CERTIFIED COPY OF DIVORCE DECREE FROM GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE DISTRICT COURT DIVISION OF FORSYTH COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

THIS CAUSE coming on to be haring and being heard this 1st day of August, 1996, before the undersigned judge presiding over the District Court Divsion of the General Court of Justice of Forsyth County, North Carolina, ukpon plaintiff's complaint for absolute divorce based upon grounds of one years separation;

And it appearing to the Court andthe Court find as facts that the defendant was served a copy of the summons and complaint herein on the 1st day of July, 1996; that no answer or other pleadings has been filed by either party prior to the call of this cuase for trial; and that no request for a jury trial has been made, sothat, under General Statutes Section 50-10 and 1A-1, Rules 38 and 39, the parties have waived the right to have the facts determined by a jury, and the Court is authorized to determine the issues of fact:

And, on plaintiff's claim for absolute divorce, the court finding, from the evidence and the greater weight thereof, the issued of fact as follows:

1. Has the Plaintiff been a bona fide resident of the State of North Carolina for at least six (6) months next preceding the commencement of this action and the filing of the complaint, as alleged in the Complaint? ANSWER: yes

2. Were the plaintiff and defendant lawfully married to each other, as alleged in the complaint? ANSWER: yes

3. Have the plaintiff and defendant been separated and have they lived continuously separate and apart from each other at all times for at least one year next preceding the commencement of this action, as alleged in the complaint? ANSWER: yet

And the Court concluding as a matter of law that the plaintiff has fully met and established all statutory requirements and is entitled, on grounds of one years separtion, to an absolute divorce from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, upon the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is ORDERED, ADJDUGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony hereto fore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and are hereby dissolved, adn the pplaintiff is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant;

2. That the costs of this action be and the same are hereby taxed to the plaintiff.

This the 1 day of August, 1996.

COMPLAINT UNDER SECTION 3301(d) OF THE DIVORCE CODE
1 copy atty.

AND NOW, this 11 day of August , 1998, a complaint in divorce being filed herewith which avers that there are children of the marriage under the age of 18 years it is ORDERED and DECREED that the parties shall comply with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930 and shall attend and complete the Seminar for Saparating Parents. Applications for the seminar may be obtained at the Center for Family Services, Inc., 996 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335; the Office of the Prothonotary in the Crawford County Courthouse; the Court Administrator's Office in the Crawford County Courthouse.

Application must be made by the plaintiff within fifteen (15) days after he/she filed the complaint in this action; and application must be made by the defendant within fifteen (15) days after he she was served with the complaint.

Each party is required to complete the seminar within forty-five (45) days after he she makes application.

Failure to complete the seminar WILL BE BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE COURT and MAY RESULT IN THE FINDING OF CONTEMPT, A DISMISSAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS, A DELAY IN THE PROCEEDINGS OR OTHER SANCTIONS. If either party has any questions concerning this seminar that party should consult an attorney; the Crawford County Civil Rules of Court, copies of which may be obtained in the Prothonotary's Office or the Crawford County Law Library located in the Crawford County Courthouse; or the Center for Family Services, Inc., 966 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335.

Oct. 23, 1998 Certificate of Children Cope with Divorce Seminar of Plaintiff, filed.

Nov 24, 1998 Certificate of Service: I certify that a copy of the Plaintiff's Notice of Intention to Request Entry of Divorce Decree pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure Sec 1920.42 and 1920.73 was served on the Defendant by first class mail on Nov 4, 1998.

Nov 24, 1998 Notice of Intention to Request Entlry of Divorce Decree, filed.

Nov 24, 1998 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

December 7, 1998 Order Filed This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The court has reveiwed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary
A final decree will not be entered at this time because:
As to a 3301(d) divorce: There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(d)(1) in the form required by 1920.73 has been given to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or submit
Other: There is no evidence that defendant has complied with local rule L1930 by completing the Seminar for Parents.
Eitehr party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

By Order of Court
12/7/98 Gordon R. Miller, J.

Dec. 31, 1998 Notice of Intention to REquest Entry of Sect. 3301(d) Div. Decree filed.

Dec. 31, 1998, Upon praecipe of plff. attorney, to transmit record, this case resubmitted tothe court.

Jan 18, 1999 Memorandum and ORder filed. And now, Jan 15, 1999 the Court has reviewed this matter once again on a praecipe to transmit the record for final divorce decree.
We will not grant a final decree because there is no evidence that the defendant has complied with Crawford County Civil Ruel C 1930 by attending an appropriate Seminar for Separating Parents.

Aug 25, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Aug 24, 1998, at the time set for hearing, the parties meet with the Court with neither having counsel. It appears that the Defendnat husband is now in counsleing through Stepping Stones and that the parties have reconciled to the end that they are now sharing the marital household. After receiving input from both parties, the parties have accepted the recommendation of the Court that the hearing be continued.

Accordingly, this abuse case, filed by the Plaintiff wife, is continued generally for a period of three months. The Court notes that the Defendant is now in counseling and the wife has advised the Court and her husband that she will cooperate in meeting with the husband's counselor when requested.

The parties agree they may jointly occupy the marital residence. The husband agrees he will continue his counseling. The wife agrees she will cooperate in any way possible.

This case is continued and held open for a period of three months from this date and if the wife does not request a full hearign on this case on or before Nov 24, 1998, this case, with the consent of both parties, will be discontinued without further Order.

In the event the wife wishes a full hearing on this case within the three month period, she may fiel a simple petition requesting a hearing and delineate in some detail the reasons why a hearing is necessary to protect her from her husband.

The Court advises that if there is no hearing requested within the aforesaid three month period, that at that time, in order to have the petition discontinued, costs int he amount of $97.50 will have to be paid to the Prothonotary's Office, Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Box 15, Millmont, PA 17845.

Dec 4, 1998 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

December 18, 1998 Order filed. And Now, December 17, 1998 this court has reviewed this file pursuant to a praecipe to transmit the record for final decree in dirorce. Unfortunately we cannot grant a divorce because the Plaintiff has not complied with all of the applicable rules. If the Plaintiff is proceeding under 3301(c) divorce by mutual consent the affidavits of consent must be dated and filed more than 90 days the Defendant was served.(Pa.R.C.P.1920.42(b). The Defendant was served on September 10, 1998. The Plaintiff's affidavit of consent is dated November 12, 1998 Teh Defendant's affidavit of consente is Dated Nove. 19, 1998. Both of those are within 90 days after service.
If the Plaintiff is proceeding under a 3301(d)(1) divorce then her praecipe to transmit the record should have a copy of the Notice of Intention to Request Entry of Divorce Decree that the Plaintiff served upon the Defendant. (Pa.R.C.P. 1920.42(d)(1). The fore of that notice depends upon whether or not the Defendant had counsel. See Pa.R.C.P. 1920.73(a).
Once the Plaitniff complies with the applicable rule that she is proceeding under she should file another praecipe to transmit the record to the Court and the Prothonotary shall deliver the record to the Court for further review.

Jan 8, 1999 Certificate of completion of separating parents seminar, filed. (Todd Deible)

July 29, 1999Order filed. And Now, July 28, 1999 after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esq. and upon agreement of the parties, It is Ordered and Decreed as follows, To-Wit:

I. The father and Mother the plaintiff and defendant herein, shall have shared legal custody of the subject minor children, Shakayla S. Deible and Brandon E Deible. Both parents are entitled to full access to any records relating to the hcildren held by a third party including, but not limited to school records and medical records and each parent shall have equal input regarding important decisions affecting the children such as education, religious instruction and medical treatment.

II. Primary physical custody of the children shall be with their mtoher, subject to the following

A. during the school year (and during the Summer fo 1999) father shall be entitled to take t children into his temporary physical custody 3 weekends per month. Father's weekends shall, in so far as possible, include the weekends in which he is off from work on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. On those weekends he shall pick the children up at approximately the time they complete school and shall have them in his custody until Sunday evening at 7 pm.

On one of the three weekends when father has to work on Sunday, he shall pick up the children Friday after sshool and return them on Saturday at 7 pm. This is one of father's three weekends.

B. The fahter typically has 3 weeks of vacation each year. It is agreed upon by the parties that the children shall be with their father when the father takse his vacation. However, the father must give the mother 1 month advance notice as to when he is taking vacation time.

C. Beginning with the summer of 2000 the father shall have temporary physical custody from 1 week after school is over in the Spring for a period of 6 consecutive weeks. During this period mother shall have the children in her custody when father has "short Weekends" off from work. The children shall be in mother's custody for the remainder of the Summer and during this time fahter shall have the children in his custody on weekends according to the schedule in II,A,above.

D. The holiday visitation scheduled shall be as follows:

1. Christmas: For Christmas, 1999 and every odd-numbered year thereafter, the mother shall have the childern with her from Christmas Eve until 12pm on Chirstmas Day. The children are to be returned to their mother on Christmas Day at 12pm In the event that Christmas Day falls on eitehr a Friday or Saturday during one of the father's weekend visits, then the children shall still remain with their mother in this situation.

2. Thanksgiving: For Thanksgiving,1999 and every odd-numbered year thereafter, the father shall have the children with him commencing on the evening prior to Thanksgiving Day at a time to be agreed upon by the parents until the day after Thanksgiving at 6 pm unless it is the fahter's weekend then the father has the children until Sunday at 7 pm.

Feb 3, 1999 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

FEb. 19, 1999 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time. because.

Economic and other issues or counts have been raised in the pleadings or by petition which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation. (Equitable Distribution and Alimony) Costs in the amount of $9.00 are due. Either party may file a praecipe to refer thematter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

By order of The Court
Gorodn R. Miller, J

August 3, 1999 Pretrial Order filed. And Now, August 3, 1999 after pre-trial conference with all counsel present the Court Enters the following order:
1. All discovery is completed all parties are ready for trial, the jury has been selected an the trial shall commence on Tuesday Aug 10, 1999 at 9 am in Courtroom No. 1 of teh Crawford county Courthouse. The parties represent that this case shall take no more then one-half to one day to try.
2. Description of the case. This is an action by the Plaintiff which believes that it is a perfected secured creditor in inventory belonging to Julie A. Jones d/b/a Kalkbrenner's Archery. It claims that the Defendant has converted inventory in which the Plaintiff has a perfected security interst, to his own use. The Defendant claims, however tht he also had a perfected security interest in the inventory and that his security interest had a priority over the security interest of the Plaintiff.
3. The factual issues are as follows; kThe primary factual issue is whether or not the Defendant did have a security interest in inventory.
4. Legal issues. A. Whether describing archery inventory by use of the term "archery stoxk" is sufficient as to reasonable identify the collateral in the security agreement, thereby creating a security interes in the collateral.
b. Whether or not the Plaintiff as a junior lien holder is entitled to notification of the disposition of collateral pursuant ot 13 Pa.C.S.A. 9504(c).
c. Whether Defendant's sale of the archery inventory of Julie Jones without notice to the Plaintiff constitutes conversion of property pledged to the Plaintiff in which the Plaintiff had a prior and higher legal right to possession over kthat of teh Defendant.
d. Whether or not any witness may testify as to the intent of the parties to the security agreement entered into by Julie Jones and the Defendant.
5. Disposition of pre-trial motions. There are no outstanding pre-trial motions pending disposition.
6. The Plaintiff claims the following damages: $12,917.61 together with court costs and interest attorneys fees and such other consequential damages as suffered by the Plaintiff as a result of the alleged conversion.
7. The Plaintiff claims damages pursuant to 13 Pa.C.S.A 9507 (a).
8. The Plaintiffs case in chief:
a. Witnesses. Plaintiff intends to call the witnesses listed on its pretrial narrative.
b. Exhibits. The Plaintiff intends to introduce the exhibits listed on his pretrial narrative.
b.9. The Defendant's case in chief: A. Witnesses The Defendant intends to call the witnesses listed on his kpretrial narrative.
b. Exhibits. The Defendant intends to introduce the exhibits listed on his pretrial narrative.
10. Stipulations. The parties will attempt to enter into as many stipulations as is reasonable to streamline this trial. It appears they will be entering into a stipulation that the Palintiff has a judgment and a perfected security interest in inventory. The Plaintiff shall make available the loan application adn loan file of Julie Jones to the Defendant.
11. If the parties have not already done so they should pre-number all exhibits, provide copies to oposing counsel by Friday, August 6, 1999.
12. Trial briefs on the relevant legal issues shall be submitted by counsel to the Court, with copies to opposing counsel no later than 4:30 PM on Friday August 6, 1999.

August 6, 1999 Amended Order filed. And Now, August 6, 1999 the Prothonotary has called our attention to the fact that paragraph one of our pretrial Order is in error. This is not a jury trial. The jury has not been selected. However, all discovery is completed the parties are ready for trial and the trial should take place on Tuesday, August 10, 1999 at 9 am in Courtroom no. 1 of the Crawaford county Courthouse.
To the extent that paragraph one of the pretrial order of Augsut 3, 1999 refers to a jury trial, we now make that correction.

July 9, 1999 Petition to Continue Suspension of Temporary Custody and Supervised Visits Filed

July 9, 1999 Order filed. And Now, July 9, 1999 this custody matter comes before the cour in Motion court on the plaintiff's Petition to Require Mental Evaluation of the Defendant and Petition to Continue Suspension of Temporary Custody and Supervised visits.
After listening to both sides and reviewing this matter, the Petition to Require Mental Evaluation of teh Defendant is denises in that it is not in the appropriate form and we believe that, initially that decision should be the mediator's, if mediation is scheduled in this matter. This Order will, therefore, be without prejudice to the mediator to require an evaluation of teh defendant and/or the plaintiff and/or any child or the children.
With regard to the Apetition to Continue Suspension of Temporary Custody and Supervised Visits the same is denied except that it is Ordered and Directed that during any periods of temporary physical custody or visitation with the defendant, Timothy Grifiths, shall not be prsent and no party shall talk to any child about any pending matter concerning alleged abuse by Timothy Griffiths regarding any of teh Children in question.
This restriction will only remain in effect for a period of 30 days unless criminal charges are filed against Timothy Griffiths within that time period or if mediation is requseted within the next then days by the palintiff, and in that event the restriction will remain in effect until there is mediation.
Nothing in this Order shall be constructed to be any indication to the mediator as to how this matter should ultimately be handled or what the ultimate outcome should be.

Sept 18, 1998 Motion For Exclusive Possession of Marital Residence and Order: AND NOW, this 17th day of September, 1998, upon the Plaintiff's motion for exclusive possession of the marital residence, hearing is set on this matter for the 2nd day of October, 1998 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom No. 3. Ann A. Walker, C. A.
Sept 18, 1998 Faxed Gagliotti

Oct 6, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Oct 2, 1998, at the time scheduled for hearign on Motion for Exclusive Possession of Marital Residence filed by the plaintif husband, counsel for the husband appears, but neither of the parties appear. The Court is advised by plaintiff's counsel that Attorney Barbara Walton is representing the defendant wife, but Attorney Walton does not appear.

The Cour tis advised that the marital residence in question is in the name of the plaintiff husband and the purpose of the motion for exclusive possession was to prevent the wife from intruding or trespassing upon the property and a trailer located thereon.

ACCORDINGLY, without hearing, and in view of the fact the defendant wife and her counsel have received notice of this hearing and failed to appear, we hereby direct that the plaintiff husband Kyle Richard Blood shall have exclusive possession of the real estate and trailer located thereon at 5362 Beaver Stareet, Springboro, PA 16435.

The defendant wife Melissa Kimberly Blood shall not go upon the property for any purpose.

September 9, 1998 ORDER FILED. And now, September 9, 1998 upon motion of the Defendant, which is not objected to by the plaintiff, The Defendant's Request for a hearing on a Claim for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees, Costs and Expenses shall also be scheduled at 11 AM on September 10, 1998 which is the time currently set for a Petition for Exclusive Possession filed by the Plaintiff.
Additionally, at that same tiem the Protection From Abuse matter filed by the Plaintiff against the defendant and curently scheduled for Sept. 11, 1998 at 3:30 shall also be heard.
The Court will keep open the 3:30 pm time on Sept. 11, 1998 when the PFA was originally scheduled in case additional time is needed to deal with any of the issues that will be before the Court.
The order in which the issues will be dealt with at 11 AM on Sept. 10, 1998 will be determined by the sitting judge at that time and the parties are aware that it is possible that not all of the issues will be able to be dealt with at the 11 o'clock time slot on Sept. 10, 1998 nor even continuing into the 3:30 time slot on Sept. 11, 1998 but the parties will endeavor to complete all of the issues within those time frames.

BY THE COURT

9/9/98 Dist.

Sept 14, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, September 10, 1998, after a formal hearing, the facts in this case present a very close case as to whether or not the defendant has engaged in abuse as defined in 23 Pa. C.S.A. 6102(a)(5). We are satisfied that the defendant did engage in yelling and screaming at his wife, but none of it was of a threatening or physicAL NATURE. THEREFORE, the incident that happened on September 2, 1998 appears to be the only incident where there was any type of physical contact. While this is a close case, we are not satisfied that the plaintiff has carried her burden of proof, and accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Protection FRom Abuse action is dismissed.
2. By dismissing this action, we are not sanctioning the defendant or allowing him to physically or sexually abuse his wife or children. We are simply making a finding on a particular set of facts that were presented to us.
3. Costs shall be paid by Crawford County.
4. The Temporary Protection From Abuse Order that was entered on Sept 2, 1998 is dismissed.
5. A true and correct copy of this Order shall be delivered by the Prothonotary to County Control and the Pennsylvania State Police at Meadville.

Sept 2, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Sept 2, 1999 we find as a fact the Defendant is in contempt for failing to attend the seminar for separating parents. She does not have a lawful excuse, and therefore, we conclude that her failure is willful. In order to purge herself from the contempt she shall complete the Seminar and have a certification of completion filed within the next 30 days. If she does that, these contempt proceedings will be automatically dissolved. If she fails to do so ,the Plaintiff may file a motion for further hearinga nd we will impose appropriate sanctions.

VENIRE ORDER

ORDER:

AND NOW, September 1, 1998, the Jury Commissioners are directed to summon two separate panels of jurors for the October 1998 civil trial term, as follows:

PANEL A, which shall consist of 60 jurors, shall be summoned to appear Monday, October 12, 1998, at 9:00 a.m., and serve through Friday, October 23, 1998; and PANEL B, which shall consist of 60 jurors, also shall be summoned to appear MOnday, October 12, 1998, at 9:00 a.m., and serve through Friday, October 23,1998.

Two separate panels of jujors are being called so that the Court may reduce the number of jurors reporting if there are only one or two cases to be tried. To that end, one or both of these panels may be excused, postponed, or deferred from reporting as summoned, andin that case may be recalled for service at a later time.

second, and the parents shall therafter alternate.
iv. The child shall be in the custody olf the Mother on Mother's Day and in the custody of her Father on Fahter's Day during the hours of 9 am through 8 pm each year.
v. The holiday visitation periods shall take precedence over all other visitation periods.
3. Transportation of the child for all visits shall be shared between the parents unless other arrangements are made by the parents, with the parent receiving custody to provide transportation. There shall be no unpleasant exchanges between the parents during exchanges of custody. The proper child restraints i.e. car seat and/or seat belts, shall be worn at all times during the transporting of the child for said visits.
4. Neither parent shall expose the child to any person or situation that may be harmful to the health, safety or well being of the child.
5. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, nor shall either paretn permit others to do so but rather each parent shall do everything in their power to promote a favorable and loving attitiude on the part fo the child toward both parents.
6. Each parent shall inform the other parent immediately of any serious illness or injury regarding the child and both parents shall furnish the other with a current address and telephone number. If the child sustains a minor injur of illness it is sufficient that the parent notify the other parent of same when there is an exchange of custody of the child.
7. Neither parent shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol at any time when that parent has the care and custody of the subject minor child. this order is nto intended to preclude either parent from taking the child to a restaurant which serves alcoholic beverages, so long as neither parent shall consume alcoholic beverages in that establishment when the child are with the parent.
8. The parents are encouraged to make additional or alternative arrangements regarding physical custody of the child and may modify the herein custody arrangements if such modifications are by mutual consent and in wirting and signed by both parents only; otherwise, the provisions contained herein shall govern and this order shall be followed completely as it is written.
9. The cost of the meidation conference shall be divided equally between the parents. The deposit paid in advance by the Mother shall first be applied to her share of costs adn the remainder refunded to her, less the cost of the Court's Order.
10. This Order is a temporary Order but shall become a permanent Order unless either parent fils a request for a Hearing DeNovo within twenty days of the date hereof.

Sept. 27, 1999 Petition For Special Relief filed.

Sept. 27, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 24 day of September, 1999, upon consideration of Petitioner's Petition for Special Relief, a Rule to show cause why his petition should not be granted is hereby entered on the Respondent and set for the 23rd day of November, 1999 at 1:30 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Coruthouse, Meadville, PA.
BY THE COURT:
Gordon R. Miller, J.
Sept. 27, 1999 FAXED Attys. Irwin, Halliday, Dom Rel.

Oct. 1, 1999, Affidavit of consent of dft. filed.

Oct. 1, 1999, Waiver of Notice of Intention of dft. filed.

Oct. 1, 1999 Affidavit of consent of plff. filed.

Oct. 1, 1999, Waiver of notice of intention of plff. filed.

Oct 7, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Sept 30, 1999 this matter comes before the Court for a Denovo Spousal Support Hearing at the requeste of the plaintiff after an order was entered after hearing in front of teh Conference ofice on May 21, 1999.
Both parties are represented by counsel and they have reached an agreement which also entails some matters that are in a pending divorce action a AD 1998-1079.
Accordingly a duplicte copy of this Order will be filed at that number and term for informational purposes with regard to what the parties have agreed to this day.
It is agreed and terefore ordered and directed that the Temporary Order for support entered on May 21, 1999 will become a Final Order with the exceptions noted below.
First of all the parties agree that the arrears amount as of the end of Sept 1999 would be $3251.12 and teh Defendant apparently has made mortgage payments in the amount of $1991.64 which once verified by the plaintiff, will reduce the arrears to $1259.48. That $1991.64 figure also includes a payment toward homeowner's insurance of $300.
In the event these payments or any of the payments constituting the $1991.64 have not been made by the Defendant this Order will be without prejudice to the Plaintiff to come back for further hearing, unless a further agreement can be reached.
The Defendant will continue paying the spousal support due in the amount of $797.22 per month and once that obligation ceases because the divorce if final, he will continue paying that amount each month until the arreas have been paid to zero.
The parties agree that they will promptly file 3301(c) consents and appropriate waivers inthe divorce action so that the divorce may be made final, and as part of this setlement, each will keep any personal property in their possession a this time.
As par of the settlement, the jPlaintiff/Wife will have ownership and possesion of teh marital residence and she shall begin making the mortgage payments on that residence immediately the Court noting that apparently the Sept 1999 payment has alaready been made by the defendant. She shall hold the Defendant harmless and indemnify him for any failure to make such payments, and in the event the residence would go to foreclosure for nonpayment of the mortgage, the Defendant may bring the mortgage to date and then assume ownership of the residence.
During discussions in this matter, the one problem with all of this is taht apparently the residence is only in the Defendant/Husband's name and the mortgage likewise is in his name only. So the parties will have to determine a manner to accomplish what they wish to with regard to the wife's ownership of the marital residence and they will be working taht part out.
In al rspects in which this Order is not inconsistent with the May 21, 1999 order that order is affirmed.
By Order of the Court

PETITION FOR HABEAS CORPUS RELIEF
3 copies atty.

Oct. 5,1998 Order filed. AND NOW, September 28, 1998, this matter comes before the Court for a scheduled Gagnon II Parole Violation Hearing. There have been some problems scheduling this matter because the Defendant has been represented by Attorney Donald Lewis and the Court Administrator has been trying to arrive at a time when this can be scheduled to fit into Mr. Lewis' schedule. At this time, when the Defendant appears, although Mr. Lewis is still attorney of record, Attorney Wes Rowden appears on behalf of the Defendant and will be representing him.

Mr. Rowden has already filed, at this civil number in term, a petition for a writ of hebeas corpus, in which it is alleged that the defendant was extradited form Ohio improperly.

To further complicate the already complicated issue, the Defendant's current counsel formerly was an Assistant District Attorney and it appears that in 1992 he represented the Commonwealth, at leas tto some extent, in proceedings against this Defendant at this number in term, and as recently as 1995, hi sname appears of record for theCommonwealth from this case.

The defendant has stated on the record that he does not object to Mr. Rowden now representing him, but the Commonwealth may have an objection and we are not sure, atk this pointm of the law in this area; although, we believe that they do have a right to object and that the counsel for the Defendant can only proceed if there is consent by the Commonwealth.

The Commonwealth doe sindicate that they will consent with regard to the criminal case if the Gagnon II hearing proceeds this day, but counsel for the Defendant believes that before that hearing can proceed, there must be a determination with regard to the habeas corpus action.

Accordingly, we are confreonted with threee issues that need to be resolved adn the first one that needs to be resolved is whether Mr. Rowden will be representing the Defendant in either or both of these cases.

Therefore, the habeas corpus matter will be continued wuntil that first issue can be resolved, as will the Gagnon II matter, which was schedule this day.

The Court Adminstrator is directed to list the issue with regard to whether Mr. Rowden can proceed as counseli in these matter for argument on the next availalbe argument list. The parties will follow the appropriate briefing schedule set forth in the Local Rules of Court when that issue is schedule for argument.

Once we resolve that issue, we will be able to schedule the other matter with Mr. Rowden, either continuing as counsel, or with new counsel, if we determine he is not permitted to continue as counsel.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
ANthony J. Vardaro, J

Nov. 24, 1998 Order filed. And Now, Nov. 20, 1998 counsel for the Defendant having filed a motion to withdraw at both of these cases and the Court having inquired of the Defendant as to whether that is his wish in open Court and the Defendant having indicated that it is the motion of counsel to withdraw on both cases is granted.

By Order of The Court
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

11/23/98 Dist. Schultz & Rowden

AND NOW, this 19 day of Nov., 1998, upon considerationof the foregoing Petition, due deliberation thereon, and good cause appearing therefore, it his ORDERED that the Commonwealth shall appear before this Court on Wed., Dec. 2, 1998 at 11:15 o'clock a.m. Courtroom Number 1 to show cause, if any they have, why a writ of Habeas Corpus should not be issued herein, and why the relief requested in his Omnibus Pre-trial Motion should not be granted.

Feb. 22, 1999 Order filed. And Now, this 19th day of Feb. 1999 it is ordered as follows: 1. The petitioner's reqeust for a hearing is denied.
2. The Court Administrator is ordered and directed to accept no more fillings from the petitioner in this case.
This case has come to a final conclusion. Any filings or attempted filings by the petitioner in this case would be totally out of order. The procedural history is simple. The petitioner filed a petition for habeas corpus relief. We ultimately held a hearing and entered an order on Dec. 10, 1998 denying habes corpus relief. The petitioner has not taken an appeal to the Superior Court and therefore this matter is final.

It appears (but we are not certain) that the petitioner has now filed an application for writ of habeas corpus in the United States District Court for the Western District of PA. For some unknown reason and totally without any legal authority, the petitioner has filed copies of his federal court filings in this case. That is not acceptable and those filings have absolutely no affect in this case. Those filings should be made in the court to which they are addressed We will not, and cannot accept in this case copies of any matters filed, or to be filed, or which are addressed to another court.

October 22, 1998 Order filed. And now, October 12, 1998 at the time set for a hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief under the Protection From Abuse Act, the Plaintiff appears without counsel and the Defendant appears with counsel.
The Plaintiff indicates that her attorney is having out-patient surgery today, although it is unclear whether that attorney Dennis Williams will in fact be representing her.
In order to give her an opportunity to obtain counsel we grant her request for a continuance and this matter is continued until October 20, 1998 at 3:30 PM in Courtroom No 2 before the undersigned.
The temporary order entered on September 30, 1998 by Jduge Miller shall continue in full force and effect pending that hearing except that the Defednnat may have contact with the minor child, Robert, by telephoning him and making arrangements to have temporary.physical custody of him from time to time.
The plaintiff is cautioned that when this matter comes again before the Court, she shall be prepared to proceed either with counsel or without counsel because no further continuances will be granted because she does not have counsel.

Dec. 17, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, December 7, 1998, at the time set for hearing, counsel for the Plaintiff, Attorney Irwin, advises through inadvertence he is not in a position to represent the Plaintiff. The matter is informally discussed among counsel and the Court and no consent order can be agreed upon. Accordingly, the matter is continued until December 29, 1998,at 9:00 a.m. before the undersigned.
Counsel for the Plaintiff should be aware that when she retains new counsel, Court will not enteretain a motion for continuance because of unavailablity of counsel on December 29,
Terms and conditions of the temporary order shall remain in effect until said time unless amaicably changed by the parties in writing.
The temporary order entered shall continue in full force and effect pending that hearing except that the defendant may have contact with minor child, Rober,t by telephoning him and makeing arrangements to have temporary physical custody of him form time-to-time.
Parties agree that pending final decision in this case the fourth paragraph of the temporary order entered October 29 1998, regarding visitation with the minor child shall continue by agreement ofthe parties.

January 6, 1999 Order Filed. This Court finds this domestic Seperation and the incidents relating to the abuse action are not amenable to resolution through the abuse petition filed in this case and accordingly, we dismiss the petition and direct the county to absorb any unpaid costs.
If any actual or threatened violation of the criminal law are alleged to have been committed upon Laura J. Ott we recommend that said actions be the subject of an appropriate criminal action after consultation with the district attorney of the appropriate county.
Any disputes over possession or rights to automobiles and other property should be petitioned for resolution under the divorce action in Erie County.
Petition dismissed.

IN THE MATTER OF VICTORIA L. CORMLEY, an alleged incapacitated person

Filed October 2, 1998
@ 3:22 PM

PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY INTERVENTION BY EMERGENCY COURT ORDER
1 copy atty.

AND NOW, October 2, 1998, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, it is hereby ordered that ActiveAging, Inc. shall provide the following protective services to Victoria L. Gormley and that such services shall be provided without her consent: She shall be placed in Sunset Manor Nursing Home after her discharge from Titusville Hospital pending further order of court.

The terms of this order shall expire at , October 6, 1998. The court hereby sets Tues, Oct. 6, 1998 at 9:00 a.m. as the time and place for a review hearing in the event of need for an additional emergency court order or continued court and protective services involvement or both. The court hereby appoints William Walker, Esq. to represent the aforesaid order adult as said hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

Oct. 12, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, October 6, 1998, at the time set for hearing on a Petition for Involuntary Intervention filed by ActiveAging, Inc., counsel for the alleged incapacitated person appears and indicates that she wishes to be present to the best of his knowledge at this hearing, and she is not present because the only arrangements that could be made for her to the hearing would have by ambulance at a cost of $1100.

Under the circumstances, upon motion of the incapacitated person, through counsel, this matter is continued until October 7, 1998, at 1 p.m., with the hearing to be held at the Sunset Manor Facility in Titusville.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

10/12/98 Distributed Hall & Walker

Oct. 12, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, October 7, 1998, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Petition for Involuntary Intervention and Extension of a Temporary Emergency Order entered by the Court on October 2, 1998.

In light of the fact that the older adult who is the subject of this proceeding was not able to be reasonably transported to the Court, this hearing was conducted at the Beverly Health Care Center of Titusville formally Sunset Manor.

After hearing, we find that the older adult continued to be in need of intervention and it is ordered and directed that the emergency order which was entered on October 2, 1998 shall remain in effect for a period not to exceed 30 days without further order of Court with the following modifications:

1. While the older adult may remain at the Beverly Health Care Facility in Titusville, efforts should be made to determine whether she can as soon as possible be temporarily transferred to a personal care facility and ultimately whether arrangements can be made for her to be transferred to the least restrictive alternative which would be back to her home.
2. The Court recognizes that htere are going to be several hurdles to the possiblity of her returning home but for the most part, it would seem that that is the appropraite thing to occur if there can be arrangements for her to have osmeone with her at night and osmeone to make sure she takes her medication during the day.
3. It would seem that the next least restrictive altlernative would be a personal care faciliy unless as a result of her stay at the current facility it is deemed she needs more stringent nursing care than can be provided through a peronsal care facility.
4. If a plan that is acceptable has not been reached within the 30 days, the Petitioner should request further Order of Court so that we may review this matter.

Oct 20, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Oct 19, 1998, at the time set for hearing in this matter, neither party appears.

The Court is advised by teh Court Administrator's Office that the defendant called early last week asking for a continuance so that he could get an attorney and was advised that he could not get a continuance unless he filed a written motion.

He did not do so, but apparently he has allegedly advised the plaintiff through the plaintiff's mother that the hearing was continued at his request and therefore the plaintiff has not appeared this day.

Based on all of this, the hearing is continued until Oct 30, 1998, at 3:30 p.m., Courtroom No. 1 or 2 and the Temporary Order entered by Judge Miller on Oct 7, 1998, shall remain in full force and effect.

The Prothonotary shall provide a copy of this Order to the appropriate police agency and Crawford County Control.

Defendant is further notified that violation of this Order may subject him/her to state charges and penalties under the Pennsylvania Crimes Code and to federal charges and penalties under the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2261-2262.

NOTICE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

This Order shall be enforced by the police who have jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's residence or any location where a violation of this Order occurs or where the Defendant may be located. If Defendant violates paragraph 1 through 6 of this Order, Defendant may be arrested on the charge of indirect criminal contempt. An arrest for violation of this Order may be made without warrant, based solely on probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of law enforcement. Subsequent to an arrest, the law enforcement officer shall seize all weapons used or threatened to be used during the violation of this Order or during prior incidents of abuse. Weapons must forthwith be delivered to the Sheriff's office of the county which issued this Order, which office shall maintain possession of the weapons until further Order of this court, unless the weapon/s are evidence of a crime, in which case they shall remain with the law enforcement agency whose officer made the arrest.

Feb 9, 1999 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

Feb. 19, 1999 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prohtonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

Properly completed 3301(c) consents have not been filed of record. Pa.R.C.P. 1920.42.

As to a 3301(c) divorce:

There is no showing tha the proper notice required by 1920.42(d)(1) inthe form required by 1920.73 was mailed or delivered to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or sumbit; and the parties have not exeucted and filed with the Prothonotary a waiver of notice substantially in the form set forht in Rule 1920.72(c).

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

May 6, 1999 Order filed. And Now May 5, 1999 at teh time set for non-jury trial, the Court meets with counsel and the Corut is advised by defense counsel that tehy do not intend to present an evidence in this case and have no objection to the Court entering a consent verdict in favor o f the plaintiffs.
In a conference with counsel, the provable damages on behalf of the plaintiffs are discussed as is the existence of pain and suffering for plaintiff husband and loss of consortium to the wife. Defense counsel raises no objection to the alleged damages claimed by the plaintiff and has no objection to the award of a verdict which includes the specific specialized damages pled, but the Court is apprehensive about augmenting the damage award for specific loss of wages and expesnes by adding pain and suffering thereto without the opportunity to take limited testimony from plaintiff husband and wife in relation to the pain and suffering and loss of consortium damages.
ACCORDINGLY, with the agreement of counsel we will take limited testimony in this area and counsel for the both defendants advises the court he has no objection to this proceeding and wishes to be excused from sitting through the taking of testimony and counsel and administratrix's request that teh Court excuse them from sitting in attendance at the taking of testimony regarding pain and suffering of the plaintiff and loss of consortium on behalf of the palintff.

March 4, 1999 Petition For Contempt and RULE TO SHOW CAUSE filed. AND NOW, this 4th day of March, 1999, upon consideration of the within Petition a Rule is hereby entered upon the Defendants to show cause, if any, why the requested relief should not be granted.
A hearing is hereby set for the 5th day of March, 1999, at 9:00 O'clock A.M. in Courtroom 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse located at Meadville, PA., before, Sr. Judge P. Richard Thomas.

BY THE COURT:
P. Richard Thomas, S. J.
March 4, 1999 FAXED Atty. Spadafore; Mailed Defts. Rabiroads and Blake.

March 5, 1999 Motion for Contempt Hearing Filed.

March 5, 1999 Crder filed. And Now, March 5, 1999 the defendant and plaintiffs with counsel appear at Motion Court regarding the trailer at issue in this case and further scheduling of a hearing to resolve contested issues.
The trailer is located at the Blake residence and the thrust of the plaintiffs' position is that during the time it was in the possession of defendant Rabriroads the tires were changed some equipment removed and plaintiffs request that the trailer be returned in the same condition as when it was leased on a buying agreement. The Court directs that the defendant RAbiroads or anyone acting on his behalf will forthwith remove the trailer from its present location at roadside on the Blake property and will move the same to Allen Hart and Son's garage, HWy 285 Cochranton, PA
It shall be the responsibility of Allen Hart, doing business as H & H Trucking to keep the trailer at its delivered location and make no changes therein until a hearing resolves the issues in this case.
By agreement of the parties, the trailer will be moved form its present location by Allen Hart Trucking and the defendant is ordered to mail a check to Allen Hart Trucking within 48 hours with said check not to be cashed by Allen Hart Trucking until the trailer is on their property. In this regard, the defendant Rabiroads agrees he will promptly mail a check to the Harts within 48 hours of this date.
Both parties agree that they will make no changes in the condition of the trailer as it now exists.
Further hearing in this case is scheduled for March 31, 1999 at 9 am.

✓ STATUTORY APPEAL OF LICENSE SUSPENSION
1 copy atty.

AND NOW, this 4th day of November, 1998, upon consideration of the Notice of Appeal in the above captioned action, the Court hereby schedules a hearing on the merits of the Appeal on Mon., February 1, 1999 in Courtroom 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

FURTHER, this Court hereby acknowledges the Appellant's right to an automatic stay of the suspension of his operators license and directs that such action by the Commonwealth of Pennsyvlania is STAYED.

Appellant, id DIRECTED to serve notice of this appeal and this ORDER upon Chief Counsel of the Department of Transportation, Appellee herein.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

✓ Feb. 3, 1999 ORDER filed. And Now, Feb. 1, 1999 counsel limited the issues to one issue, to wit: whether or not reasonable grounds existed to palce Mr. baker under arrest for driving under the influence.

We come to the conclusion that reasonable grounds did exist. There was evidence that he had consumed alcohol (he admitted to two beers), a pass on a double yellow line, a point where Mr. baker's vehicle was halfway over another double yellow line, a strong ofor of alcohol emanating from Mr. Baker, a glassy eyes, swaying when walking from one vehicle to the location ofthe field sobriety tests, and failing a walk-and-turn test.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The appeal is dismissed.
2. The action of the Sec. of Trans. in suspending Mr. Baker's operating privileges for chemical test refusal on Oct. 4, 1 998 os sustained.

✓ Feb. 24, 1999, ORDER to File Concise Statement of Matters Complaint of on Appeal filed. And Now Feb. 23, 1999 the court having received a notice of appeal in this case hereby directs the appellant to file of record and serve on the undersigned Judge a concise statement of matters complained of on appeal not lager than 14 days after the date of this order, all pursuant to Pa. ✓ Mar. 1, 1999 Notice of Docketing Appeal at 0451 C.D. 1999 Commonwealth court of Pa. filed.

✓ March 10, 1999 Concise Statement of Matters Complained of on Appeal Filed.

✓ March 12, 1999 Corrected Notice of Docketing appeal filed.

Apr 15, 1999 Opinion Sur Pa.R.A.P. 1925 filed. The appeallant has taken an appeal from our Order dismissing his license suspension appeal.

Trooper Orloski testified tht the appellant was operating a motor vehicle in an easterly direction on the AHarmonsburg Rd when the appellant crossed the double center line twice. The first time he crossed the double center line to pass another vehicle then passed the centerline on a second occasion.

Troopers Funk and Orloski pulled the appellant over.

The appellant had an intense odor of alcohol coming from his breath (Orloski testimony transcript p.9) had glassy eyes (N.T.10) and swayed when he got out of his vehicle(N.T.10).

The appeallant was asked to do two field sobriety tests to-wit: the walk and turn test (N.T. 15) and the one leg stand test (N.T.18).

On the walk and turn test he missed his heel to toe once and raised his arms once on the first nine steps.(N.T.17,18)

On the one leg stand test the appeallant swayed (N.T.18).

Based upon these observations the appellant was asked to submit to a blood alcohol test.

The issue in this case is whether or not the officers had reasonable grounds to believe that the appellant was under the influence of alcohol while operating his motor vehicle, the standard that is required to support a license suspension under the implied consent law. Dudek v Comm, Dept of Trans, Bureau of Driver Licensing, 682A.2d 1349(PA.Cmwlth.1996).

The officers had the right to stop the appellant for crossing the centerline on two occasions because crossing the centerline is a violation of the Motor Vehicle Code (75Pa.C.S.A. 3301,3306 3307). (See also 75 Pa.C.S.A.6304).

Once the appellant was stopped the officers observed an intense odor of alcohol, glassy eyes and the apellant swayed when he got out of his vehicle. He failed two field sobriety tests, although not by much.

The "reasonable grounds" standard is a lower standard than a "probable cause" standard. Commonwealth, Dept of Trans, Bureau of Traffic Safety v Doyle 520 A.2d 917,(Pa.CMwlth 1987). The issue is simply whether a reasonable person in the position of the arresting officer, viewing the facts and circumstances as they appeared at the time, could have concluded that the motorist was operating a vehicle under the influence of alocoho. McCallum v Comm , 140 Pa.Cmwlth.317,592A. 2d 820,822 (1991); Gasper v Comm, Dept of Trans Bureau of Licensing, 674A.2d 1200 (Pa.Cmwlth. 1996) appeal denied 685A.2d 546 (1996)

Our Appellate court decisions tell us that the "reasonable grounds" test is not a very demanding test. Comm,Depart of Transportation Bureau of Traffic Safety v Dreisbach, 20 Pa.Cmwlth. 201 363 A.2d 870, 872 (1976)

Most of our appellate court decisions in this area recognize that the issue of whether or not reasonable grounds exist is largely a matter of fact. Taking the arresting officer at his word there seems to be an accumulation of facts which, under the "not very demanding" test that we apply here constitutes reasonable grounds.

Feb. 25, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Feb. 23, 1999 this matter comes bevore the Court as a result of an order entered by Judge Miller on Jan 11, 1999 because neither party had taken the Seminar for Separating Paretns or an equivalent Course.
Both parties are present in court this day and the reocrd discloses that in fact the Defendant Susan Morelli took the Seminar for Separating Parents on Jan 7, 1999 four days before Judge Miller's Order but the certificate apparently had not reached the file at that time.
Accordingly, we will continue this hearing generally and the Plaintiff is directed once he completes that program to file with this Court proof that he has done so.
The Prothonotary shall monitor this file and if that proof has not been filed on or before June 15, 1999 shall move the Court to reschedule this hearing. if that proof is filed then no further hearing will be held.

Consent of the Plaintiff to Defendant's return to the residence shall NOT invalidate this Order, WHICH CAN ONLY BE CHANGED OF MODIFIED THROUGH THE FILING OF APPROPRIATE COURT PAPERS FOR THAT PURPOSE. 23 Pa.C.S. 6113. Defendant is further notified that violation of this Order may subject him/her to state charges and penalties under the Pennsylvania Crimes Code and to federal charges and penalties under the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2261-2262.

NOTICE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

This Order shall be enforced by the police who have jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's residence or any location where a violation of this Order occurs or where the Defendant may be located. If Defendant violates paragraph 1 through 6 of this Order, Defendant may be arrested on the charge of indirect criminal contempt. An arrest for violation of this Order may be made without warrant, based solely on probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of law enforcement. Subsequent to an arrest, the law enforcement officer shall seize all weapons used or threatened to be used during the violation of this Order or during prior incidents of abuse. Weapons must forthwith be delivered to the Sheriff's office of the county which issued this Order, which office shall maintain possession of the weapons until further Order of this court, unless the weapon/s are evidence of a crime, in which case they shall remain with the law enforcement agency whose officer made the arrest.

Nov 9, 1998 Petition For Special Relief in Custody, filed.

Nov 10, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Nov 9, 1998, this matter comes to Motion Court on a petition for special relief in custody, in which the Plaintiff seeks primary physical custody of the minor child. Previously there has been no custody Order in effect, other than the fact that custody was dealt with when a PFA Order was entered agaisnt the respondent on Aug 14, 1998, providing that he should have nocontact with the child and primary physical custody would be with the respondent in this case.

The respondent has been involved in an accident and is apparently still hospitalized.

We will not grant the relief requested at thsi time, but will schedule a hearign to explore that matter on Nov. 19, 1998 at 3:00 p.m. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Relief in a Custody Action, after a demurrer by the dft. through counsel, said demurrer is granted insofar as the court does not find that there is sufficient evidence to grant emergency relief.

This is without prejudice to the plff to proceed throughmediation and ultimately denovo hearing if necessary, and this order is not intended as any guidance to themediator or to the court ultimately in hearing the total case in thismatter.

It would appear, however, at this time that when this matter is mediated that there may be the necessity for custody evaluations both with regard tot he plff and one or both ofthe dfts.

CUSTODY COMPLAINT

AND NOW, this 9th day of November ,1998 it is ordered and decreed that the parents in this matter shall satisfactorily complete the Seminar for Separating Parents in accordance with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930. Applications for the seminar may be obtained at the Center for Family Services, Inc. at 996 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335; the Prothonotary at the Crawford County Courthouse; or the Court Administrator at the Crawford County Courthouse.

Application for attendance at the seminar must be made by the plaintiff or petitioner within fifteen (15) days after the pleading or petition is filed; and by the defendant or respondent within fifteen (15) days after he or she is served with the pleading or petition.

THE SEMINAR MUST BE COMPLETED WITHIN FORTY-FIVE (45) DAYS AFTER APPLICATION. FAILURE TO ATTEND THE SEMINAR MAY RESULT IN SANCTIONS, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT, A DISMISSAL OF THE ACTION OR A DELAY IN THE PROCEEDINGS UNLESS ATTENDANCE IS WAIVED BY ORDER OF COURT.

If either party has any questions about this seminar he/she should consult an attorney or refer to the Crawford County Civil Rules of Court that are available in the Prothonotary's office and in the Crawford County Law Library or contact the Center for Family Services, Inc.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

Nov. 13, 1998 Emergency Petition for Custody filed.

Nov. 13, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, November 12, 1998, upon consideration of the plaintiff's Emergency PetitionFor Custody presented in Motion Court with the defendant, it is Ordered and Directed that primary physical custody of the children set forth in the petition shall remain with the defendant pending mediation in this matter and the plaintiff shall have temporary physical custody each week from Saturday from about 9:00 to 9:30 A.M., until 8:00 P.M. on Sunday.

We note that this Order is not intended to give guidance to the mediator or ultimately to the court with regard to the final dispositionof this matter.

We also note that we were awaiting notice from plaintiff's counsel that a custody action had actually been filed before entering this Order andinreivewing our note taken in Motion Court, we indicated that the Saturday periods of temporary physical custody were to begin at 9:00 to 9:30 and we presume that was A.M., it is our intention that the parties continue to fillow the pattern that they had previously established and if, in fact, that was 9:00 to 9:30 P.M. then our Order should be interpreted to mean that.

January 6, 1999 Order filed. And Now, January 5, 1999 after hearing and input from counsel the Court grants the Plaintiff wife exclusive possession of the marital residence located at 6016 State Highway 198, Conneautville, PA
The parties have two mortgates on the prmeises with mortgage payments totaling approximately $996 per month. The mortgage is in default in the amount of approximately $459 for the month of December. Each party shall be responsible for one-half of the defaulted December mortgage payments which toatl $459. The husband shall be responsible for paying the $459 for the month of December, but the wife shall be responsible for reimbursing the husband in the amount of $229 for the defaulted mortgage payments with said payment to be made on or before Feb. 10, 1999.
As far as the January mortgage is concerned, each party shall be responsible for paying one-half of the first and second mortgages which total a monthly payment of $996. Thus the wife shall pay to the husband in the month of January the sum of $495 to pay the January mortgage, which sum shall be paid to the husband on or before January 20, 1999.
The husband shall be responsible for the total January 1999 mortgage payments and for the mortgage payments for the months of February, March, April, May and June. To help assist in the payment of the monthly mortgage payments, the wife will pay, in addition to the aforesaid sums, a monthly sum, commencing in January of $495 to the husband on or before the 10th of the months of February through June and the husband shall be totally responsible for payment of both of said mortgages in a timely fashion.
This Order shall be in effect for the aforesaid 6 months and is made without prejudice to the right of the parties to proceed with a divorce action and amend this Court Order as part of a final consent divorce decree.
All insurance affecting the premises shall be the responsibility of the husband to pay during this 6 month period. Upon receipt of the insurance bills regarding the premises, the husband shall promptly notify the wife of the total amount and request a sum equal to one-half of the prmeium due and the wifeshall pay her one-half share withyin 10 days of receiving notice.

PETITION FOR DISALLOWANCE OF PRIVATE TAX CLAIM SALE AND FOR HEARING

And Now, this 10 day of November, A.D., 1998, upon consideration of the within Petition for Disapproval of Private Tax Claim Sale and for Hearing, the proposed private tax claim sale of the above described real estate of Gary L. Lawhead is hereby stayed and a hearing on the same is set for Tuesday, December 22, 1998, in Court Room No. 1 at 3:30 O.M. in the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania, all proceedings to be stayed pending said hearing.

Counsel for Petitioner is directed to forthwith serve a copy of the within Peittion and Order upon Frederic Wagner, Director of the Crwaford County Tax Claim Bureau and upon Gary L. Lawhead, the current bidder, at his last known address, and upon the Crawford County Commissioners, the last assessed owner, both by certified mail and regular mail and file an Affidavit of Service theroen.

By the Court,
Gordon R. Miller, J

11/23/98 Faxed Hotchkiss, copy given Wagner

Dec 24, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Dec 22, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on a petition of John D. Page to disallow a proposed private tax claim sale of the subject property to Gary L. Lawhead for $500. The costs that the Treasurer and the Tax Claim Bureau, which to recoup, amounts to $220.50. So, the upset bid price is $720.50, which Mr. Page says he will pay or exceed.

As a spreliminary matter, Mr. Lawhead objected to these proceedings on the basis that he did not receive notice "forthwith" after we entered our Order setting this hearing. He said he had minimal ecpenses, even though he treated the property as his own on the assumption that there had been no objection. The late notice is attributable to Mr. Page's attorney who did not send the notice forthwith, but did serve the notice on or about Dec 9, 1998, and Mr. Hotchkiss argues that that is ample notice, even though it was not given in accordance with the Order, because it gave Mr. Lawhead twelve days to be prepared for this hearing.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The proposed private sale of the subject property to Gary L. Lawhead for $500 is disapproved.
2. We hereby fix a price of $720.50 below which the property shall not be sold.
3. We order and direct a preivate auction to be held forthwith between Gary L. Lawhead and John D. Page to be conducted by Frederick Wagner, County Treasurer and Director of the Crawford County Tax Claim Bureau.
4. At the close of the auction, the successful bidder shall give the Treasurer a personal check in the amount of the successful bid or as much cash as that successful bidder has up to the amount of the successful bid, with the succwssful bidder paying the balance in cash or by certfied check or replacing the personal check with cash or certified check by 4:30 p.m. on Dec 29, 1998.

December 4, 1998 Order Filed. Adn Now, Dec. 1, 1998, it appearing to the Court that the Defendant is a minor, 14 years of age, and under the rules of Civil procedure we cannot proceed until he has a Guardian ad Litem and that Margaret M. Eglington, Esq. is the Guardian ad Litem for this minor in matters in Juvinel Court and accordingly, Margaret M. Eglinton, Esq. is appointed Guardian ad litem for these proceedings also.

By order of the Court
Gordon R. Miller, PJ.J
12/4/98 Dist. Hathewy & Button and mailed Eglinton

December 7, 1998 Order filed. And Now, December 1, 1998 it appears that the defendant is 14 years of age and also under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court of Crawford County in a dependency action, which is ongoing. It appears that he now resides in a foster home as a result of that Juvenile proceeding. It also appears that he has engaged in conduct which wuld amount to abuse, as defined by the Protection from Abuse Act. The Court believes that a PFA action against the Juvenile can be brought in the Civil Division and not in the Juvenile Division and we know of no law or rule at the moment that would prohibit the Civil Division from hearing a PFA action involving a minor who is under the jurisdiction of Juvenile Court. Nonetheless we believe that all of this should be heard in one proceeding and accordingly it is ordered as follows"

1. The Defendant shall not abuse, stalke, harass or threaten Kenn Paprocki and Nancy Paprocki his parents.
2. The Juvenile is subject to an Order of the Juvenile Court and subject to modification or vacation by the Juvenile Court, The defendant is:

a. excluded from the residence of Kenn paprocki and Nancy Paprocki.
b. prohibited from contacating Kenn paprocki and Nancy Paprocki.
c. prohibited from entering or visiting the residence of Kenn Paprocki and Nancy Paprocki.

3. Since the Defendant is a Juvenile costs shall be paid by Crawford County
4. This Order is in effect until Nov. 30, 1999 unless modified or vacated by a subsequent Court Order.

NOTICE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

This Order shall be enforced by the police who have jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's residence or any location where a violation of this Order occurs or where the Defendant may be located. If Defendant violates paragraph 1 through 6 of this Order, Defendant may be arrested on the charge of indirect criminal contempt. An arrest for violation of this Order may be made without warrant, based solely on probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of law enforcement. Subsequent to an arrest, the law enforcement officer shall seize all weapons used or threatened to be used during the violation of this Order or during prior incidents of abuse. Weapons must forthwith be delivered to the Sheriff's office of the county which issued this Order, which office shall maintain possession of the weapons until further Order of this court, unless the weapon/s are evidence of a crime, in which case they shall remain with the law enforcement agency whose officer made the arrest.

( ) 6. Defendant shall immediately relinquish the following weapons to the Sheriff's Office or a designated local law enforcement agency for delivery to the Sheriff's office: _____
Defendant is prohibited from possessing, transferring or acquiring any other weapons for the duration of this Order.

( ) 7. The following additioanl relief is granted: _____

( ) 8. A certified copy of this Order shall be provided to the police department where Plaintiff resides and any other agency specified hereafter _____

(X) 9. THIS ORDER SUPERSEDES (X) ANY PRIOR PFA ORDER AND (X) ANY PRIOR ORDER RELATING TO CHILD CUSTODY.

10. THIS ORDER APPLIES IMMEDIATELY TO DEFENDANT AND SHALL REMAIN IN EFFECT UNTIL MODIFIED OR TERMINATED BY THIS COURT AFTER NOTICE AND HEARING.

NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANT

Defendant is hereby notified that violation of this Order may result in arrest for indirect criminal contempt, which is punishable by a fine of up to $1,000.00 and/or up to six months in jail. 23 Pa.C.S. 6114. Consent of the Plaintiff to Defendant's return to the residence shall NOT invalidate this Order, WHICH CAN ONLY BE CHANGED OF MODIFIED THROUGH THE FILING OF APPROPRIATE COURT PAPERS FOR THAT PURPOSE. 23 Pa.C.S. 6113. Defendant is further notified that violation of this Order may subject him/her to state charges and penalties under the Pennsylvania Crimes Code and to federal charges and penalties under the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2261-2262.

NOTICE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

This Order shall be enforced by the police who have jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's residence or any location where a violation of this Order occurs or where the Defendant may be located. If Defendant violates paragraph 1 through 6 of this Order, Defendant may be arrested on the charge of indirect criminal contempt. An arrest for violation of this Order may be made without warrant, based solely on probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of law enforcement. Subsequent to an arrest, the law enforcement officer shall seize all weapons used or threatened to be used during the violation of this Order or during prior incidents of abuse. Weapons must forthwith be delivered to the Sheriff's office of the county which issued this Order, which office shall maintain possession of the weapons until further Order of this court, unless the weapon/s are evidence of a crime, in which case they shall remain with the law enforcement agency whose officer made the arrest.

April 7, 1999 Order filed. And Now, April 1, 1999 at the time fixed for arguemnt on the preliminary objections filed by one of the Defendant's, John Rictor, the Plaintiff appeared asking that this argument be held at the same time that an argument would be held on the preliminary objections filed by the other Defendant, Mark Waitlevertch. Counsel for Mark Waitlevertch was present and felt that made sense. Counsel for John Rictor agrees that the arguments be held at the same time as the argument on the Waitlevertch preliminary objections which is scheduled for April.

Plaintiff also field a motion to grant additional time to get professional counsel.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. Oral argument on the preliminary objections of John Rictor and the preliminary objections of Mark Waitlevertch shall be held on Monday, April 26, 1999 in Argument Court in Courtroom No. 1 at a time to be set by the Court Administrator when the argument list is finally published.
2. The Plaintiff has withdrawn his motion for additonal time to hire counsel. We have returned the motion to him and it will not be filed of record. It appears that he will have a additional three weeks to get counsel simply by this order setting both arguments for the end of April.

NOTICE TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

This Order shall be enforced by the police who have jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's residence or any location where a violation of this Order occurs or where the Defendant may be located. If Defendant violates paragraph 1 through 6 of this Order, Defendant may be arrested on the charge of indirect criminal contempt. An arrest for violation of this Order may be made without warrant, based solely on probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of law enforcement. Subsequent to an arrest, the law enforcement officer shall seize all weapons used or threatened to be used during the violation of this Order or during prior incidents of abuse. Weapons must forthwith be delivered to the Sheriff's office of the county which issued this Order, which office shall maintain possession of the weapons until further Order of this court, unless the weapon/s are evidence of a crime, in which case they shall remain with the law enforcement agency whose officer made the arrest.

June 4, 1999 Order filed. AND NOW, June 3, 1999 after receipt and review of a petition for contempt filed by Juliann F. Owen, the plaintiff, with the Court Administrator on April 28, 1999 a rule to show cause is issued and directed tothed efendant to show cause, if any he has, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. Said rule is returnable for hearing and/or argumenton the 15th day of July 1999 at 9:00 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

6/4/99 Faxed Watson & Gregg

July 19, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 15, 1999, after a full formal hearing, it appears that the parties did reconcile shortly after the Nov. 20, 1998 PFA Order was entered. It appears that they got along well until Feb. 2, when they split up again over some bills. The Defendant did to to the Plaintiff's residence on March 31 and he did go to her place of employment on March 30. He did write letters to the Plaintiff.

As to the period of reconciliation, that was clearly encouraged by the Plaintiff, although, it was technically a violation of the Court Order.

As to the visits of March 30, March 31, and the letters, we find that they were not intended to be abusive, harassing, or threatening, although, they too were technically violations of the Court Order.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. We find the Defendant in contempt for a technical violation.
2. The Defendant shall pay a fine of $150 within 30 days from this date. Said payment shall be made to the Prothonotary.
3. We impose no further sanctions in view of the circumstances under which all of this occurred.
4. We remind the parties that they must comply with a court order, that no matter how many times the Plaintiff encourages or invites the Defendant to have contact with her and as compelling as that may be to the Defendant and as compelling as they may be to common sense and reason, especially, if folks want to get back together or work out their differences, this defendant must resist those sorts of opportunities. (SEE PAPERS FILED).

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

April 30, 1999 Hearing on Contempt Petition and Order filed .
ORDER: AND NOW, April 29, 1999, after a full formal hearing on the plaintiff's Petition for Contempt that was filed march 24, 1999, it is ordered as follows:
1. We find as a fact that the defendant has violated the March 19, 1999 Order for failing to deliver to deliver possession of the 1992 Ford Explorer to the plaintiff. The intent of that Order was that they would exchange vehicles. HOWEVER, the defendant has taken it upon herself to transfer title to the 1986 Pontiac Fiero so by her own conduct, she made it impossible not only for herself, but the plaintiff to comply with the Order of March 19, 1999. The essence of that Order was that the plaintiff would end up with a 1992 Ford Explorer. As punishment for contempt, the defendant shall undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for 30 dayspurge herself from contempt and to avoid incarceration, she shall deliver the 1992 Ford Explorer to the plaintiff in its current condition without further damage within 24 hours from this date and shall pay the $150 to Mr. Gregg within 30 days from this date. When the 1992 Ford Explorer is delivered to the plaintiff, the defendant shall also deliver to the plaintiff all insurance papers on that vehicle, including insurance cards anmd the cellular phone that she claims was his and she has it.
We are not satisfied by the fair preponderance of the evidence that the balance of the Petition for Contempt filed by the plaintiff has been proven. At the moment, there was not sufficient evidence to show that the defendant actually has possession of the items listed on Plaintiff's Exhibit 1 that was produced at this hearing except for the cellular phone we have mentioned above. THEREFORE, the Petition for Contempt and Request for Special Relief with respect to the plaintiff's property is denied. So that this Order is not misconstructed, we are not determining that they are premarital assets or marital assets. We are not now saying who does have possessions of those. We are simply saying tht the Petitioner has not satisfied us of the allegations in his Petition with respect to those items, and therefore, has not carried his burden.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF PETITION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS
PURSUANT TO PA. R.C.P. 240
(Complaint for money owed)

Dec. 2, 1998 Motion For Order of the Court Directing Sheriff To Make Service Upon Defendants In the above Captioned Cause of Action filed.

Dec. 2, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, November 30, 1998, the Court has reviewed the Plaintiff's complaint for In Personam Enforcement of Ground Rent which was received by the Prothonotary on November 24, 1998 along with an Affidavit in Support of Petition to Proceed Informa Pauperis pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 240. Accordingly it is ordered as follows:

1. The Plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauepris is denied.
2. The Plaintiff filed an Affidavit in Support of Petition to Proceed Informa Pauperis and a Motion for an Order of Court directing the Sheriff to make service upon the defendants along with his complaint. He did not file a Petition for Leave to Proceed Informa Pauperis and therefore, his filing does not comply with Pa.R.A.P. 240.
3. The Plaintiff is apparently claiming that he owns real property which was leased or rented to the defendants and that the Defendants have not paid rent. That gives us cause to scrutinize his Affidavit under Pa.R.A.P. 240. He simply put "X" marks over may of the entries. He is required to answer each entry. It appears tha the plaintiff has not fully disclosed the property that he owns. That is set forthin paragraph 3 e of his Affidavit. If he owns real estate then he may not be able to proceed informa pauperis for it may appear that he has assets sufficient to afford the cost of litigation.
4. Notwithstadning the rules of Civil Procedure, the Prothontoar shall file these documents of record so there is a record explaining the aciton we have taken. Beyond that, however, the Prothonotary shall do nothing futher.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R.Miller, J

12/2/98 copies mailed by certified mail to Plaintiff

Jan 11, 1999 Affidavit in Support of Petition to Proceed in Forma Pauperis Pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 240, filed.

Jan 11, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, Jan 11, 1999 we once again review the Plaintiff's petition to p roceed informa pauperis.

The Plaintiff apparently owns 19.17 acres of land in Greenwood Twp., Cr. Co., PA bearing assessment no. 2711-009 and having an assessed value of $22,250. The land is improved land which has a building or buildings on it.

The Plaintiff has been incarcerated in various state correctional institutions through the DOC for a long time. He obviously has no income but, likewise, he has no living expenses.

We are not satisfied that the Plaintiff has the right to proceed informa pauperis when he owns land that has an assessed value of over $20,000. Therefore it is ordered as follows:

1. The Plaintiff's petition is denied.
2. The Plaintiff must pay court costs.
3. If the Plaintiff desires to pursue his petition to proceed informa pauperis then he must fiel a statement under oath explaining in detail all relevant information with respect to the real estate in Greenwood Twp. including but not limited to the value he believes should be placed on the property, whether or not the property is occupied in any way, whether or not he receives rents, whether or not there are any outstanding liens, whether or not there are any back taxes.
4. We advise the Plaintiff that even if we allow him to proced informa pauperis in the future we may give the County the right to place a lien on his property or otherwise access the property in order to receive court costs in the future. Persons with these kinds of assets cannot be permitted to access the Courts free of charge. Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

November 17, 1998 Order filed. And Now, November 9, 1998 this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.
The Plaintiff appears without counsel and the defendant appears with counsel. This will be a contested hearing.
The Plaintiff moves orally to continue this matter because she indicates she has not obtained counsel due to the fact that she had to have surgery during the past week. It appears that she probably should have been able to contact an attorney since the time this Order was entered on October 30, 1998 in light of the fact she indicates her surgery was on Novembr 5, 1998 but nonetheless we will continue this matter fro a short period of time to allow her to obtain counsel.
This hearing is rescheduled for November 19, 1998 at 3:30 PM in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.
Pending that hearing, the temporary Order entered on October 30, 1998 by Jduge Miller shall remain in full force and effect.
We will not amend the Order with regard to visitation in light of the allegations of the Palintiff's Petition, which have been verified by her when she filed the petition.
A copy of this Order shall be provided to the appropriate police agency and to Crawford County Contro.
This matter will not be continued again for the Plaintiff to obtain counsel.

Aug 30, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, Aug 27, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt which has been filed by the Plaintiff. Both parties are represented by counsel and we proceed informally.

The issues are not major but they are issues that have caused problems with these parties and it would appear to specifically be communication problems in most of the instances.

After hearing what the testimony would be, we are not inclined to hold the Defendant in contempt, but we do believe there needs to be some modification of that Order in order to make this matter more effective for the parties in exchanging custody of this child.

We will, accordingly, modify the December 23, 1998 Order as follows:

1. If any party has a change of telephone number, the other party shall be notified in writing at that party's last known address within 48 hours of that change.

2. With regard to the father's period of temporary physical custody in the summer, said period for July of each year shall commence on the second Friday of July beginning at 4:00 p.m. and shall end two weeks later at the same time. And for his period of August temporary physical custody, the same shall begin on the second Friday of August and end two weeks thereafter with both of those times also being at 4:00 p.m.

3. Finally, no party shall transport the child nor allow any other person to transport the child who is in an intoxicated state or who has had any alcoholic beverages to drink within an eight hour period of driving the child.

In all respects in which this Order does not modify the Order of December 23, 1998, the same shall remain in full force and effect.

Oct 8, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Oct 1, 1998, this abuse matter is before the Court and is handled in an informal fashion with input from both parties. It seems there was previously an employer/employee relationship between the parties, as well as, a romantic relationship. The allegations of the Plaintiff do not seem to fall with the purview and purpose of the Abuse Act as the main complaitn seems to be that the Defendant is driving his car on the highway in front of her house and that she doe snot feel obligated to pay an alleged debt she owes her former employer who is the Defendant in this case.

Accordingly, this case is continued generally without official adjudication of abuse for a fperiod fo 6 months on the following terms and conditions agreed to by the parties:

1. The Defendant will not go to the home or the residence of the Plaintiff for any purpose.

2. The Defendant will not contact the Plaintiff in any fashion regarding an alleged loan/debt that she owes him arising when she was an employee in the past. In the event the Defendnat wishes to collect on an alleged $1987 debt, hemust bring a civil action before the District Justice of the Peace to collect the same and may not contact the Plaintiff demanding paymetn.

3. The Defendnat will not contact the Plaintiff's children directly or indirectly in any fashion.

4. It is agreed by the Plaintiff, she will under no circumstances go to the Defendant's place of business and the Court directs in this Order that she not do so.

5. This order shall expire at the end of 6 months from this date and we direct that the Defendant py one half of the costs in this case in the amount of $54.25 within 15 days of this date with said sum to be paid to the Prothonotary's Office. We direct that the Plaintiff pay the other half of the costs in the amount of $54.25 payable to the Prothonotary's Office within 30 days of securing part-time or full-time employment.

October 19, 1998 Petition for Civil contempt for Violation of Protection From Abuse Order filed.

October 19, 1998 Order filed. And now, October 16, 1998 at the time fixed for the continued hearing in this case, the Plaintiff filed a petition fro civil contempt alleging incidents that occurred on October 7, 1998.

1. The petition for civil contempt is denied because the temporary protection from abuse Order of September 8, 1998 did not contain any language protecting anyone from abuse. it was simply an Order setting a hearing, and therefore, even if the events occurred as alleged, the defendant would not be in contempt.
2. The petition for civil contempt is being considered as an amendment to the original petition for protection from abuse.
3. The Defendant is prepared to proceed with the amendment, even though she just received notice of the amendment today.

Sept 14, 1998 ORDER: The Defendant has filed a claim for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, costs and expenses. The Plaintiff is a public school teacher in the Jamestown School District and had gross wages for 1997 in excess of $47,000. She admittedly received a raise for 1998 although the amount of that raise was never disclosed.

The Defendant is the owner and operator of Linesville Beverage. His 1997 Federal Income Tax return revealed business income of $3,662.00.

That return was prepared by a credible local accounting firm. The tax return was filed under oath and the Defendant testified under oath that that return accurately reflected his net profit from Linesville Beverage. Most often, but not always, we would accept a tax return filed under oath but we just cannot do that in this case. As credible as we found the Defendnat to be we cannot give credibility to the tax return. We cannot accept the fact that the Defendant's net profit is less than 1% of his gross receipts. That makes absolutely no sense to us.

Sept 14, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Sept 10, 1998, after a formal hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief in the Nature of Exclusive Possession of the Marital Residence, it is ordered as follows:

1. The plaintiff is awarded exclusive possession of the marital residence to the exclusion of the defendant. The parties shall work out a time within the next 7 days when the defendant may go to the residence to pick up items of a purely personal nature. That shall occur during daylight hours. If there is any dispute as to the items that the defendant will be taking with him, those items shall remain on the property and the defendant shall not take those items with him. On the other hand, the plaintif shall keepthose items in safekeeping and not dispose of, destroy or damage any of the items indispute so that when title to those items is determined in the divorce action, those items shall be int he same good order and repair that they are in on this date.

2. This Order shall be in effect for 3 months from this date. That does not mean that we would give the defendant the right to move back at the expiration of 3 months. We are taking this slowly and we do not want to do anything that may materially affect a custody action. Hopefully, the parties will be able to work those matters out and determine who shall have exclusive possession of the marital residence beyond that time. If at that time the matter has not been resolved and the plaintiff continues to have custody of the children, then we will most likely continue to give her exclusive possession of the marital residence unless there are relevant facts that would affect that decision that we have not heard as of this date or any new facts that arise in the meantime. December 21, 1998 Order filed. And Now, December 15, 1998 this matter is before the Court on what is labeled a Petition to Modify PFA Order, Immediate Relief and contempt, which has been field by the plaintiff. With regard to the immediate relief this matter cambe into Motion Court and we made a slight modification of the existing PFA Order at that time to get us to the point of this hearing.
After a hearing, we find that the defendant is in contempt of the Court's Order of September 18, 1998 and he is so adjudicated For his contempt he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Correctional Facility for a minimum term of 1 month and a maximum term of 6 months. That sentence of incarceration is suspended in order to give the defendant an opportunity to purge himself of contempt.
As a result of the defendant's contempt in order to purge himself of contempt he shall pay a fine of $250 to the Prothonotary of Crwaford County within 30 days from this date.
The PFA Order entered by consent on September 8, 1998 is extended to terminate on September 8, 1999.
The Order of September 8, 1998 is modified in that Paragraph Number 2 shall no longer contain the language"... except defendant may use the barn and fields each day from 6 am to 5 pm to do work and chores." INSTEAD, THE defendant may not go to that residence at any time and the residence shall include the farm as well as any and all buildings on that farm located at 22159 South Center Road in Conneautville.
The Defednant is strongly cautioned that he should have absolutely no contact with the plaintiff by telephone, mail third parties or by any means other than from his attorney to the plaintiff's attorney. Any violation of this Order will result in further sanctions being imposed with regard to this matter.
Paragraph 19 of the order of September 8, 1998 is modified to indicate that the plaitniff shall not dispose of any marital proeprty, including any horse, unless in the case of the horses, the sale is a bona fide arm's length transaction and for any such sale the plaintiff shall keep an accounting and shall likewise keep an accounting of any expenses as previously agreed to in the original paragraph 19 of the September 8, 1998 Order.
In all respects in which we have not modified the Order of September 8, 1998 it shall remain in full force and effect.
A copy of this Order shall be provided to the appropriate police agency and to Crawford County Control.
The Order of September 8,1998 is further modified by teh agreement of the parties to indicate that an exception to Paragraph 16 of teh Order shall be that the palintiff's daughter Marla Hall may have overnight female guests of school age during teh temr of this Order.

Oct 22, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Oct 16, 1998, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act. The plaintiff appears without counsel and the defendant appears with court-appointed counsel insofar as the defendant is a minor.

Counsel for the defendant and the plaintiff have talked together with the defendant and it is agareed and therefore ordered and directed that this matter shall be continued for a period of 60 days, with the Temporary Order entered by the Court on Oct 7, 1998 to remain in full force and effect.

The parties agree that during that period of time, they will become involved in family counseling and ultimately if they are successful in their efforts, the plaintiff may choose to withdraw this action.

This Order is without prejudice to either party to request further hearing at any time within the 60 days or thereafter.

Once the 60 days has expired, the parties must either bring this matter back before the Court for a hearing or the plaintiff must dismiss it insofar as we will not keep this case as an open case beyond the 60 days without further Order of Court.

A copy of this Order shall be sent to Crawford County Control and the appropriate police agency.

DEc. 18, 1998 Order Distributed to Plff. and Deft.

December 24, 1998 Order Filed. And Now, Decmeber 21, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on a Petiton for Civil contempt for violation of a Protection from Abuse Order filed by the Plaintiff.
Both parties appear pro se and essentially the issue is with regard to item two in the PFA Order of Nov. 9, 1998 regarding personal property of the parties. At the time the Order was entered by consent, it appeared that there was not an agreement as to ownership of certain personal property but at this time there are some disagreements with regard to ownership, and the parties dispute what property may have already been removed by the plaintiff and what may not have been removed.
The plaintiff does not at this time have receipts with her with regard to the property she claims although she does indicate that she can provide those receipts and it is apparent to the Corut that this is not an issue that should be litigated at lenght as a collateral issue in a Consent PFA Order.
If the parties cannot resolve their proeprty differences it is more appropriate that someone file a lawsuit in the District Justice court so that a more lenghty formal hearing can be held and the parties will have an opportunity to litigage ownership with regard to the proeprty.
ACCORDINGLY, we dismiss this request fro contempt without prejudice to the plaintiff to file an appropriate lawsuit with regard to this proeprty ownership issue.

The Labor Day and Memorial Day holiday visitation shall begin at 6:30 pm on Friday and end at 9 pm on Monday.

E. The child shall spend Fahter's Day with his fahter from 9 am to 9 pm and MOther's Day with his mother during the same hours.

5. The holiday visitation schedule shall take precedence over the other provisions of this order relating to the custodial or visitation periods.

6. Each of the parents will be able to designate a two week vacation period with the children. The vacation schedule shall not interfere with the exercise of any of the aforementioned holiday visitations. Father shall have the option of scheduling his vacation periods with the children first and shall give Mother 30 days advance notice of his exercise of same. Mother hsall give fAther 30 advance notice in regard to her exercise of the vacation period.

7. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this Order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellaiton or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said Modification or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modificaiton be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternate visits or to make alternate arrangements.

8. The parties shall split responsibility for transportation with the party receiving the child in the exercise of his or her rights picking up the child at the home of the other.

9. Each party shall teach said child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

10. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor child. The parties are cautioned that recent medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of grwoning children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported or in the bedroom of the child.

11. Any person transporting the child shall make sure that seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the law of Pennsylvania.

12. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the child's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the child's presence and each party shall insturct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the child's estimation.

13. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if it were to be proepr and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which, this order shall govern.

DIVORCE DECREE FILED

Aug. 5, 1999, 1. DIVORCE: Upon consideration of the pleadings and affidavits filed in the above captioned case, this Court hereby grants an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony to the above named parties, on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken and ninety (90) days have elapsed from the date of the filing of the Complaint and an affidavit has been filed each of the parties evidencing that each of the parties consents to the divorce, pursuant to 3301(c) of the Divorce Code of Pennsylvania.

2. EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION

This Decree provides that the marital property of the above named parties shall be divided in accordance with a Marital Settlement Agreement dated the 21st day of June, 1999, executed by the parties and filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford Co., PA., at the above number and term on the 21st day of June, 1999, which is incorporated be reference as if fully set forth herein.

Said Agreement addresses issues of Divorce and Equitable Distribution of Marital Property which are the only issues raised in the underlying divorce action.

This Agreement, in part, provides that Defendant shall be entitled to sole and exclusive title ownership of the marital residence located at 6016 State Highway 198, Conneautville, PA.

Further, the division of marital and non-marital personal property and allocation of liability shall be made in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid Marital Settlement Agreement dated June 21, 1999.

3. No other matters or causes of action provided under the PA. Divorce Code are reserved by either of the parties.

This Order shall be effective as of this 4 day of August, 1999.

March 19, 1999 Sheriff's Return filed. Not found, as to Douglas M. Davison at the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville Pa. Hd did not show up for a hearing that he was to be at and there is no other service instruciton given.

So answers Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

March 29, 1999 Hearing on Seminar for Contempt and Order filed.

ORDER: AND NOW, March 23, 1999, this matter once again comes before the Court on a Petition for Contempt for the failure to take the Seminar for Separating Parents.

The defendant does not appear, but his attorney appears and indicates the defendant is not here because he he is having back problems and that he does not wish to take the seminar because of continuing back problems that do not allow him to sit for more than 15 minutes .

Unfortunately, this is the first time that issue has been raised and there is no evidence to substantiate it at this time.

Accordingly, based on the fact that it appears the defendant knew that this was to occur today and has not appeared, we find that he is in contempt and for his contempt, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Correctional Facility for a period not to exceed 6 months.

A Bench Warrant is issued for his apprehension and detention to serve that sentence.

I he is incarcerated on that sentence and wishes to purge himself of contempt, he may do so by registering for the Seminar for Separating parents and he may be placed in work release, to be released to go to that seminar, Once he has completed the seminar, he will be released from custody of the Crawford County Correctional Facility. Further, if the defendant is sucessful in obtaining relief from the Court that he does not have to attend the seminar once he is incarcerated, he will automatically be released upon the signing of that Order.

The Bench Warrant in this case shall not be executed for a period of 30 days for this date to allow the the defendant o either schedule and attend the Seminar for Separating Parents or to obtain relief from the course excusing him from the Seminar for Separating Parents.

Once that 30 days has passed, without further Order of Court, the Sheriff may execute the Bench Warrant.

BY THE COURT,

April 23, 1999 Petition for Waiver of Attendance at Seminar for Separating Parents and Order filed. And Now, this 22 day of April 1999 upon presentation and consideration of the defendants petition for Waiver of Attendance at Seminar for Separating Parents: It is Granted.

	Allen Hart t/d/b/a/ H & H Trucking VS. Richard Rabiroads Harold F. Blake	Continued from Page 335 of Record 1998 - 1235

March 31, 1999 Continuation of Contempt Hearing Order filed.
ORDER: AND NOW, March 31, 1999, at further hearing scheduled in this case, plaintiff and their counsel appear and defendant appears pro se. It appears that the Court's Order of March 5, 1999 that by agreement of the parties, the trailer would be moved from its present location and the defendant was ordered to mail a check to Hart of $75.00. Defendant contends he mailed the check, but Hart has not received the same.

At the time of this hearing, it is agreed that the trailer is still on the property of Harold F. Blake, whose property apparently is partially in Crawford County and partially in Lawrence County. Neither defendant Richard Rabiroads nor the party Harold F. Blake may resist this Order for any reason.

AT the prior hearing, the Court ordered the defendant Rabiroads agreed he would promptly mail a check in the amount of $75.00 to Allen Hart Trucking. The defendant advises he mailed a check on or about March 8, 1999 and a representantive of Hart Trucking is in court this day and testifies that they never received said check.

Accordingly, the defendant is redirected to mail another check in the amount of $75.00 to the Harts by registered mail within 5 days. In the event the original check for $75.00 is received by Allen Hart Trucking in the interim, they shall not cash said check, but hold the same until the second check is received after which, they will return the original check to Richard Rabiroads.

This Court hereby authorizes the plaintiff of the plaintiff's representative to remove the trailer from the Blake property within 20 days of this date and take it to Allen Hart's place of business. Neither defendant Harold F. Blake, the defendant Richard Rabiroads or anyone acting on their behalf may resist the repossession of said trailer for any reasons.

Upon receipt of the trailer, Allen Hart, Trading and Doing Business as H&H Trucking, may resell the trailer listed on the certificate of title to any other person without notice to Richard Rabiroads.

The plaintiff hart maintains that there were certain damages done to the trailer and that the tires were switched by the defendant. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of Allen Hart to proceed in an action for for damages done to the leased trailer.

This date, Hart furnishes the defendant with his latest mailing address. (See Below)

      v. the holiday periods shall take precedence over all other visitations periods.
3. Transportation of the child for all visits shall be shared between the parents, with the parent receiving custody to to provide transportation /the proper child restraints, ie, car seat and/or seat belts, shall be worn at all times during the transporting of the child for the said visits.
4.. Neither parent shall expose the child to any person or situation, which may be harnful to the health, safety or or well being of the child.
5. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, nor shall either parent permit others to do so, but rather each parent shall do everything in their power to promote a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward both parents.
6. Each parent shall inform the other parent immediately of any serious illness or injury regarding the child and both parents shall furnish the other with a current address and telephone number. If the child sustains a minor injury or illness, it is sufficient that the parent notify the other parent of same when there is an exchange of of custody of the child.
7. Neither parent shall use illegal drugs or alcohol at any time when that parent has the care and custody of the subject minor custody. This Order is not intended to preclude either parent from taking the child to a restaurant which serves alcoholic beverages, so long as neither parent shall consume alcoholic beverages in that establishment when the child is with the parent.
8. Neither parent shall smoke cigaretts or permit others to do so in the same room as the children, in an automobile in which the children are being transported or in the children's bedroom.
9. The parents are encouraged to make additional or alternative arrangements regarding physical custody of the child and may modify the herein custody arrangemants if such modifications are by mutual consent and in writing and signed by both parents only; otherwise, the provisions contained herein shall govern and this order shall be followed as it is written.

June 28, 1999 Order filed. And Now June 24, 1999 it appears that this Court has allowed a mix-up to occur with respect to plaintiff's attempt to file an amended complaint in this case.
The Plaintiff originally appeared pro se and filed a pro se complaint. The defendant(s) filed preliminary objections which were argued on April 26, 1999 The preliminary objections were disposed of by a memorandum and order dated June 14, 1999.
In the meantime, however, the plaintiff filed a motion for leave to amend his complaint on May 26, 1999 and Judge Vardaro ordered that the motion would be heard in the June 1999 argument list.
We cannot recall whether or not the undersigned judge, who disposed of the preliminary objections on June 14, 1999 and effectively dismissed the plaintiff's complaint was aware of the fact that there was pending, in this Court, the plaintiff motion to amend his complaint and another Judge had set an argument. That being the case when we should not have enetered our orderof June 14, 1999 until we first disposed of the plaintiff's motion for leave to file an amended complaint since that was pending before the court we should have disposed of that matter first or, at least, simutaneously with the granting of the preliminary objections.
Normally when preliminary objections are sustained parties are permitted to file an amended complaint if they are able to allege facts that entitle them to relief. Acfordingly it is ordered as follows:
1. Our order of June 14, 1999 is hereby vacated.
2. Oral argument on the plaintiff's motion for leave to file an amended complaint shall be held on Monday, July 26, 1999 at a time to be set by the Court Administrator at the time the argument list is prepared. The argument shall be held in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse
