CERTIFICATE OF READINESS

AND NOW, October 13, 1992, Plaintiff, by her attorney David W. Pickens, Esquire, states as follows:

1. It appears that the Defendant has never been notified of his appointment of counsel on his behalf.

2. Domestic Relations Section is unable to locate the Defendant at the present time or to provide his attorney with the location of the Defendant.

3. Therefore it appears the Defendant has not had an opportunity to respond to discovery in this matter.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff consents to the striking of the certificate of readiness previously filed by the Plaintiff.

RE: STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON PATERNITY CASES

OPINION AND ORDER

P. Richard Thomas, P. J.

These three cases are child support cases involving the same issue of law. For the purposes of resolving the legal question, the factual situations are identical: in all three cases the child was born when Pennsylvania had a six year statute of limitations for child support for children born out of wedlock, 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 6704(e).[1] The six year statute of limitations ran, thus barring the support action under the old statute. On January 28, 1986, the legislature changed the six year statute of limitations to an 18 year statute of limitations, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4343(b). In the McCormick case, the mother initiated a complaint dated January 27, 1986, and stamped "filed" on January 28, 1986. In Hart and Gabel, the complaints were dated and filed on August 6, 1986, and November 3, 1986, respectively.

The issue in these cases is what statute of limitations applies?

[1] In Hart, the child was born on June 19, 1969. In McCormick, the child was born February 7, 1975. In Gabel, the child was born on December 29, 1975.

Two factually similar Pennsylvania Superior Court cases have considered this issue and have reached the same decision, but with different rationales. The first case is the panel decision of Clark v. Jeter, ____ Pa. Super. ___, 518 A.2d 276 (1986), and the second is the en banc decision of Paulussen v. Herion, ____ Pa. Super. ____, 519 A.2d 473 (1986). The disposition of the instant cases would depend on whether this court followed Paulussen's or Clark's rationale.

However, we see no purpose in immediately deciding these cases as both Paulussen and Clark are before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court on allocatur petitions.[2] There is no need to choose between the two cases until there is further guidance from the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. Therefore, we will take these cases under advisement until the Supreme Court reaches allocatur decisions on either Paulussen or Clark.

2 Paulussen, 87 E. D. Allocatur Docket 1987 and Clark, 43 W. D. Allocatur Docket 1987.

O R D E R

AND NOW, this 1 day of ~~April~~ MAY, 1987, for the above mentioned reasons, we stay our disposition of these three cases until we receive petitions for reconsideration of this Order by any of the parties to these cases.

AND NOW, September 28, 1987, it appears in this paternity case blood tests havebeen taken but the results are as yet unknown. Further, counsel point out to the Court this case should be removed from the nonjury trial list because there is a demand for jury trial.

Accordingly, the case is moved to the jury list for the month of October 1987.

Re: Cases on civil trial lists

Dear Ruth:

Y

The Prothonotary's Office has the burden of preparing the civil trial lists and keeping records of cases listed. The paternity cases are listed on the civil trial lists, but the records are in your office.

Frequently cases are reported settled prior to trial. Sometimes a case is reported settled, however the settlement falls through without our knowing the final disposition and sometimes the settlements do work out. It is necessary that the Prothonotary's Office receive official notification of case dispositions so that their records are accurate.

We are therefore requesting that your office give written notification to the Prothonotary of the final disposition of cases placed on the civil trial lists so that proper records can be maintained. It would also assist our office if we received copies of the notications.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Yours very truly,

P. RICHARD THOMAS

CONFERENCE ORDER

Anthony J. Vardaro, J. May 25, 1995

AND NOW, May 25, 1995, the Court having met informally with counsel for all parties and discussed various matters to bring this litigation to trial within a reasonable period of time, this order is entered to set forth that schedule.

In doing so, we order and direct that it will not be necessary for any party to comply with Crawford County Local Rule L302 with regard to completion of discovery and filing a certificate of readiness. It will, however, be necessary for the parties to comply with the other applicable Local Rules of

as possible within the time frame that we have indicated and they may not be scheduled outside that time frame without further order of court.

Each party shall then, on or before October 15, 1995, serve any other discovery in the nature of interrogatories, requests for production, requests for admission and notices of further deposition upon any other party as a result of matters that have arisen because of the information received during the taking of depositions.

If further depositions are necessary, the parties shall cooperate in scheduling the same promptly and, unless there is further order of court, all discovery of any nature shall then be completed by December 31, 1995.

Additionally, the Plaintiff shall have all expert reports available and shall supply the same to the Defendants' counsel no later than December 31, 1995. Defendants shall then have all expert reports available and supply those to Plaintiff's counsel and other defense counsel no later than March 1, 1996.

MARY- since you do initial trial list, PLEASE NOTE

The Court Administrator is directed to list this matter for trial during the April 1996 civil term of court and, as we have indicated, no certificate of readiness will be needed to do so.

We note in entering this order that there is currently a more recent related litigation involving a claim by the Meadville Medical Center against Joyce Butterfield individually at A.D. No. 1995-265. We have not dealt with that case in this conference but, since it does not appear to involve complicated issues, it is our hope that it will proceed through the system and be ready for trial without our intervention. It may be appropriate to consolidate that case with the current case and we will entertain such a motion if it arises during the course of the litigation.

v.	:
CARL G. McCONNELL	:

ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL

AND NOW, September 21, 1998, it has been brought to the attention of the Court that the above case should have been included on the October 1998 Civil Trial List pursuant to our order of March 6, 1998 extending discovery to August 31, 1998, and setting this case for trial in October with no further extensions or continuances. Apparently, the Prothonotary overlooked this order, and did not include this case on the October trial list she prepared.

In the meantime, however, and as we anticipated in our order of August 31, 1998, the remaining defendant in this case on or about September 11, 1998 filed and served a Motion for Summary Judgment. Given that the plaintiffs have 30 days to respond to that motion pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1035.3, and that said Motion for Summary Judgment therefore cannot be argued and considered prior to the October 1998 Civil Trial term, we now remove this case from the October 1998 Civil Trial List, and direct the Prothonotary to list this matter for trial during the February 1999 Civil Trial Term. This order shall not operate to further extend the August 31, 1998 discovery deadline in this case. Argument on the defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment shall be scheduled before the undersigned as part of argument court on October 26, 1998, at a time to be set by the Court Administrator. The parties shall file briefs according to the local rules.

BY THE COURT,

/s/ AJV
Anthony J. Vardaro, Judge

Copies sent 9/21/1998 by Court Administrator's office:
Dominick D. Salvatori, William J. Gregg & Keith A. Button, Esqs., for Plaintiffs
J. Lawson Johnston, Esq., for Conrail
Emil M. Spadafore, Esq., for Additional Defendant

 Separate actions originally filed at A.D. 1996-22 and A.D. 1995-1217 were consolidated at the latter number. For the sake of clarity, we have amended the caption to reflect that the persons and entities named above are the only remaining parties to the consolidated action.

ROBERTA LOPEZ,

Plaintiff

v DR 2000 - 256

STEVEN W. STARCHER,

Defendant

MOTION TO WITHDRAW ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PATERNITY
AND TO RESCHEDULE PATERNITY TRIAL

1. Plaintiff is Roberta Lopez, a citizen of Pennsylvania, residing at 139 West Adams Street, Cochranton, Crawford County, Pennsylvania 16314.

2. Defendant is Steven W. Starcher, a citizen of Pennsylvania, residing at 11346 West Brookdale, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania 16335.

3. Plaintiff filed a complaint against the defendant for the support of Cierra L. O'Neal, born April 3, 2000.

4. Genetic testing was conducted on August 15, 2000.

5. The plaintiff requested a rule to show cause and defendant filed an answer challenging the reliability of the genetic test.

6. A trial on the issue of paternity was scheduled.

7. The defendant executed an acknowledgment of paternity and waiver of trial during June of 2001.

8. The trial was canceled and a support conference was scheduled for August 22, 2001.

9. The defendant avers that he did not intend to waive his rights to genetic tests on the issue of paternity, a trial on the issue of paternity and an attorney to represent him on the issue of paternity.

10. The defendant avers that he did not understand the rights that he was waiving and specifically did not understand that he could not raise the issue of paternity in the future.

11. The defendant desires a trial determining the issue of paternity for several reasons not limited to the reliability of the genetic test and the defendant's averment of his inability to procreate.

12. Through this motion the defendant is seeking a hearing to determine whether he may withdraw the acknowledgment of paternity and waiver of trial.

13. Should the court grant the withdrawal of the acknowledgment of paternity and waiver of trial, the defendant shall request that the paternity trial be rescheduled.

14. The defendant avers that he is not estopped from seeking the relief requested as a final order of support has not been issued.

Wherefore, the defendant respectfully requests the court to set a hearing on the issue of whether the defendant may withdraw his acknowledgment of paternity and waiver of trial; thereafter the defendant respectfully requests the court to reschedule the trial on the issue of paternity.

Respectfully submitted,

Christopher D. Ferry, Esquire

In Re: Estate of :

MARY R. HOVIS, Deceased : O. C. 2001 - 29

MEMORANDUM ORDER

Anthony J. Vardaro, J. July 30, 2001

Mary R. Hovis died on January 17, 2001. On January 22, 2001, a will dated February 22, 2001, proported to have been made by the decedent, was admitted to probate by the Register of Wills of Crawford County, Pennsylvania and the executrix named therein, Patricia H. Sunderlin, was granted letters testamentary.

The contestants filed an appeal from the decree of the register and bond was set at $1,000 which was posted.

The contestants have raised two issues for consideration, first that the decedent lacked testamentary capacity and, second that undue influence was exerted over her by Patricia H. Sunderlin when the decedent executed the will of February 22, 2000.

At the request of the parties, we have conducted a preliminary Pretrial Conference since this matter was scheduled before the undersigned for an evidentiary hearing on August 20, 2001.

After the Pretrial Conference, the parties agree that rather than to hold that initial hearing for the court to determine whether the contestants have satisfied their burden that there is a substantial dispute and, therefore, interrogatories should be submitted to a jury to answer to guide the court in its decision in this matter, it would be better to hold the entire hearing in front of the jury with the proponent to have the right to argue at the end of the contestants' presentation that a substantial dispute has not been proven and, therefore, no interrogatories should be submitted to the jury.

The parties agree that there will be shifting burdens of proof in this case with regard to the two counts and, it appears that with regard at least to the undue influence count, the initial burden would be by clear and convincing evidence upon the contestants, and if that is met the burden would shift to the proponent by clear and convincing evidence.

We believe that those legal issues should better be decided finally by the trial judge at a final Pretrial Conference scheduled in this matter. At that point, at least, the parties will have submitted Pretrial Narratives and can address legal issues that they deem to be of concern in this matter.

ACCORDINGLY, the hearing of August 20, 2001, is cancelled, and the Court Administrator is directed to list this matter on the October, 2001 Civil Trial List. This case is expected to take two (2) days.

The parties shall file Pretrial Narratives consistent with the Crawford County Local Civil Rules, and at the time of the call of the October, 2001, Trial List, a final Pretrial Conference will be scheduled.

BY THE COURT,

J.

JILL MICHALSKI, :
Defendant :

Paul G. Mayer, Jr., Esquire, for Defendant

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

We now decide the plaintiff's motion for post trial relief. The issue is: is the plaintiff entitled to a new trial where the jury determined that the defendant was negligent in the manner in which she operated her motor vehicle but concluded that the defendant's negligence was not a substantial factor in causing the plaintiff's damages where there was uncontroverted evidence that the plaintiff suffered injuries?

The motorcycle operated by the plaintiff and the motor vehicle operated by the defendant were traveling on a two way street in the City of Meadville in opposite directions. The vehicles were approaching each other as the defendant made a left hand turn into a church parking lot. When she brought her vehicle to a stop in the parking lot she got out of her vehicle to find the plaintiff laying in the street near where defendant had made her left turn with his motorcycle on its side.

The plaintiff maintains that the defendant made a left turn in front of him causing him to strike the right rear of the defendant's vehicle. The defendant claims that when she made her left turn plaintiff and his motorcycle were not in sight.

At the close of a jury trial the jury was presented with a verdict slip that included the interrogatories set forth in Pa.S.C.J.I. 3.03A. The jury answered the first interrogatory in the affirmative indicating that the defendant was negligent in the manner in which she operated her motor vehicle.

Then the jury answered "no" to the second question as to whether or not the defendant's negligence was a substantial factor in causing the plaintiff's harm.

The plaintiff maintains that the verdict must be set aside and he must be given a new trial. We agree.

A new trial should be granted only where the verdict is so contrary to the evidence as to shock one's sense of justice. A new trial should never be granted where the evidence is conflicting and the jury might have found for either party, nor where the trial judge would have reached a different conclusion on the same facts. Neison v. Hines, 539 Pa. 516, 653 A.2d 634, 636 (1995). S*ummers v. Giant Foods,* 743 A.2d 498, 506 (1999).

In fact it may be the court's duty to grant a new trial when it believes a verdict was against the weight of evidence and resulted in a miscarriage of justice. Craft v. Heatherly, 700 A.2d 520, 521 (Pa. Super 1997).

The jury is entitled to reject any and all evidence up until the point at which the verdict is so disproportionate to the uncontested evidence as to defy common sense and logic. Neison v. Hines, supra, 653 A.2d at 637.

The defendant claims that negligence was disputed and that the jury could have concluded that the plaintiff was contributorily negligent. Unfortunately for the defendant the case never got to that point. The jury never went on to consider whether or not the plaintiff was contributorily negligent. Our decision cannot be based upon contributory negligence or any disputed facts with respect to the negligence of either party. Whether or not the plaintiff was contributorily negligent and whether or not the defendant's negligence was a substantial factor in bringing about the harm to the plaintiff are separate and distinct issues. Craft v. Heatherly, supra., 700 A.2d at 524.

The medical evidence presented by both parties indicates that the plaintiff suffered injuries as a result of this accident.

The plaintiff's medical expert, Mona D. Justo, M.D., gave an opinion within a reasonable degree of medical certainty that the plaintiff sustained, as the direct and proximate result of the accident, a disc herniation at L5-S1 (Justo T. p. 52), together with an acute lumbar strain which became chronic (Justo T. pp. 50 –51), and a worsening of his pre-existing condition known as spondylolisthesis (Justo T. p. 53).

The defendant's medical expert, Mark Stabile, D.O., testified that he believed the accident may have contributed to the sprain and strain that he found when he performed an independent medical examination on the plaintiff (Stabile T. p. 17). Dr. Stabile gave the plaintiff the following diagnosis: chronic lumbar sprain, spondylolysis at L4-L5 and spondylolisthesis on L5 at S1. (Stabile T. p. 20).

Dr. Stabile testified that these injuries would be painful (Stabile T. p. 21). He then testified that the plaintiff's condition was the result of the motorcycle accident (Stabile T. p. 25 – 26).

There are no disputed facts with respect to injury or causation. There may be a dispute as to the extent of the injuries that were caused by this accident but, once again, the jury never got to that point.

While it is possible that the jury could have disregarded all of the medical evidence and come to the conclusion that the plaintiff's injuries, whatever they may be, were not caused by this accident, the cases that govern our decision in this matter must drive us to a different conclusion. In all of the recent cases where jurors have found that a defendant was negligent but that the defendant's negligence was not a substantial factor in causing the plaintiff's injuries and where new trials were successfully awarded, the fact of injury or damage was never in dispute.

It is only where there is a dispute as to injuries or damages that a new trial cannot be granted where interrogatory 1 is answered "yes" and interrogatory 2 is answered "no."

The following cases bear this out. In the following cases once the jury concluded that the defendant was negligent and where there was no dispute that some injury resulted, a new trial was ordered:

1. Neison v. Hines, supra.
2. Craft v. Heatherly, supra.
3. Rozanc v. Urbany, 444 Pa. Super 645, 664 A.2d 619 (1995).
4. Hixson v. Barlow, 723 A.2d 716 (Pa. Super 1999).
5. Mano v. Madden, 738 A.2d 493 (Pa. Super 1999).
6. Lewis v. Evans, 456 Pa. Super 285, 690 A.2d 294 (1997).

Only in cases where there is a dispute that the plaintiff suffered injuries should a new trial not be granted. See for instance Livelsberger v. Kreider, 743 A.2d 494 (Pa. Super 1999); Armbruster v. Horowitz, 744 A.2d 285 (Pa. Super 1999); Hilbert v. Katz, 309 Pa. Super 466, 455 A.2d 704 (1983).

We are not second guessing this jury. We are not making a decision based upon the contributory negligence of the plaintiff, or lack thereof.

Quite simply, the applicable authority in Pennsylvania leads us to the conclusion that the jury's decision to disbelieve uncontroverted evidence with respect to injury defies common sense and is indeed, shocking. The jury's negative answer to interrogatory number 2 was completely contrary to the evidence provided at trial and we must order a new trial.

The new trial is not limited solely to damages as the plaintiff suggests. The issue of damages is intertwined with the issue of liability. More fundamentally, however, the jury never answered interrogatories 3 and 4 which center around the plaintiff's contributory negligence. For the jury to determine whether or not the plaintiff was contributorily negligent the trial must begin anew. Hixson v. Barlow, supra, 723 A.2d at 718.

ORDER

AND NOW, May 12, 2000 the plaintiff's motion for new trial is granted. The Court Administrator shall place this case on the October, 2000 civil trial list.
