sr., subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. The children will maintain their home with their father in his trailer which he has this date testified is ready and awaiting for their occupancy.

2. The father must provide adequate and suitable baby-setting facilities to take care of the children during his hours of work.

3. The father may not transfer custody of the minor children to any other person during the existence of this Court Order.

4. The mother shall have the right to have the children in her care and custody on the second and fourth weekends of every month commencing with the month of June, 1973. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the hours for the weekend visits will be from 10:00 A.M., Saturday until 8:00 P.M. Sunday.

5. It shall be a condition of this and all other visits between the children and their mother that during these visits the mother will not have male companions with her except family relatives while she has custody of the children nor will she allow any male visitors to visit in her residence while the children are in her care and custody.

6. In addition, during the months of July and August, the mother may have the children in her care and custody for two (2) non-consecutive one-week periods. Unless the parties agree otherwise, these one-week periods shall run from Saturday at 10:00 A.M. until the following Saturday at 10:00 A.M. It is the Courts desire that these visits with the mother as near as possible be during her vacation periods so that she may spend as much time with the children as possible.

7. The same provisions regarding association with non-relative males shall apply during the summer visits.

8. It shall be the obligation of the mother to notify the father of the children at least two (2) weeks in advance of the weeks she desires to have the children and she will as far as possible accomodate her vacation schedule and the father's vacation schedule in this regard.

The custody of the children shall be transferred this date and in making the transfer it is the intention of the Court that the clothing and other possessions necessary for the raising of the minor children be transferred to the father.

The Court believes this entire matter needs a review at the end of six (6) months from this date the Court will entertain a motion by either attorney to review this situation to ascertain if the Court at this time has made a decision for the best welfare of the children and what further decisions are necessary regarding custody to assure proper upbringing of the minor children.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

June 20, 1975 Order filed: The defendant mother has filed a motion with the Court to fix a hearing for review of a Custody Order entered May 25, 1973. The Court Order provided that the matter could be reviewed at the end of six months from May 25, 1973, at the request of either party. In view of the length of time since the entry of the original Order, we believe this motion should be augmented at this late date by supplemental petition setting forth the defendant mother's reasons for requesting the review, any allegations that the father is not providing proper care and attention for the Children and a definitive statement as to whether she is seeking a modification or increase in visitation privileges or the award of custody.

Review Hearing is scheduled for July 7, 1975, at 1:30 P.M., and the defendant is directed to file said petition setting forth reasons for the requested review at least seven days before said Hearing and serve a copy on the plaintiff or his counsel.

support for the wife and two (2) minor children should be governed by an appropreate support order in Venango County. While the Court finds an obligation to pay Alemony Pendente Lite, the same will not be ordered and recommend to the Court of Venango County that a support order for the support of the wife and children be entered effective the date the non support complaint was filed in Venango County.

The Court finds in this hearing the fact that the defendant has not contributed any support since the separation of the parties on July 15, 1972, and that the wife is now currently receiving public assistance in the amount of $235.00 per month.

The defendant is ordered to pay counsel fees and costs in this case directly to Douglas Ferguson, counsel for the plaintiff, in the total amount of $350.00 on or before June 1973.

Upon receipt of the sum of $350.00, counsel for the plaintiff will pay the usual court costs and master's fees to the Prothonotary's Office even though the same have been waived by former order.

The Prothonotary is directed to forward a copy of this order to the District Attorney's Office of Venango County.

(2) The motion to strike is overruled.

(3) The demurrer is sustained but the plaintiff will be permitted to amend for the reasons herein set forth.

It would appear that under existing law punitive damages are not recoverable for breach of Contract in Pennsylvania. Restatement of Contracts Section 342; C.J.S. Vol. 25, Page 1126 Section 120; Hay v. Grobble, 34 Pa. 9; Pittsburgh C. & St. L. Ry. Co. v. Lyon, 123 Pa. 140, 16 Atl. 607 (1889); Stern & Co. v. State Loan and Finance Corp., 238 Fed. Supp. 906, (1965.) However, there are no recent appellate court cases on this issue and to decide at this stage of the proceeding as a matter of law that punitive damages cannot be awarded in a contract action would require a new trial if an appellate court more recently determines otherwise.

In Focht, Appellant, v. Rabada, 217 Pa. Superior Court 35, 42 268 A.2d 157, 161, (1970), for example, the lower court ruled as a matter of law that punitive damages could not be imposed on a driver who, while intoxicated, operated an automobile causing injury to another. The Superior Court held that "certain factual circumstances" in such cases may constitute ground for allowing punitive damages and then pointed out:

"The lower court never ruled on the offers of proof as a factual matter, because it found that punitive damages could not be awarded as a matter of law. Since we have determined that this ruling was in error, the case must be remanded for a new trial. On retrial, it will be the obligation of the judge to determine preliminarily whether the offers of proof warrant the submission of the question of punitive damages to the jury."

Thus the better practice is to develop a factual record either by the admission of evidence or by offers of proof at trial so that if the Court decides that such damages are recoverable in a contract action, it may also determine whether the "factual circumstances" warrant submission of the issue to the jury, that is, whether the standard of proof has been met. This will avoid the necessity of a remand for a new trial if either issue is decided against the plaintiff.

Even though we are not now ruling as a matter of law that punitative damages cannot be recovered in a contract action we are sustaining the demurrer to the Second Count and requiring the plaintiff to amend insofar as relates to the claim for such damages. We do so because that portion of the Complaint does not set forth facts which would justify exemplary damages. If recovery is to be allowed in contract actions the standard of proof should not be less demanding than is required in trespass actions. In Pennsylvania that standard is precised, set forth by adoption of Section 908 of the Restatement, Torts. In Chambers v. Montgomery, Appellant, 411 Pa. 339-345, 192 A 2nd 355, 358, 358 (1963), the Court defines and sets forth the requirements for the recovery of punitive damages:

"'Punitive damages' are damages, other than compensatory or nominal damages, awarded against a person to punish him for his outrageous conduct.' Restatement, Torts, § 908 (1). Comment b to the above section states that 'punitive damages are awarded only for outrageous conduct, that is, for acts done with a bad motive or with a reckless indifference to the interests of others.' In Hughes v. Babcock, 349 Pa. 475, 37 A 2d 551 (1944), we said that exemplary damages must be based on 'malicious', 'wanton', 'reckless', 'wilful', or 'oppressive' conduct on the part of the defendant.' In determining whether punitive damages should be awarded, 'the act itself together with all the circumstances including the motive of the wrongdoer and the relations between the parties should be considered.' Restatement, Torts, § 908, Comment e; Hughes v. Babcock, supra."

At the present time Paragraphs 24 and 31 allege that refusal to pay is "willful, wanton and bad faith breach of contract and is a conspiracy among all the defendants of a malicious and fraudulent nature." It is obvious that mere refusal to pay without more is not "outrageous conduct, that is, an act done with a bad motive or with a reckless indifference to the interest of others." Nor does refusal to pay establish per se a conspiracy to defraud the plaintiff.

The averment in Paragraph 23 that defendants admitted that money was due is meaningless unless it was made by someone in authority followed by a "malicious, wilful or oppressive" failure to pay.

An amended complaint in accordance with this Order shall be filed on or before June 1, 1973, unless an extension of time is granted within that period.

No. 47 May Term, 1973

This first office was before presently a parking lot exists, but at that time was over the offices of Attorney Leland J. Culbertson and these offices were later used as Alderman D.W. Ladners office. Vince and his brother John practiced law there and also at 363 Center Street, the end of Lawyers Row, before purchasing the building at 363 Chestnut Street at the corner of Chancery Lane where Vince continued to practice until the time of his death. Vince was married on June 19, 1953, to Catherine Beatty and they were the proud parents of three boys - Vincent, Mark J. and Adam J., born June 16, 1954 and Scott B. born September 29, 1958. Vince was admitted to the Crawford County Bar, Bars of the Supreme, Superior and Commonwealth Courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, United States Tax Court and the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. In addition, he was a member of the American Bar Association, Pennsylvania Bar Association, Crawford County Bar Association and the American Trial Lawyers Association. Vince was a member of the Meadville Lions Club and although his busy schedule prevented his regular attendance, he was a staunch supporter of all projects and could always be counted on to help when asked. He was an incorporator and officer of the Meadville Junior Chamber of Commerce and took a very active part in the formation and early activities of this particular group. In later years, he was on the advisory board of the Salvation Army and spent much time in assisting and advising the officers of this board. He was an active supporter of the YMCA, Little Gridders Football League and the Meadville High School Football Boosters Club. His interest in football came naturally from his having actively participated in that sport in both High School and at the University of Pennsylvania. He was also a member of the undefeated Crawford County Bar Association Basketball Team and thoroughly enjoyed taking part in the annual contest with the Pennsylvania State Police. Vince taught the business law course at Allegheny College for many years as well as the course for the Aldermen and Justices of the Peace of Crawford County. He was solicitor for that group during its heyday and those Aldermen, Magistrates and Justices of the Peace who attended his course, stood out as beacons among the multitude.

In 1964, he was appointed Crawford County Solicitor, a position he held until appointed District Attorney of Crawford County at the end of 1964. Vince held that office for the duly elected term of Robert L. Walker, who had resigned on his appointment to the Bench, and served with distinction until January, 1968. In addition, he was Solicitor for the Conneaut Lake Volunteer Firemen and for the Saegertown School District, helping the latter through the chore and joy of construction of their beautiful new Agent October 1, 1980, conference Lists in Crawford County, for a period of time but ultimately on or Court that the matter had been the plaintiff through his counsel advised the settled for the sum of $1,000.00, with $500.00 to be paid by each defendant.

Counsel for the plaintiff now advises that the proposed settlement has not matrialized and his client has never received the said $500.00 from each defendant.

The Court notes at the time set for argument defendant Cadman denies that he ever made said settlement and defendant Warren speaking through his wife advises they are impoverished and have been unable to make the agreement to $500.00 installment payments.

The prayer of the plaintiff's petition now is that the Court direct the Prothonotary to reinstate the above action and requests the Court to enter an order awarding judgment to the plaintiff in the amount of $1,000.00 against both defendants pursuant to alleged agreement of settlement.

The Court denies the motion to enforce settlement and believes that counsel for the plaintiff had adequate available remedies to protect his client in the event the alleged settlement failed for lack of payment.

Accordingly, this Court having no desire to act as a collection vehicle for disappointed litigants who fail to adequately protect themselves before reporting to the Court the settlement of their case, we hereby deny the petition presented and request to reinstate the case and refuse to award judgment.

This order is entered without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to pursue any alleged written by oral contracts made with the defendants for settlement of this case.

Dec. 26, 1972 Appearance of Robert S. Bailey attorney for Defendant filed.

Jan. 2, 1973 Order filed. And Now, December 28, 1972, after hearing, it appears that there is a dispute among counsel regarding the procedures followed in this case and a resolution of the matter requires considerable research on the part of the Court to review a June 12, 1972 United States Supreme Court Decision in the case of Fuentes versus Shevin as well as a review of the Pennsylvania Procedural Rules. In the meantime, until this procedural matter is resolved and in view of the alleged value of the property in question, the Court orders that the status quo be maintained until further Order of the Court, and specifically directs the plaintiff to take no further action or make no further demands upon payment by the defendant and Directs that the defendant not dismantle the truck in question and not unreasonably allow the same to depreciate in any manner.

By Order of the Court,
C. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 9, 1973 Opinion and Order filed. Order: And Now, January 9, 1973, the Motion to Strike the Petition is granted and the Court declares such petition and the Order dated December 6, 1972, a nullity.

For a period of ten days from the date of this Order, the Defendant shall not remove, secret, dismantle or depreciate in any manner the property here in question, nor shall the Plaintiff take any action to attempt collection or removal of the property except as is provided in accord with the rules of Civil Procedure and this Opinion.

When the matter is again procedurally at issue, the Court will entertain a motion to hold a hearing affording the Defendant an opportunity to be heard before removal of the property in accord with the requirements of due process mandated by Fuentes vs. Shevin. By Order of the Court,
C. Richard Thomas, P.J.
