Jan 20, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Jan 18, 1999 this matter comes before the Court on a hearing on the plaintiff's Petition for Relief under the Protection From Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears without counsel and the defendant does not appear and the Sheriff's Return indicates that he was not found on three occasions by the Sheriff's Department.
The plaintiff indicates that the defendant is a truck driver, but that since this Order has been in effect, she has had personal contact with him and he was provided with a copy of the Order which was in the nature of a Temporary Order for Protection and he has failed to do so.
Under these circumstances, we do not believe that it would be prudent to schedule another hearng since it is obvious that the defendant does not appear to intend to be served.
We will continue the Temporary Order entered on Jan 7, 1999 in full force and effect adn the Prothonotary is directed to send a copy of this Order as well as a copy of the Petition and the Temporary Order entered on Jan 7, 1999 to the defendant by Cretified Mail Return Receipt Requsted Addressee ONly and by regular mail.
If the defendant wishes further heraing in this matter, he may specifically file a motion and a hearing will be scheduled within 10 days by the Court Administrator's Office. Otherwise, the Temporary Order entered on Jan 7, 1999 will remain in full force and effect through Jan 6, 2000.
The Prothonotary may bring this matter before the Court after 6 months for a determination as to what will happen with the costs if the defendant does not request further hearing and that hearing is scheduled in the interim.

May 10, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, May 6, 1999, after hearing in this matter and due consideration of the law applicable, and after due consideration of the evidence we find to be credible, we are satisfied that the Department of Transportation has met its burden of proving that the appellant was arrested for Driving Under the Influence by a police officer who had reasonable grounds to believe that the appellant was operating, or actually controlling or operating the movement of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and that the appellant was asked to submit for a chemical test and refused to dos o and was warned that refusing the test would result in a license suspension, and therefore the suspension imposed by the Department is upheld and the appellant's appeal is dismissed. William B. Moore 56.	IN RE: PROTHONOTARY FILING FEES Filed January 18, 1999 @ 9:45 AM	PETITION TO FIX PROTHONOTARY FILING FEES

Jan. 18, 1999 Order filed. AND NOW, January 15, 1999 upon reciept and review of a petition to fix Prothonotary filing fees pursuant to Act 1998-164 it is ordered as follows:

1. A hearing to consider said petition and receive comments frominterested persons is hereby set for Friday, January 29, 1999 at 1:00 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

2. We are concerned about two matters. First of all, we believe persons who may be affected by these increases, particularly members of the bar, should hav entoice of the proposed increases and an opportunity to be heard.

Secondly, wer are concerned about who will receive the increased fees and whether or not that will actually result in an improvement of the operations ofthe Prothonotary's Office generally and specifically with rrespect to storage of files, automation, recovery of outstanding costs,s and handling and processing of papers. Therefore at said hearing we will not only receive comments and suggestions with respect to the increased fees but will ask the Prothonotary to address these issues. We will generally inquire of the Prothonotary as to her suggestions, proposals and plans for appropriate or necessary changes and improvements. This by no means should be interpreted as a criticism of the Prothonotary or finding fault with the Prothonotary. The Prothonotary knows that we are concerned with certain operations in the Prothonotary's office and the Prothonotary has alleged in paragraph 6 of the petition that her budget requests for automation have been repeatedly turned down. We want to know what she proposes and whether or not thoese proposals will be carried out before we can agree to the fee increses proposed.

3. The Prothonotary shall deliver a true and correct copy of her petition andthis order to the following in the following manner:

a. Members of the crwaford County Bar Association by placing said copies in the attorneys' boxes in the Prothonotary's office.

b. The Commissioners of Crawford County by hand delivery of the same to the Commissioners or the Chief Clerk of theCounty.

c. Any other persons, organizations or entities who regularly make filings on theor own without counsel in the Prothonotary's office with said persons, organizations or entities to be selected by the Prothonotary for these notice purposes. Notice to such persons, organizations or entitites shall be by first class mail to their last known address.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

PETITION TO WAIVE ORDER OF SEMINAR FOR SEPARATING PARENTS
2 copies Pltf.

Order:
AND NOW, this day 26 day of January, 1999, upon consideration of the Petition to waive Order of Seminar for Separating Parents, and said peittion is granted for both parties insofar as the Plaintiff is incarcerated at the State Correctional Institution at Cambrdge Springs and the defendant is (b) the Defendant does not live in Crawford County and would not be able to attend a seminar, nor is an alternative program available.

BY THE COURT:
Gordon R. Miller, J

Jan. 27, 1999 Petition To Proceed In Forma Pauperis In A Divorce Action and Order filed. AND NOW,January 26, 1999, upon consideration of the peittion filed by the Lisa-Ford - Plaintiff in this action, and supported by an affidavit attached thereto, all being purusant to Pa. R.C.P. 240, the Plaintiff is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis at this time.
The Plaintiff is directed to inform the Prothonotary's office or the Court of any improvement in her financial circumstance that would permit her to pay the costs incurred in this action and shall be rresponsible for doing so upon an improvement of financial condition.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

March 15, 1999 Certificate of Service: Lisa Ford being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that on the 16th of February, 1999, I caused to be deposited in the U.S. Mail for delivery to the above-named Defendant by Certified Mail, Return Receipt REquested, a true and correct copy of the Affidavit & Complaint in Divorce in the above case. Said Receipt is attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "A".

Mar 15, 1999 PROOF OF SERVICE: I, Lisa Ford, do hereby certify under the penalty of perjury, 18 Pa. C.S. Sec. 4904 (pertaining to unsworn falsification to authorities), and I have this day served a true and correct copy of my Certification of service of Affidavit and Complaint in Divorce by Certifie dMail upon the defendant by depositing same in the United State Mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the Rodney A. Ford.

CERTIFICATION/AFFIDAVIT of Service of Notice of Intention to request Entry of Divorce Decree By Certified Mail Filed. Lisa Ford, being duly sworn according to law deposes and says that on the 3 day of June 1999, I caused to be deposited in the U.S.Mail for delivery to the above-mentioned Defendant by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested a true and correct copy of teh Notice of Intentin to Request Entry of Divorce Decree, including the Counter-Affidavit under 3301(c/d) of the Divorce Code required by Rules 1920.42(d)(2), in the above case. Said Receipt is attached hereto made a part hereof and marked Ex "A"

Lisa Ford Pltf.

August 3, 1999 Memorandum Filed. And CNow, August 3, 1999 the Court has reviewed this file pursuant to the Plaintiff's Praecipe to Transmit the record for a final divorce Decree. We are returning the file for the Prothonotary because this file is not in proper position for a final divorce.
It appears that the Plaintiff is proceeding under 3301(d) of the Divorce Code. She has made reference to the fact that she served a copy of the 3301(d) affidavit upon the defendant at the time she filed and served her complaint.
She also maintains that she served upon the Defendant a counter-affidavit under 3301(d) when she served him with a notice of intention to request the entry of a divorce decree. The problem is that she did not file of record the affidavit and counter-affidavit. That is required under Rule 1920.42 of the PA Rules of Civil Procedure.
Therefore, if the Plaintiff desires to proceed ahead and she in fact has really served a copy of the affidavit upon the Defendant including a copy of a counter-affidavit, then she should file said affidavit and counter-affidavit of record with a certification that those are the documents she actually has served upon the Defendant. Once the Plaintiff does that, then the matter may be referred to the Court on praecipe of the Plaintiff for Final review.

8/23/99 Dist by Court

Setp 20, 1999 Order filed And Now September 17, 1999 after a formal hearing the Order of Feb 18, 1999 ordered the defendant to have no contact with Ahsley Hwathorne (Para 3), except, ". . . as may be determined bya Custody Mediator or as the parties shall agaree,"(Para 5) Tehre has been no custody mediation or Court Order. There is a dispute as to whether or not the parties have agreed to permit the defendant to see Ashley Hawthoren. It appears that the defendant has seeen Ashley Hawthorne on several occassions However, the court concludes that the defendant was not specifically invited on the day in question, to-wit August 18 and therefore, the defendant went to the plaintiff's home on August 18 and had contact with Ashley Hawthorne, and it was not pursuant to an agreement of the parties. In fact, just before he entered the house he heard someone say, "Don't let him in," or words to that effect.
We conclude that this is a technical violation of teh PFA Order and accordingly it is ordered as follows:
We find as a fact and hold the defendant in contempt for vioaltion of the PFA Order on Feb. 18,1 999.
2. This Court normally incarcerates all persons we find in contempt. We only recall one incident in 10 years where wehave not incarcerated the defendant who violated a PFA Order. However, it appears that there has been consentual contact on occasion and therefore we will not incarcerate the defendant at this point.
3. As punishment for contempt, the defendant shall pay a civil fine of $150 to the Prothonotary of Crawford County within 30 days from this date.
4. As further punishment to the defendant, the defendant is absolutely and completly evicted and excluded from the plaintiff's residence at 8918 Hickory Dr Meaville, PA He shall not be within 100 yards of that residence until further order of Corut, either in a PFA action or a custody action. The palintiff does not have the right or ability to eve invite him to that residence. So there is no mistake about what this Court means, even if the plaintiff invites the defendant to that residence, he shall not go.
5. As further punishment for contempt the Protection from Abuse Order entered feb. 18, 1999 is continued for one year from this date, or until Sept 16, 2000.

April 27, 1999 Petition for Relief from a Judgment of Default and Order filed. And Now, this 5th day of May 1999 upon consideration of Defendant's Petition for Relief from a Judgment of Default it is hereby ordered that the Rule to show cause is issued and directed to Plaintiff to show cause if any why said judgment should not be opened. Said rule is returnable for hearing and/or argument for June 10, 1999 at 10:30 AM in Courtroom 1.
By the Court
Gordon R. Miller, J.
5/5/99 Faxed V. Bailey & M. Prather

June 14, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, June 10, 1999, this matter came before the Court for argument on the Defendant's petition for relief from a judgment of default.

It appears that counsel for the Plaintiff extended the time to plead to April 13, 1999 pursuant to a letter sent directly to the Defendant on March 25, 1999, which said letter makes up Exhibit A attached tot he Defendant's petition for relief.

That letter is curiously worded. It also contains a notice that the failure to file a responsive pleading will result in the filing of a praecipe for the entryof judgment by default not less than tem days. "Namely, upln or after April 23, 1999."

The Defendant did not file a responsive pleading. Counsel for the Plaintiff then filed a praecipe for the entry of default judgment on April 26, 1999 and ceertified the written notice of the intention to file the praecipe was mailed to the Defendant on March 25, 1999 and attached thereto the letter of March 25, 1999, which we have referred to above.

Pa..R.C.P. 237.1(a)(2)(ii) provides that no judgment by reason of default shall be entered unless the praeciep includes a certification that a written notice of intent to file the praecipe was mailed or delivered at least ten days prior to the date of the filing of the praecipe. A copy of the notice must be attached to the praecipe.

The central question therefore is whether or nto the letter of March 25, 1999, which extended the time to plead to April 13, 1999, satisfies Pa.R.C.P. 237.11

The Defendant claims that it does not satisfy that rule and that another ten day notice must be sent. It appears to us that counsel for the Plaintiff agrees, for in a letter faxed to the Court this date, counsel for the Plaintiff waives his appearance in argument and trusts that, "The Court will grant the petition to open judgment."

Therefore, based on that letter, together with the argument of cousnel for the Defendant, together witha literal reading of the rule, we will grant the Defendnat's relief. We will not research the question of whether or not the letter of Mar 25, 1999 doe sin fact satisfy the requirements of Pa.R.C.P.237.1.
Accordingly, we order as follows:

1. The Defendant's petition for relief from a default judgment is granted and judgmetn is open.
2. The Defendant is granted leave, nunc pro tunc, to file an answer, counter claim, and new matter, which the Defendant filed on Apr 27, 1999. It is not necessary to file another responsive pleading.
3. The Plaintiff shall have twenty (20) days from the date of this Order, and not from Apr 27, 1999, to file a reply to the counter claim and new matter. Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

July 19, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, July 16, 1999 we find as a fact that the appellant was arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol, that he was asked to submit to chemical testing for blood alcohol, that he refused to submit to chemical testing, and that he was specifically warned that a refusal would result in the revocation of his operating privileges. Therefore the appeal is dismissed and the action of the Secretary of Transpartation in suspending the appellant's operating privileges for one year is sustained. See Commonwealth, Dept. of Transportation, Bureau of Driver Licensisng vs. Scott, 546 Pa. 241, 684 A.2nd 539 (1996); Hirsch v. Commonwealth, Dept of Transportation, Bureau of Driver Licensing, 702 A.2d 375 (Pa. Cmwlth, 1997).

At the time the appellant was at he Meadville Medical Center the police officer correctly stated the difference between the defendant's right to counsel on criminal charges and that the defendant had no right to counsel with respect to the blood test. That the defendant may or may not have been confused about tht is of no moment so long on the appropriate warnings and instructions were given by the police officer. Gordon R. Miller, p.J.

April 30, 1999 Notice of Hearing of Indirect Criminal Contempt For Violation Of Protection From Abuse Order, filed.

April 30, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 29, 1999, at a formal hearing in this matter, the plaintiff was the only witness who testified. She testified that the defendant was the only witness who testified. She testified that the defendant keeps following her and stalking her. She also testified that on one occasion, he was pulling out of a side road when she went by, that he followed her very closely, that he started to pass her and that she had to drive up onto the curb at a slow rate of speed because of his driving conduct.

We do not take a position as to whether or not this actually occurred. We are dismissing this Petition on our own on the theory that even if it did occur as the plaintiff said it occurred, and taking the plaintiff's testimony as being true and all reasonable inferences from that testimony, she still has not made out a case under the Protection From Abuse Act.

accordingly, this Petition is dismissed, the Complaint for Indirect Contempt is dismissed and the costs shall be paid by Crawford County. (SEE PAPERS FILED).

9. THIS ORDER APPLIES IMMEDIATELY TO DEFENDANT AND SAHLL REMAIN IN EFFECT UNTIL MODIFIED OR TERMIANTED BY THIS COURT AFTER NOTICE AND HEARING.

(For Notice To the defendant and Notice To Law Enforcement Officials SEE PAPER FILED.)

BY THE COURT,
4/19/99 Gordon R. Miller, J

Apr 20, 1999 AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE: I, Dale A. Collins, Deputy, the undersigned, hereby state that I seerved a copy of the Petition and Temporary Order in the above-captioned action upon the Defendant by handing the papers to Herman Gomez at the followisng address: served in the Pro's Office, Courthouse, Meadville, PA on the 19th day of April, 1999 at approximately 4:05 PM.

May 5, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, April 29, 1999, in these cross-abuse complaints, the Court proceeds informally receiving input from both parties without the benefit of counsel. It appears the parties were formally married but divorced in the State of Rhode Island in 1993. Apparently, before or after the divorce, the parties agreed that a house would be purchased in Titusville, Pa. in the joint names of both parties and the parties shortly after the divorce was granted resumed residing together in the City of Titusville in a jointly owed residence.

The ex-wife has limited income confined to Social security, a small pension, and miscellaneou other income from employment and nets about $1500 a month from his work.

The parties seemingly in spite of their conflicts have respect and love for each other but the economic issues cannot be amicably resolved. The ex-wife complaints about the amount which she needs to buy groceries and his consideration is totally inadequate and she spends an inordinate percentage of her net income on groceries. Apparently, the parties have fallen into a habit of each writing a check to pay one half of the mortgage and various utility bills. Ex-wife complains that the ex-husband has four cars and she has no transportation.

Each party complaints about the habits of the other and apparently, the parties have four dogs in the household which apparently at times cause controversies.

This Court spent approximately an hour and a half attempting to get the parties to reconcile their financial difficulty by having a firm agreement with regard to whose assets will be used on a monthly basis to pay the mortgage, utility bills, insurance, car payments, miscellaneous expenses, and primarily expenses for food.

Accordingly, we dismiss both petitions. Becuase we believe neither party should be held responsible for costs, the Cunty should pay the costs in these cases.

These two petitions are dismissed. P..Richard Thomas, S.J.

Apr 26, 1999 Petition For Emergency Relief in Custody, filed.

Apr 28, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, April 26, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Emergency Relief in Custody filed by the materal great aunt of the children Takura and Philep Feltenberger. The defendants/respondents are the natureal mother and natural father of the children.

Although there is a dispute with regard to the facts, it appears that during the last several months, dating back to October, 1998, both children have been primarily in the physical custody of the plaintiff/petitioner.

At this time, arrangements have been made throught the sfhool district for Takura to go to an appropriate school in Boston, Massachusetts to treat any mental disability that she has. It appears that there have been several months that this arrangement has been progressing andat this time, the plaintiff/petitioner asks the Court for an emergency relief to stop that placement pending mediation in this case.

Based on what we have heard in Motion Court, we decline to grant emergency relief with regard to Takura and she may be placed in the appropriate school in Boston, Massachusetts pending any further Order of Court after mediation and/or denovo custody hearing.

Pending mediation, Philep will remain in the primary physical custody of the plaintiff/petitioner.

It does seem, however, that the defendant goes to places where the wife is or to her place of employment and when she leaves, he follows her in his automobile or on other occasions follows her as she is going shopping or doing other events.

The case is continued for a period of 3 months on the condition that the defendant not follow his wife either while she is walking on foot or in an automobile.

He will not go to her home except in accordance with a schedule arranged by teh parties for picking up or returning the chidlren.

He will not threaten her directly or indirectly in any manner by telephone or otherwise or procure others to do so on his behalf. If any of these events are violated within a 3-month period, the Court will entertain a further full hearing on this abuse motion. May 14, 1999 Order requesting the Court for a hearing for Alimony on behalf of the Defendant.
ORDER: AND NOW, May 5, 1999, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing at the request of the Defendant on her claim for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees. At this time she does not present anything with regard to costs and and expenses and reserves the right to do that and obviously the issue of permanent alimony which was raised is reserved for later.

The partues agree to proceed informally and we believe based on the representations of the dispute as well as the documents they have provided alimony pendente lite is appropriate commencing April 14, 1999. The alimony pendente lite based on the Plaintiff's net monthly income from 1998 appear to be $583.34 oer month. The Defendant agrees that she has taken a reduction in pay, but will continue to allow higher, but it also appears that the Plaintiff's wages for 1999 have increased somewhat.

Based on all of that, we will set the amount of alimony pendente lite at $590 commencing May 1, 1999. For the period from April 4, 1999 through April 30, 1999 the amount of alimony pendente lite will be $295 and the Plaintiff has credit for $350 that $55 is to credited toward the May 1999 payment due.

This award shall be in effect for a period of six months from April 14, 1999 unless there is further order of Court.

The Plaintiff shall also make payment toward the Defendant's counsel fees at the rate of $150 per month commencing on May 15, 1999 for a period of five consecutive months for a total of $750 without prejudice to the Defendant to request further counsel fees if that would appear to be appropriate.

Ultimately, if the parties proceed to a master's hearing the issue of counsel fees may be determined by the Master hearing, the issue of counsel fees may be determined by the master and this is just intended to be an interim order to allow the Defendant to litigate with the Plaintiff in this matter.

It appears from the representation of the parties this day that if the appropriate data is exchanged, they should be able to sit down and arrive at some sort of a settlement in this matter and they are encouraged to do so to bring this action to resolution.

Miller signed an Order on Jume 2, 1999 in this case another party with regards to a Bill of Costs and ib Order for the Court to be consistent, our Order of June 21, 1999 in this matter is rescinded.

We note that in doing si=o it is still our opinion that Rule L217A does not require a Court Order and there have not been exceptions to the Bill of Costs filed within 10 dqays as required by Rule L217B which would require the Court to intervene to resolve those exceptions.

Nonetheless, again in order to be consistant it is ORDERED and DIRECTED that the items set forth in the Bill of Costs filed by William Scheffner and Delores Scheffner are assessed against Rachel Vranell, Donna Hobson, and Frank Reichart, Jr.

ORDER: AND NOW, June 21, 1999 William Scheffner and Delores Scheffner have filed a bill of Costs requesting that the Court enter an Order directing the paynebt of said costs.

Apparently the Bill of Costs was filed with the prothonotary on June 9, 1999 and although it does not include the form required by our Local Rule for certifying that the service has beeh made on acounsel of record, it does include a a certificate of service indicating that all other counsel were served with a copy of the same on June 9, 1999.

The Bill of Costs does not require an Order of Court as the Prothonotary should follow Local Rule 12 and specifically Section 5 of that Rule which says that Costs shall be confirmed and taxed if no exceptions are filed within four days after service of the Bill of Costs upon opposing counsel.

If, in fact exceptions have been filed by opposing counsel, Section 6 of that Rule would then direct the Prothonotary to certify the matter to the Court for further action.

March 4, 1999 Order Filed. And Now, March 1, 1999 the court after a full formal hearing concludes the Plaintiff has not carried her burden of proof and accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. This action is Dismissed
2. Costs shall be paid by Crawford county
3. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the PA State Police at Meadville and to County Control.
4. We warn the Defendant that simply because we are dismissing this action that does not give him the right to stalk, harass, threaten or abuse the plaintiff. We are simply taking the position that based upon the evidence she presented at the hearing, that she has not carried her burden of proof. We find as a fact that he said to her that when he was angry at the Sears Store during the week of Feb. 15, that she would pay for what she did with her life and that he told her at Big Lots, that if she would do something for him, she would avoid getting hurt. So we find as a fact that she was telling the truth on those two instances. But we cannot conclude that is a violation of the Protection from Abuse Law.

April 12, 1999 Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt for Violation of Protection from abuse Order filed.

Apr 21, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, April 16, 1999, we find as a fact that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of the Protection From Abuse Order of February 12, 1999 in two srespects. First of all, we find as a fact that he did pull the shirt of Misty Grove, poked her, pulled her on the shoulder and called her names, and essentially, confronted her at the Penn-Line Bar on March 26, 1999. For that violation, we will incarcerate him for some period of time.

We also find that he failed to comply with the Order with respect to the obligation to "upon submission of an invoice, he shall pay for repair to a 1992 Cavalier Rs." He apparently was given an invoice and has not paid it yet. We wuld not incarcerate him for that. We would consider that to be civil contempt in an effort ot obtain a Court Order to gain compliance witha monetary paymetn and an Order.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. As punishment for the physical altercation on March 26, 1999, the defendant shall pay a fine of $100 and shall undergo improsonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of the monthe and a maximum term of 6 months, with work release privileges. If his jail conduct is perfect, he shall be automatically released at the expiration of his minimum sentence without the necessity of filing a motion with the Court. He shall be released to House Areest-Electronic Monitoring for an additional month and shall pay the costs of House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring. He shall be under the supervision of the Crawford County Adult Probation Department and will not be released until he meets with his Parole Officer. He shall comply with all of the conditions set forth in Crawford County Local Rule C1405 during the period of supervision. He shall pay an Offender Supervision Fee of $25 per month for each month he is on supervision after he meets his jail sentence and the House Arrest-Electronic Monitoring Program. Gordon R.
