Writ &c. [illegible] See No. 81 of this Term.

Aug. 24, 1857 – The Court order and direct that the money made on the sale of the property of Magaw &c. be deposited with James R. Dick Banker at interest, and credited to the Sheriff of the county subject to the future order of this court less the costs which the Sheriff will retain and D. M. Farrelly Esq. is appointed Auditor to make distribution and report, &c. By the Court. Nov. 20, 1857, Auditor's Report filed in open Court. Jan. 23, 1858, exceptions filed on part of A. V. Church & Spering, Good & Co. Feb. term, 1858, on argument list.

April 17, 1858 – Auditor's Report confirmed, &c. as Statement filed, and the remainder together with the exceptions referred back to the same Auditor to make full report. May 29, 1858, Johnson Pearson appointed Commissioner to take testimony, &c. Oct. 25, 1861, Auditor's report filed (See 81 of this term). Exceptions to distribution by Auditor filed in open Court Nov. 18, 1861. Nov. 20, 1861, on motion the Court Confirm the Report for the Auditor's fee and direct the Prothy to draw an order on the Shff. for the same. May 23/62, argued and C. v. a. Feb. 10, 1863 opinion of the Court on exceptions to Report of Auditor, filed in open Court, &c.

Motion to appoint Wm McLaughlin to state [illegible] of the liens & costs under the decree of the Court in the above case made Feb. 20, 1863.

Church, atty for lien creditors.

Feb. 20, 1863, motion granted, and D. M. Farrelly, Esq. excused as Auditor. The petition of A. L. Smith, late Sheriff, was presented, setting forth, that by virtue of sundry executions to August term, 1857, he then as Sheriff levied upon the real estate of W. A. V. Magaw and Sophia C. Magaw, the sum of about $6000 – and brought the same into Court for distribution, pending which distribution the Court ordered the same to be deposited at interest with J. R. Dick, Banker &c. Meanwhile to be held by him subject to ~~the order~~ call, with interest, which was done; but now said Dick refuses to retain the same longer at interest, and returns the same to the petitioner and therefore prays the Court to make further order touching the deposit of said money as may be proper.

Feb. 23, 1863, the Court ~~[illegible]~~ allow Mr. Dick [illegible] to surrender the money referred to, and order that it remain on deposit with him, subject to the further order of the Court, without interest. Per cur.

Feb. 23, 1863 – Report of Wm McLaughlin, Auditor, filed by order of Court in open Court. Appeal of W. A. V. Magaw from the decree of the Court on Auditor's Report distributing money &c. filed ~~in office~~ and entered Feb. 27, 1863. Feb. 28, 1863, J. T. Way & Co. per J. W. Farrelly, atty, appeals from the decree of the Court on Auditor's Report, distributing money, &c. (See inside of Magaw's appeal filed.)

Wm McLaughlin, Auditor,	6.00
Costs of Supreme Court	9.35
Pro. Chase	1.12

The petition of A. L. Smith, late Sheriff, was presented, setting forth, that by virtue of sundry executions to Aug. Term, 1857, he then as Sheriff levied upon the sale of real estate of Wm A. V. Magaw and Sophia C. Magaw the sum of about $6000 — and brought the same into Court for distribution, pending which distribution the Court ordered the same money to be deposited at interest with J. R. Dick, Banker, in Meadville, to be held by him, subject to call, with interest, which was done, but now said Dick refuses to retain the same longer at interest and returns the same to the petitioner; and therefore prays the Court to make further order touching the deposit of said money as may be deemed proper and safe.

Feb. 21, 1863 – The Court allow Mr. Dick to surrender the money referred to, and order that it remain ~~with him~~ on deposit with him, subject to the further order of the Court, without interest. Per cur.

Feb. 21, 1863 – Report of Wm McLaughlin Auditor filed by order of Court in open Court. Appeal by W. A. V. Magaw for himself as agt for his wife Sophia C. Magaw & Jannie Magaw ~~& wife~~ from the Decree of the Court on Auditors report distributing money &c. Filed & Entered, Feb. 27. 1863.
July 28. 1863. J. J. Wray & Co. per J. W. Farrelly atty, Appeals from the Decree of the Court on Auditors report distributing money &c. (See record of Magaws Appeal filed.)

The Court is asked to make an order for the payment of the above costs in the foregoing cases out of the money made on the sale of the property of W. A. V. Magaw & wife, now on deposit with J. R. Dick, Banker, and of G. W. Hecker, Auditors fees, Twenty five dollars.
J. T. Chase, Pro.

March 13th /63 – Leave granted to the Prothy. to lift and receipt for the amount of money necessary to pay the within bills of costs – for distribution to the proper parties. Per cur. (See motion & order filed.)
