SEptember 13, 1999 Order filed. And Now, September 3, 1999 this matter comes before the Corut on a petition for contempt that was filed by the Palintiff.
The Plaintiff appeared in Motion Court on April 30, 1999 and obtained an Order from Judge Miller on her petition for special releif that provided that the defendant do certain things;
The Defendant was not present in Motion Court that day and counsel for the Plaintiff indicates that she sent a copy of that Order to the Defendant in early May 1999 both by regular mail and by certified mail return-receipt requested The regular mail was not returned by tthe certified mail was returned unclaimed.
The Defendant maintains that he did not receive a copy of that order at that time and there is no way to ascertain from the record that in fact he did because there was no certified mail receipt nor is htere personal service. Therefore, we must assume that he did not receive the order at that time.

The attorney for the plaintiff also served a petition fro contempt upon the Defendant by ordinary mail which included a copy of the April 30, 1999 order, but a contempt proceeding requires actual notice to the Defendant and the Prothonotary's facts transmittal simply indicated under comments Defendant and we do not know whether that means the defendant was served by facsimile regular mail or in some other manner. The Defendant maintains he did not receive that mailing either and that he thought this was to be a custody hearing of some sort until talking to the Court Administrator's Office and then talking to the plaintiff.
Again, We cannot establish for the record and particularly for the seriousness of a contempt proceeding that the Defendant was duly notified of he contens of teh April 30, 1999 Order.
We do note that he comes today with financial records and maintains that he did that because the Plaitniff told him the nature of this hearing. Under these circumstances, we decline to hold Defendant in contempt, bu have this day preesented him with a copy of teh April 30, 1999 Oder and he must begin complying with that Order immediately. We note that some of teh provisions of that Order require immediate compliance and another provision requires accounting within 30 days.
This order is withou prejudice to the Plaintiff to petition for contempt if the Defendant does not comply with the Order within teh time required by the Order, including any immediate requiredments of that order.

Sept 22, 1999 Petition for Emergency Special Relief Filed.

Sept 22, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Sept 21, 1999 we decline to grant the defendant's Petition for Emergency Special Relief except that it is ordered and directed that neither party may, pending further order of court, destroy, discard sell or give aaway any marital property.
As to the rest of the defendants motion, it does not appear to be an emergency and the defendant has not given the plaintiff proper notice of his presentation of any such peition in Motion Court. Additionally, he has not verified the pettiion that he has filed.
He noted in Motion Court that he told the plaintiff he was going to be in Motion Court, but he did not prepare a written motion until sometime after the notice and therefore she could not of been aware of the contents of the motion.
We are entering the Order as to the marital property as set forth above because we thing it is imperative that the marital poperty be protected for both parties.
This Order is without prejudice to the defendant to seek further relief if he does so in a manner appropriate with both state and local rules of court.

December 16, 1998 Order filed. And Now, December 11, 1998 this matter comes before the Court in Motion Court on a petition fro special relief filed by the Plaintiff petitioner.
Teh Defendant respondent is present without counsel; although apparently she may still be represented by Attorney Barbara Walton.
The creches of the isue in Motion Court is that this matter will be coming up for a DeNovo Custody Hearing, as well as a contempt proceeding, and the Plaintiff alleges that he has not been receiving visitation as required by the Order of June 18, 1998 which is in place pending a DeNovo Hearing. The Defendant argues that he just has not exercised that visitation.
But in any event, until a hearing can be scheduled after some dicussion with the parties the June 18, 1998 Order is modified to the extent that Paragraphs 2(a) and 2(b) are deleted and in place it is ordered and directed that the Plaintiff father shall have temporary physical custody of the minor child each weekend beginning at Friday at 5 pm and ending on the following Monday at 9 am.
The Defendant mother shall bring the child to the Palintiff Father's home each Friday at 5 pm and the Plaintiff father shall return the child to the Defendant mother's home the followign Monday at 9 am.

We would hope the aprties could work this out amonth themselves to give the father some perioed of time in the summer upwards of four weeks, possibly more. If the parties cannot work this out on their own, then either paraty must file a petition from modification not later than April 1,1999 so that the matter can be resolved in advance of teh summer. That should go throught the Mediator. Teh standard Crawford county practice and procedure with respect to modifications shall apply.
We find as a fact that the mother is in contempt of court for not complying with visitations that were required during October and November of 1998. We will not impose sanctions on her at this point, except to say that the fahter shall have in additon to any other visitations provided by this Order the right to have the child with him for 1 week during the summr of 1999 to be selected by him.
The week shall commence at 5 pm on FRiday and terminate at noon the following FRiday. He can pick the week and give the mother notice at least 30 days prior to the week he has picked

And Now, Apr 22, 1998 the parties appeared before the Court on a Petition by the plaintiff to hold the defendant in contempt for failing to deliver the child to him on March 12 and Mrach 26, 1999. The Order of Jan 20, 1999 does obligate the mother to provide transportation.
Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:
1. The contempt Petition is dismissed and we cannot conclude that the mother has willfully violated a Court Order if her car breaks down.
2. The Order of Jan 20, 1999 is amended as follows:
a) Until the mother obtains transportation the father shall provide transportation both ways and to the extent Para 10 of teh Order of Jan 20, 1999 is modified. Once the mother obtains transportation then Para 10 of the Order jof Jan 20, 1999 shall be reinstated. June 14, 1999 Order Filed. And Now, June 10, 1999 after an iformal hearing we find, as a fact, that Mrs Denman is not in contempt. It appears that she paid for transportation on Apr 22 which was not covered by our Court Order of April 22nd which was not covered by our Court Order of Apr 22nd. We believe that when we permitted the father to provide transportation both ways and the mother to pay $5 for her share of the transportation that that was prospective and would not apply to April 22nd, but apply to times after that. Since he was paid for that weekend he was paid an amount he was really not entitled to and therefore the fact that he was not paid on April 30th it all evens out.
This Court expects these parties to develop ways to deal with each other in a peaceful civil way. They are both parents of Tyrus and they must cooperate with each other. The first step is to complete the custody evaluation that was ordered on Jan 20 1999. The parties and David Glenn are ordered and directed to take all necessary steps within the next thirty days to complete that custody evaluation. Mr. Glenn shall file thecustody evaluation with the undersigned judge. We will send copies to the parties. Each parent shall pay one-half of Mr. Glenn's charges within twenty days after he bills for the charges. If they fail to pay him as ordered, they may be in contempt. We expect Mr. Glenn to be paid for his services and we expect him to be paid promptly.
Upon receipt of teh custody evaluation the Court may on its own enter an order directing that the parties proceed to some sort of family counseling so that they can develop attitudes and methods for dealing with each other and communicating with each other.

August 13, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, AUGUST 10, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on an emergency petition for special releif filed on behalf of the Defendant.
After an informal hearing, it is ordered and directed that the plaintiff forthwith turn over the 1994 Chevy King Cab pickup turck to the Defendant for her use pending any further order of Court. She shall be required to make any insurance payments to keep that vehicle insured while she is driving it and she shall hereafter be required to pay any lease payments that are due.
If she fails to do either or both of those in a timely manner, the Plaintiff may come back to seek appropriate relief.
This Order is without intention of any guidance to the master or ultimately to the Court as to what should be an equitable distribution in this case, insofar as it sounds like there are many other issues to be decided.
This Order is simply ordered because we do not think it was appropriate when there were two vehicles in the household to return one vehicle to the dealer, as the Plaintiff did, without seeking some authority form the Court to do so.

May 14, 1999 ORDER filed. Anad now, this 13 day of May, 1999, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Kyle Shaulis, born June 30, 1994 and Brittany Shaulis, born March 6, 1997.

The father shall have primary physical custody fo the children. The mother shall be entitled to have the children in her care and custody every other weekend from Friday at 7:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7 p.m.etc.

Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

This Court's Order entered on June 12, 1998, requiring that the mother register and complete the Seminar for Separating Parents within 60 days has not been fulfilled, in that mother has willfully refused to register and attend the course as ordered by this Court. As a consequence, this Court finds the mother in contempt and directs that the mother shall be incarcerated for a period of ____days in the Crawford Co. Prison, with service of the sentence to begin on Tuesday, June 1, 1999. The Court will, by further order, direct that the Sheriff of Crawford Co. make arrangemetns with the Sheriff's department of Erie Co. for the arrest and return to Crawford Co. of the mother, Melissa A. Shaulis for service of the sentence imposed as a result of the mother's contempt.

Melissa A Shaulis may purge herself of contempt by registering for the next available Seminar for Separating Parents on or before Friday, May 28, 1999 and providing to this Court written evidence of her having registered for the course with such written documentation to be delivered directly to the Judge's Chambers, Crawford Co. Courthouse, Meadville, PA 16335.

This order supercedes the provisions of all prior custody orders.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $186.50 ($60.00/hr. x 3.11 hrs.) and the $!3.50 Court Order filing fee are to be shared equally between the parties. The father has paid the $200.00 necessary for the appointment of the child custody mediator. The entirety of said amount shall apply to the costs and fees of this case. The mother shall, within 30 days to the date of this Order, pay to the father the sum of $100.00, representing her share of the costs and fees of this case.

Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within twenty (20) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent. (see papers filed).

July 29, 1999 Order filed And Now, July 28, 1999 this matter is before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the father of the children against the mother of the children. This matter is handled informally and it appears that a scheculed visit with the mother for July 18 through July 25 was allegedly not completed, but in actuality the mother had the children for said visit with with the consent of the father.

The only other issue is that a previous court order directed mother (Melissa) to pay to the father (William) $100 for her share of the mediatro fee assessed. Mother advises she does not have the money at this instant but that on or before August 9 1999 at 5 pm the money will be paid by money order addressed to the father at this address.

September 4, 1998 ORDER FILED. And now, Sept. 1, 1998, at the time fixed for hearing on the Defendnat's Petition to Adopt and Enforce Settlement Agreement and Mutual General Release the Court enteres the following statement and Order;
The defendant's claim is that (a) it has a right under Paragraph 6 of the Mutual Release Agreement of March 27, 1998 to file a motion with the Corut, whereupon the Court would enter an Order adopting the settlement agreement and release of said date as an Order of Corut and would further enforce the terms and conditions set forth in the mutual release and settlement agreement executed said date; and (b) that said settlement agreement and mutual release would dispose of this action brought against it by the plaintiff.
The plaintiff alleges that (a) the Petition to adopt and Enforce is not procedurally permitted for the defendant must file a responsive pleading; and (b) that said mutual release does not dispose of the issues raised in this case or the cause of action brought by the Plaintiff against the defendant.
This Court is generally of the opinion that the defendant appears to have a contractual right to filed a motion for an Order adopting the settlement agreement and release as an Order and to enter an Order enforcing the terms and conditions either in the original lawsuits that culminated in said settlement and release or in a new action; that the defendant may also have a right to raise said settlement agreement and release as an affirmative defense in this case; but that the plaintiff is procedurally correct that the petition filed at this point in this case is not in conformity with any Rules of Civil Procedure and that the defendant must file a responsive pleading.
ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED AS FOLLOWS: The Petition to Adopt and Enforce Settlement Agreement and Mutual General Release is denied without prejudice to the defendant's ability and right to file the same separately or as an affirmative defense in this case or both If the defendant desires to file said petition separately the defendant must comply with the Crawford County Civil Rules with respect to the filing of motions and petitions and otherwise comply with the local motions and eptitions practice.
2. The defendant shall file a responsive pleading to the plaintiff's complaint within 20 days from this date unless plaintiff files an amended complaint, in which case, the defendant shall file a responsive pleading to the Amended Complaint within 20 days after it is filed, or leave to file is granted, as the case may be.
3. We believe that the matters raised in the Petition to Adopt and Enforce the Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release will be raised in this or other proceedings and we make no disposition on the merits of said petition or the merits of any defense to said petition. We are simply dealing with the procedural matter and disposing of the petition in the manner set forth above.

The plaintiff still has not shown nor pled that he accepted the offer to purchase at a mandatory sale or a permissive sale or accepted the right of first refusal. The defendant's offer of May 7, 1996 set forth the specific manner in which the plaintiff could accept said offers an that said offers must be accepted in writing. The letter that was attached as Exhibit 3 to the plaintiff's motion for reconsideration on the merits does not qualify for an acceptance of any protion of the defendant's offer of May 7, 1996. Furthermore, the plaintiff does not allege any facts in his second amended complaint that would show that any portion of the defendant's offer of May 7, 1996 was accepted properly.

May 28, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 27, 1998 these cross abuse actions are before the Court. Wife, Kimberly A. Hannold represented by counsel, owns the residence in which the parties were residing until their recent disagreement.

In essence these cross abuse actions were filed by the parties seeking exclusive possession of the marital residence by each party and a resolution of financial difficulties occurring when the wife removed money form the joint checking account.

Each party is accusing the other of committing an assault and the husband has filed assault charges against the wife and advises the Court that he is reconsidering proceeding with this criminal charge as it would not be an appropriate vehicle to resolve the multiple issues arising between the parties during this shour marriage. The Court directs as follwos between these two cases:

1. Neither party shall abuse threaten, harass, stalk or in any way use force or threats against each other.

2. Husband is in occupancy of the residence which for financial reasons was apparently placed and titled in the name of the wife. This Court has no authority to order the legal owner of the property, Kimberly A. Hannold from the home but she acquiesces in the suggestion that her HUSBAND BE ALLOWED TO OCCUPY THE PREMISES ON A TEMPORARY BASIS for a one week period, commencing at noon on May 27th in order that he may procure other living arrangements. In this regard, the wife may remove from the home personal clothing and personal affects in order for her to maintain herself during the one week period.

3. It appears the wife secured a loan to purchase the present residence and an accelerated payment is coming due on the short-term loan and the Court does not attempt to resolve this financial problem and leaves the solution for that financail issue to the discretion of both parties.

4. Each party agrees that they will not threaten or assault the other in any fashion nor destroy any property that belongs to the other party for any reason.

5. Once the week has passes, exclusive use of the marital residence is awarded to the wife and the husband, if the wife requests shall surrender keys to the premises in his possession.

6. Each party agrees they have their own automobile and neither party makes claim to the other's automobile.

7. This Court is reluctant to grant the prayers of each party that the other spouce assaulted them, but directs that as long as this Order is in effect, that neither party shall threaten, harass, annoy or assault the other.

8. The parties mutually agree that the incidents generating these petitions occured after both parties had consumed alcoholic beverages and this Court strongly recommends that in any personal meetings between the spouses and any attempts to amicably resolve personal property possession and other issues arising between the parties that neither party shall have consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of at least 6 hours before the parties attempt any amicable resolution of the issues.

9. Each party is directed nto to threaten, annoy, harass or assault the other in any fashion.

10. This Order shall remain in effect for a period of three months form this date.

11. Costs in the case at 1998-596 are $158.50 and costs in the case of 1998-603 are $92.50, both totaling the sum of $251.00 This Court believes that the parties shall share in the paying of these costs and each party is directed to pay through the Prothonotary's Office for application of costs in these two cases in the amount of $125.50 each, with said sum to be paid within 20 days of this date.

May 28, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 27, 1998 these cross abuse actions are before the Court Wife Kimberly A. Hannold, represented by counsel owns the residence in which the parties were residing until their recent disagreement.
In essence, these cross abuse actions were filed by the parties seeking exclusive possession of the marital residence by each party and a resolution of financial difficulties occuring when the wife removed money form the joint checking account.
Each party is accusing the other of committing an assault and the husband has filed assault charges against the wife and advises the court that he is reconsidering proceeding with this criminal charge as it would not be an appropriate vehicle to resolve the multiple issues arising between the parties during this short marriage. The Court directs as follows between these two cases :
1. Neither party shall abuse, threaten, harass, stalk or in any way use force or threats against each other.
2. Husband is in occupancy of the residence, which for financial reasons was apparently placed and titled in the name of the wife. This Court has no authority to order the legal owner of the property Kimberly A. Hannold, from the home but she acquiesces in the suggestion that her husband be allowed to occupy the premises on a temporary basis for a one week period, commencing at noon on May 27th in order that he may procure other lviing arrangements. In this regard, the wife may remove from the home personal clothing and personal affects in order for her to maintain herself during the one week period.
3. It appears the wife secured a loan to purchase the present residence and an accelerated payment is coming due on the short-term loan and the Court does not attempt to resolve this financial problem and leaves the solution for that financail issue to the discretion of both parties.
4. Each party agrees that they will not threaten or assault the other in any fashion nor destroy any property that belongs to the other party for any reason.
5. once the week has passed, exclusive use of the marital residence is awarded to the wife and the husband, if the wife requests, shall surrender keys to the premises in his possession.

So answers, Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

June 8, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 1, 1998 this matter comes before the Court for hearing on the Plaintiff's Pettiion for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears represented by counsel and the Defednant does not appear. The Defendant is a resident of Potter Co. and was duly served on May 22, 1998. He called the Court Administrator's Office this date to indicate that he did not care if an Order was entered, but that he did not intend to appear. We were prepared to excuse him from appearing if he could tell us when he would be able to take care of the costs in this matter, but apparently, he has not returned the Court Administrator's phone call to allow him to receive permission not to be here this day and to make arrangements for the costs. Accordingly, a bench warrant is issued for his apprehension and detention. We will also enter a PFA order.

With respect to his apprehension and detention, it appears that the Court costs for Crawford County are $101.50 and if he pays taht amount, together with any Potter Co. Costs, the bench warant will be lifted, provided he also provides to the Crawford County Prothonotary's Office th information that they need for the PFA data sheet.

If he is arrested, he will likewise be released from custody once he has paid those costs and has provided the information needed for that sheet to the Prothonotary.

If he is arrested and transported to Crawford County and has not done what is necessary to allow his release, the Court Administrator shall schedule a hearing promptly for us to go over these issues with the Defendant.

With respect to the Protection from Abuse Order, it is ordered and directed as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff named inthe petition.

2. The Defendant shall have no contact whatsoever with the Plaintiff, including telephone calls, and shall not procure anybode else to do so on his behalf.

3. The Defendant shall not be within 100 yards of the Plaintiff's residence.

June 11, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 5, 1998, this abuse matter is before the Court. It appears the parties havelived together for approximately tow and a half years without the benefit of marriage and both parties agree that it is in the best interest of each to end the realtionship and each live separate without interference in any fashion from the other. The Plaintiff owns the property in her own name where the parties reside but there remains an outstanding issue of a jointly owned truck which the Plaintiff admits is the legal property of the Defendant in this record. The Plaintiff mutually agrees with the Defendant that at the conclusion of this hearing they will go to a Notary Public or the AAA office in order that the title to the jointly owed truck can be transferred to the Defendant in his sole name. The Plaintiff advises she has canceled the insurance on the truck and the Defendant advises the Court that he has already made arrangements to reinsure the vehicle forthwith. The Defendant advises he has no intentions of returning for any purpose to the residence of the Plaintiff as he has collected and moved all of his items and the Plaintiff advises she still has some remaining personal items in her automobile belonging to the Defendant and she will surrender them to him this day. Accordingly, this case is continued generally and if no petition by either party is filed alleging violation of this order, this case will automatically terminate at the end of 90 days without further motion of Court with the county directed to pay the costs.

So answers

CHRISTOPHER D. GILLINGHAM, DEPUTY
ROBERT M. STEVENS, SHERIFF

June 8, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 5, 1998 at the time set for abuse hearing on this case the plaintiff and counsel appear, but defendant does not appear. The Court is well aware that the defendant is confined to the Crawford County Jail on pending cases at 1997-1215 and 1997-1214 Susstantial bond is required in the case at 1997-1215 in the amount of $125,000 and the Court is advised that these criminal cases involve the abuse petitioner Lisa Roydes as the victim of the various assault, restraint and threat cases pending against the defendant.
This Court notes that on the abuse case here at issue filed may 19, 1998 interviewing Judge Anthony J. Vardaronoted erroneously that the purpose of the hearing would be an extension of t original Protection From Abuse Order at No 1997-486. But unfortunately the 1997 Abuse Orderhad expired May 26, 1998, and accordingly the newly filed Abuse petition at 1998-652 could not be considered as a petition to extend the terms and conditions of the expired Abuse Order.
The Sheriff's Department is directed to secure the presence of the defendant from the Crawford County Jail and present him before the Court at 9:30 AM July 11, 1998 in CT room No. 1 or such other courtroom as the Ct Admin. assigns.
The defendant in the abuse actions is currently confined, and in the event he would post bond in the assault cases pending against him, an additional condition of the bond is that he not contact the plaitniff in this abuse action, go to her premises for any purpose or procure others to do so on his behalf.
In the remote possibility that the defendant would be released on bond prior to the date set for the abuse hearing on June 11, 1998 it shall be the obligation of the Warden of the Crawford County Jail to notify the Plaintiff in this abuse action at Telephone No. 337-3117 of the defendant's release.

July 2, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW,June 25, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on an Abuse Petition filed by the Defendant's mother. The matter is extensively reviewed with mother and Crawford County Parole Officer and State Parole Officer. It seems the Defendant has not completed anger courses as required by the Court Order and he and his mother apparently cannot live in the same household without friction arising between them.
Accordingly, we believe the mother is entitled to the Protection from Abuse Order and direct as follows:
1. The Defendant shall not threaten harass, annoy, assault or stalk the mother in any fashionor threaten to do so.
2. The Defendant shall not go to the mother's residence at 45619 Burgesson Lane, Titusville for any purpose. In this regard, the mother advises there are two boxes of personal possession of her son's at her residence and she will deliver the same within the next 24 hours to the Defendant's girlfriend.
3. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by an law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated. The defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject him to arrest or contempt of court orders. He is further reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine not less than $100 nor more than $1000. and a jail sentence up to 6 months.
4.It appears that the Defendant and the mother at one timeworked for Warehouser Corp. and in the event the Defendant is re-employed and comes into contact with his motehr at his place of employment, he shall not converse with her in any fashion. The Defendant is currently on State Parole but the Court is advised he will be transferred to another parole agent and he will continue complying with any additional conditions regarding his mother or the mother's residence that the supervising parole officer deems appropriate.
5. If it happent that the mother, Petitioner, and son are in any public place at the same time it shall be the Defendant's Obligation to have no contact or conversations with the mother and it shall be his obligation to immediately remove himself from the public establishment.
6. Copy of this Order sahll be delivered to the Titusville Police Dept, the State Parole Officer at 221 East 18th St, Erie, Pa 18503 and County Control.
7. The Defendant is directed to pay costs in this case in the amount of $97.50 within 45 days from this date.
8. This Order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one year from this date.

August 3, 1999 Order filed. And Now, July 20, 1999 this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed on behalf of the Plaintiff in which he seeks to have the defendant take the seminar for separated parents which she has failed to do.
Our review of the file indicates that since the time that this petition for contempt was filed, the Defendant has still not taken the seminar.
When the order was entered setting hearing in this matter, the record reflects that the Prothonotary sent a copy to the Defendant by regular mail at her last known address which would appear to be 2886 Mercer Pike Cochranton, PA 16314
The plaintiff appears this day in court and indicates that the address for the Defendant was her father's and that she now resides at a different address unknown to him, although he believes she is in the Atlantic area.
He does represent to the Court that when this hearing was scheduled that he talked to the Defendant and told her that she would have to be present and that she acknowledged that she had received the notice of the hearing and apprarently her father also talked to her about attending the hearing.

Sept. 29, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, September 28, 1998, at the time set for hearing on the Petition for Hearing on License Suspension Appeal, counsel forthe Commonwealth appears and the State Trooper appears, but neither the appellant Donald William Moore nor his counsel appear.
Through investigation, it appears that this case was originally set by Order dated August 17, 1998 for hearing August 28, 1998. There is some likelihood that it was the intent that the hearing be set for September 28, 1998. Underthe circumstances, counsel forthe appellant is out of town and there is no evidence form the records in this case that a further hearing was set for this date. Under the peculiar circumstances of this case and with the consent of the Commonwealth's attorney, this case is continued until December 7, 1998, at 2 o'clock p.m.

Dec 23, 1998 Motion For Reconsideration, filed.

December 30, 1998 Order filed. And Now, December 23, 1998 the Defendant has filed a Motion for Reconsideration asking for a new hearing alleging that he was not served with original process in this PFA Action back in August of 1998. There apparently have been soem other proceeding s involving these parties before Judge Vardaro. The undersigned judge has no familiarity with this other than the temporary PFA orderthat we entered on Aug. 4, 1998. Since service is fundamental to the jurisdiction of the court, we believe the matter should be reviewed by Judge Vardaro. Accoridngly, a Rule to show Cause is issued and directed to the Plaintiff to show cause if any she has why said Motion for Reconsideration should be granted. Said Rule is returned for argument and/or hearing on Feb. 4, 1999 at 11 AM in Courtroom No. 2.

By Order of the Court
Gordon R. Miller, PJ

12/30/98 Dist. Walton and Gallagher (by mail)

Feb. 9, 1999 Order Filed. And Now, Feb. 4, 1999 this matter comes before the Court as a rewult of a rule entered by Judge Miller on Dec. 23, 1998 with regard to wether the Defednant was propertly served in this matter.

It appears that in the State of Ohio, the Sheriff of Ashtabula Co served the Defendant's Attorney and apparently the Defendant's attorney never provided the Defendant with notice of the PFA hearing scheduled on Aug. 14, 1998 which was held within the Defendant's absence.

We are convinced that since the Defendant did not receive service, this matter should be entered, and accordingly it is rescheduled for Feb. 12, 1999 at 10Am in Courtroom no. 2 before the udnersigned.

Pending that hearing, the Temporary Order entered on Aug. 4, 1998 by Judge Miller shall remain in full force and effect

By order of the Court
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

2/9/99 Dist. Watson & Deft.

Feb. 22, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Feb. 12, 1999 this matter comes before the Court for a hearing scheduled pursuant to an order of Feb. 4, 1999.

Specifically, by way of history, a temporary Protection From Abuse Order was entered by Judge Miller on Aug 4, 1998 and on August 14, 1998 we entered a final Protection form Abuse Order.

At the time of that hearing on August 14, 1998 the Defendant did not appear and it appeared of record that he had been properly served. He later in these proceedings argued for recondsideration because he maintained that his attorney at the time had been served in Ohio but had no authority to accept service. And after an informal hearing and argument on Feb. 4, 1999 we agreed and scheduled this matter for a new hearing to reconsider our order of augsut 14, 1998.

At the time of that argument and eharing on Feb. 4, 1999 the defendant was present in open court and was advised that the new hearing was scheduled for Feb. 12, 1999 at 10 am in Courtroom Now. 2 of teh Crawford county Courthouse before the undersigned. It is now 10:21 am and he has not appeared.

Accordingly with the Plaintiff and her counsel present reconsideration of the PFA order of Augsut 14, 1998 is denied and that order is reinstated effective August 14, 1998 in its entirety.

The Defendant will not be granted a further hearing unless he provides some very specific verified information such as medical information that he was not available to attend this hearing. Otherwise, the Court will not be inclined to accept any other excuses, since he was verbally notified of the hearing date and indicated his intention to appear and we believe to appear with counsel.

Jan 15, 1999 Order filed. And Now Jan 7, 1999 this matter comes before the Corut for a DeNovo Custody hearing. The plaintiff appears represented by counsel and the defendant does not have an attorney but indicates he wishes to get an attorney and seeks a continuance.

August 3, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, July 31, 1998 this abuse matter is before the Court. The Court receives input from the plaintiff and concludes that the relationship jwith the married Defendant consisted of an ongoing frequent sexual relationship, in which problems at times arose with the Plaintiff largely complainint that the defendant paid financial obligations she owed, which was not to her desire. In spite of complaining about mistreatment, the Plaintiff contends they continued to have almost a daily sexual realtionship with each other. At the conclusion of the testimony on behalf of the Plaintiff, this Court concludes that this is not the type of case that was intended to be covered under the Abuse Act. The plaintiff advises the Court she has no interest or desire in continuing a relatonship with the Defendant and the Court advises the plaintiff that in the event the Defendant comes to her home without permission, assaults, or threatens her in ay fashion or procures others to do so on his behalf that she should resort to the appropriate criminal statutes to remedy the situjation without again filing an abuse petition.
Accordingly, this case is dismissed and the County is directed to pay the costs in this case, without prejudcie to the Plaintiff in the furture to file appropriate criminal charges if the Defendant continues to contact her, threaten her, annoy her or propose that the sexual relationship be reactivated. The Court suggest to the Plaintiff that if these events occur, she consult with the DA's Office for advice in filing the appropriate criminal sanctions against the Defendant.

Oct 14, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Oct 9, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Contempt filed by the plaintiff. Both parties appear, represented by counsel, and after a formal hearing, we find clearly that the defendant is in contempt of the Court's Order of July 23, 1998.

Essentially, that Order established a systematic plan to reacquaint the child with her father, and after a few months, to get to the point where the child could spend weekends eith her father.

Before this began, but after the child custody mediation, the mother went to her family physician, maintainign that the child had indicated tht perhaps the father had molested her. The doctor found no physical evidence of that, but indicated apparently that the mother should go to Crawford County Children and Youth Services.

The mother maintaisn that CYS is investigating this matter, but it is well beyond the time period and a report founded or unfounded should have been provided andthe plaintiff indicates he has never even heard from CYS in this case.

We are of the conclusion that this is a situation where mother has done everything that she could to keep father from seeing the child and apparently continues to try to do so. This Court will not tolerate that.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ordered and directed that the parties follow the July 23, 1998 Order entered as a result or mediation until such time as there is any further Order of Court, but subject to the following modifications, due to the contempt of the defendant:

1. The plaintiff shall have temporary physical custody so long as he is in the presence of his mother with the child on Oct 12, 1998, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.; on Oct 14, 1998, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.; on Oct 18, 1998 from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m., and, Oct 21, 1998, from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m.

March 30, 1999 Hearing on Custody Contept and Order filed:

ORDER: AND NOW, March 23, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on a Motion for Contempt filed on February 5, 1999 filed by the defendant, even though the caption indicates the parties have been reversed in that caption. Additionally, the defendant has filed a new petition this day alleging new incidents and the parties agree that those issues will be heard today also.

The plaintiff and defendant entered into a consent custody agreement on December 7, 1998 in open court and the defendant maintains that the plaintiff has violating that agreement in four manners.

First of all, Paragraph No 15 of that Consent Order indicates that the parent not in custody of the children may have telephone contact between 4 PM and 8 PM during the school year and 8 AM to 10 PM during summer. That language is somewhat vague and in the event the parties intended anything otherwise, we do not think it is appropriate for the party not in custody to have extensive telephone contact. The defendant maintains that there have been times when when the children are not available for telephone contact until about 7:30 p.m. and other times when the telephone contact has been curtailed by actions of the plaintiff. It is this Court's opinion that so long as the defendant when he is the parent out of custody has 30 consecutive minutes to talk to all of the children which would be approximately 10 minutes per child, that is sufficient, particularly if he is calling on a daily basis and we do not find that that is contempt.

Next, the defendant maintains that the farm tractor was ridden by one of the children contrary to Paragraph 14 of the Order and the Plaintiff admits that that t happened, but was not in her viewing when it did occur. Specifically, the child's grandfather, who is in open Court, indicates he did not understand that portion of the Order, and therefore, the violation occurred. We do not find that this is a contempt on the part of the plaintiff.

Next, the defendant maintains that in violation of Paragraph 12 of the agreed upon Consent Order, Nicholas was allowed to go with Steve VanGuiler with out Linda VanGuilder present and that is not a violation of Paragraph 12 since that paragraph only says the children may not visit in the VanGuilder home unless Linda VanGuilder is present.

Finally, the defendant maintains that the Plaintiff violated the terms and conditions of paragraph 9 of the previous Order which was incorporated in this Order, and specifically, that the plaintiff told at least one child that the defendant was not available because he was working at a club where people sell sex, the plaintiff admits that she said this and attempts to put it within an appropriate framework, bu that is clearly in violation of Paragraph 9 of the previous Order which was incorporated, For that, we find that she is in contempt.

In light of the fact that we have indicated to her that is not appropriate and we do not expect that occur in the future, we will impose no sanction for contempt and only advise these parties that we strongly suggest that they try to work within the parameters of the Order that is in place for the sake of these children in a peaceful manner,

May 29, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 27, 1998 the Defendant's Motion for Compulsory Nonsuit labeled a demurrer is granted.

The Court is concerned about several matters. First of all, these parties have been involved in a great deal of litigation in PA and Ohio regarding, inter alia, abuse and cross abuse claims as well as custody and visitation matters. Some finality should be brought to all of this at some point, but we cannot do that in this case. Hoepfully, that will be done in a custody action that is now pending before this court brought by John Krenisky versus Pamela Krenisky at No. 1998-447.

We are also concerned about the allegations that have been made by Amanda with respect to some improper touching by a man or by photographs taken of her by a man or men.

HOWEVER, we do not believe that those acts, even if they were true, or the acts where the mother may have had sexual intercourse with another man that may have been observed by the Protection From Abuse Act. Since that is the narrow focus of this proceeding, we are dismissing this action.

The PA Protection From Abuse Act expressly defines abuse, either physical or sexual. It also makes a reference to sexually abusing minor children by using the definition contained in a related section at 23 PA.C.S.A. 6301 et seq. Even if we accept all that Amanda said, which may effect a custody action, it does not amount to abuse under this Act.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. This action is dismissed.
2. Costs shall be paid by Crawford County
3. A true and correct copy of this Order shall be delivered to County Control and the PA State Police at Meadville.
4. Since there is an Ohio Order giving the mother custody of these children, custody of the children shall be given to the mother immediately. Amanda shall leave the Courthouse with her mohter. matthew shall be delivered to the mother within one hour, or by 5:30 this evening
5. The mother shall not remove the children form Crawford County or Erie County until the custody matter is resolved.

Sept 4, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Sept 3, 1998, this matter of contempt of an abuse order comes before the Court. The factual background is discussed informally between the Court, the parties, and counsel for the Plaintiff wife.

The Defendant admits that he possessed a firearm, and while he claims said firearm was only a pellet gun, he agrees that the display of the same in the presence of his wife was improper and could cause her considerable concern.

This Court finds ther is no question that the Defendnat violated the terms and conditions of the abuse order by his conduct in using the gun and going to the residence of the wife.

Accordingly, this Court imposes a sentence for violation of the abuse order of one (1) to three (3) months in the Crawford County Jail. In view of the cooperation of the Defendant in attempting to resolve the visitation issue with the children and his assurance that no such future conduct will occur, the sentence of imprisonment this date imposed is suspended. The Defendant is warned, however, that further violations of the abuse order could result in the Court reinstituting the sentence and requiring the Defendnat to serve time in the Crawford County Jail.
