Feb. 21, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Feb. 18, 1992 the Defendant's motion in limine to exclude evidence of damage to the household furnishings is granted.

The Court Finds that the Defendant knew for the first time that a claim on these items was being made on Jan. 9, 1992 even though suit was filed on Jan. 23, 1986, nearly six years ago, and that some of the items of personal property have been disposed of, destroyed, or altered so that the Defendant is surprised by this new factor, and prejudiced in that the Defendant is not now able to examine the items to determine whether or not they were damaged and the extent of the damage, and the actual cash value of the property.

We are going to prohibit the Plaintiffs from now making a claim and collecting and recovering for damage to personal property, and we are going to prohibit them from proving or attempting to prove the dollar loss to that property and the actual cash value of that property, but we will permit them to testify and present evidence that it was in fact damaged, and the cause of that damage, not as it bears on a recovery for those items but as it may bear on the damage to the roof and the other damages for which they did file a claim in the original complaint.

June 3, 1993 Order filed. AND NOW, June 2, 1993, after a full hearing to determine the whereabouts of Karen A. Baer, it is ORDERED as follows:
All remaining sums held by Brian J. Lindsay, Esquire, in escrow pursuant to this Court's Order of April 27, 1992, shall be released by Brian J. Lindsay, Esquire to Daniel L. Baer, Jr., solely, in order to close out the escrow fund and to allow Mr. Baer to pay some bills including, but not limited to repair of the dwelling that was damaged in this case for which dames payment was made by the Defendant pursuant to a jury verdict.
This Order is without prejudice to Karen A. Baer to later on claim a portion of these proceedings in any proceeding including but not liminted to equitable distribution for a divorce proceeding. The Court is not now determining the rights of Daniel L. Baer, Jr. and Karen A. Baer in and to these proceeds, but is simply allowing a termination of the escrow fund and a payment of the sums over to Daniel L. Baer, Jr. to bring this matter into some finality.
Upon payment by the escrow agent Brian J. Lindsay, Esquire, of the remaining sums in the account to or for the benefit of Daniel L. Baer, Jr., the escrow agent, Brian J. Lindsay, Esquire, is fully and completely released from all further liabiliy and responsibiliy with respect to said escrow account to any persons including Daniel L. Baer, Jr. and Karen A. Baer, and furthermore, he is not required to make any accounting for the activities that took place while he was the escrow agent. He shall keep, however, any and all bank statements and other information which has been furnished to him by the bank for at least seven (7) years in case Daniel L. Baer, Jr. and/or Karen A. Baer desire to look over those documents.

July 21, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, July 17, 1986, Court declines to hold the Defendant in contempt of Court at this time, but seriously condemns his conduct and his ongoing bickering with his wife in forn of the child and suggests to both parties that it is not in the best interest of the child for them to continue their conduct toweard each other as they have in the past.

To attempt to avoid further opportunities for nastiness between the parties, the Order of February 13, 1986 is modified in the following particulars:

1. The holiday visits provided for in Paragraph 4 thereof shall be from 9:00 o'clock A.M. until 8:00 o'clock p.m. on such holiday.

2. When the Defendant delivers the child to the Plaintiff's home on Monday moring, he shall let her promptly leave his vehicle upon arrival at the Plaintiff's home.

Apr. 4, 1986, copies of order to D. Ferguson, G. Sullivan and J. Fuller.

May 7, 1986 ORDER FILED: AND NOW, May 6, 1986, at the time hearing DeNovo on the custody issue is before the Court, the matter is discussed informally and the Court discusses the matter with the two older children in the presence of the attorney in chambers. The court has advised the parties generally what it believes would be an appropriate visitation schedule for the father and there being no strenuous objection, the Court enters the following order without the necessity of taking extensive testimony:

1. Legal custody of John, Cathleen, Christopher, and Melissa will be shared between mother and father and in regard to their schooling, health and medical needs, religious training, and general welfare of the children.

2. Primary physical custody of the children will be with the mother in the state of Ohio in the City of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and following visitation and partial custody is established for the father:

Beginning with the month of May and continuing monthly thereafter, the father shall be entitled to have the children in his custody from Friday at 4:00 p.m. until Sunday at 9 p.m. on the first and third weekends of each and every month except as noted hereafter:

During the time the children are in school, they will be returned by the father at 7 p.m. Sunday instead of 9 p.m.

The father shall be entitled to have the children in his exclusive custody for two weeks in June and two weeks in August and unless the parties agree otherwise, the June visit shall commence the third Sunday of June and the August visit will commence the first Sunday in August. The weeks aforesaid, unless the parties agree otherwise, will commence at noon on Sunday and end two Sundays later at 7 p.m.

Parties mutually agree that they will share the traditional holidays, and commencing with 1986 and yearly thereafter, the father will have the right to a meaningful custodial visit on Memorial Day; the mother , Fourth of July; the father, Thanksgiving; the mother, Christmas; and the father, Easter of 1987 and the parties shall alternate custody of the children in a rotational order following Easter of 1987.

The Court will leave to the parties a schedule to pick up and return the children for said holidays and the Court decrees that the noncustodial parent on the holiday in question will have the right to have a meaningful visit either before or immediately after the holiday so that the child, in effect, will share the five holidays with each parent.

The holiday visits will take priority over the weekend visits peviously awarded on the first and third weekends to the father and if the schedule for holidays comes on a weekend and it is the mother 's turn to have that holiday, the weekend visit will not take place.

The children will be picked up and returned to the home of the wife's mother, Mrs. Allgood, in Tallmadge, Ohio. The mother will see that there is an emergency phone number delivered to the father and both parties will keep the other advised in the event of any serious illness or accident affecting the children and will give immediate and prompt notice to the other parent in the event of the same.

In the event the father does not intend, because of business, health, or other reasons, to keep any weekend visit, extended summer visit, or holiday custodial visit, he will give the mother at least 24 hours advance notice. The father will strictly comply with the time schedules established in this order or the time schedules established by mutual agreement of the parties regarding the holiday visits and if an emergency arises that will cause a delay in returning the children, each parent will give prompt notice tto the other as to a delay in returning or picking up the children.

The Court notes extremen animosity between the parents and this animosity is reflected in the children's conversations with the Court. Accordingly, neither party, in private or in public or directly or indirectly to the children, will make derogatory remarks, use profanity, or denigrate the other parent in any regard. The Court notes the chidlren are sensitive about this issue and are not looking kindly on either parent who says unkind things about the other. The Court expects strict compliance with this condition.

Aug. 4, 1986 ORDER FILED: AND NOW, July 31, 1986, after hearing, the Court is satisfied that since its original Order of May 6, 1986, the father has violated the last page of that Order and has in the presence of the children called the mother dirty, filthy names and made derogatory remarks about her. Accordingly, we find that John Stas, father, is in violation of that paragraph of our previous Order, and accordingly, we find him in contempt of court. Punishment for contempt will be suspended at this time, but the Court cautions the Defendant that if it is satisfied at a future hearing that conduct of the type heard this day, as it relates to language in the presence of the children about their mother and the classification of the mother as a slut, a sleaze and a whore continues, that the Court will exercise punishment for contempt by severely limiting or denying visitations with the father.

Aug. 27, 1987 Memorandum and Order filed. AND NOW, August 27, 1987, further hearing on the request of John M. Stas to adjudicate Patti Stas, now Patti Christian, in contempt for failure to comply with the custody and visitation order of this court, is scheduled for September 9, 1987, at 10:30 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom 2, Courthouse, Meadville, Pa. The said Patti STas is ordered and directed to appear at that hearing.

Since the chidlren will presumably be in school by that date and it is impossible to schedule a hearing before Labor Day, the presence of the children at the contempt hearing is execused.

The Domestic Relations Division of the Court of Common Pleas of Summit County, Ohio, is respectfully requested to order the said Patti Stas, no known as Patti Christian, to appear before this Court and to postpone any proceedings pending before it until this Court has had the opportunity to hold a hearing and rule. The Court reserves the right to require payment of travel expenses after conclusion of the hearing is such an order is deemed appropriate.

Sept. 9, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, September 9, 1987, although it is clear that the mother as declined to follow the Order relating to visitation we decline to find her in contempt of court becuase of the factual matters which caused the refusal to abide by the Court Order. While it is apparent from the evidence that the father apparently due to various stresses in his life suffered a psychotic event in July of 1987 and apparently attempted suicide, there is no evidence that the children are in any danger by him h aving visits and we have explained to Mrs. Christian this date that some appropriate visitation must be arranged. We note that Dr. frank J. Yohe, a Board certified psychiatrist practicing in Meadville, has by a report dated August 13, 1987, which is before the Court, indicated that he finds no danger or detriment to the chidlren by reason of any condition from which the father may be presently suffering.

Counsel for Mrs. Christian has indicated that the Summit County, Ohio Court has delayed any further action on whether to afford full faith and credit to the decree of this Order in connection with custody and visitation until september 11, 1987. We will forward a copy of this Order to Judge Richard V. Zurz, to which will be attached the report of dr. Yohe for his information, that report having been admitted intothis hearing on the basis that while the mother does not necessarily accept the content of the report, her counsel has agreed that if Dr. Yohe were called as a witness, his testimony would be substantially that of the report.

Pending further hearing in the Courts of Summit County, Ohio, the father shallhave the right to visit his chidlren every other Saturday from 10:00 o'clock a.m. until 6:00 o'clock p.m. beginning with Saturday, september 12, 1987. This Order is a temporary Order and if the Ohio courts decline to exercise jurisdiction or modify the Order, any aprty in interest may come back to this Court for a more permanent arrangement.

July 7, 1987 Motion for Appointment of Master in Divorce and Order filed: AND NOW, July 8, 1987, Robert S. Bailey, Esquire is appointed Master in respect to the following claims: Dissolution of marriage on fault grounds and equitable distribution.
Deposit required: By plaintiff $200.00, By Defendant $ 200.00.

PER CURIAM,
Robert L. Walker, Judge

July 9, 1987 Copies of order to R. Charles Thomas and Joan Mason, Esqs. and Robert Bailey, Esq.

July 9, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, July 8, 1987, the plaintiff having requested the appointment of a Master and a Master having been appointed, the Court noting that the defendant has not filed an Inventory and Appraisement although the filing of that document is long overdue, the defendant is ordered to file his inventory and appraisement or or before July 22, 1987, or be barred from offering testimony as to the value and ownership of the marital property.

The Court notes that a hearing on a request for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees has been set for July 23, 1987 and in the event the required documents are not filed, that will be a factor to be considered by the Court ruling on the petition.

July 22, 1987 Defendant's Budget Information filed.

July 22, 1987 Inventory And Appraisement of Defendant filed.

July 24, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, July 23, 1987, after review of the parties' situation and their respective incomes, the Court notes that the matter will apparently be bitterly contested on an indignities ground as it is the contention of the Defendant/Husband that the wife is totally without grounds whatsoever to procure a divorce on these grounds, and that he will not consent to a 201(c) divorce.

After review of all of the facts, Court enteres the following Order:

Commencing with the week of July 26, 1987, the Defendant is DIRECTED TO PAY THE Plaintiff $20.00 per week alimony pendente lite for a period not to exceed sixteen (16) weeks unless extended further by Court Order and hearing.

The Defendant is DIRECTED to pay counsel fees tothe wife in an initial amount of $200.00, with $100.00 to be paid by August 1, 1987 and another $100.00 to be paid by September 1, 1987. In the event the matter becomes unduly protracted, the Court will entertain a motion for further counsel fees after October 1, 1987.

It appears the Court on July 8, 1987 required a deposit by the Plaintiff of $200.00 for Master's fees, and the Court DIRECTS that this amount be paid by August 15, 1987.

May 15, 1986 RE: PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF MASTER and Order Filed.

This matter is before the Court on a Petition for the Appointment of a Master in divorce. While the Complaint in this case is captioned as a Complaint under Section 201(c) (No-fault Divorce), we note that the requisite affidavits have not been filed by either party. The divorce contains an ancillary request for a divorce on the ground of indignities and apparently the Plaintiff intends to proceed on these grounds.

Accordingly, the Court hereby appoints Stephen Hall Master in this case to hear the divorce on the grounds of indignities only and under the following conditions. The Plaintiff will be required to deposit with the Prothonotary the sum of $250.00 to cover Master fees and court reporter fees. The Master is directed to procure the services of a court reporter to take the testimony at the divorce hearing. Unless the matter becomes contested, the Master need not order a transcription of said testimony but will write his report to the Court as Master based on his recollection of the facts. If the Matter becomes protracted, the Master may petition the Court for additional deposits.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 21, 1987 Copies of order to Brian Lindsay and Michael Halliday, Esqs.

June 11, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, June 9, 1987, the matter comes before the Court on a request for de novo hearing from the temporary Order entered March 6, 1987. The Court lacks the time due to crowded schedules to have an in depth hearing at this time, but explores the matter informally with the parents and their counsel.

It appears that minor child Donald, age five, is currently undergoing treatment or counseling at the Greenville Regional Hospital with a Clyde Hoffman, M.S.W. and that it has been recommended by Mr. Hoffman that he be further evaluated at an evaluation center in the Pittsburgh area known as Southwood.

The mother's posture in the matter is that the father is using every tactic possible to prevent the mother from having summer visits, and the weekend visits required by the Order of March 6, 1987. It is the father's position that from records from the children and from his prior experience, mother lacks the parenting capabilities to adequately look after the two children, particularly child Donald, whom it is reported has some mental or emotional problems, and the Court finds no way to totally resolve the issue at this time, but enters the following temporary Order:

The parties shall comply with the Order of March 6, 1987 to the end that commencing June 15, 1987 through August 20th, 1987, and yearly thereafter or until the Court Order is modified, the two children shall be primarily in the custody of the mother. During the rest of the year, the children will be primarily in the custody of the father.

During the time the children are in the custody of their respective parents, each parent shall have the right to have the children on the first and third weekends of every month commencing with the month of July, 1987, and unless the parents agree otherwise, the visits will be from Friday at 6:00 P.M. through Sunday at 8:00 P.M.

Until further Order, the holiday schedule for parental visits prescribed in Paragraph Three of the March 6, 1987 Order will control.

With regard to minor son Donald, it appears that he is scheduled for evaluation at Southwood, and both parents agree that in the event Southwood recommends an in-patient stay for evaluation or therapy, the child Donald will be placed in said facility, and both parents will cooperate in attempting to give such input as will enable an accurate evaluation and recommendation to be made. In the event child Donald is at said institution, it is obvious that the weekend visits and the stay with the mother during the summer months will be recinded and visits with either parent will take place on recommendation of the staff at Southwood.

The father is contending the mother's present facilities at 768½ Market Street may be inadequate care for the children, and accordingly, the Court entlists the aid of Crawford County Children & Youth Services and asks that Children & Youth Services make a visit to the home of the mother to ascertain if the facilities are adequate for the care of the children. In addition, the mother contends that a caseworker from Children & Youth Services may drop in periodically unannounced for the purpose of inspecting the premises, and seeing that the children are properly cared for while in the custody of the mother.

In regard to transportation for the summer visits, it shall be the mother's responsibility to take the children to the father on the first weekend of every month and pick them up and return them to her home. Likewise, on the third weekend of every month, it shall be the father's responsibility to pick up and return the child.

The Court requests copies of any evaluation done on either child.

In view of the allegations of possible sexual abuse by mother's former paramour, Kenneth Hill, it shall be a condition of this Order that under no circumstances will the mother have Kenneth Hill in her apartment, nor will she have Kenneth Hill in the presence of the children at any time either in the apartment or anywhere else.

The Court notes mother says she has terminated all association with Mr. Hill, but in the event she takes up association with him again, these conditions must be strictly complied with.

This matter is set for review August 27, 1987 at 2:00 P.M.

Each parent will keep the other fully advised abat any injuries to the children or any facts involving the children, which would normally be communicated between parents of children.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

June 15, 1987 Copies of Order to Michael Halliday, Brian Lindsay, William Pineo and C& YS.

Sept 1, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, August 27, 1987, the matter is back before the Court for review as previously ordered by the Order of June 9, 1987.

Counsel for the parties advise the Court that they have resolved any issues and that the relationship between the two of them has improved over what it was prior times and that except as noted below, the Order previously entered December 19, 1986, on recommendation of the Mediator shall continue.

Said Order, however, shall be modified as follows:

During the time the children are in custody of each of the parents, the other parent shall have the right to three weekend visits per month. On the first and third weekends, the visits shall be between 6:00 p.m. Friday and 8:00 p.m. Sunday.

On the first and third weekends, it shall be the father's responsibility to pick up and return the children.

Additionally, the non-custodial parent shall have the right to have the children in his custody on the second weekend of each month and the mother shall have the responsibility to pick up and return the children for these monthly visits.

In regard to the holidays of Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, the parties agree as follows: Primary custody shall be with the father but on Thanksgiving, the mother shall have the right to pick up the children Thanksgiving Day at 3:00 p.m. and retain them in her custody until the following Saturday at noon.

On Christmas Day, the mother will pick up the children at 3:00 p.m. and retain them in her custody until 8:00 p.m. on the 29th of December.

On Easter, the children will be in the custody of the mother from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

During the normal school spring vacation period, the parties mutually agree that they will divide said vacation period equally so that the children are in the custody of each parent approximately one-half of said vacation period. The Court leaves to the discretion of the parents as to allocating the visitation times but if the parents cannot agree, the Court directs that the mother shall have the first half of the vacation period and the father the last half of the vacation period.

As far as transporting the children back and forth, it shall be the responsibility of the father to deliver and pick up the children for the Thanksgiving and Christmas breaks and the responsibility of the mother to do so for the Easter vacation break. As far as the spring vacation period is concerned, it shall be the responsibility of the mother to pick up and deliver for her portion of the vacation and the responsibility of the father to pick up and return the children for his half of the vacation period.

The parties acknowledge that other matters regarding custody, visitaitons, and conduct not inconsistent with the modifications will be covered by the previous Order entered March 6, 1987.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. R. Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 11, 1986 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO William J. Hoover, Jr. personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Protection from Abuse with Temporary Order No. A.D. 1986-100 to him, on February 6, 1986, at 3:59 P.M. at his place of residence, R.D. #3, Saegertown, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

So Answers,

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sher
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Feb. 13, 1986, Order filed. AND NOW, February 11, 1986, at the time set for hearing, it appears the parties are in agreement that a protection from abuse order can be entered but the Defendant is concerned about some allegations of his misconduct set forth in the various paragraphs of the petition. Accordingly, the parties agree without litigating and taking testimony on whether or not the Defendant committed all of the acts that an order for protection from abuse can be entered. Accordingly, the Defendant is directed not to directly or indirectly harass, threaten, or annoy his wife or children in any fashion. He will not go to the place where she lives unless he is specifically invited by his wife and has her consent to visit her.

Parties tentatively agree that custody of the minor children will remain with the Plaintiff mother, but the father shall be accorded visits as follows:

1. Commencing the week of February 14-16, the child William will have visitations at the residence of his father between the hours of Friday at 6:00 p.m. and Sunday at 6:00 p.m. This visitation schedule will continue every other weekend until changed by the parties of further Court order.

It appears at this time the six year old female child Traudi has some reluctance about seeingf her father and accordingly, on the first visit or two she will not be required to go with her brother on said visits.

The father shall have the right to call and talk with her children at the residence of their mother at least twice a week at reasonalbe times and the goal of these calls is to establish between father and children and particularly for the father to take with the six year old daughter in an attempt to calm her down and convicne her that visits with the father would be appropriate.

The parents are hopeful that when the minor male child visits the father, it will be an inducement for the female child to make said visits and the mother is directed that for the visits of March 7-9 the daughter will accompnay the son for visits with the father on that weekend.

It shall be a condition of the telephone calls that the father will not have consumed alcoholic beverage for a period of six hours before he makes calls to his children and during said calls will not make derrogatory remarks about the mother or attempt to influence them not to comply with the rules and regulations established by the mother for their conduct.

Both parents will make certain that they make no derrogatory remarks about the other in the presence of the children and will encourage the children to have love and respect for each parent.

It appears the father in now attending AA meetings and it shall be a condition of the w eekend vists that the father may not consume alcoholic beverages for a period of at least six hours beofre the arrival of the children and during the visits of the children while they are in his presence.

It shall be the obligation of the father to arrange the pickup and return of the children and the parties agree athat the father's parents shall pick up the children and return them.

It appears the Defendant husband still occupies the marital domicile and the parties mutually agree that on February 19, 1986, at approximately 3:00 p.m., the wife may return to said residence for the purpose of picking up her clothing, her house plant, the children's clothing and the toys. During that time, the parties will not make threats toward each other inany in any fashion and the hsuband will be cooperative in seeing that all of the property of the above nature which was left behind by the wife is present in the house and will make no efforts to damage, give away of destroy said property until it is picken up by the wife.

The County is directed to pay costs in this case.

This order shall be in effect for a period of 12 months unless sooner rescinded by the Court,

Mar 18, 1986 ORDER SETTING HEARING FILED: AND NOW, March 18, 1986, the court having been advised that the above defendant is presently in the Crawford County Jail in alleged violation of the Court's Order of February 11, 1986, hearing is hereby set for March 19, 1986, at 11:00 A.M.

By order of the court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

March 18, 1986 Copies of order to Margaret Eglinton and Brian Lindsay, Esqs.

Mar. 19, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 19, 1986 after hearing, the Court finds as a fact that the Defendant intentionally and willfully violated the first paragraph of this Court's order of Feb. 11, 1986, in that he went to the residence of his wife when he was not specifically invited and did not have her consent to do so and stayed there and annoyed her after he was advised to leave the premises. Accordingly we find the defendant in willful and deliberate contemp of this Court order and as punishment for said contempt he is hereby sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail effective Mar. 17, 1986, for a minimum term of fifteen (15) days and a maximum term of six months to be paroled if his conduct is exemplary inthe Crawford County Jail at the end of the fifteen-day period on the following conditions:

1. He must strictly comply with the first paragraph of the Court's Order of Feb. 11, 1986.

2. In the event any police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that there in another violation of Paragraph one of said order, police may promptly arrest the defendant without further warrant and lodge him in the nearest jail and request a further contempt hearing.

It further appears that in order to affectuate an arrest of the defendant in Mercer County, a harassment charge is now pending before District Justice Gabany in Mercer County. It appears this charge was felt to be an administrative necessity to procure a warrant by the police and in view of the sentence this date imposed, Barbara Hoover is no longer interested in pursuing the harassment charge in Mercer County and upon the ultimate payment of costs in the case by the defendant, the District Justice is requested to dismiss the charge without the necessity of ruther hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard thomas, P.J.

Mar. 20, 1986, copies of order to Attys. M. Eglinton, Brian Lindsay, District Justice Jos. V. Gabany, of Mercer County, and Sheriff of Crawford Co.

Apr. 16, 1986 Petition For Contempt and Order filed. AND NOW, this 16th day of April, 1986, upon consideration of the Petition for Contempt, a rule is hereby issued upon defendant William J. Hoover, to show cause, if any he has, why said petition should not be granted. This Rule is returnable on the 23rd day of April, 1986, at 9:30 o'clcok A.M. in Court Room No. 1 of the Crawford County Court House, at which time defendant may appear and show cause, if any he has, why said Petition should not be granted.

The defendant is hereby advised that a violation of a Protection From Abuse Order may include imprisonment up to six months or a fine not to exceed $1,000 or both.

The Defendant is also advised that if he wishes to defend this lawsuit, he must take action by appearing personally or by an attorney, at the hearing scheduled above. The defendant is warned that if he fails to do so, the case may proceed without him further relief requested by the petitioner.

The Crawford County Sheriff's Deparmtent is directed to serve a certified copy of this Petition and ORder upon the defendant.

Plaintiff is allowed to proceed without payment of Court costs reserving the right to the Court to impose costs.

THE DEFENDANT SHOULD TAKE THESE PAPERS TO HIS LAWYER AT ONCE. IF HE DOES NOT HAVE A LAWYER OR CANNOT AFFORD ONE, HE SHOULD GO TO OR TELEPHONE THE OFFICE SET FORTH BELOW TO FIND OUT WHERE HE CAN GET LEGAL HELP.

So answers,

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Apr. 23, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, April 23, 1986, at the time set for a hearing on an alleged contempt of the Defendant for violating prior Court Orders the Defendant fails to appear, and the Court is satisfied from the testimony and from the Sheriff's return that the Defendant had adequate notice of this hearing.

Testimony at this hearing convincingly shows the Court that its Orders of February 11, and March 19, 1986 have been wiffully and intentionaly violated and accordingly, the Defendant is found in contempt of court for violation of said Orders, in that he specifically and repearedly called his wife and threatened to kill her, with the resulting terrorizing effect on the wife.

The Court notes that it previously sentenced the Deendant to a fifteen (15) day to six (6) month sentence in the Crawford County for violation of this Order, but paroled him on strict conditions, which have now been violated. Accordingly, Court DIRECTS the Sheriff to apprehend the Defendant and confine hom in the Crawford County Jail for service of the balance of the fifteen day to six month sentence imposed March 19, 1986.

Hoover vs. Hoover A.D. 1986 - 100 Abuse

A copy of this Order shall be a sufficient warrant of authority for the Sheriff his deputy or any other authorized police officer to apprehend the Defendant, to carry out this Order.

The Court will be notified when the Defendant is apprehended, and incarcerated but the burden shall be on the Defendant to file a detailed petition with the Court as to why he should be released from confinement before service of the maximum term of six (6) months.

In the meantime, all orders authorizing visitation or cummunication of any kind between the Defendant and his children are rescinded, and the Plaintiff is not required to carry out previous orders regarding visitaiton and contact between the father and the children.

June 4, 1992 Memorandum Filed.This is a divorce action and the Court currently has before it a document entitled "Order" which is dated in June of 1991 and a "Stipulation" attached to the front of it dated June 2, 1992 signed by the parties and their attorneys asking the Court to enter the order as if it had been entered following a full hearing on the merits in the matter.
In reviewing the proposed order, it includes a paragraph granting a divorce in this matter and a review of the record indicates that nothing has been done to file Affidavits of Consent with respect to this matter nor is the action in a correct posture for a unilateral divorce to be granted.
Accordingly, the Court will return the papers to the Prothonotary so that this matter may be put in the proper posture for theCourt to act. Upon an appropriate praecipe to do so, the Court will be able to act with respect to this matter.

Crawford County Bar Assoc., Ser. to the Public Committee 360 Chestnut St., Meadville, Pa. 16335 814 724-7719

By the Court,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Feb 20, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, February 19, 1986, atthe time this abuse petition is scheduled for hearing, the parties appear with their respective counsel and advise the Court the matter has been amicably resolved in the following fashion:

1. The wife shall remove from the common home at R.D.#2, Rising Sun Estates, Conneaut Lake, Pennsylvania, and is taking up residence with her parents.

2. Husband will continue occupancy of the marital residence.

3. Primary custody of the child will temporarily be awarded to the mother, with visitation rights accorded to the father. In this regard, the parties mutually agree that until a more formal Order regarding custody and visitation is entered by a Custody Mediator or the Court, that father shall have the right to have visitations with the two and one-half year old minor child every other weekend commencing with the weekend of February 21-23, 1986. The arrangements is that the mother of the child will deliver the child to the father's parent's home at R.D.#3, Linesville, Pennsylvania, every other weekend on Friday at 3:30 p.m. and the child shall remain in the custody of the father and grandparents until 5:00 p.m., Sunday, at which time, the grandparents will deliver the child to the home of the mother.

4. Until the matter can be resolved by more formal support proceedings, the parties mutually agree that the husband will pay support for the minor child in the amount of $30.00 per week until the matter is resolved by reference to the Domestic Relations Office or a more formal agreement between the parties.

5. The husband agrees that he will not directly or indirectly harass, annoy or assault the plaintiff/wife or threaten her in any fashion or procure others to do so on his behalf. This conditions shall remain in force and effect for a period of one(1) year unless modified by agreement of the parties.

6. The Court notes that the wife has engaged private counsel to proceed with a divorce action and the divorce action in all likelihood will contain counts for custody, alimony pendente lite and child support. which will be resolved in ancillary proceedings upon reference to the Court.

7. Since both parties are gainfully employed, the Court directs that each party will pay one-half of the costs in this proceeding, with said costs to be paid within thirty (30) days of thjs date directly to the Prothonotary's Office. In default of payment of the amount to the Prothonotary, he will bill each party and the Court expects this Order regarding payment of costs to be faithfully complied with.

BY THE COURT
Robert L. Walker, J.

Feb. 27, 1986 Affidavit of Service filed. I, JAMES R. STEADMAN, Esquire attorney for the Respondent, Clayton E. Webber, hereby accept service of a copy of the original Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act in the above-captioned matter on behalf of the Respondent, Clayton E. Webber, and state I received the same on February 20, 1986.

James R. Steadman, Esq.

Mar. 3, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, February 28, 1986, at the time this matter is called for hearing, it appears the defendant is unrepresented by counsel and is not sure whether he should be represented. The defendant wishes to raise collateral matters of custody, visitation and proper care rendered to the children by his wife and contneds that any arguments between the parties arise because he finds the children in the home unattedned by the wife.

The wife's posture is that not only is this not true but that she does not want him coming to the home where he destroys property and threatens to assault her. ACCORDINGLY, the defendants is ordered not to go to the home of his wife nor is he permitted to annoy, harass, threaten or assault her in any fashion.

The Court has already entered a Support Order in this case which is processed through the Domestic Relations Office.

The Court is advised that there was a former custody action between the parties in this case beofre the parties reconciled. Since the husband is now, contneding the children are not properly cared for, that he desires custody and desires certain visittions, the matter will be referred to William Pineo, Custody Meidator, under the old now inactive custody action at A.D. 1982-173, and the parties will receive notice of a hearing before a Mediator to resolve the custody and visitation aspects of this case.

The defendants is cautioned that if he violates this Order and proceeds to the house of hiw wife or threatens her or assaults or annoys her, he is subject to contempt of court and will be appropriately punished.

In the meantime, before the matter can be processed by a Custody Mediator, the Court recommends the parties meet this date and work out some satisfactory arrangement for the father to visit the children outside of the wife's home so he may maintain contact with his three children. COURT ORDER:

AND NOW, this 18th day of Feb. 1986, upon presentation and considerationof the within Petition, it is adjudged and decreed that a hearing on this Appeal shall be held on the 30 day of April, 1986 at 1:30 P.M. at theCrawford County Court House, Meadville, Pa., in Court Room No. 1 or 2, or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had.

Thirty (30) days written notice shall be given by the Petitioner to theDepartment of Transportation Bureau ofTraffic Safety Operations, Citation Processing Division, Rm. 302, Trans. and Safety Bldg., Harrisburg, Pa. 17120., by certified mail, return receipt requested.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

May 1, 1986, ORDER filed, AND NOW, April 30, 1986, it appearing that the Defendant pled guilty on Nov. 7, 1985 to three (3) separate summary violations at the same time that he was placed on Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition for Driving Under the Influence, the three (3) summary offenses being Failing to Drive at a Safe speed, a violation of Section 3361; Failing to Stop at a Stop sign, a violation of Section 3323; and Failing to Stop at a Flashing Signal, a violation of Section 3114, and was assessed on three (3) different dates a total of eight (8) points; two (2) points for the speeding violation; and three (3) points for each of the other violations; and it further appearing that at the time of the assessment of those points, the Defendant had a total of three (3) points, giving him a total of eleven (11) points, which triggered a notice of suspension of three hundred sixty-five (365) days, under Section 1539(b) of the Motor Vehicle Code, but it also appearing that there is no copy of any notice sent to the Defendant relating to the proper two point assessment, although there are copies of notices of the other point assessments.

We find that the two (2) point assessment is invalid under Section 1536 of the Vehicle Code for failure to send a notice to the Defendant at his last known address, and therefor, the accummulation of valid points is nine (9), and the Defendant's operator's license is not subject to suspension. Now, therefor, the Defendant's appeal is sustained, and the Secretary of Transportation is DIRECTED to restore his driving privileges at this time.

No. 1 or 2, Court House, Meadville, Pa. which hearing shall be limited to the factual issues relating to the temporary suspension of visitation privileges. Nov. 22, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, November 22, 1989, at the time fixed for hearing, the evidence in this case presents an extremely difficult credibility question. Under these circumstances, the visitation schedule is temporarily modified to provide that until further Order of Court, visitations between the Defendant and the child, Shannon, shall be held at the home of and under the general supervision of the Defendant's parents, Walter and Joan Reese, and the visitation schedule shall remain as it has been.

There has been evidence of use by the Defendant of controlled substances, which the Defendant vehemently denies. Shannon is six (6) years old, and it is difficult to see how she could have described what she did describe, in fact, to her mother and to her mother's lawyer, without having seen such conduct in some context. At the Court's suggestion, both parties have agreed to urinalysis for the purpose of checking for substance abuse, and both parties shall report to Mr. Robert O'Shea at a time fixed by him for the purpose of such testing, and Mr. O'Shea will make a report to the Court upon completion thereof, after which, if appropriate, a further Order will be entered or a further hearing scheduled as deemed necessary.

Each of the parties shall submit to random testing for substance abuse by Robert O'Shea at such times as he may establish during the next ninety (90) days.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, Judge.

Mar 22, 1990 Petition for Contempt and Order filed: AND NOW, this 22 day of March, 1990, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition a hearing is hereby set for the 25 day of April, 1990, at 9:30 o'clock in Courtroom #1 or 2.

Mar 30, 1990 Affidavit of Service of Petition for Contempt filed.

Apr. 25, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, April 25, 1990, this matter is before the Court on a petition for contempt wherein the Plaintiff contends that an agreement between the parties reduced to Court Order required the Defendant to make payments on a mobile home, with said agreement being dated June 30, 1986. It is contended the Defendant failed to comply with this agreement, and there is now due and owing on the agreement $4,079.81 plus $798.73 in lot rental and unpaid taxes, making a total of $4,878.54.

At the time of hearing, the Defendant fails to appear, but the Court is presented with a letter apparently signed by the defendant dated April 23, 1990, wherein the Defendant offers to pay the aforesaid sum at the rate of $150.00 per month.

The Court finds the defendant in contempt of court for failing to comply with the 1986 agreement as ordered by the court. The Court notes that this Court has no resire to use court time and staff to monitor the Defendant's proposed monthly payments, which would last for approximately three (3) years.

The Court observes that if the Defendant offers to pay $150.00 per month, he could borrow said money from a lending institution an dpay the same off in monthly installments, so that the entire principal could be paid to the Plaintiff forthwith.

This hearing in continued until May 29, 1990 at 3:00 p.m. The Court advises the defendant unless the entire unpaid balance is paid by said date, the Court will impose appropriate punishment for contempt.

The Court further advises the Defendant that it will not enter a Court Order requiring the payment of monthly installments, but if the defendant and the Plaintiff wish to enter into said separate agreement, secured by whatever security is deemed appropriate, the Court woul dhav eno objection.

PETITION FOR PROTECTION FROM ABUSE

3 copies (atty)

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 26 day of Feb. 1986, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a hearing thereon is scheduled for the 6 day of March, 1986, at 3:00 P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pa.

The Defendant is directed to refrain from abusing, threatening to abuse, or harassing the Plaintiff.

The Defendant is excluded immediately and forthwith from the marital residence, which is located at R. D. #1, Townville, Pa., pending the hearing scheduled above and the plaintiff is given exclusive possession of the above residence. All keys to the marital residence are to be given forthwith to the plaintiff.

The plaintiff is hereby awarded temporary custody of the minor children; Richard Marvin and Nicole Marvin.

The Crawford County Sheriff Department is directed to serve a certified copy of this Petition and it's Order upon the defendant.

The City of Meadville Police department and/or the State Police of the Com. of Pa. are directed to enforce this Order and to prevent the return of the defendant to the aforesaid premises by any appropriate means.

This Petition and order shall be filed and served without payment of costs; the Court shall determine at the hearing if the Defendant shall be required to pay the costs.

The defendant is hereby advised of his right to be represented by counsel. and he is notified that his failure to attend the hearing scheduled above may have serious legal consequences.

The defendant should take this paper to his lawyer at once. If he does not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, he should go to or telephone the office of set forth below to find out where he can get legal help.

Crawford County Bar Assoc., Ser. to the Public Committee, 360 Chestnut St, Meadville, Pa. 16335 814 - 724-7719.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Mar. 10, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, March 6, 1986, after informal hearing, the Court is satisfied that the Defendant has abused his family and that an Abuse Order is appropriate. Accordingly, the Defendant is absolutely prohibited from contacting his wife either directly or indirectly or going to any place where she resides or is visiting and is absolutely prohibited from directly or indirectly threatening her in any fashion, assaulting her in any fashion or harassing, annoying or threatening their children.

By agreement of the parties, the husband's personal possessions will be gathered together by the wife and delivered to the husband's mother.

The Court notes at this time that there apparently is a Defiant Trespass charge pending against the Defendant in Ronald A. Cole, Sr., District Justice Office, and he is currently reposed in the Crawford County Jail in default of $3,000.00 bond.

The Court requests Drug & Alcohol Commission to make an in-jail visit, as the family members contend the Defendant is a habitual abuser of marijuana, and that his conduct becomes uncontrillable when he is under the influence of that drug. There is also some evidence by the family that the Defendant's mental condition is deter iorating, and they believe the Defendant is in need of some counseling, and perhaps mental evaluation and help.

Copy of this Order will be forwarded to District Justice Ronald A. Cole, Sr.

Custody of the children is awarded to the wife, and nay visitation between father and children will have to be by agreement in the future between the parents or by additional court hearing.

Court finds the Plaintiff in this action to be indigent at this time, and accordingly, no costs are assessed against her. Court may eventually impose total costs in this case on the Defendant.

This Order shall be in effect for a period of twelve (12) months unless rescinded sooner.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

April 1, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, April 1, 1986, the Defendant is released on nominal bond cosigned by the Sheriff for appearance at such times as directed by the District Attorney and also under the following special conditions of his bond:

1. He may not go to the residence of his mother nor threaten her in any fashion. However, this does not preclude telephon conversations with the mother of a non-treatening nature.

2. He shall strictly comply with the terms and conditions of an abuse petition order entered by this Court March 6, 1986.

3. He shall be permitted to leave the state of Pennsylvania for his reserve duty at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, on the condition that he return promptly.

Feb 17, 1987 Affidavit of Service of Feb. 10, 1987 Order of Entry of Non-Pros by Judge Thomas filed.

Feb. 24, 1987 Informational Narrative and Order filed. On or about Feb. 17, 1987, this Court received a telephone cal 1 from Plaintiff Thomas Blaho questioning the reason why the court enteredits non pros order Feb. 10, 1987. Mr. Blaho advised this court that he had complied with our previous order of Oct. 28 directing the filing of a complaint by Dec. 19, 1986, and had in fact said complaint pro se December 18, 1986, in the Prothonotary's office. The court asked Blaho if he had served a copy on opposing counsel and the answer was in the affirmative. The court made telephone contact with counsel Schaaf, attorney for Zehner and counsel Bebenek, counsel for Parke-Davis. Both counsel advised the court they had not received a copy of the pro se complaint filed Dec.18,1986. In checking with the Prothonotary's Office the court discovered said pro se complaint, but notes that the complaint listed only James M. Zehner, M.D., as a Defendant and did not list Parke-Davis, who was listed as a Defendant in the original summons.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before August 5, 1997. You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

PERFETTI, Individually and doing business as PERFETTI TRUCKING COMPANY and RONALD LEE STIFFLER, Defendants versus RUSSELL BOWSER and the EDWARD CORPORATION, Additional Defendants

Casue Heavy HAULING Company, by agreement ofthe parties, no longer is a party to the second action as an Additional Defendant and had already withdrawn as a Plaintiff.

The Edward Corporation was the owner ofthe Bowser trailer, which was being acquired under a lease/purchase agreement by Russell Bowser. The Russell Bowser tractor was under I.C.C. permanent lease to Case Heavy Hauling Company. There is dispute between the parties as to whether Robert Robert Bowser was an agent of Russell Bowser or an independent contractor in possession of the Russell Bowser tractor and the Edward Corporation trailer, which is one of the interrogatories that must be answeered bythe jury.

If the Plaintiff refuses to file an affidavit of consent, the Court may, upon appropriate request, enter a judgment of non pros. If the Defendant refuses to file an affidavit of consent, Plaintiff's only remedy would be to amend the complaint to make allegations for a fault divorce ff he has grounds for such proceeding.

Date: Dec 2, 1988

Dec. 2, 1988 Copies of order to Gerald Sullivan, Bruce Barrett and Jos. Barnhart and John Fuller

Dec. 8, 1988 Proof of Service of foregoing Motion and Order to Pamela Kuberry filed.

Dec. 16, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, December 15, 1988, at the time fixed for hearing on a petition otb adjudicate contempt, and after an informal discussion between the parties, to hearing on the petition on adjudication for contempt is continued to be rescheduled if necessary upon motion of any party in interest.

The parties agree that the father did not have a visit on the weekend of November 4th, because the child refused to go and had no visit on the weekend of November 18th, because the child was apparently ill, and also missed his Thanksgiving visit because of that illness, and the subsequent weekend visit.

The parties agree that weekend visits will be reinstated and the Order will be strictly adhered to by all parties. We will advise the parties that we will not permit a five-year old child to run the show,and we will expect the child to be prepared to go on any visit that is scheduled, except in cases of serious illness.

By agreement of the parties, the following temporary changes are made in the Order of May 16, 1988:

A. The father is entitled to a visit the weekend beginning December 16, 1988. The Mother's sister is planning to be married on Sunday, December 18th and wishes to have Maria in the wedding party, as a flower girl; therefor, the weekend visit may be interrupted by the mother picking up the child for the time necessary for the wedding rehearsal on December 17th and for time necessary for the wedding and reception on December 18th. As compensation therefor, the father shall have the child on December 18th from one-half hour after the kindergarten session is over until 7:00 o'clock P.M.

B. To compensate for those weekends the father was not permitted to visit, he shall have the child from 7:00 o'clock P.M. on December 26th, the end of the defined Christmas holiday in the present Order, and shall return the child on December 30th at 7:00 o'clock P.M.

C. The present Order requires that the mother remain in the residence of her parents. She has now arranged for her own living quarters in property owned by the Titusville Housing Authority on East Spruce Street, and the father has agreed at this hearing that he has no objection to that move and the change of residence is, therefor, approved.

Aug. 16, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, this 16th day of August, 1989 court orders and decrees as follows:

1. The parties hereto were married May 1, 1976, and remain married at this time.
2. The Plaintiff is Marlene J. West, now age thirty-two (32), born May 6, 1956, social security #524-64-5383, current address 746 North Uncompahgre, Montrose, Colorado 81401.
3. The Defendant is Dale M. West, age forty (40), born August 26, 1948, social security #275-44-8886, current address 4219 North Elston Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60618.
4. During the entire course of the marriage, the defendan thas been employed by the United States ARmy, active duty, and has creditable years of service in excess of ten (10) years, some having been accumulated prior to the date of this marriage.
5. The court finds as a fact that the military retired pay of the Defendant, Dale M. West is marital property under the Pennsylvania Divorce Code as to that portion acquired from date of marriage to the present, and is therefore subject to equitable distribution between the parties.
6. The court hereby divides the military retired pay portion of the marital property of the parties' as follows, accor ding to the formula set forth below:

$$\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{\text{Total months from date of marriage (5/1/1976) until (date of divorce decree)}}{\text{total months of creditable military service}}$$

A certified copy of the divorce decree will be provided by wife, to The Army Finance and Accounting Center, upon entry by the court after same is final.

Deduction from the gross military retired pay shall be the minimum allowed (except that the survivor benefit plan cost shall be deducted, as required by law), and with each person to pay any taxes on his or her received share.

7. Dale M. West hereby voluntarily elects to provide for the benefit of the Plaintiff, Marlene J. West, maximum survivor benefits under the survivor benefit plan, (presently found at 10 U.S. Code 1447-1455). In accordance with their agreement, and with the Defendant's voluntary election, he shall notify the United States ARmy Finance and Accounting Center (current address being as follows):

Commander, U.S. Army Finance and Accounting Center
Legal Office
Indianapolis, Indiana 46249-0160,

both now (within 60 days of the date of this order) and at the time he elects retirement, that he is also electing the maximum survivor benefit plan for the sole benefit of the Plaintiff Marlene J. West (social security #524-64-5380), who will at that time be his former spouse. He shall also execute promptly any additional documents to implement these and all provisions of this Agreement and Order, and provide copies to Marlene J. West.

In the event that Dale M. West remarries, he shall have the right, if he so elects, to amend the election so as to split the maximum survivor benefits so that Marlene J. West shall receive that portion of the benefit that is represented by the following fraction:

$$\frac{\text{total months from date Dale M. West entered military service until month of marriage to subsequent spouse}}{\text{Total months from date Dale M. West entered military service until first month of retirement.}}$$

In the event that Dale M. Est survives his subsequent spouse, or that they divorce, he shall designate Marlene J. Est as sole recipient of the maximum survivor benefits under the survivor benefit plan, and if he has not done so but the divorce decree between Dale M. West and said subsequent spouse is furnished to the military by the Plaintiff, Marlene J. West, the maximum survivor benefit shall belong to Marlene J. West.

8. The Defendant at the time of his retirement, or in advance thereof at such time as he knows he is going to retire, shall notify his former spouse, Marlene J. West of his intention to retire, and shall provide her with a copy of the letter and necessary paperwork, whereby he elects the survivor benefits plan. PETITION FOR SPECIAL RELIEF

RULE TO SHOW CAUSE:
AND NOW, this 26th day of March 1986, upon presentation of the foregoing Motion, a Rule is hereby issued upon Defendant to appear and show cause, if any why the relief requested by plaintiff should not be granted. This Rule shall be returnable and a hearing held thereon on April 8, 1986, at 9:30 A.M. in C. R. No. 1, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pa.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.
Mar. 27, 1986, copy of order to Atty. T. Watts.

Apr. 9, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 8, 1986, at the time fixed for hearing on Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief, it appearing that the divorce action was filed at A.D. 1984 - 880 on Sept. 25, 1984 and made no request for any relief other than a dissolution of the marriage, and it further appearing that the parties may have entered into some informal agreement regarding distribution of marital assets, but in any event, have not consummated such an agreement, and the Court believing it is without authority to grant such relief requested in a Petition for Special Relief, without some underlying pleadings requesting distribution of property, the request for special relief is denied at this time, without prejudice to the right of either party after the record is clarified and the issues properly before the Court to request any special relief that any party may deem appropriate.

It is noted that the petition for special relief bears an identification of 1985- 238, the Prothonotary file bears an identification of 1986- 238, and the divorce action bears a file number of 1984 - 880 and the Prothonotary is DIRECTED to consolidate all matters at the original divorce action number and term.

April 4, 1986 Copies of order to Brian Lindsay, Esq.

Apr. 7, 1986 Affidavit Of Service filed. CAROL KING, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that she is a competent adult, that she served a copy of the Temporary Order for Protection From Abuse and the Amended Temporary Order filed in the above matter on the Pennsylvania State Police Department, personally, by handing them a true and correct copy thereof at the Pennsylvania State Police Department, Murray Road, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335 on Wednesday, April 2, 1986 at approximately 4:35 p.m.

I verify that the statements made in this Affidavit are true and correct. I understand that false statements herein made are subject to the penalties of 18 Pa. C.S. §4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. Carol King

April 10, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, April 7, 1986, at the time the matter is set for hearing, the matter is explored informally between counsel and the parties and it appears the Defendant is contending that the abuse act may not be applicable because the parties are no longer living together and the incident that brought the matter to Court actually occurred outside the residence of either party and while Plaintiff was transporting the Defendant in her automobile. However, the parties mutually agree to a three-month continuance of this case without formal adjudication but on the following conditions:

1. The Defendant shall have the right to have custody of his two minor children every Thursday between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 7:00 P.M.

In view of the fact that arguments have ensued when the parties met face to face to carry out the visitation order, the parties mutually agree that a relative of the father will pick up the children at the residence of the mother and will return them so that the parties will not have the opportunity to meet face to face in the exchange of the children thus generating arguments.

If the Defendant secures employment and would be unable to have the children for a meaningful visit on Thursdays, the parties mutually agree that the visitation day will be changed to Sunday.

The Defendant agrees that he will not annoy or harass Plaintiff by telephone or in writing and will not communicate with her except to report any illness or accident involving the children while they are in his custody/

2. The Defendant agrees he will not go to the place of the Plaintiff's residence for any purpose except on the one condition noted below and will not have others to ther for the purpose of annoying or harassing the Plaintiff..

It appears the Defendant has a 1969 automobile in the garage of the Plaintiff whicj os inoperable and will require repairs in order to move. The Plaintiff is fearful that the Dfendant, under the guise of working on his automobile, will come to the house and annoy and harrass her. The parties mutually agree that if the Defendant wishes to come to the house for an extended period of time to work on the car and make it operable or to bring a wrecker there to remove the car, he will give the Plaintiff at least 48 hours notice by phone of the date and time that he is coming to work on the car or removing the same, he will not annoy or harass the Plaintiff nor will he attempt to enter her home for any purpose. In this regard, Defendant agrees he will bring a M r. Cooledge withihim, mutual friend, to assure that the provisions of this paragraph are not violated.

If all the terms and conditions of this order are satisfied and complied with, the Court will consider this matter terminated at the end of three months from this date without further order of court.

Dec. 30, 1988 Affidavit of Consent of Defendant filed.

Dec. 30, 1988 Upon praecipe of Plaintiff attorney To Transmit REcord, this case moved to court.

Jan. 26, 1989 Order filed. The matter comes before the Court for grant of a 201(c) divorce,but we find the same not to be in a posture to grant the request. The pleadings in the form of an amended complaint which were filed May 18, 1988, raise collateral issues of permanent alimony, alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and child custody. The record shows no evidence that these collateral claims have been withdrawn or resolved by amicable agreement.

Following the custom of this Court, we decline to grant the divorce and reserve the collateral matters for future disposition unless it appears it was the clear intent of the parties for the Court to do so.

Accordingly, we return this divorce to the Prothonotary's Office pending clarification of how the Court is to treat the ancillary claims raised in the pleadings.

AND NOW, September 19, 1986, upón presentation and consideration of the foregoing Petition, a Rule is hereby entered upon the defnednat, Michal Petronio, to show cause, if anyhe has, why he should not held in contempt of the Court ORder as aforesaid.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

Sept. 22, 1986 Copies of order to Joseph Kulwicki

Oct. 1, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, September 26, 1986, after hearing, it appears that the allegations of violation of the April 8, 1986 abuse Order of the Court center around the fact tha the Defendant waved his hand at the Plaintiff four or five times as their cars passed on the highway, and that he sent a plant to her on or about the time of her birthday, August 21 or 22, which delivered to her place of business, with a card attached thereto, with the Defendant's first name thereon.

The Plaintiff verbalizes these incidents puts her in fear as she expects strict compliance with the Court's previous Order preventing contact between the parties.

The Court finds these acts in technical violation of its April 8th Order, but believes the violations are not of such a serious nature as to find the Defendant formally in contempt and impose punishment therefor.

Accordingly, the Court finds the two alleged violations did occur, but they are of such an insignificant incident that it does not deserve a contempt finding. However, the Defendant is strictly cautioned that in view of the fact the Court accepts as a fact that the Plaintiff is in fear of the Defendant, that there will be absolutely no direct or indirect contact between the parties unless it is for the purpose of resolving divorce matter in the divorce now pending, and is done while the partie's attorney are present.

Defendant is cautioned that any further seemingly significat violations of the April 8 Order, shich indicate an attempt to contact, placate, reconcile or threaten the Plaintiff will be considered on rehearing as a violation of this Order, and justify a contempt finding.

AND NOW, this 4 day of April 1986, upon hearing on the Petition for Change of Venue, the Court finds that the most convenient form for the parties in this matter would be the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County. This decision is made upon consideration of the facts that already the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County has entertained custody and child support actions incident to the separation ofthe parties; Crawford County was the marital residence of the parties until the date of separation; the marital property is located in Crawford County; almost all of the witnesses who would be potential witnesses in this case reside in Crawford County; and the dft. is a paraplegic who is bothered more by travel than would be the case for the mother. Accordingly it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the case be transferred to the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County. All of the expenses incident to the transfer are to be paid by the defendant. Prothonotary of Lycoming County will forward to the Prothonotary of Crawford County certified copies of the docket entries, process pleadings, and any other papers filed in the action.

Apr. 14,. 1986, copy of order to Atty. Toomey.

Apr. 23, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, April 17, 1986, at the time this matter is before the Court, the Defendant contends that many of the items of furniture that are listed in the petition have been sold to pay joint obligations and that the Buick Regal car is in his possession but becuase payments thereon are in default, the bank is threatening to repossess the same. Accordingly, since this divorce was only filed April 14, 1986, the Court believes it lacks the power to resolve the issue of the sale of jointly owned assets prior to the filing of the divorce.

The parties are in a dispute regarding the wife's claim that she left considerable personal clothing and clothing for the children in various drawers, closets, and the attix at the marital domicle, and the Defendant/Husband's posture is that she returned in late December and took the same and that there is nothing left.

The Court directs that the Plaintiff/Wife may proceed forthwith to the marital domocile, make a thorough inspection of the house, and may remove therefrom any of her personal clothing and personal effects such as jewelry, overshoes, or personal pictures, as well as clothing and toys of the children. She may be in the premises between the hours of 3:15 p.m. and 3:45 p.m. for the purpose of doing the same and the Defendant is directed that he may not go to the premises or go near the premises until 4:00 p.m. this date.

The Court makes the foreging order for the reason that it is alleged by the Plaintiff that she is afraid she will be accosted by the Defendant if they are in the former marital domicle together.

Other than this provision, the other matter raised in the petition are moot and the Court declines to act on the same.

June 17, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, June 16, 1986 ,the matter is before the Court on a petition filed April 22, 1986, by the Plaintiff-Husband to prevent the destruction and removal of marital assets from the marital home and a petition filed June 6, 1986, by the Defendant-Wife requesting special relief in allowing her to move personal property from the marital residence and preventing the disposition, encumbering or destruction of her personal assets or marital property.

After extensive discussion, the parties have not been able to amicably resolve the property issue but the Court notes that the Defendant-wife agrees without admitting to the facts of the petition filed April 22, 1986, that she will not make any threats to enter the marital domicile without permission or will not make any threats or actually carry out any destruction of the Plaintiff's assets or marital assets.

The Court listens to a lengthy list of items which the wife claims belong to her as her individual property either by gift or having been brought into the marriage by her and the contention of the husband that they were joint gifts given to the two of them and the Court lacks the time or the inclination to go through a lengthy list of the normally accumulated family items in attempt to resolve the custody thereof pending ultimate resolution of this divorce.

Accordingly, the Defendant-wife is directed to prepare a numerical list

Aug. 29, 1986 Motion To Discharge Rule filed.

Aug. 29, 1986 RE: MOTION TO DISCHARGE RULE FILED BY PLAINTIFF ORDER filed.
This matter is before the Court on a MOtion by the Plaintiffs to discharge a Rule to file a complaint filed August 6, 1986, by the Defendant. We believe, in view of the factual background of this case as noted in our previous Opinion filed July 23, 1986, the defendant is premature in demanding a complaint.
We note in the Plaintiff's Motion to Discharge the Rule that they have retained an expert an dhave examined certain items in possession of the defendant, but have not yet received an opinion from their expert that would allow them to prepare a factually precise complaint.
Accordingly, we grant the Motion to discharge the Rule at this time and will grant the Plaintiffs until October 15, 1986, to file a complaint in this case.
Dated: August 28, 1986.

Aug. 29, 1986 RE: MOTION TO OBTAIN FURTHER DISCOVERY ORDER filed.

And Now, August 29, 1986, Plaintiffs file a Motion for Further Discovery of a fusebox and related items in possession of the Defendnat. Plaintiff proffers no cogent reason why they wish to "reinspect the said items", and the Petition notes that defense counsel has refused permission to make said inspection. We are not apprised of the reasons why Plaintiff's counsel has been denied reinspection of the items.
The parties acting through their counsel, apparently are incapable of resolving this simple issue and, accordingly, we set the matter for argument September 12, 1986, at 4:00 P.M.

We are further advised by counsel for the plaintiff by letter dated Apr. 17, 1987, thatt he plaintiffs are still contending that the various fuse boxes and related electrical items now lodged in the Prothonotary's Office are not the ones in the barn at the time of the fire or removed therefrom after the fire. Accordingly, Plaintiff's counsel notes that it is impossible for the plaintiffs to supply the specificity usuaLLY EXPECTED IN ENLIGHTENING THE DEFENDANT MY MORE SPECIFIC PLEADINGS in an Amended Complaint. The plaintiffs again allege that the material evidence has been destroyed and suggest to the court that the defendant's Preliminary Objections be dismissed and they be required to answer the original allegations of the complaint.
The court notes that depositions of the plaitniffs are scheduled to be taken on May 4, 1987, and the court conjectures that perhaps these depositions will enlighten the defendant further as to the posture of the plaintiffs in this case.
Accordingly, the court directs counsel for both parties, on or before May 18, 1987, to forward a proposed order to the court that would get the parties off dead center and expedite trial.

Dec. 17, 1987 Order filed: Order: AND NOW, Decemberll, 1987, the Court takes preliminary objections under advisement and will issue a subsequent Order.

Counsel for the plaintiffs is concerned about the Court's previous memorandum and Order which struck paragraphs 9, 10 and 11 fro m the Complaint, fearing that his proposed factual proof regarding what fuse boxes were in the building at the time of the fire is jeopardized. The Court did not strike thesethree paragraphs with any intent that the plaintiffs would be precluded from proving at the time of trial that the fuse boxes recovered by the defendant's expert Bruger two days after the accident were not the same fuse boxes that were in the building at the time of the fire. This involves a matter of proof and the Court will allow broad latitude to the plaintiffs in proving said fact, but we will not require an answer by the defendant to this modification of Paragraphs 9, 10 and 11.

Counsel for the parties discuss the possibility of plaintiffs' counsel calling expert Bruger as a witness for the sole purpose of establishing how he picked up the materials two days after the fire, how he stored them, where they have been stored and that except for their surrender by Court Order to the Prothonotary have been under his custody and control since he received them,. Counsel for the defendant argues that it is unfair to call the defense witness only as a lay witness to prove these facts and if defense counsel will prepare a stipulation to the effect As noted above and submit it to counsel for the plaintiff, he will discuss whether it is in such form as witness Bruger can sign to savethe taking of a deposition to prove said faCTS.

Apr. 25, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, April 24, 1986, at the time set for hearing, it appears that the Defendant has not been officially served with a copy of this Petition by the Sheriff's Office, but through converrsations with his wife, had knowledge of the time and date of the hearing, and failed to appear. May 2, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, May 1, 1986, at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, the defndant has appeared and indicated to the Court that he would like to consult with counsel. It appears that service of the petition and Order was effected yesterday and undoubtedly the defendant has not had the opportunity to try to make arrangements for legal representation. The parties have also indicated that this time that they are back residing together at D. Road, R.D. #1, Atlantic, 16111 and the plaintiff indicates that there has been no further abusive treatment and she does not object to the defendant remaining there so long as he does not use intocicating beverages to excess.

Hearing in this matter is continued to May 23, 1986, at 9:30 a.m. in Courtroom 1 or 2, Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania, to afford the defendant an opportunity to obtain counsel and to afford the parties an opportunity to amicably adjudt their problems, which would seem to be at least a possibility.

The temporary Order of April 21, 1986 is continued in full force and effect pending further hearing.

7. The father shall be responsible for picking up and delivering Michelle in the course of the exercise of his visitation rights. If he finds that he cannot appear at the scheduled time, he will give the mother as much notice as he can and the parties shall make reasonable efforts to make alternative arrangements. Should the father not appear within one hour of the scheduled time to pick up his daughter for a visitation and shall have given no notice to the mother, the mother may consider said visitation to have been waived.

8. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her child and neither shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the child.

9. The parties are free to make alternative or additional arrangements and are encouraged to do so if that seems proper. However, if the parties do not agree on such arrangements, this order shall be strictly complied with.

10. Costs and fees of this mediation, which are fixed at $80.88, are divided equally between the parties. The father's share shall be assessed to him as costs in this case. The mediatior has noted for the court that the mother is receiving public assistance and, therefore, her share is assessed to Crawford County. Payment shall be made to the Prothonotary of Crawford County.

11. Either party may move the court for a hearing de novo for a period of thirty days from date hereof. Should neither party so move, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Apr. 25, 1986, Application for Special Relief and Order filed.

ORDER: Re: Application for Special Relief Regarding Custody --

AND NOW, April 25, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a petition for special relief pending referral of this matter to a custody mediator to resolve a custody problem involving the three (3) minor children.

It appears that there is a previously arranged visit scheduled to take place whereby the defendant Father picks up the children on Sat. April 26th at 9:00 A.M. and is required to return them on April 27th at 7:00 P.M. The concern of the mother is that she does not know the exact address of the defendant and is fearful he will abscond with the children.

Accordingly, the Court directs that the previously arranged visit will take place and the mother will give to the defendant a copy of this Order.

The Defendant is specifically required to furnish the mother with the address at which the children will be located during the main portion of the two-day visitation period. Father is specifically directed to return the children to the mother's custody at 7:00 P.M., April 27, 1986, and he is cautioned that his failure to do so will result in a contempt citation.

This same date, the mother has petitioned the Court to have the custody matter reviewed, and the Court has referred the hearing to Custody Mediator, JOHN FULLER, who will set a hearing in the immediate future.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Apr. 28, 1986, copies of order to Attys. T. Toomey and John Fuller.

Aug 29, 1991 Copies of order put in Attys. Toomey and Lindsay's boxes.

Aug 26, 1991 Order filed: AND NOW, August 21, 1991, at the close of a hearing on the plaintiff's petition to hold the defendant in contempt of court for failure to return the child on July 15 1991 as ordered, which said order was modified by the agreement of the parties, the Court does find the defendant willfully failed and refused to return the child as ordered.

The Court finds as a fact that the defendant did not return the child as required by the Order and agreement and that his reason for doing so, to-wit, the child's announced intention to not return to Meadville and his announced intention to run away or run back to St. Louis if he was returned to Meadville was not legal cause to justify the defendnat's failure to compy with the prior Court Order, especially where he took no steps in advance of July 15, 1991, even though he know his son's intentions to modify the Order or to seek the plaintiff's agreement with respect to the return of the child. The Court interviewed the child on the record in the presence of counsel and the child indicated that he told his father he did not want to come to Meadville and that he might run away if he did come to Meadville, but the Court is not satisfied that the child was sincere in that or that the defendant took appropriate steps to deal with that possibility.

ACCORDINGLY, the defendant is ORDERED and DIRECTED to pay $250.00 to Terry Toomey, attorney for the plaintiff, within sixty (60) days from this date, which said payment shall be punishment for this contempt finding.

1. Legal custody of Christopher Coufalik shall be joint between Maureen K. Coufalik and Frank J. Coufalik.

Jan. 13, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Jan. 3, 1992, after a modification hearing, it is ordered as follows:

1. Legal custody of Christopher Coufalik shall be shared by teh Plaintiff and the Defendant, with primary physical custody remaining with the Plaintiff until such time as the Defendant purges himself from contempt by paying in cash or its equivalent the total amount of $389.00 ($250 to Mr. Toomey as attorney's fees and $139.00 to Mrs. Coufalik for transportation expenses, which the Defendant should have paid but has not.) In the event that primary physical custody does not change as here and after provided, and in the event that primary physical custody remains with the Plaintiff for more than 30 days, then the Court will entertain a motion or petition on behalf of the Defendant to establish visitation rights, should primary physical custody remain with the Plaintiff.

2. In the event that the Defendant purges himself of contempt by paying the sums referred to in Paragraph 1, then primary physical custody of Christopher Coufalik shall be with the Defendant by 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, Jan. 5, 1992, which said physical custody shall be subject to and conditional upon all remaining paragraplhs here and after set forth in this order unless provided otherwise.

3. Neither party shall so or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the child or do anything to turn the child against the other.

4. Neither party shall physically or mentally abuse the child or threaten nor harass the child with physical abuse.

5. While the child is in the physical custody of the Defendant, the child shall not be left alone overnight and shall not be left alone after 9:00 p.m. without a responsible adult being present. The child may then be left alone the following morning at 8:30 a.m. or thereafter but not before.

6. If primary physical custody is with the Defendant, the Plaintiff shall have the following visitations:

a. Once a month on the last full weekend of each month, commencing with 7:00 p.m. local time in Saint Louis on Friday evening and terminating at 7:00 p.m. Saint Louis time the following Sunday evening. During which times the mother may take the child into her custody provided, however, she notifies the Defendant in writing at least 7 days prior to that visit. IN THE FURTHER EVENT THAT THE Plaintiff must pay for all transportation for particular visits, the Plaintiff shall have a right to file a motion with the Court to hold the Defendant in contempt of Court. The Court advises the Defendant that if he is held in contempt of Court, the Court may very well terminate his right to primary physical custody over this child, as the Court does not intend to get involved in ongoing contempt hearings over the payment of transportation costs by a defaulting Defendant in this case.

c. . For two months in the summer at a time to be agareed upon by the parties, but if they cannot agree upon a time, the summer visitations which the mother shall have, shall commence no later than June 15 th of each year and extend for a full two months.

d. The Defendant shall keep the child continuously enrolled in the Christian Brothers College school and shall pay all of the tuition to keep that child in good standing on a timely basis until further order of Court, either in a support proceeding or in a custody proceeding.

e. The Plaintiff shall have the right to contact her son by letter on an unlimited basis, and all letters shall be delivered to the child without fail.

f. The mother shall have the right to contact her son by telephone once each week at a time to be agreed upon by the parties; but if they cannot agree, then for a least 20 minutes every Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. Saint Louis time, which said phone calls shall not be recorded or tapled without the advance written consent of the Plaintiff. In addition, the Defendant shall give his son the opportunity as he requests to make telephone contact at other times with the Plaintiff and with his brother and sister provided that request does not become unreasonable.

7. During the period of time that the Plaintiff has primary physical custody of the child, she shall also permit the child to receive mail and written correspondence from the Defendant on an unlimited basis and deliver all letters to him that are sent to her home by the Defendant. She shall also permit the child to have reasonable telephone contact with his father and shall receive calls, at least one call a week, at a time to be agreed upon by the parties; but if they cannot agree, then at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, Meadville time, where the father may make a call for no less than 20m minutes in duration to talk to his son.

RULE TO SHOW CAUSE: AND NOW, this 19 day of March, 1990, the court having read and considered the foregoing petition, and on motion of Frank R. Riddle, Edq. attorney for Centerville Castings INc. defendant, grants a Rule on the plaintiff to show cause why the judgment entered in the above case should not be striken, or in the alternative, why such judgment should not be opened and the defendant let into a defense, including the assertion of any valid counterclaim it may have against the plaintiff; meanwhile all proceedings to stay.

On April 1990 Argument List

May 17, 1990 RE: PETITION TO STRIKE OFF OR OPEN DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER Filed. And now this 14th day of May, 1990, upon the Defendant's Petition to Strike Off or Open Judgment, the parties have agreed that the petition does not meet th eformal requirements of a petition to open, thereby only leaving for our consideration a prayer to strike the judgment.
A petition to strike a default judgment will be granted only where a fatal defect appears on the face of the record. Parliament Industries v. William H. Vaugn & co., 504 Pa. 1, 459 A.2d 720 (1983). The fact that Michael Cyr was not an employee on January 6, 1987, when th enotice of the default judgment was mailed, pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 237.1, is not a matter of record before this Court, only an allegation of such by the Petitioner's counsel. Actual receipt is not required under the rule, only that such notice was mailed. Central Penn National Bank v. Williams, 362 Pa. Super. 229, 523 A.2d 1166 (1987).
In addition we note that Mr. Cyr was an authorized agent for service at the time the complaint was served. The Corporation has had constructive notice of this action since November of 1986, over three and a half years ago. We believe this peition is now barred by laches finding that an unreasonable time has elapsed since the notic eof the actio nand the entry of the default judgment. See Triangle Building Supply & lUmber Co. v. Zerman, 242 Pa. Super. 315, 363 A.2d 1287 (1976). Accordingly, Defendant's Peititon to Strike is denied.

PETITION TO HOLD DEFENDANT IN CONTEMPT OF COURT-CUSTODY
Mercer County-DR 1983-375

1 copy (atty)
1 copy (mediator)

May 9, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 9, 1986, the matter is before the court on a petition to hold the Defendant in contempt of court for failing to comply with the previously established custody and visitation agreements regarding two (2) children. It appears that the reason therefor is that the Plaintiff now has a cohabiting companion and the Defendant denies visitation because of this reason.

Due to crowded court schedules, the Court is unable to schedule this matter for a period of thirty to forty days, and accordingly, believes the best resolution is to have a speedy mediation hearing before a custody mediator. Accordingly, Bruce L. Smith is hereby appointed Custody Mediator to address the issues presented in the petition, hold a prompt hearing, make a report and suggested Order to the Court and divide the costs of mediation between the parties as equity requires. Court requests a hearing within ten (10) days.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas,
P.J.

May 19, 1986 Sheriff's Return filed: SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO David H. Nickolay, personally, the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Order & Petition for Protection from Abuse with Temporary Order AD 1986-395 to him, on May 16, 1986 at 11:50 A.M., at his temporary place of residence, Crawford County Jail, Center St., Meadville, Crawford Co., Pa.
So answers,
E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

May 23, 1986 ORDER FILED: AND NOW, May 22, 1986, this abuse matter is before the Court and while the Defendant does not agree to the specific details of all the allegations, the general consensus of the Defendant and his counsel is that under the peculiar circumstances of this case an abuse order would be appropriate.

Accordingly, the Defendant is placed under jurisdiction of the Court for a period of one year and he is hereby directed that he shall not go to the residence of his wife for any purpose without her express consent. He may not annoy or harass her or contact her in any fashionor procure other to annoy or harass her on his behalf.

The Defendant will remove himself from the common residence at RD#5, Meadville, and will not return to said residence under the conditions of this order.

The parties admit the Defendant has personal possessions and a stereo and some guns at the residence, which he may remove under the following conditions:

1. A friend or relative of the husband may go to the residence for the purpose of picking up his personal possessions, the stereo and the guns, and the wife will make arrangements to see that they are properly gathered together and packed in boxes for surrender to the defendant-husband.

There is a vehicle located at the residence and since the wife has no driver's license, the vehicle may be surrendered to the husband for his use.

Insofar as the guns are concerned, all guns will be surrendered and kept in the possession of the husband's sister, Karen Ives, of Cambridge Springs and will not be returned to the Defendant for any purpose during the term of this order.

The Defendant intends to take up residence with his sister, Nancy Unger, at 473 Walnut Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania, and if he changes residence, he will notify the District's Attorney's Office of any new address until the time the pending assault charges against him are disposed of.

2. The parties are in agreement that the defendant should have visits with his seven year old son Carson but that at the present time, the son is fearful of his father. Accordingly, the Court grants the father the right to have the child in his possession on each and every Sunday except when the mother is away on vacation with the hours of said visits being short at first until the son gradually gains confidence in being with his father so that ultimately, after a re-aquaintance period and when the father realizes the son will not be uncomfortable with him, the visits will be lengthened from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. There will be no overnight visits of the son with the father without the express agreement of the mother.

3. The defendant will continue his association with the Mental Health Center and Keep all appointments and discontinue association with the Mental Health Center without the consent of the Court.

Any police officer is authorized, upon a finding of reasonable cause that the conditions of this order have been violated, to apprehend the Defendant and incarcerate him without further warning in the Crawford County Jail and immediatly request of the Court a contempt hearing.

This order shall remain in effect for a period of one year unless sooner terminated by the Court.

The County is directed to pay the costs in this case.

OCt. 30, 1986 Order filed. RE: PRAECIPE FOR GANT OF A DIVORCE This divorce action is apparently ready for granting of a Decree as the parties appear to have amicably resolved the property disposition issue. We note a Master has been appointed and that the deposits of $75.00 by each party required by Court ORder of August 15, 1986, have not been deposited with the Prothonotary
We are further informally advised that a Master's Fee of $125.00 will be requested by the Master in this case. Until said sum is deposited with the Prothonotary or a receipt for the same is lodged withthe records in this case, this Court will decline to grant the divorce until Master Fees incurred have been paid..
Accordingly, we return this matter to the Prothonotary's Office, and when the foregoing has been complied with, we will entertain a new praecipe for grant of this divorce.

AND NOW, December 10, 1986, this matter is before the Court for a grant of a divorce, and this Court, by ORder of October 29, 1986, noted that Master Fees would have to be paid. We have since had a conference withthe Master. Although the Master was never required to take direct action, he had certain adminstrative expenses involved in this case. Accordingly the Prothonotary shall pay David Tyree, Master in this case, the sum of $50.00 and any remaining balance due in the deposit account with the Prothonotary will be returned to counsel for the Plaintiff.
We grant a divorce by separate decree.

Dec. 8, 1989 copy of order to Joan Mason , esq.

* Dec. 21, 1989, Income and Expense Statement of Plaintiff filed.

Dec. 27, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, December 21, 1989, at the time fixed for hearing on the Plaintiff's motion to fix attorney's fees, Court costs, expenses, and alimony pendente lite in this divorce action, the Defendant has failed to appear. The Sheriff's return shows that an amended Complaint in Divorce, a subpoena duces tecum, and the motion and Order setting this hearing were all served upon the Defendant personally by a Deputy Sheriff on December 14, 1989. Absent some further showing, we must assume that the Defendant's failure to appear and to bring the documents required by the subpoena duces tecum is willful and flagrant and subjects him to adjudication of contempt.

Based upon the evidence that has been adduced, the Defendant is ordered to pay the sum of $150.00 per week to be paid to the Plaintiff as alimony pendente lite, with the first such payment to be made to the Plaintiff on or before January 2, 1990, and on or before each Tuesday thereafter; the sum of $500.00 towards counsel fees to be paid directly to PLaintiff's counsel, Joan D. Mason, 973 Liberty Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania, on or before January 15, 1990; and the costs of the Sheriff's service of the subpoena and related papers in the sum of $83.35. The award of alimony is based upon the statewide guidelines and an assumed income of the Plaintiff of $200.00 per week and the defendant of $600.00 per week.

The Court reserves an Order relating to appraisal and other expenses for further decision. This Order is temporary to give the Defendant an opportunity to respond and a further hearing is scheduled hereon for January 5, 1990, at 9:30 a.m. At that time, the Court will consider whether to adjudicate the Defnedant in contempt for failure to respond tothe current subpoena and related papers, will consider the amount to be awarded for appraisal fees and costs, and in the event the Defendant brings all documentation regarding his income that has been subpoenaed, a further consideration of the amounts awarded herein.

A copy of this Order shall be served upon the defendant by the Sher;iff of Crawford County at the ultimate expense of the Defendant. The Defendant is cautioned that if he fails to appear at the hearing of January 5, 1990, a bench warrant will be issued and he will be lodged in the Crawford County Jail upon the excution ofthe warrant until such time as the Court can conveniently hold a hearing.

Oct. 23, 1986, RE: PRAECIPE FOR DIVORCE -- ORDER - filed. This simple 201(c) divorce comes to the court for granting of a final decree, but for technical reasons we must return the same to the Prothonotary's Office because on non-compliance with Rule of Civil Procedure 1920.42. This rule provides that a 201(c) divorce may be granted providing an affidavit of consent to the entry of final decree is executed by both parties. The rule than goes on to provide that this affidavit of consent cannot be executed until more than 90 days have elapsed from the filing of the complaint and must have been executed within 30 days of the date the affidavit was filed in the Prothonotary's Office. This divorce was filed May 28, 1986, and the requisite affidavits were executed Sept. 2 and Sept. 4 by the parties. Thus, more than 90 days have elapsed from the filing of the complaint to the execution of the affidavits. However, even though the affidavits were executed as noted above on Sept. 2 and 4, they were not filed until Oct. 16, which is more than 30 days after their execution and thun, not in compliance with subsection (2) (ii). While this obviously is a procedural technicality, the Coruts of this county believe that with the streamlining of divorce procedures and their speedy processing through the court system, that the rules allowing the speedy expedition through the courts must be strictly complied with.

Accordingly, we return this divorce to the Prothonotary's Office and upon the execution of two new timely consents, the matter may be repraeciped to the court for gtanting of a divorce.

And now, Nov. 29, 1989, after argument the court believes the granting of summary judgment in this case would be premature. The fact finder should have the opportunity to evaluate the conduct and creditability of the parties in determining whether the losses claimed were attributable to the accident, and whether the interest and attorney fee provisions of the no fault act would be applicable to the facts as found.
Accordingly, we deny the Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment.

On Argument List for September 29, 1986

Oct. 1, 1986 ORder filed. AND NOW, September 29, 1986, at the time set for argument, it appears that through inadvertence the page containing Paragraphs Seven and Eight of the original complaint were omitted from the copy served upon the defendant. Counsel for the Plaintiff this date furnishes the missing page to counsel for the defendant.

At aRgument, it appears there is no merit to the Defendant's incorrectly pled statute of limitations defense. Even had the same been raised by properly pleading the statute of limitations as New Maater, the Court this date rules that the statute of limitations is not an issue in this case, and accordingly strikes the statute of limitations defense.

At the time of argument, cousel for the Defendant advises that this case appears to be an issue of the proper amount due on the unpaid mortgage, and accordingly, the Defendant having received the missing page, may file an Amended answer in accordance with Pennsylvania practice to the remainder of the Complaint other than pleading to the issue of the statute of limiations this day ruled upon.

This case is set for nonjury trial NOvember 20, 1986 at 9:30 A.M., Courtroom One or Two.

Aug. 1, 1986 Motion filed.

Aug. 1, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, August 1, 1986, the Court is in possession of a Motion from counsel for the Plaintiff requesting it authorize the issuance of a subpoena to secure the attendance of one David M. Cyphert, a child welfare worker, at a mediation custody conference scheduled for August 6, 1986, before Bruce Smith, Mediator.

As the Court understands the situation, a Complaint of abuse or sexual abuse has bee lodged by Jacqueline Blakeslee against Dale Blakeslee involving the minor child, who is the issue of the custody dispute. The Court contacted David Cyphert and he advised the Court that with the use of anatomically correct dolls he interviewed the minor child and could reach no conclusion one way or the other. Accordingly, we see no need to issue a subpoena taking this busy caseworker out of his office for a half a day to testify to a negative.

Accordingly, the Court decline to issue the subpoena without prejudice to the right of either party to renew the request in the event the matter ultimately gets before the Court for a factual and legal determination.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, PJ

Aug 4, 1986 Copies of order to Daniel Kuhn, Bruce Smith and David M.Cyphert.

August 12, 1986 Temporary Order of Court filed: AND NOW, this 11th day of August, 1986, after mediation, and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediation, it is hereby order and decreed that:

(1) The natural parents of Ryan Lance Blakeslee, age three, born in March of 1983, the parties to this action, share legal custody of the minor. Said joint legal custody being shared shall entitled both of the parents to equal access to any records relating to the child held by a third party, including, but not limited to, school and medical records, and shall also entitle both parents to an equal input with regard to the educational and religious upbringing of the child.

(2) Primary physical custody of the child shall remain with the defendant mother, subject to the father's rights to temporary custody in the nature of visitation as follows:

(a) Father shall have the right during the months of August, September and October to take the child into his physical custody on the second and fourth Saturdays each month between the hours of 12:00 noon and 6:00 P.M., prevailing local time. For the purposes of August, 1986, the 16the and the 30th of the month shall be determined to be the second and fourth Saturdays.

(b) Beginning in November, 1986, father shall have the right to take the child into his physical custody the second and fourth weekends of each month, said weekends being described as from 6:00 pm, prevailing local time, on Friday, through 5:00 p.m., prevailing local time, on Sunday.

(c) The father shall also have the right to take the child into his custody for two non-consecutive seven-day weeks each summer, beginning with the summer of 1987. Said weeks shall begin on Friday evening at 6:00 and shall end the next Friday evening at 6:00. Unless the parties can agree between themselves to the contrary, those weeks shall be the first full week of June and first full week of August.

(d) Holiday visitation shall be as agreed by the parties; but, in the event that agreement cannot be reached, alternate holidays shall prevail. For this purpose, the recognized holidays shall be New Year's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, 4th of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas each year. The alternate holidays shall begin with Labor Day of 1986, and the father shall custody during that day, Holiday visitation on a rotating basis shall take precedence over normally scheduled visitation.

(e) The father shall pick up and return the child at the mother's residence, and the mother shall keep the father advised of her residence from time to time, it having been indicated that she contemplates a move in the near future. She shall have the child ready to be picked up, and the exchange of physical custody shall take place at the front door.

(f) Each parent shall notify the other parent at least twenty-four hours in advance if there is any change in the prearranged transfers of physical custody or visitation schedules, and only reasonable excuses for modification, other than by mutual accomodation of child and the parents, shall be a valid reason, unless the child is under a doctor's care.

(3) The parents shall notify the other when the child is away from the custodial home for a period of more that seventy-two hours, and shall indicate the reason and duration of the absence and the places expected to be visited.

(4) The parent having custody of the child at anytime shall notify the other parent as soon as possible in the event of injury or illness requiring medical treatment.

(5) Neither of the parents shall take the child into any environment which might be commonly thought of as detrimental to the development of his character or which would be commonly thought of as dangerous to his physical person. In that regard, the mother is advised to not have the child in the presence of Craig Bacon without her being physically present also.

(6) The parents are encouraged to discuss arrangements for physical custody of the child, and, if the parents mutually agree to an alternate arrangement to accommodate themselves accordingly, and are encouraged to do so by mutual consent and agreement.

(7) Each parent will teach the child to give the parent that love and respect due a parent from his or her child, and neither parent will do anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the child. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the affect the health, welfare, or well being of the child, nor shall they do anything to or with the child which would do the same.

(8) This order shall not prejudice the right of either party ro request a mediation conference if there are changed circumstances in the lives of the parties or the child.

(9) The Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County shall retain jurisdiction of this matter so long as either parent or the child resides in the Court's jurisdiction and for at least six months from the date of this Temporary Order.

(10) The fee for the Child Custody Mediator shall be paid 60% by the father and 40% by the mother.

(11) This order shall be a Temporary Order, but shall become a permanent orde unless exceptions are filed by either party within thirty (30) days from the date of this Temporary Order.

CRAWFORD COUNTY JAIL
CRAWFORD COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Filed and issued

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Issued (sheriff)
1 copy (atty)

ORDER:
AND NOW, this 1 day of July 1986, upon consideration of the within Petition and upon motion of Bruce A. Barrett, First Assistant Public Defendant and atty. for the relator, it is directed that a writ of habeas corpus ad subjiciedum be issued forthwith and a hearing be held on the 3rd day of July 1986, at 2:15 P.M. in courtroom No. 1 or 2 courthouse, Crawford County, Pa. and that the prothonotary be directed to serve Howard Stewart, Warden of the Crawford County Jail, 360 ½ Center St, Meadville, Crawford County, Pa. with the said writ or copy.
Notice of said hearing shall be given forthwith to the District Attorney of Crawford County.
July 1, 1986, copy of order to District Atty.

July 8, 1986 Order Filed: AND NOW, July 3, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a writ of habeas corpus by the Defendant as Plaintiff against the Sheriff for illegal confinement.

It appears the Defendant is undergoing sentence in the Crawford County Jail on two consecutive ninety-day sentences imposed by District Justice Leonhart.

It also appears after informal hearing that there were or are a number of other checks outstanding against the Defendant which may or may not have been a factor in the District Justice imposing two ninety-day sentences.

Under any circumstance, the Court notes that under the Sentencing Code in Section 9702 District Justices in sentencing Defendants are subject to the terms and conditions of the Sentencing Code. Further, in Section 9756 (42 P.C.S.A. 9756) (b), the Sentencing Code requires the Court (i.e., District Justice) to impose a minimum sentence of confinement which shall not exceed one-half of the maxium sentence imposed. Accordingly, the Court finds that District Justice Leonhart, in imposing two flat ninety-day sentences, was not in compliance with Section 9756.

The Court finds, however, that the remedy for this oversight should not be dismissal of the charges but the Defendant is remanded back to the County Jail for re-sentencing before District Justice Leonhart so that a minimum and a maximum sentence will be imposed on each of the two bad check charges.

The Court notes that in imposing a minimum and a maximum sentence on summary offenses, the District Justice then controls the granting of parole and the guidelines and eligibility for parole should be considered at least not later than the expiration of the minimum sentence.

Any costs imposed or incurred in filing this petition will be paid by Crawford County.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 8, 1986 copies to Bruce Barrett, Narcy Hughes, Esqs., District Justive Leonhart and Sheriff's Office.

Aug. 21, 1986 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Order filed:AND NOW, this 21st day of August, 1986, upon consideration of the within Petition and upon motion of Bruce A. Barrett, First Assistant Public Defender and attorney for relator, it is directed that a Writ of Habeas Corpus ad subjiciedum be issued forthwith and a hearing be held on the 26th day of August, 1986, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. in Courtroom No. 1, Courthouse, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and that the Prothonotary be directed to serve Howard Stewart, Warden of the Crawford County Jail, 360½ Center Street, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, with the said writ or copy.

Notice of said hearing shall be given forthwith to the District Attorney of Crawford County.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Aug. 28, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, August 26, 1986, this matter is before the Court on a petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus attacking the constitutionality of the Defendant's incarceration by District Justice Leonhart. It appears that by previous Court Order, the Court found the sentences imposed by District Justice Leonhart did not meet the requirements of the Sentencing Code, and directed that minimum and maximum sentences be imposed. Accordingly, the District Justice imposed two consecutive forty-five to ninety day sentences to be computed from April 23, 1986 and provided that at the exporation of minimum sentence, the Defendant would be automatically paroled, provding total fines, costs and restitution in the amount of $452.65 were paid to the District Justice Court.

The Defendant's posture at this time is that being incarcerated and owing a substantial amount to four District Justice Offices, and having lost his employment at PennDOT because of his incarceration, and having as his only asset an $89.00 jail account as the residue remaining from his last paycheck at PennDOT and no other assets, this Court finds in fact the Defendant is indigent and has no ability to pay fines, costs and restitution on any of the pending charges at this time.

The Court further notes that the Defendant is technically subject to a detainer lodged by district Justice francis w. Brown of Mercer County, imposing four consecutive thirty-day sentences, which sentences were to commence May 29, 1986 and run concurrent with the sentences imposed by DIstrict Justice Leonhart.

It further appears that the Defendant is subject to a detainer from District Justice Chisholm's Office on bad check charges, and there is approximatley $339.00 due in this office.

Additionally, he is subject to a detainer from District Justice Hertzberger's Office, and the Defndant estimates approximately $50.00 is due this Office.

From the amount of bail set on Mercer County District Justice Brown's sentence, which is $205.95 , we assume that is the amount of fines, costs and restitution due in that office.

From all of the above, it is obvious that the Defendant is incapable of paying fines, costs and resitution while in jail, and that his only asset is an $89.00 jail account, Accordingly, the Court believes justice would best be served by consolidating the Crawford County cases in one office, and requesting District Justice Brwon to parole the defendant, subject to the payment of fines, costs and restitution in such installments as may be appropriate, after he secures employment.

Accordingly, the Court DIRECTS that district Justices Chisholm and Hertzberger forward the amounts of fines, costs and restitution due to the office of District Justice Leonhart, so that the Crawford County cases are all consolidated in one office.

In accord with the foregoing, the Court finds the sentence of District Justices Leonhart to be in violation of the Sentencing Rule 1407, which prohibits incarceration for inability to pay costs and fines. Accordingly, the Defendant is paroled this date, subject only to the detainer of District Justice Brown, and subject to be under parole supervision to October 23, 1986 on District Justice Leonhart's one hundred eighty (180) day sentence and for such additional time on probation on the charges in District Justices Chisholm and Hertzberger's Offices as District Justice Leonhart believes appropriate. Parole conditions shall be:

1. That the Defendant keep District Justice Leonhart's Office notified of his residence and employment and that he not change residence or employment without the consent of the District Justice.
2. That the Defendant not leave the jurisdiction of Crawford County, without the consent of District Justice Leonhart's Office.
3. That once employment is secured or onc ethe Defnednat receives a reimbursement check for his vested interest in the State pension system, that a payment schedule be set up to pay Distruct Justice Office fines, costs and restitution in such amount as Distruct Justice Leonahrt determines, with the priority of payments to be Leonhart's first, Chisholm's second, Hertzberger's third.
4. That the Defendant report at such times as directed and comply with any other conditions imposed by District Justice Leonhart.

The Defendant, accordingly, is released from confinement on parole on District Justice Leonhart's sentence, and the detainers from District Justice Chisholm and Hertzberger are lifted, subject to the conditions aforesaid.

The defendant, however, is remainded to the custody of the Sheriff on the detainer filed by Francis W. Brown, but the Defnednat will not be returned to Mercer County for a period of at least ten (10) days for the reason that this Court strongly recommends that District Justice Brown parole the Defendant for the remaining term of the four consecutive thirty day sentences, which became effective May 29, 1986, subject to such terms and conditions regarding payment of fines, costs, and restitution as District Justice Brown believes appropriate.

Copy of this ORder will be forwarded to all four District Justices for their enlightenment.

After dictating the above ORder, the Court's attention id directed to two pending bad check charges against this Defendant at 1986- 347 and 1986 - 329 pending at the september term of criminal court, which have not been called for trial.

The Court DIRECTS the defendant sign nominal bond, co-signed by the Sheriff or his deputy to guarantee his appearance and upon signing said bond, he will be released on nominal bond on these two charges.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Sept. 4, 1986, copies of order to R. C. Thomas, and M. Eglinton.

Sept. 25, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, September 23, 1986, after hearing and after extensive questioning of the children, the Court denies the Petition to Terminate All Visitation Rights of the mother at the request of the father.

The Court finds that the conduct of the mother and at times the conduct of the father has not been in strict accordance withthe custody and visitation Order, particularly the one of July 17, 1986 entered into by agreement of the parties.

ACCORDINGLY, the parents are cautioned that they must strictly comply with the terms and conditions that theya greed to on July 17, 1986, and in regard to the father, if the children's schedules are dependent on his live-in companion, he will instruct her that she likewise must see to the faithful compliance of this Order.

There appears to be some confusion in Paragraph 3 of the July 17, 1986 Order regarding how the mother is to handle the situation in the event that she will not be able to arrive on time to pick the children up at 3:30. ACCORDINGLY, the Court modifies said Order of July 17, 1986 (Paragraph 3) as follows:

1. If the mother does not arrive by 4:30 p.m., the visit will be considered canceled unless between the hours of 2:30 and 3:45 she contacts the per son having custody of the children to advise that she has been unavoidably delayed and will pick up the children on or before 5:00 p.m.

2. The children are concerned about the alleged use and possession of marijuana by their mother and the Court directs that while the children are in the custody of the mother, she may not possess or use marijuana or any other drugs not will she permit anyone nor will she permit the children to be in her presence in her trailer or anywhere else of other persons who are using marijuana or other drugs.

3. The children are likewise concerned about the consumption of alcoholic beverages by both parents and the Court fact and that they should use alcoholic beverages with care ful moderation whil the chidlren are in their custody or before they are to pick up or return the children.

4. The father is directed to instruct his companion that she may not interfere with this custody Order in any fashion and she is equally responsible for seeing that the children are dleivered to the mother at the times specified in the previous Orders.

Dec 18, 1987 Praecipe of Tarasi & Johnson to Withdraw Appearance filed. (See Court order of December 23, 1987)

Dec 23, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, December 21, 1987, at the time this matter is scheduled for argument on sanctions for failure to respond appropriately to discovery requests, the matter appears before the Court in a continuing confused state. It appears that original plaintiffs' counsel Tarasi forwarded a praecipe to withdraw appearance received by the Court on or about December 18, 1987. It further appears that a former associate of Tarasi, Annie Kaplan, is no longer with the Tarasi firm but is not with the new firm of Berger, Kapetan, Malakoff & Meyers, Law & Finance Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, 15219, and advises that she has spent considerable time on this case assisting Tarasi and that her new firm has not yet ascertained whether they intend to enter their appearance as counsel for the plaintiffs in this case.

Along with Attorney Kaplan, it appears Attorney William Jorden, who apparently initially received the case and forwarded it to Tarasi, and advises the Court that if the Berger firm aforesaid does not accept the case, he will not abandon his former clients, but his firm will enter an appearance and represent the plaintiffs.

Counsel for the defendants and the Court are concerned about any void in representation of the plaintiffs until new counsel commit themselves to representing the plaintiffs by entering a formal appearance. ACCORDINGLY, we will withhold any action on Tarasi's praecipe to withdraw appearance for the plaintiffs until new counsel formally enters an appearance on behalf of the plaintiffs.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following Order:

Withdrawal of the appearance of Louis M. Tarasi is DENIED in accordance with the above and this case is continued genterally without adjudication on the sanctions motions pending before the Court at this time until March 1, 1988. If no appearance is entered by that time or if new counsel has not adequately satisfied defense counsel on their sanction motion, the Court will entertain a motion from any party for further action on this case.

April 28, 1988 Appearance of Berger Kapetan Malakoff & Meyers By Annie Kaplan Attorney for Plaintiff filed.

May 3, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, April 25, 1988, at the time set for argument, it appears that Attorney Caplan now with the firm of Berger, Kapetan is now representing the Plaintiffs and an appearance has been entered on April 20, 1988. Accordingly, insofar as Defendants request for compulsory nonsuit, we DENY the same.

Numerous issues are raised in the argument, and the Court disposes of the same as follows:

1. It appears the Defendant/Husband consulted with a psychologist before and after his admission to the emergency room in April 1985. The issue of disclosure of the psychological and pschiatric reports come into focus as it is contended by counsel for the Plaintiff there are certain inadmissible items in those reports. Parties agree that the Plaintiff will provide authorization for disclosure of said reports to the Court for an in camera review with said authorization to be given directly to the hospital on or before May 5, 1988. The hospital will furnish said reports for in camera review on or before May 13, 1988. The Plaintiff will pay any expenses involved in copying and producing said report on direct billing from the hospital.

It appears a deposition of th Plaintiff is scheduled for May 10, 1988, and there is concern and doubt as to whether the Court will agree to the Plaintiff's request to excise or eliminate certain impertinent material from the psychological reports and make a decision thereon by May 10, 1988. Counsel seem to agree that the Court's ruling may affect the thrust of the deposition taking, and accordingly, the Court leaves scheduling of the deposition to agreement of the parties and declines to attempt to set a definitive deposition date as a Court Order.

2. There are concerns about expert reports from the Plaintiff. Plaintiff's posture is that it is their firm policy that deposition taking must be completed before they are required to disclose the name of their expert, and a copy of the expert's opinion. Under the peculiar facts of this case, the Court believes such policy should not apply to this case, and accordingly the Court DIRECTS Plaintiffs must disclose to Defendants by June 10, 1988 the expert they intend to use at the time of trial and submit a copy of the expert's evaluation and opinion signed by the expert. Thereafter, Defendants must likewise disclose to the Plaintiff's counsel the name of their expert by August 1, 1988 and deliver a signed copy of that expert's opinion that will be used at trial.

Obviously, if in the course of deposition taking material or dynamic new evidence is discovered that would alter either expert's opinion, the same may be supplemented or changed by written report timely disclosed to opposing counsel.

3. The problem of obtaining Social Security records, which were apparently instrumental in Plaintiffs application for Social Security Disability has been solved, and a release for the obtaining of these records has been or will be given by Plaintiff to defense counsel, and they may peruse said records for relevant information material to this case.

4. Defense counsel object strenuously to the added expense incurred by their clients because of the failure of Plaintiffs counsel to comply with this Court's Order of December 21, 1987. Accordingly, counsel for Defendants are DIRECTED to file a statement and a bill for their fees and expenses for attending the hearing on this date on their motion for compulsory nonsuit, because of Plaintiffs failure to file by March 1, 1988 the items required by the Court in its former Order and to enter a timely appearance. Upon receipt of the same, the Court will review the matter and enter any necessary subsequent Orders relating to attorney fees involving this one appearance in Court.

5. The Court notes that the Plaintiff has agreed that in return for the in camera review, of the psychological reports, they are withdrawing any claim for spousal marital discourd as an element of damages in this case.

Apparently because the caption of the pro se Dec. 18, 1986, complaint was different from the caption naming two Defendants in all prior filings in this case, the Prothonotary's Office considered it to be a new action and assigned No. 1986-1098 to this case and filed it as a newly commenced action. This court now directs the Prothonotary to renumber this case with its original number (1986-153) and consolidate the two files now existing in the Prothonotary's Office to the end that the recently filed pro se complaint will now form part of the record at 1986-153.

Blaho advised the court that he was contemplating retaining new counsel and this court is aware that his present counsel of record is no longer handling this case.

The Prothonotary is directed to forward a copy of this Order to the Plaintiff, Thomas Blaho, at 105 Patty Drive, Uniontown,PA., 15401, and to eounsel Schaaf and Bebenek. The Prothonotary shall attach to the copies of the Order forwarded to counsel a copy of the Dec. 18, 1986, pro se complaint.

The court advises all concerned parties it will take no further action in this case until requested by motion or petition.

Sept. 1, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, August 29, 1988, after argument and receipt of input from all counsel, Court rules as follows:

The Court confirms its previous allowance of defendants Amended Answers, finds no prejudice in doing the same sua sponte and denies Plaintiff's request to strike the Amended Answers.

It appears that newly retained Plaintiff's expert's reports were not filed in compliance with the Court's previous Order and no request for an extension of time fo rfiling the same was made, and it appears that a further narrative report supplementing Interrogatories by expert Doctor Buschko will be forthcoming the first week of September. The Court hereby finds that it is inequitable to require counsel for defendant to operate when Court deadlines are not met, and accordingly, DIRECTS that Plaintiffs through their counsel, pay the sum of $200.00 attorney fees to counsel for the Defendants, namely $200.00 each to Counsel Schaaf, Murphy, and Quinn as a sanction for failing to comply with Court's Order.

It is further DIRECTED that the narrative report supplementing Doctor Buschko's Answers to INterrogatories be filed and in the hands of counsel for Defendants by 4:30 P.M., September 16, 1988. In the event this deadline is not complied with, no futher narrative report from the Doctor will be filed or admitted into evidence at trial, and counsel for the defendants may proceed on the assumption that the Doctor's testimony will be as set forth in his Answers to Interrogatories, and the Court will limit severly any attempted extension thereof.

Counsel for Plaintiff moves to amend the caption as follows: Kathleen L. Damico, as ADministratrix ofthe Estate of David G. Damico, Deceased, and Kathleen L. DAmico, INdividually, versus Stacey robertson, M.D., Alanson Hibbard M.D., Brian McIntosh, M.D., Meadville City Hospital and Meadville Medical Center. defendants pose no objection to the proposed amendment in view of the fact David G. Damico died on or about May 25, 1988, and accordingly, the Prothonotary is DIRECTED to amend the caption of this case on the official records and in all future listings of the case.

The court previously set a deadline for the filing of defense expert reports and on motion of Defendants, the former August 1, 1988 deadline is extended to December 30, 1988 at 4:30 p.m.

It appears this report was not received until May 25, 1990. June 9, 1994 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 8, 1994 at a time fixed for hearing on the Defendant's motion to modify the support aspect of a divorce decree entered in this court on August 17, 1989, the Court finds that appropriate notice was given of this hearing, that the Defendant/Petitioner failed to appear, that he was represented by local counsel Christopher D. Ferry, Esq. (who appears to have been contacted at the last minute) and that the Plaintiff Marlene J. West traveled here from Colorado and was prepared to proceed.

Since the Defendant has the burden of showing a substantial change in circumstances to justify a modification of a support award, the motion is DISMISSED.

This matter may proceed along a number of different lines. If it turns out that the Defendant re-approaches this Court for another modification that requires the attendance of Mrs. West from Colorado, we reserve the right to tax the Defendant with fair and reasonable cost of travel, if that is appropriate. We leave this issue open and will decided it at that time.

Feb 28, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, February 28, 1989, at the time scheduled for hearing on the Plaintiff's request for sanctions, it appears that all issues heretofore existing between the parties have become moot. The real estate has now been listed with Coldwell Banker Realty Company, the key to the premises has been returned to the defendant, the Defendant has put the mortgage default into a current status, and the only remaining item is that the Plaintiff has not yet signed the title to the 1980 Chevrolet Chevette, but the title has apparently been misplaced and the parties have agreed to obtain a duplicate title and the Plaintiff has agreed to assign the title to the Defendant immediately upon receipt of the duplicate.

Both parties have been somewhat uncooperative in resolving the differences that continue between them but under the circumstances, we order the Defendant to pay $50.00 towards Plaintiff's counsel fees necessitated by this proceeding and both parties are cautioned that if this matter returns to the Court for trivial problems that should be resolved between themselves, the Court will certainly consider imposing counsel fees on whichever party the Court deems to to be at fault.

similar to a penciled list the Court viewed this date listing the items which she contends are her individual property and will designate the same by putting a capital "I" after said item. Also on the list will be items which she contends are marital property but whcih she would like to have custody of pending the outcome of the divorce. Once said list is prepared, which shall be within seven days of this date, counsel and their parties will meet and attempt to amicably remove from said list items either of individual property or marital property, which the wife may have in her personal possession either permanently or pending the outcome of the divorce action and the final adjudication regarding marital property.

Of the remaining items on the list which the parties cannot agree upon as to ownership in either party or whether they are marital assets, this final list will be submitted to the Court and unless the parties amicably resolve this matter in another fashion, the Court will appoint a special Master to meet with the parties at the domicile and the Master will empowered to grant possession of the disputed items or ascertain and recommend to the Court which items are not marital property but are the personal property of either spouse.

If the Court enters such an order, it will require substantial deposit from each party to pay the costs of the Marter's rees and will grant the Master the right to allocate these costs between the parties as the Master deems appropriate.

It appears both parties are anxious to see that this divorce progresses through the Court system and, accordingly, the Plaintiff is required to file his income and expense statement and inventory and appraisement within 30 days of this date and following said filing, the wife will have an additional 15 days to file counter affidavit or file an affidavit agreeing with the affidavits and inventories filed by the Plaintiff-husband.

Once these matters are filed, either party may move for the appointment of a Master to litigate the matter either on no-fault grounds or on fault grounds.

Parties mutually agree that at 7:00 p.m. on June 16, 1986, the wife and another companion other than the one present in court this day, namely Mrs. Ethel Zinz, may accompany her to the marital residence and there she may remove her personal clothing, her personal jewelry, and one picture of the children of her choice.

The wife shall be allowed time to take inventory of the premises so that she may complete the list required heretofore.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Oct. 9, 1987 Petition For Stay of Wage Attachment Proceedings filed.

Oct. 9, 1987 Re: Petition To Reduce Alimony Pendente Lite And Petition To Stay Wage Attachment Proceedings and ORDER filed. The above two petitions are presented to the court, together with an allegation that the Defendant wife is now employed. Unfortunately the Court and Domestic Relations staff do not know at this time the earnings of the wife in her new employment. The court notes that there is on the court schedule an October 22nd heraing on the Petition to Reduce Alimony. Accordingly, in the interim, we direct that the alimony order be arbitrarily reduced to the sum of $50.00 per week and the Domestic Relations Section is directed not to institute a wage attachment. This temporary order is entered without prejudice to the right of the court to reinstitute its original alimony award, modify or cancel the same after the hearing on Oct. 22, 1987.
Dated: Oct. 8, 1987

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas,P.J.

Oct. 9, 1987 Copy of Order to Attys. James Irwin, William Jorden and Nancy Sennett.

Oct. 27, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, October 22, 1987, the matter is reviewed and it appears that the P laintiff/Husband's income is roughly the same as when the previous Order was entered. The wife's income was approximaely $600.00 for temporary teaching over the summer but commencing on or about September 1, 1987, she commenced full-time employment as a school teacher and nets approximately $200.00 per week and has a friend who shares living expenses.
It appears further that child Wendy residing withthe mother as an emancipated minor is attending college and has some reasonable expenses, some of which are shared by father and some by mother. It further appears that minor son Billy in the custody of the father is now attending a private school and that expenses has been largely underwritten by scholarships with incidental and ancillary expenses underwritten by the father.
Under all the circumstances of this case, the Court believes a reduction in alimony pendente lite is in order, particularly in view of the enhanced employment income of the wife over what it has when the Order was iriginally entered. Accordingly, commencing with the week of September 6, 1987, the Order of alimony is reduced to the some of $50.00 per week payable on a weekly basis.
The Domestice Relations Section shall recompute this account and recompute arrearages and in addition to the$50.00, the Plaintiff will be required to pay an additional $15.00 per week to apply on arrears until paid in full.
The Court advises the Plaintiff that in the event he misses two consecutive weekly alimony payments, including payment on arrearages, the Domestic Relations Office is directed to process a wage attachment without further Court hearing or without notice to the Plaintiff

June 22, 1988 Memorandum and Order filed: And Now, June 16, 1988, the Court meets with counsel for both parties, and it appears that the divorce will not be granted until the master fees are paid. Mrs. Wiggins has paid her share of the master fees in the amount of $284.08, in accord with the Order Judge Walker dated April 22, 1988. Mr. Wiggins owed the sum of $744.25 for said master fees and has not paid the same, expecting credit against the same in the amount of $538.62 for overpayment on a support account. This overpayment arose by virtue of the fact that Mrs. Wiggins agreed to forego any further support at the Divorce Master's Hearing, but before the wage attachment modification could be ferfected and filed the Domestic Relations Section received from William Wiggins employer the aforesaid sum of $538.62.
The Court and counsel met this day and it is mutually agreed as follows - since Mr. Wiggins will owe Mrs. Wiggins the eventual sum of $3,783.00 in monthly installments of $174.59, that he will be permitted to forego the payments due Mrs. Wiggins until said amounts reach the aforesaid $538.62 overpayment on the support account. A memorandum modification to the Master's Report will be prepared by counsel for the parties and signed by both parties.
The Court has no objection to the credit being handled in this fashion, but advises counsel that the Court will not grant the divorce in this case until the additional $744.25 is paid by Mr. Wiggins and that the court is not interested in receiving the same in installments. The Court notes at this time, it has been advised in a juvenile hearing that Mr. Wiggins will be leaving his employment at Allegheny College and moving someplace in New York State at the end of June 1988.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

After dictating the above memorandum the Court is advised by counsel Jorden for Mr. Wiggins that he has in his possession thas date the sum fo $205.63, which he will this date deposit with the Prothonotary towards Mr. Wiggins share of masters fees of $744.25. This leaves a balance due by Mr. Wiggins in the amount of $538.62 for payment of masters fees. We direct this amount to be paid by June 30, 1988.
Initially the Court intended this Memorandum for the Courts office file on this case, but not believes it should be filed with the records in this case.

Wiggins vs. Wiggins A.D. 1986 - 293 Divorce

July 25, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, July 22, 1988, the matter is back before the Court this date on a petition for contempt contending that items previously designated as personal proeprty of the wife and items awarded to her in the Master's report as part of the equitable distribution have not been delivered. It is reported to the Court that the wife was not allowed access to the former marital property in attempting to secure the items listed on Page 4, Item 2-C of the Master's report and the items listed on Page 9, Paragraph 3-A of the Master's report. Apparently the husband, in attempting to comply with the Master's report, gathered the items he felt the wife was entitled to or was awarded and set them outside the premises for her collection.

It is now contended that certain items listed listed in Paragraph 2-C, Page 4, and in Paragraph 3-A, Page, were either not delivered in toto or were delivered in an intentionally damaged condition.

Both parties contend that it would take considerable time to review these items on an individual basis and each side has their contention as to why the item was not present or why the item was or was not delivered in its pre-existing condition. The Court visualizes hours of conflicting testimony with the ultimate resolution of the contention largely depending on an evaluation of the credibility of witnesses heard. This Court this date lacks the time to carry out such a detailed item-by-item review of the wife's contentions and to enter a decision doing equity and justice under the circumstances.

Accordingly, we refer this matter back to Attorney Nancy Sennett, Master in this case, tohold a further hearing and review and resolve the petition for contempt and attempt to evaluate whether or not the Master's report, as ultimately adopted by the Court, has been complied with by the husband.

Each party is directed to deposit the sum of $200.00 on or before July 29, 1988, as partial compensation for the Master's added services.

If further appears that the Plaintiff/Husband has taken a new professional position in the State of New York and will be moving from the area approximately August 1, 1988. The Court directs counsel for the parties to meet and attempt to arrive at a list of items which the wife contends are still in possesison of the husband and attempt to set aside these items, if they are admitted to exist and place them in agreed storage before the husband's move is made.

The Court grants to the Master the authority to allocate Master's fees, storage fees, or ancillary expenses incurred in resolving this problem between the parties in an equitable manner at the Master's discretion.

July 10, 1995, ORDER filed. ANDNOW, July 5, 1995 the motion for entry of Judgement of non-pros filed by Rivinius, Inc. is granted, and Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the defendant, Rivinius, Inc. and against the plaintiffs; and this action is dismissed.
In the event there is an appeal, we will write a more lengthy opinion in support of this order as envisioned by the rules of appeal.
At this point, we note that the plff Earl T.Ebbert dis appear at the argument held this date and that his address for mialing for service purposes and all further purposes in this case is P.O. Box 363, Meadville, Pa. 16335.
There has been absolutely no docket activity since the filing of a notice of service of discovery matters filed on Jan. 23, 1987. We are guided by three factors in this case to wit: (1) whether a party has shown a lack of due diligence with fialing to proceed with reasonable promptitude; (2) whether there is a compelling reason for the delay; (3) whether the delay has shown prejudice tothe adverse party which prejudice is presumed where there is a period of no docket activity for two years for longer see Penn Piping, Inc. vs. Ins. Co. of NorthAmerica; 529 Pa. 350, 603 A.2d 1006, 1008 (1992); Shrum v. Philadelphia Elect. Co., 440 Pa. 383, 386-87, 269 A.2d 502, 504 (1970); Abraham Zoning Corp v. After Six, Inc., 414 Pa. Super. 611, 607 A.2d 115 (1992).
We have considered all of these factors, and it appears that the dft. Rivinius, Inc., is clearly entitled to a Judgment of non pros. There was no compelling reason for delay. Mr. Ebbert simply indicated that he forgot about the case. He talked to a lawyer about his worker's compensation action that law firm would not take this case, but he has not made any effort to get counsel beyond that. The passage of nearly 8 years presumes prejudice, and there is no compelling reason for the plaintiff's delays.
The plaintiffs are advised in open court that they have thirty days from this date to file an appeal with theSuperior Court. That is a permanent deadline. If an appeal is not taken within the time required, then this matter becomes final permanently with no further rights of appeal.
Mr. Ebbert represents that Edna Ebbert resides at Gill Village, Meadville, Pa. The Prothonotary shall send a true and correct copy of this order toboth Mr. and Mrs. Ebbert at the addresses indicated in this order.
